| Reports Open Student Forum None President We are in the works for creating a new student organization that deals with student representatives, essentially. We are unsure at this time if it is more valuable to ramp up our already existing group or to create a separate, more specific, entity. Nonetheless, the group would aim to provide more student representation within the UW Systems while remaining completely student-led. On November 7th, we will be having a meeting online to further structure the needs of this proposed student reps organization. Election day is just around the corner and we need student drivers that are willing to transporting students to and from Ross/Hawkes. If you are registered to drive through UWS, please, volunteer your time! Please be sure to send a headshot and bio to post to the SGA Office window so more students can be acquainted with us! Reporting on SUFAC: In terms of Emergency Funding, we are only going to fill it once this year. 140-150,000 is the projected range we are allotting this year. In addition, we will be making much more conscious and responsible decisions. Campus Safety Walk will be next week on October 29th at 6:30pm. We will be meeting in the YU Atrium. Promo for this event will be going up tomorrow. Lastly, If you are in need of a key to the SGA Office, please fill out the correct paperwork so we can give more people access to the room. President Pro Tempore None Student Judiciary Chair Excited to welcome two new students to senate as the elections were a success this week. Follow-up for the Voter ID discussion: As most of us know, the Voter ID law was recently deemed unconstitutional. Originally, we had asked that each member sign up to table in regards to Voter ID awareness, but being that the law has essentially been nulled, we are still asking that students table to benefit awareness of the upcoming election. The legislation that | Senators Fleming: The Criminal Justice Association will be venturing to Brainerd, MN for the first competition tomorrow, Thursday, October 23rd. Wish us luck! Gordon: Next Friday the UWS A Capella Choir will be performing a concert at Thorpe-Langley at 7:30pm. That is Friday, October 31st. Olson: The Union Bash will be held on November 15th, 2014 in the YU. Last year, there were 300+ students in attendance, so we are hoping for an even better turn out this year. A lot of Student Organizations will be putting on fun events, so come support all of what UWS has to offer. Chancellor or Designee(s) -Provost: Program Prioritization Discussion- Faith Hensrud led a discussion that gave more insight to the decisions being made at UWS in regards to Program Prioritization. Background and context was discussed to offer more students clarity as to why some decisions are being made. Each student was provided a detailed hand-out that discussed the projected course of action UWS will take, a timeline for each step of the procedure, and the type of questions each department has been asked/asking themselves. Overall, the discussion was well-received by senate. Dean of Students Harry Anderson: We received great feedback from Ray Cross, President of UW Systems in response to his recent visit to UWS. He will certainly be back to our campus, but was thankful for the insightful interaction with UW students. In regards to the Food Service, the RFP will be having open forums to further discussion on the feedback from students. Attending these forums are incredibly crucial to getting a full grasp on the students' needs. Recently attended Title 9 training in Stevens Point, Wisconsin. This training centralized around how we are to report sexual assault and discussing possibilities in finding the best ways to deal with these situations. National Services of Student Engagement recently did some investigation on UW System colleges and gave a lot of insight on the quality |

was passed in regards to the Voter ID law will be put on hold for the time being.

SUFAC Chair

There will be upcoming Student Organization Budget Workshops in the month of November. On the 5th, from noon to 1pm, and noon to 2pm. Both of the workshops will be held in YU 203 and are highly useful for all organizations.
