Prep for the Plunge: Volume 6

Weekend of Welcome, Labor Day Weekend Events, ‘Jacket Fest & Jacket Jobs

Weekend of Welcome (August 29th–31st) & Labor Day Weekend Events (August 31st–September 2nd)

• WoW is your 2nd part of Orientation at UWS. This part of orientation will provide many opportunities for you to meet people, ask questions, and have some fun. There is still time to register if you haven’t already.

• Labor Day Weekend Events directly follow WoW and are another great opportunity to meet fellow classmates!

• The schedule for WoW and Labor Day Events can be found on our First Year Experience website.

‘Jacket Fest

• Is an event for all students! It’s a great event to attend to get information on jobs in the community, volunteer opportunities, and student organizations.

• For a complete list of UW–Superior’s student organizations, visit the involvement website.

Jacket Jobs

• Need a Job? Jacket Jobs has a variety of job listings–everything from on campus jobs to jobs in the community.

• To get a head start, it’s a good idea to create a resume now. If you need any assistance, feel free to contact Career Services. They even have walk-in hours!
