Prep for the Plunge: August 2014

Weekend of Welcome

- Weekend of Welcome is just a few short weeks away as it begins on August 28th! Come and have a fun time with other incoming students and current students. Some of the events that you can look forward to are Hypnotist Frederick Winters, Playfair, Sex Signals, Jacket Smash, the Induction Ceremony, and much, much more! See the schedule and register now at https://www.uwsuper.edu/fye/wow/index.cfm!

Labor Day Weekend

- The fun doesn’t stop after Weekend of Welcome! There are tons of events that are planned for Labor Day Weekend such as Party on the Plaza, Cardboard Boat Races, Laser Tag, Amazing Race, Mini Golf, and much more! Stay on campus for the weekend and enjoy an awesome time!

Move-In Crew

- That’s right! There will be a Move-In Crew that will be available to help you move into the Residence Hall. The Crew is available to help from 10am-2pm. The Move-In Crew consists of current students, athletes, faculty, and staff. Just remember, Weekend of Welcome check-in is from 11am-1:45pm so please plan accordingly!

Get to know your Resources

- After Weekend of Welcome and Labor Day Events, classes begin on Tuesday September 2nd. But have no fear! There are a ton of resources that are available to students such as Student Support Services, The Writing Center, Jim Dan Hill Library, The Tutoring Labs, First Year Experience, and much more. Be sure to stop by these places and say hello!

Emergency Contact

- Students, be sure to log it to your E-Hive and update and relevant information such as your current address, emergency contact information, passwords if needed, etc.
