THE MUSIC DEPARTMENT

UW-Superior’s Music Department is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music and has a long-standing reputation for training excellent musicians. This assures students that our program has the faculty, curriculum and facilities to offer a quality education in music. Other highlights of being a part of the Music program include:

• Guest performers who conduct master classes on campus.
• Numerous performance opportunities on campus and in the surrounding communities.
• Small classes that allow for individualized instruction and help.
• International touring opportunities for all students.
• Facilities that provide both performance venues and space to compose, arrange and develop essential skills.
• Scholarships that are awarded annually to students who demonstrate musical talent and scholastic ability.

OFFERINGS IN MUSIC

Students have the opportunity to study music in three different areas of Music, Music Education and Music Performance. Combining programs can expand your knowledge of music and open doors to many careers in the music profession. Our instructors would be happy to discuss the many possibilities with you. Here is what you can expect from each individual program:

MAJORS
• Music
• Music Education
• Music Performance

MINORS
• Music

• Students who wish to teach music may complete a Bachelor of Music Education Degree with a focus in choral/general or instrumental/general music.
• Students seeking careers as performance should complete a Bachelor of Music Performance Degree. This major offers tracks that students can follow and specialize in.
• Students with a general interest in music may complete a Bachelor of Arts degree. This degree also requires a minor in another subject field.

DEGREE POSSIBILITIES

Our students gain skills for numerous future career options. Graduates of the Music program have attained careers in:

• Public Schools
• Universities
• Orchestras
• Church Programs
• Musical Theater
• Hollywood Movies
• Private Studios
• Music Recording
