COMMUNICATING ARTS FACULTY RECEIVE AWARDS

Two faculty members and a student in Communicating Arts Department have been honored for a video they produced in 2007. Senior Lecturer Thomas Notton (left) and Associate Professor Brent Notbohm (right) made the video "Are You Ready? The College Transition" during the summer with the assistance of student Mike Larson. Notton was the executive producer for the video, with Notbohm directing and editing the project. Larson was an intern on the project, filling the role of production assistant. Over the past several months, the video has received several awards, including the North Central Regional Winner for Outstanding Achievement by the National Association of Extension 4-H Agents, the First Place Central Regional Award by the National Extension Association of Family and Consumer Sciences (NEAFCS) and the NEAFCS First Place National Award. Last spring the video was recognized with the Communicator Award by the Wisconsin Association of Extension 4-H Youth Development Professionals.

TONY BUKOSKI’S “TWELVE BELOW ZERO” RE-RELEASED IN EXPANDED AND REVISED EDITION

ENGLISH SENIOR LECTURER SHINES

Bart Sutter, senior lecturer, wrote “Bushed: A Poetical, Political, Partly Musical Tragicomedy in Two Acts,” which made its world premiere in a production directed by Brian Matuszak of Rubber Chicken Theater. The show ran for three weekends in October at the new Harbor City International School Theater in Duluth. In addition, Sutter gave a reading October 6 for the Duluth Chamber of Commerce, had two poems included in a show at the North End Art Gallery & Red Mug Coffeehouse in Superior, and read his work in a performance with his brother, Ross Sutter, a musician, at the Fine Arts Center of St. Peter, Minnesota.
