Transportation and Logistics Student Club - Questions?
Recently built and renovated facilities

UW-Superior
Jim Dan Hill Library Renovation
Renovating Jim Dan Hill Library turned a building erected in 1968 into an information and research center for the 21st century.

- Summer 2008 – Fall 2009
- Budget of $7.7 million involving 70,000 square feet
Jim Dan Hill Library

BEFORE
- Study seating for 214
- 5 study rooms

AFTER
- Study seating for 382
- 13 study rooms
Jim Dan Hill Library

- High speed wireless internet throughout the building.
- Expanded space for special collections.
- Glass walls – brings natural light into the building to reduce energy needed for lighting.
- Lower level – Converted from little-used basement, this level now uses automated shelving to house much of the library’s collection.
Yellowjacket Union
The Yellowjacket Union is the new student center at UW-Superior.

- Dining facilities
- Bookstore
- Offices for student services
- Lounge areas
- Meeting rooms for student, university, and public use.
Building Facts

- Groundbreaking: April 2008
- Opened: January 19, 2010
- Cost: $22 million
- Funded largely by student fees – Students voted in 2004 to raise their fees to pay for the project.
- In addition, gifts to Campaign Superior: Higher Expectations provided funding for this project.
