June 8th:

A student reported her vehicle had been struck by another vehicle while it was parked in Lot #3A. A review of the surveillance camera video failed to show the damage occurring while she was parked there. Case closed as unfounded.

June 11th:

A bicycle with a UW-Superior Bicycle registration sticker was found abandoned on campus. The registration was checked and the owner was contacted. She stated that her bicycle had been stolen from her residence on John Avenue in Superior. She came in and claimed her recovered bicycle.

June 13th:

A member of the Summer Theatre Group reported that her purse with a small amount of cash inside had been stolen from one of the benches in the lobby of the Holden Fine Arts Building when she had left it unattended.

June 15th:

The Grounds supervisor estimated the rut damage to be $100.00 and a letter was sent to the person requesting restitution in lieu of being charged with Operating a Motor Vehicle Off Of Roadway. Final outcome is pending.
