Spring Break 2015

Spring break is right around the corner! This is a great time for students to take a well-deserved break from their hard work at school, and enjoy some time with friends and family and maybe even do some traveling.

This spring, UW-Superior has a couple of different options of things for students to participate in over their break. Superior Adventures will be bringing a group of students down to the Gulf Islands National Seashore in Florida to do some paddle boarding, swimming, camping, and site-seeing. This is a great way for students to get a taste of some warmer weather and unleash their adventurous side. Another group of students will be traveling to Tupelo, Mississippi to participate in the Alternative Spring Break program where they will be doing some volunteer work within the community.

Even if your student is not going to be traveling anywhere for spring break, there are still plenty of options for things to do in the area.

*Check out this map from our Student Involvement group filled with places to visit in the Twin Ports area

*Another great resource for events in the area is www.twinportsnightlife.com. This site is filled with places to go and local events

Most importantly, students need to remember to stay safe over break. Check out this website that is full of safety tips for students while they are traveling, in hotels, drinking, swimming, and much more. You can never be too careful, and this is a great resource for helping students to be aware of the potential dangers that tend to go hand in hand with spring break.
Looking for some laughs? Come and check out “The Brother’s Grimm Spectaculathon,” presented by the UW-Superior Communicating Arts Department on Friday, February 27th through Sunday, March 8th! This comedic performance will be a mix of many of the classic stories such as “Snow White” as well as some lesser-known tales. This performance is for children ages 11 and older due to some suggestive content. The show begins at 7:30pm at the Manion Theatre in the Holden Fine and Applied Arts Center. Tickets are $12 for adults, $10 for seniors and non-UW-Superior college students, $2 with a valid UWS student ID, and $5 for all students through high school.

Get ready for some 80’s rock and roll at UW-Superior! Hairball will be performing at Wessman Arena on Saturday, March 21st, playing cover songs from bands such as Queen, Journey, KISS, Motley Crue, Aerosmith, and many more! This is an 18+ show (ID is required), and tickets are $20 in advance or $25 at the door. The doors will open at 7:00pm with the opening band, Rock Brigade, beginning at 7:45pm.
