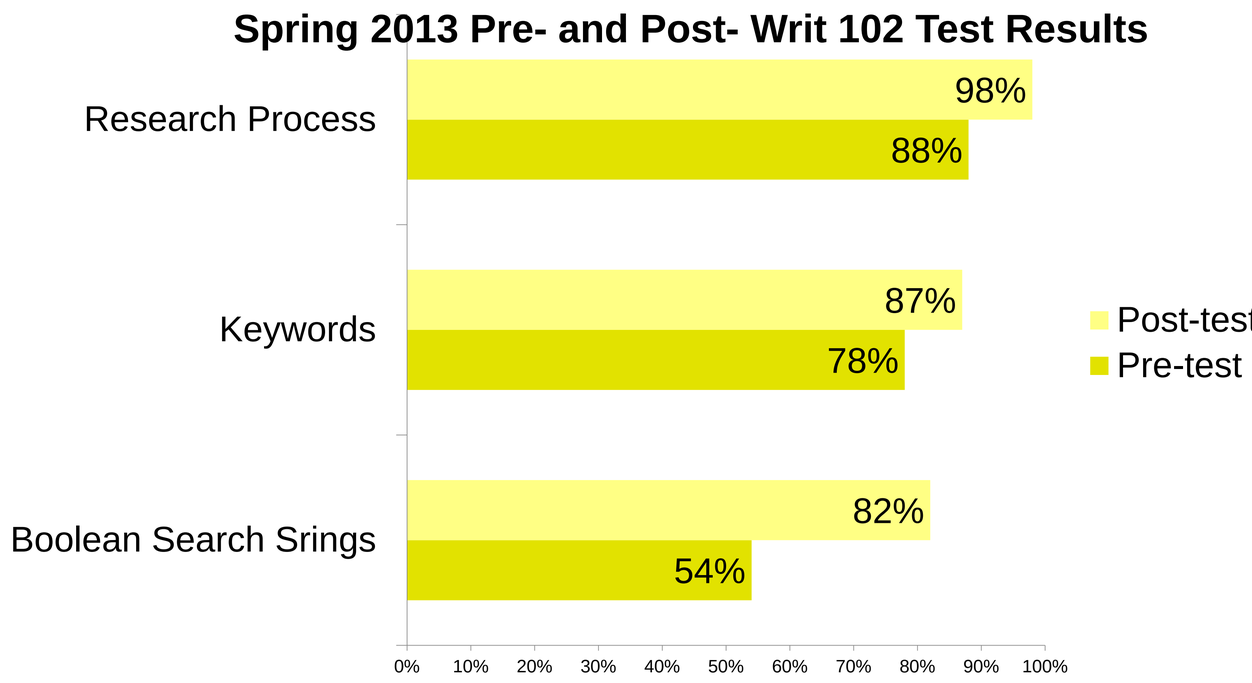
Information Literacy @ JDH Library

Information literacy is the set of skills needed to find, retrieve, analyze, and use information ethically.

Semester	# of sessions	# of grad students	# of undergrad
Summer 2013	7	27	25
Spring 2013	46	13	729
Fall 2012	53	11	937
Summer 2012	5	15	50
Spring 2012	47	7	767
Fall 2011	55	12	876

What students said was the most helpful about information literacy sessions…

IL is assessed in one-shots and across whole semesters. Every Writ 102 class embeds IL curriculum across the whole semester with select assessment results pictured below.



Pre- and post-test questions

- Your professor has asked you to write a research paper on how school uniforms affect academic performance, how would you begin? A) Format your bibliography B) Brainstorm keywords related to your research topic C) Evaluate sources for bias
- Imagine that you have been assigned to research and write an argument taking a side on the topic described in the paragraph below. What are the main points of paragraph? Please list those main points as keywords you could use in a search below. Open Ended Answers
- Using the keywords you generated above please create a search string using Boolean logic (AND, OR, etc.) Open Ended Answers