Promotions Committee

Faculty promotion in rank is granted by the Board of Regents based on the positive recommendations of a candidate's department and the Chancellor. Promotion means looking back at a candidate's record of performance, and promoting the candidate in rank is based on merit. The Promotion Committee serves in an advisory capacity to the Dean of Faculties/Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs. The Promotion Committee gives full and fair consideration to the candidate's promotion portfolio, as well as the candidate's departmental recommendation. The Committee then makes its promotion recommendation to the Dean of Faculty/Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs, who upon full and fair consideration of the same materials, makes a recommendation to the Chancellor. The Promotions Committee will consist of five tenured faculty, three full professors and two associate professors. The associate level professors will rotate off the committee upon promotion to full professor. The committee will evaluate promotions at the associate and full level.

Every year, each subcommittee shall elect its chair.

Departmental recommendations for promotion are submitted to the Committee by December 1st each year. Each candidate submits an Unclassified Staff Personnel Portfolio which includes the following documentation, approved by UW-Superior Faculty Senate, December 2004:

Year 2

Year 3

Year 4

| Year 5, etc. (annual snapshots of each year in rank e.g. annual review/post-tenure review/syllabi/course evaluations/scholarship)

Appendix: Faculty hired beginning Fall 2005, are required to use this standard format, and faculty hired prior to Fall 2005, may choose to use this format. The Unclassified Staff Personnel Portfolio presents each candidate's record of teaching, scholarship, and service for review by the Committee. The Committee's deliberation takes into consideration the candidate's departmental recommendation, as well as the University standard for promotion (See Unclassified Staff Handbook Section 7). The Committee's review does not deliberate the departmental criteria (Approved Department Personnel Rules), rather focuses on the successful achievement of departmental criteria.

During the first week of spring semester, the committee will meet to discuss each candidate's application. Within a week of the close of this meeting, each committee member submits a vote (yes or no) to the committee Chair on a motion to promote each candidate. In the case of a no vote, committee member's reasons must be included. The Chair tallies the votes, collects reasons associated with negative votes, and shares this information with the committee at its second meeting during the first week in February. Those candidates receiving a majority of yes votes (at least three (3) of the five (5) committee members) will be recommended to the Dean of Faculties/Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs for promotion, and the candidate's department chair shall be notified. A final list of reasons for those candidates not recommended for promotion by the Committee will be prepared at this meeting and forwarded to the Dean of Faculty/Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, and the candidate's department chair. The department chair notifies the candidate of the Committee's recommendation. The Dean of Faculty/Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, after thorough review of each candidate's Unclassified Staff Personnel Portfolio, as well as the Promotion Committee's recommendations, submits their recommendations to the Chancellor, and notifies each candidate and the candidate's department chair of the recommendations. The Dean of Faculty/Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs shall provide in writing to the candidate and candidate's department chair, their reasons for not recommending the candidate.

A department or candidate may file a written request with the Dean of Faculty/Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs for reconsideration of a denied promotion recommendation within 30 days of written notice of the recommendation. Requests for reconsideration shall be based upon violations of specified procedures, failure to consider pertinent evidence, or evidence of illegal discrimination. The Dean of Faculty/Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs in consultation with the Promotion Committee shall provide a written reconsideration decision to the department, the candidate, and the Chancellor, within 20 days of receiving the candidate's reconsideration request.

As in all matters, faculty members who believe their case was not fairly considered may file a complaint or grievance under the provisions of UWS 6.01 or UWS 6.02.

Student Misconduct Appeals Committee (Est. 4/08)

The Judicial Appeals Committee hears all student appeals on rulings by either the hearing examiner, the Nonacademic Misconduct Hearing Committee, or the Academic Misconduct Hearing Committee (Ch. 14.09 or 17.07). As of 3/08, the Chancellor has directed that all student misconduct appeals be handled by the Student Misconduct Appeals Committee.

(Members of this committee cannot serve on the Academic Misconduct Hearing Committee or the Nonacademic Misconduct Hearing Committee.)
