

Sample Interview Questions

Behavioral Questions/ Statements

- Give me an example of a good decision you made recently.
- Tell me about a time when you showed the most initiative.
- Tell me about a situation in which you demonstrated leadership. What was your role?
- Describe how you keep up with recent development in your field.
- Tell me about a mistake that you made that you learned the most from.
- Describe a major problem you have faced and how you dealt with it.
- Which class required the most attention to detail? Tell me how you dealt with the demands of this class.
- Tell me about a time when you helped a co-worker to learn a new task or procedure.
- Describe for me a time when you had a lot of projects to complete and very little time to complete them.
- Tell me about an experience where a teammate wasn't doing as much as the rest of the team. How did you handle the situation?
- Tell me about a time your idea helped an organization or group work better.

Situational Questions

- A customer is angry and starts using abusive language. How would you handle the situation?
- Your supervisor tells you to do a task that is against your values and morals. What would you do?
- You see your co-worker taking supplies from the office supply cabinet and then leaving the office with them. What would you do?
- You finished all your assigned tasks for the day and still have 45 minutes left until your shift is done. How do you spend the remaining time?
- Your supervisor has left for the day and a problem arises. How would you handle the situation?

Traditional Questions

- So tell me about yourself.
- What are your strengths and weaknesses?
- What do you know about the company?
- What are two or three things most important to you in your job?
- Why did you choose this career?
- Why would you like to work for this company?
- What are three of the top values you stand for?
- Where do you see yourself five years from now?
- What could you have done better in your last job?