Conference Location and Accommodations

All conference activities will be held at the Best Western Roundhouse Suites, 891 Massachusetts Ave., Boston, MA, USA. This unusual round building was built in the 1800's. It was used for many different venues before it was transformed into a top-notch all-suite hotel. The Best Western provides guests with a comfortable setting for business and leisure. Some of the amenities and services include: free shuttle service; fitness center, 24 hour business center; fax & photocopy service and complimentary parking for guests. Also complimentary wireless/high-speed Internet access and a deluxe continental breakfast.

Hotel reservations can be made through the Best Western directly at 888-468-3562. You must specify that you are attending the reminiscence conference in order to receive special rates. Guest rates are $149/night + tax and are valid 3 days prior and 3 days following the conference. Reservations must be received on or before Monday, October 17, 2011. To view hotel go to: www.bestwesternboston.com.

Our conference hotel rates have also been extended throughout the GSA (Gerontological Society Association) annual meeting. That meeting location is about one mile away and within the range of our hotel complimentary shuttle service.

Announcing the 2011 International Institute for Reminiscence and Life Review Award Winners:

Toyoko Nomura, The Robert Butler and Myrna Lewis Exemplar Research Award

Pam Schweitzer, The James and Betty Birren Exemplar Practice Award

Dovrat Harel, The Florence Gray-Soltys Graduate Student Award

On Saturday, November 19th, Pam Pacelli with Verissima Productions has offered to meet up with anyone wishing to take the walking tour below:

Heart of the Freedom Trail: Walk American history on the downtown portion of the Freedom Trail and see historic sites from the Puritan Settlement through the American Revolution. Stops include Faneuil Hall, Quincy Market, the Old State House, King's Chapel, Old South Meeting House, as well as the site of the first public school in America. Hear tales of the Boston Tea Party, Ben Franklin, Paul Revere and the Road to Revolution.

Time: 10 - 11:30 am

Place: Meet in front of the Sam Adams statue at Faneuil Hall

Price: $12

Afterward, you can have lunch at Boston's famed Union Oyster House, Legal Sea Food or the charming Italian Restaurants of the North End.

Travel arrangements will need to be made as it is quite a distance from the hotel. Check the sign-in sheet at the conference table.

Conference Mission

The conference mission is to bring together the wide range of individuals who are utilizing or would like to utilize reminiscence and life review in their work in order to further define and expand the field in the areas of research, theory, practice, education and everyday use across the lifespan. Those attending may include physicians, social workers, nurses, psychologists, counselors, social service employees, educators, home care providers, activity professionals, oral historians, life narrative scholars, journalists, performing arts professionals, music and art therapists, clergy, chaplains, administrators, students, volunteers and other interested parties.
