

John A Kunz

July 18, 1955 - July 23, 2011

Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep

*“Now I lay me down to sleep,
I pray the Lord my soul to keep,
And, if I die before I wake,
I pray the Lord my soul to take.
In Jesus Name, Amen,”*

Variation of 18th Century English children’s prayer

Greetings!

I am greatly honored that you have taken the time today to help celebrate my life! Doing so certainly means that we have shared important memories together. I hope your recollection of our relationship is a good one. I'm also sorry for times I may have disappointed you or upset you and ask your forgiveness for that.

I want to thank you for supporting and caring for my family and loved ones at this important transition in our lives. I am fully at peace with my moving forward and ask all of you to help each other find ways to share and cherish that peace.

Good bye for now my friend - until I see you again!

Love,

John

John Allan Kunz, (55), died peacefully on July 23, 2011, from recurrent colon cancer.

He was born on July 18, 1955, to Betty Lou Lillian Nichols Kunz and John “Jack” Albert Kunz. He led a full and colorful life including extensive travel within the United States and around the world. His passions included gourmet food and drink, entertaining, antiques, gardening and sailing.

John excelled at his career as a psychotherapist, educator, author and film writer and producer. He authored numerous articles, book chapters, a children’s book, over a dozen professional training videos and co-authored the book Transformational Reminiscence: Life Story Work.

He is survived by his parents Jack and Betty Kunz, Brother Everett (Jeannie) Christopherson, nephew Jason (Shauna) Christopherson, niece, Kari (Jay) Braun and many friends from around the world.

A celebratory wake will be held at the V&M Bar, at the intersection of Highways V&M, north of Rice Lake, WI , Wednesday, August 3, 2011, from 3:00 - 6:00 pm.

No flowers please. Memorials may be made to the John Allan Kunz Fund for Reminiscence and Life Review at the Duluth Superior Area Community Foundation at Zeitgeist Arts Building, 222 East Superior St., Suite 302, Duluth, MN 55802. (Phone: 218.726.0232)