Your Digital Story

Lights! Camera! Action!

Application: Fill sign and send online.

Bring your ideas to the CETL Seminar room - Swenson 2074 at 12:00 Noon or 4:30 p.m. on Tuesday, September 24th and leave with a better understanding of how to complete your Digital Video.

You could earn $300.00

for selected project, if eligible.

Don't be shy! Create a 3 to 5 minute Digital Video in the comfort of your own space.

CETL invites you to participate in our Digital Video Program to enhance student learning and facilitate greater student involvement.

► Who: Any educator who has a digital story idea that would further student learning.

► Why: Participate in this program to complete a Digital Video that you can use to enhance student learning and to motivate and encourage student participation in key areas such as:

- University Liberal Education Learning Goals (LELG's), such as communication, critical thinking, diversity/global citizenry, creative expression or interdisciplinary connection.
- Common misconceptions that students have about your field and offering the accurate view.
- HIPS Practices — (First Year Experience, First Year Seminar, Academic Service-Learning, Writing across the Curriculum , Undergraduate Research Scholarship & Creative Activities, Global Awareness, Senior Year Experience)

► When: Propose your Digital Video Project via application before September 23, 2013. Participants must submit a completed video and release form to CETL by December 31st, 2013.

► You Get: If your project is selected for the program, you receive $300.00 upon completion of the Digital Video. You will also receive training and support in developing a script, recording narration, assembling content, editing, and more, as you develop your Digital Video Story creation. From inception to the final wrap-up and rendering, CETL will help you create your vision.
