Dear Campus Community,

Finals week is here! We’re in the home stretch of one historic semester! I know you’re exhausted. Hang in there! I am so appreciative and exceedingly proud of what’s been accomplished for the good of our students!

I mentioned in one of my last communications that you would receive a survey. It’s brief, I promise, but it’s an important one that will help shape campus scenario planning efforts as the summer transpires. It is very important that we hear your voice. I encourage you to provide your insight and feedback. We need to know about your concerns, ideas and views to inform the crucial work in process and to come. If you could complete the survey by the end of day this Thursday, the 14th, Emily and her team can work their magic with the data. Thank you for your patience with the abbreviated response window; we’re trying to include as many people as possible before the end of the semester. The link is: Planning Survey

Gratitude Moment: I’ve been very appreciative of the open conversations that Maria and I have had with our governance groups surrounding last week Board of Regents meeting. Thank you again for your goodwill.

Be well and safe.

Renée
