

UW-Superior Educational Administration Department Thesis Proposal Contents

Each UW-Superior Educational Administration Candidate for the Ed.S. post-graduate degree must have a thesis proposal approved by one's thesis committee BEFORE starting the actual thesis. The proposal must strictly adhere to APA Publication Guidelines and contain the following content in the exact sequence as identified below. Should one have any additional questions contact the major graduate faculty advisor.

Title Page	(separate page)
Blank Page	(new page)
Abstract	(new page) (3 rd person & future tense)
Introduction	(new page) (3 rd person & present tense)
Introduction
Problem Statement
Rationale for Study
Independent Variable(s)
Dependent Variable(s)
Hypothesis(es)
Limitations of Study
Delimitations of Study
Referenced Definition of Terms
Summary
Review of Literature	(new page) (3 rd person & past tense)
Introduction
Sub-headed sections according to variables
* Research studies exclusively
Summary
Method	(new page) (3 rd person & future tense)
Introduction
Subjects
Sampling Procedure
Research Setting
Research Design
Instrumentation
Validity of Instrumentation

Reliability of Instrumentation
Validity of Study
Reliability of Study
Statistical Treatment of Data
Rationale for Statistical Treatment of Data
Summary

Anticipated Results (new page) (3rd person & future tense)

Introduction
Sample Data Presentation Using SPSS
Predictive Deductive Conclusions
Summary

Discussion (new page) (3rd person & present tense)

Introduction
Analysis of Sample Data Construct Using SPSS
Implication of the Study for Effective Educational Administration
Summary

References (new page)

*NOT OLDER THAN 7 YEARS UNLESS A TRULY CLASSICAL WORK.

Figures (new page)

Research Design of Study
* Others As Needed

Tables (new page)

Sample SPSS Data Set(s)
* Others As Needed

Appendices (new page)

* As Needed

Blank Page (new page)