Experience, skills, interests, training or foreign language ability that might bear on your contribution to the program: _____

Have you ever traveled outside the United States and, if so, when and where?

The China Workshop is not a trip nor is it a vacation. While free time and nonacademic opportunities are an important pare of the experience, it is travelling academic class that requires participants to be respectful of each other and our host country, cooperative and flexible. Do you think you can do well in this kind of activity?

Roommate Preferences: I would like to room with _____ (both must indicate). Please note that we will make every effort to accommodate your roommate requests, but we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so. This depends in part on the composition of the group.

Per UW-System requirements, all study abroad participants will be covered by a CISI sickness and accident insurance policy. You may also wish to obtain other travel insurance in case you must cancel due to a medical emergency or any other reason.

To participate in this program, you will need to submit the following:

- This application form
- Two completed recommendation forms
- A $300 non-refundable deposit will be required to hold your space in this program and will be due once you are notified of your acceptance.
- Other forms that will be sent to you after we receive your application.

The information provided above is accurate to the best of my knowledge. I understand that it is my responsibility to ensure that the Office of International Programs and my faculty program leader have up-to-date contact information. I certify that I am not on any kind of academic or disciplinary suspension or probation.

By signing this application, I authorize the UW-Superior Office of International Programs to perform a conduct check of my student records.
