Jury Exhibition  AWARDS RECEPTION POSTPONED
Date to be announced

Awards Reception: POSTPONED March 25, 12 noon
2020 Juror: Natalie Salminen Rude

The annual juried exhibition showcases work from across medium from UWS students. This exhibition highlights the depth of talent on campus and offers a space for surprising new voices in the visual arts.

This year’s juror is UWS alumni and nationally recognized encaustic artist, Natalie Salminen Rude. Working professionally in the arts since 2004, she maintains a studio, teaches encaustic workshops both locally and internationally, exhibits and facilitates discussions on spirituality and what it means to live as an artist within the context of commitment.
