UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-SUPERIOR
DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATING ARTS
CAPSTONE EXPERIENCE COMM - 491
(Revised 10/08)

Every student completing a Communicating Arts major must complete a Capstone Experience (COMM 491). COMM 491 is a zero (0) credit course, which is paired with another credited course to fulfill this requirement. Courses permitted to be paired with 491 are dependent on the area of concentration, as follows:

Speech Communication: 332, 467, 475, 495, 498

Mass Communication: 475, 495, 498

Theatre: 475, 495, 498

Students must consult with their instructor and receive permission for the capstone designated course to be paired with COMM 491.

Capstone Experience is a culminating project which integrates and synthesizes the student's coursework (concepts, theories, skills, knowledge) into a formal project and experience. The student, in consultation with the instructor for the paired course, will determine the specific plan for the capstone experience.

** STUDENTS: You are required to explain how you are going to express this Capstone publicly as a Senior Experience. You will want to discuss this with your instructor of record. Use a separate sheet for explanation and attach to this contract.
