

Woman of Color Nominations

will be accepted until Friday, February 22, 2013

The Chancellor and the Women of Color Awards Committee invite your nominations for the University of Wisconsin-Superior's 2012-13 Outstanding Woman of Color in Education Award. Nominees may be faculty, academic staff, classified staff, students, or active community members.

One woman of color will be selected by our campus and honored at our awards ceremony in March. Her accomplishments will also be celebrated, along with those of other honorees from all of the UW-System campuses, at a statewide awards ceremony on Saturday, October 19, 2013.

Nominations must be emailed to dmansbac@uwsuper.edu by Friday, February 22. Include a nominating statement that summarizes the nominee's accomplishments. Be sure to address how these accomplishments meet one or more of the selection criteria below. Also state whether the nominee is a faculty or staff member, a student, or an active community member.

Selection Criteria:

- Women of color who have worked in the areas of women's studies scholarship and activism, especially as they have served to improve the status and climate for women, particularly women of color.
- Women of color who have advocated for women, particularly women of color.
- Women of color who have consistently demonstrated their ability to rally diverse forces together to advance the agenda of women, particularly that of women of color.
- Women of color who have created positive changes at your institutional level, i.e., curriculum development and infusion, receiving grants, and mentoring women.
- Women of color who have demonstrated an understanding of the interplay of family and community and culture in the lives of women of color.
