

POLICY: CRIMINAL BACKGROUND CHECK April 2012

A Criminal History Search (Wisconsin Statute 165.82) will be required of anyone participating in any graduate Counseling course or for applying for admission to the Counseling Professions Department.

Procedure for Disclosure/Criminal Background Check and Appeal Process

1. Many school systems and community agencies are not accepting observation, field, or intern students unless they have had and passed a criminal background check. Furthermore, licensing as a counselor requires this same check. Therefore the Counseling Professions Department passed a policy change in the spring of 2008 that now requires all entering/admitted students to proceed with their criminal Background Check.

Starting in fall semester 2008, all students taking counseling classes must initiate a request for a criminal background check to be provided to the Counseling Professions office. Once a report is received, the Program Assistant will provide a note to the student and advisor indicating that s/he has been cleared. This note can be taken by the student on his/her observations/field/internship experience to show, if requested. Criminal background checks take about two weeks to arrive after a request is made; the report will be maintained in the Counselor Education office and utilized also for admission to Level 2 of the Counseling Program

2. All students applying for Level 2 in the Counseling Professions Department must make sure that her/his file contains a copy of the criminal background check report by checking with the Program Assistant. No student will be reviewed for candidacy that has not passed a background check.
3. The Coordinators of the Community and School Programs will review and evaluate any criminal background check showing a conviction. Guidelines provided by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction and the Wisconsin Department of Licensing will be followed in determining whether a criminal conviction would prohibit field placement. If a determination is made that a criminal conviction would not prohibit licensure, the student will be accepted for admission.
4. For those cases where a determination has been made that a criminal conviction may be of concern to the Counseling Professions program, each case will be reviewed by a committee of Counseling Professions faculty and instructors (including the coordinator of the specific internship area) appointed by the Chair of the Counseling Professions Department. Students may be requested to provide further documentation to supplement the written explanation that accompanied their disclosure statement and/or the description forwarded by the State Department of Justice.
5. The cases in which admission to the Counseling Professions or to Candidacy may be denied by the above committees are responses relating to anyone who has been arrested or convicted for (i) a drug offense, especially if it involves sales, (ii) a sexual offense, or (iii) a violent offense. Within ten (10) working days, a hearing will be convened by the Department Chair with the applicant and the committee members. Within (5) academic working days after the hearing, each student will be informed in writing of the committee's decision.

CRIMINAL BACKGROUND CHECK
Procedures for Submitting the Paperwork

April 2012

Agencies and schools have the right to require a criminal background check on those who seek to work in close contact with minors and vulnerable adults. Many of the universities and colleges in Wisconsin have undertaken to set up such a check before volunteer, observations, field, and internship work in the schools and agencies. The criminal background check must be completed for the most recent state in which the student has lived and submitted to the appropriate state agency:

- A. If you are a Wisconsin resident, the form Wisconsin Criminal History Single Name Record Request can be accessed at <http://www.doj.state.wi.us/dles/cib/background-check-criminal-history-information> and in the Counseling office.
