◇ For American Students ◇

U.S. American students interested in learning about other cultures and introducing international students to life in the United States can volunteer to be a GLOBAL BUDS Partner. U.S. American GLOBAL BUDS Partners will attend an intercultural leadership training workshop and gain valuable intercultural and diversity leadership skills. U.S. American Global Buds Partners will participate and help coordinate fun activities throughout the semester.

- Make friends with students from around the world
- Volunteer and make a difference
- Introduce new international students to your culture
- Learn about other countries and their people
- Learn about the different opportunities to study abroad

GLOBAL BUDS (Building Unity among Diverse Students) is an intercultural exchange program offered through the UW - Superior Office of International Programs to connect international students with U.S. American students. It creates an opportunity to share cultures in order to build a more united world while making lifelong friends.

◇ For International Students ◇

Learn about other cultures and more of your own by joining GLOBAL BUDS! Aside from fun activities, you will also get a chance to teach your partner about your country, your culture, and your values. U.S. American students are just as interested in learning about other cultures as you are in learning theirs!

You will get a personal guide who can help with questions about UW- Superior, the community, and anything you would want to know about the U.S.A. and the U.S. Americans.

- Explore Superior with your U.S. GLOBAL BUDS Partner
- Learn about the many things to do in Wisconsin and in the United States
- Gain a better understanding of U.S. American language, culture and values
- Learn about the different holidays in the United States
- Taste different American foods
- Attend events with your partner
- Gain important intercultural skills
