APPENDIX D

Chapter 8: Unclassified Code of Ethics

UWS 8.01 Declaration of policy

In view of the special relationship of the University of Wisconsin system to the state and to affirm as public policy within the system certain common standards to prevent conflicts of interest, the board hereby adopts the following code of ethics for unclassified staff pursuant to ss. 19.45 (11) (b) and 36.23, Stats.

(1) Every member of the unclassified staff at the time of appointment makes a personal commitment to professional honesty and integrity, to seek knowledge and to share that knowledge freely with others. Such a commitment is essential for the university to perform its proper function in our society and to ensure continued confidence of the people of this state in the University of Wisconsin System and its personnel. It is a violation of this commitment for unclassified staff members to seek financial gain for themselves, their immediate families or organizations with which they are associated through activities that conflict with the interests of the University of Wisconsin system.

(2) The board of regents, as a matter of policy, recognizes that:

- (a) Members of the unclassified staff have personal and economic interests in the decisions and policies of national, state and local government.
- (b) Members of the unclassified staff retain their rights as citizens to interests of a personal or an economic nature.
- (c) The code of ethics must distinguish between those minor and inconsequential conflicts that are unavoidable in a free society and those conflicts that are substantial and material.

(3) In adopting the standards of conduct set forth in this chapter, it is the board's purpose to prohibit only those activities that will result in a conflict between the personal interests of an unclassified staff member and that staff members public responsibilities to the University of Wisconsin System. It is not the board's purpose to prohibit an unclassified staff member from freely pursuing those teaching, research, professional and public service activities which will not result in such a conflict, nor to prohibit a staff member from accepting any compensation, fees, honoraria or reimbursement of expenses which may be offered in connection therewith.

Note: This subsection, which is new, should be read in conjunction with new UWS 8.025 concerning outside activities. The approach reflects the view that the major inquiry in regard to the acceptability of outside activities is whether they may or do present conflicts with or detract from performance of university duties and responsibilities.

UWS 8.025 Outside activities and interests; reports.

(1) Outside activities. Members of the unclassified staff are free to engage in outside activities, whether or not such activities are remunerative or related to staff members' fields of academic interest or specialization. However, no member of the unclassified staff may engage in an outside activity if it conflicts with his or her public responsibilities to the university of Wisconsin system or the institution at which the unclassified staff member is employed.

UW-Sup 8.01 Declaration of Policy (UW-Sup 14 in previous edition)

8.01 It is the policy of the University of Wisconsin-Superior to encourage the involvement of academic staff members in outside activities in research, public service, outreach and other activities appropriate to the mission of the University, provided such outside activity does not interfere with the proper and effective discharge of the academic staff member's University responsibilities.

(2) Reportable outside activities.

- (a) The following outside activities must be reported to a staff member's dean, director or other appropriate administrator:
  1. Associations with organizations, as defined in s. UWS 8.02 (3) and (12), related to staff members' fields of academic interest or specialization;
  2. Private remunerative relationships between staff members and nongovernmental sponsors of university research for which the staff member is a principal investigator; and

3. Remunerative outside activities in a staff member's field of academic interest or specialization, including but not limited to consulting, and whether the staff member earns for such activities $5,000 or more in a year from a single source.
  - (b) Each unclassified staff member engaging in outside activities reportable under this section shall annually, on or before April 30, file a report of outside activities with his or her dean, director or other appropriate administrator.
  - (c) If during the year, significant changes in a staff member's reportable outside activities occur, the staff member shall immediately inform, in writing, his or her dean, director or other appropriate administrator. This information shall be placed on file with the staff member's annual statement of outside interests.

(3) Institutional policies. The unclassified staff members of each institution, with the approval of the chancellor, shall develop policies and procedures which shall, at a minimum, provide:

- (a) Standards concerning the use of university facilities and personnel in connection with outside activities;
- (b) Standards concerning absence from regular duties for the purpose of engaging in outside activities;
- (c) Guidelines identifying types or categories of outside activities which may result in a material conflict of interest; and
- (d) For such reports of anticipated outside activities as are necessary to insure compliance with s. UWS 8.04.

(4) Reports public. Information required to be reported under this section shall, unless otherwise privileged by law, be a matter of public record.

History: Cr. Register, January, 1986, No. 361, eff. 2-1-86.

UW-Sup 8.02 Reporting. An academic staff member shall report her/his involvement in outside activities as defined in UWS 8.03, except those for which leave without pay is to be granted, and/or for which no fee or only token payment is to be received. Reportable outside activities shall be submitted to the appropriate supervisor or administrator designated by the Chancellor, and shall be submitted at least fourteen calendar days in advance of the proposed activity. Such reports shall include a brief description of the nature of the outside activity, the extent of the academic staff member's involvement, the compensation to be received, if any, and from what source, and whether or not University facilities or the services of other University personnel are to be required. Ordinarily, an academic staff member may not receive compensation for an overload activity from any funds administered within the University System, regardless of source, except through procedures and within standards provided in University of Wisconsin System policies and guidelines. Exceptions to the requirements of this section are subject to specific advance approval of the Chancellor.

It shall be the responsibility of the supervisor or administrator to whom a report of the proposed outside activity has been submitted by an academic staff member to review promptly the same; to determine whether or not the proposed outside activity is proper or excessive or improper; and to notify the academic staff member in writing of the decision. Where the supervisor or administrator determines that the proposed activity is excessive or improper he/she shall provide the academic staff member concerned with the reason or reasons for disapproval.

In cases where the supervisor or administrator has determined that the activity is excessive or improper, the academic staff member concerned shall have the right to request a review of the decision by the Vice Chancellor if he/she has not been involved in the original decision; in cases where the Vice Chancellor has been involved in the decision, the academic staff member may appeal to the Chancellor. The purpose of the review by the Vice Chancellor is to attempt to resolve informally the differences between the academic staff member and the supervisor or administrator. Should such attempts at conciliation fail, then the academic staff member shall have the right to appeal under provisions of Chapter UW-Sup 13.

UWS 8.03 Standards of conduct.

(1) Personal Gain From University Position.

- (a) No member of the unclassified staff may, in a manner contrary to the interests of the university of Wisconsin system, use or attempt to use his or her public position or state property, including property leased by the state, to gain or attempt to gain anything of substantial value for the private benefit of the staff member, his or her immediate family or any organization with which the staff member is associated.

(2) Within 15 days after receipt of the statement, the dean, director or other appropriate administrator shall advise the staff member in writing that:
