

New Dates

Invitation to join UW-Superior's CETL Book Club for Spring 2012

You are cordially invited to the CETL Book Club for Spring 2012
focusing on student development and featuring the book

Student Development in the First College Year: A Primer for College Educators

by Tracy L. Skipper

Assistant Director for Publications at the National Resource Center

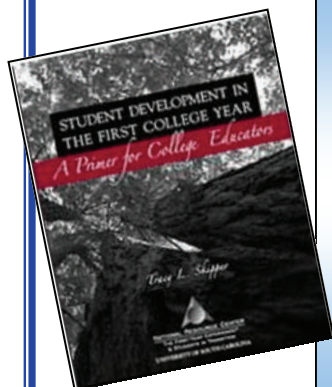

(2005, National Resource Center for The First-Year Experience and Students in Transition, University of South Carolina)

Join Dr. Terry McGlasson, Assistant Professor - Guidance & Counseling, and Ms. Ann Miller, Assistant Dean of Students - Leadership Development, through a broad stroke exploration of student development theory.

This book group is intended for faculty and staff who are new to the concept of Student Development as a scholarly body of work. The sessions will create a space for colleagues to explore new ideas, theories, and models giving educators insight into holistic student development.
Terry and Ann will use the book as the guide for this exploration. The group has limited space so sign up today!

The CETL book club will meet on the following four Tuesdays:

February 28 and March 6, 13 & 27

starting at 5:00 p.m. in the Yellowjacket Union – Suite 230

Reserve your place in the book club now

by contacting Emily Levings at CETL (cetl@uwsuper.edu).

Registration closes Tuesday, February 21, 2012 or when all 12 places are filled.

New Dates

Each member of the book club will receive a complimentary paperback of the book when signing up. Book club membership is limited to 12, so reserve your place as soon as possible.

Your commitment to attending all 4 sessions is appreciated. Feel free to bring food and beverage to the meetings.

Markwood
CETL
Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning