Typically Offered

- Occasional by Demand
- Fall Term Only
- Spring Term Only
- Occasional by Demand

Transfer credits ONLY from another accredited institution not equivalent to a UW-Superior course.

BIOL 270 Human Anatomy and Physiology I

First semester of a two-semester sequence investigating the structure and function of human body systems and mechanisms for maintaining homeostasis within and across each system. Examination of the integumentary, skeletal, muscular, nervous, endocrine, and sensory systems.

(Lecture three hours, laboratory two hours.)

Prerequisites:
- Prerequisite for taking this course is completion of BIOL 130 or instructor consent.

Typically Offered:
- Fall Term Only

BIOL 280 Human Anatomy & Physiology II

Continuation of a two-semester sequence investigating the structure and function of human body systems and mechanisms for maintaining homeostasis within and across each system. Examination of the digestive, circulatory, respiratory, urinary, and reproductive systems.

(Lecture three hours, laboratory two hours.)

Prerequisites:
- Prerequisite for taking this course is completion of BIOL 270 or instructor consent.

Typically Offered:
- Spring Term Only

BIOL 289 Biology Elective

BIOL 300 Marine Biology

Introduction to the biology and ecology of marine plants and animals, coral reefs, the deep sea, rocky shores, marine mammals, fisheries, aquaculture, pollution, and the conservation of marine resources.

(Lecture three hours.)

Prerequisites:
- BIOL 330 or 340 or Permission of Instructor

Typically Offered:
- Fall Term Odd Years Only

BIOL 303 Forest Ecology and Management

Overview of major factors affecting forests, including disturbance, succession, wildlife, harvest systems, and ecosystem management. Emphasis on forests of the western Great Lakes region. Field trips develop identification and measurement skills and test ecological hypotheses. One weekend field trip.

(Lecture three hours, laboratory two hours.)

Prerequisites:
- Successful completion of BIOL 330 or BIOL 340, or permission of instructor.

Typically Offered:
- Occasional by Demand

BIOL 305 Evolution

A view of the scope, significance and mechanisms of evolutionary concepts in modern biology.

(Lecture three hours.)

Prerequisites:
- Successful completion of BIOL 330 or BIOL 340, or permission of instructor.

Typically Offered:
- Spring Term Only

BIOL 312 Biogeography and Conservation

Study of the geographical distribution of plants and animals across space and time. Topics include environmental causes of species range structure, species diversity, island biogeography, evolutionary diversification, and conservation biogeography.

(Lecture three hours.)

Prerequisites:
- Successful completion of BIOL 330 or BIOL 340, or permission of instructor.

Typically Offered:
- Occasional by Demand
BIOL 315  Plant Physiology
Study of functions and physiological properties of plants, from the molecular scale up through ecosystem scale of biological organization. Main topics include water and nutrient transport, cell structure and function, nutrient relationships, photosynthesis, growth and development, and metabolism. Lab exercises emphasize experimental approaches using modern technology. (Lecture three hours, laboratory three hours.)

Prerequisites:
Successful completion of BIOL 330 or BIOL 340, and CHEM 106, or permission of instructor.

Typically Offered:
Occasional by Demand

BIOL 316  Medical Terminology
Study of basic medical terminology. Prefixes, suffixes, word roots, combining forms, special endings, plural forms, abbreviations, and symbols are emphasized. A programmed learning, word-building systems approach is used to learn, construct, and analyze new terms as they relate to the function and location of body systems. No prerequisite.

Typically Offered:
Spring Term Only

BIOL 318  Immunology
Studying the relationship between cellular form and function to determine how macromolecules direct what a cell does. Current research techniques will be utilized to investigate how this dynamic interplay balances health versus disease. Critical processes such as proliferation, survival, and signaling pathways will be explored. (Lecture three hours.)

Prerequisites:
Successful completion of BIOL 330 or instructor permission

Typically Offered:
Fall Term Only

BIOL 325  Plant Taxonomy
Provides the skills and background to identify flowering plants of northern Wisconsin and Minnesota. Lecture topics focus on floral structure, classification, and distribution of plant families of regional importance, while labs focus on identification of living plant materials using dichotomous keys. Each student will prepare a plant collection. (Lecture three hours, laboratory two hours.)

Prerequisites:
Successful completion of BIOL 330 or BIOL 340, or permission of instructor.

Typically Offered:
Spring Term Odd Years Only

BIOL 330  Genetics
Integrating the principles and techniques of Mendelian and molecular genetics to emphasize how biological information is inherited and expressed. (Lecture three hours, laboratory two hours.)

Prerequisites:
BIOL 132 and CHEM 105, or permission of instructor.

Typically Offered:
Spring Term Only

BIOL 335  Aquatic Entomology
Introduction to the identification and ecological relationships of freshwater insects and related invertebrates of the north central United States. (Lecture two hours, laboratory two hours.)

Prerequisites:
Successful completion of BIOL 330 or BIOL 340, or permission of instructor.

Typically Offered:
Fall Term Even Years Only

BIOL 340  Ecology
Introduction to basic principles of ecology emphasizing interactions between organisms and their environment. Local ecosystems examined. CHEM 105 is recommended. (Lecture three hours, laboratory three hours.)

Prerequisites:
Successful completion of BIOL 132 or permission from the instructor

Typically Offered:
Fall Term Only

BIOL 350  Limnology
Study of freshwater biology including the physical and chemical attributes of the environment as well as plants and animals found in lakes and streams. CHEM 105 is recommended. (Lecture three hours, laboratory two hours.)

Prerequisites:
Successful completion of BIOL 330 or BIOL 340, or permission of instructor.

Typically Offered:
Fall Term Even Years Only

BIOL 355  Microbes and Defense
Exploring how the structure, function and genetics of microorganisms (bacteria, viruses, fungi and protozoa) influence our everyday world. This includes microbes relevant to human health and industry; and the biological and chemical defenses we use to regulate them. The laboratory involves culture and identification techniques as well as modern applications of molecular biology. (Lecture three hours, laboratory two hours.)

Biology Seminar
1.00
Study of a topic through literature research. Student studies a topic and effectively summarizes the available information in written and oral form. Presentation techniques are emphasized. May be used to satisfy Senior Experience requirement for Biology major.

BIOL 496
Internship
1.00 - 4.00
On-the-job experience with local agencies (e.g., Wisconsin DNR) that provides students with opportunities to apply their skills to practical problems. In collaboration with a faculty sponsor, students must complete a Contract for Independent Learning prior to registration. May be used to satisfy Senior Experience requirement.

BIOL 497
Senior Year Experience
1.00
This course provides instruction to develop and deliver an oral presentation in a scientific conference format to serve as a culminating experience for the Biology major. Presentation topics are connected to a capstone project completed in BIOL 491 Research in Biology or BIOL 496 Internship, either of which must be taken as a pre-requisite or co-requisite course. Meets in face-to-face format 2 hours per week.

BUS 495  Strategic Management (Capstone)

Integrative approach to the formulation and implementation of strategy within business or administrative type organizations. Capstone course drawing on the functional analytical tools, managerial concepts and techniques developed in previous business administration and economics courses and includes a senior experience component.

Prerequisites:
- Admitted to SBE; BUS 370, BUS 380, and FIN 320.

Typically Offered:
- Fall and Spring Terms

BUS 499  Seminar in Business

Studies of recent trends and practices in business and business education.

| CHEM 101    | Elements & The Environment | 3.00    |
|             | Introduction to basic concepts of chemistry and their importance in gaining a better understanding and appreciation of our environment. Many topics of current environmental concern will be discussed. Meets the General Education requirement for Natural Science (environmental component). Credits cannot be counted toward a chemistry major or minor. Students cannot earn credit for both CHEM 100 and 101. |
|             | University Studies Requirements (2017-19 Catalog): Natural Sciences - Environment |
|             | Typically Offered: Occasional by Demand |

| CHEM 102    | Chemistry of Everyday Phenomena | 4.00    |
|             | Explores the chemistry of foods, drugs, household chemicals, personal hygiene products, agricultural chemicals, materials and other types of chemistry relevant to the student. Current chemistry topics in the popular press will be critically examined. Topics not usually addressed in other science general education courses will be presented. A small part of the course will be devoted to elementary statistics (evaluation, not calculation) to enable students to understand science and medicine as it is commonly reported. An important but minor part of the course involves discussion of the role of research in technology development and standard of living, and the impact of the chemical industry on the national and world economies. Meets the General Education requirement for Natural Science (laboratory component). Credits cannot be counted toward a Chemistry major or minor. Prerequisite: None. (Three lectures and one two-hour laboratory.) |
|             | University Studies Requirements (2017-19 Catalog): Natural Sciences - Lab |

| CHEM 103    | Principles of General Chemistry | 3.00    |
|             | This course exposes the students to the main principles of modern chemistry and its applications, as needed for the following Sustainable Management courses: SMFT-315 "Global Environmental Chemistry" and SMTG-320 "Energy for Sustainable Management". Each student is expected to develop a working knowledge of the topics covered in the Power-Point presentations and the textbook, to demonstrate some ability to work independently, and to be able to solve the problems assigned for the homework and comparable exercises. |
|             | Prerequisites: Successful completion of MATH 102 with a grade of C- or better is prerequisite for taking this class. |
|             | Typically Offered: Fall Term Only |

| CHEM 105    | General Chemistry I | 5.00    |
|             | Introduction to physical and chemical properties of the elements, chemical reactions, gas laws, chemical nomenclature, structure of atoms, chemical bonding, and solutions. Intermediate algebra (MATH 102) or equivalent strongly recommended as prerequisite. (Four lectures and one three-hour laboratory.) Fall Term Only on campus; Spring Term Only offered online. |

Examination of the social and psychological dimensions of juvenile delinquency: its nature, extent, distribution and patterns; evaluation of theories and explanations of delinquent causation; consideration of the legal processing of delinquents; programs of prevention and treatment of delinquents. Satisfies the requirement of general education as an independent learning and a capstone experience. Students completing CJ US 463 as a senior capstone experience will be required to give a public presentation on their work. See director of the Criminal Justice Program and/or coordinator in Legal Studies program for more information.

CJ US 489 Criminal Justice Elective
Transfer credits ONLY from another accredited institution not equivalent to a UW-Superior course.

CJ US 491 Applied Criminal Justice
Academic and professional development in justice settings as well as course meetings. A field experience in criminal justice that applies scholarly research to understanding justice agencies and organizations. Students discern policies and practices of justice organizations through systematic observations at agency sites as well as frequent, regularly scheduled course meetings with the course instructor. The workings of agencies and agents will be measured through analytical and reflective writing exercises. Written consent of the instructor must be obtained before registering. Since a significant part of the course is an independent learning experience involving the cooperation and assistance of outside agencies, a student should notify the instructor in writing of an interest in enrolling in the course early in the semester before the semester of the actual field experience. Instructor consent required. Formal arrangements with an agency may be easier to complete with careful, early planning. Course satisfies the requirement of general education as an independent learning and a capstone experience. Students completing CJ US 491 as a senior capstone experience will be required to give a public presentation on their work. Group designed research based on approved proposal of a significant and focused public policy topic. Generating a coherent researchable idea, reviewing a literature, collecting and analyzing information/data and reporting results. Satisfies the requirement of general education as an independent learning and a capstone experience. Students completing CJ US 492 as a senior capstone experience will be required to give a public presentation on their work. See director of the Criminal Justice Program Program director.

Prerequisites:
- Prerequisite for taking this course is completion of both CJ US 374 and either MATH 130 or PSYC 301.

Typically Offered:
- Fall Term Only

CJ US 497 Student Initiated Seminar
The program offers a specially designed seminar or student-initiated seminar when there is sufficient interest. For further information, see the Criminal Justice Program director.

Typically Offered:
- Occasional by Demand

CJ US 498 Senior Capstone Presentation
Required culminating senior-year public presentation, based on CJ US 463 (Delinquency and Juvenile Justice), CJ US 491 (Applied Criminal Justice), CJ US 492 (Senior Thesis), or CJ US 499 (Individualized Research). See UW-Superior catalog for Criminal Justice capstone course descriptions. The presentation will be given at a specified time in the relevant fall or spring semester prior to graduation. It may be made in one of several ways, including an oral presentation, a poster, digital video, and theatrical or other performance. Pass-Fail. Arranged. Advisor permission required.

Typically Offered:
- Fall and Spring Terms

CJ US 499 Individualized Research
Either supervised research in selected subfields of the discipline resulting in the submission of a formal research paper, or development and execution of a project designed to apply criminal justice or social science concepts and skills to a particular situation, drawing upon the relevant scholarly literature and resulting in submission of a formal research and experience-evaluation paper. Projects devoted to the demonstration of skills may include, but need not be limited to: direct participation in a criminal justice agency; other activity on behalf of a criminal justice interest group; involvement in a University justice agency; service as an intern with a government agency or a private organization with a justice interest; or an active leadership role in a private or community organization. May be repeated once for a total of six credits. Instructor consent required. Consultation with the instructor must take place within the first two weeks of the semester. As needed.

Typically Offered:
- Fall and Spring Terms

COMM 489 Comm Arts Elective
Transfer credits ONLY from another accredited institution not equivalent to a UW-Superior course.

COMM 491 Senior Capstone
Required culminating senior year project which integrates and synthesizes the student's coursework (theories, concepts, skill competencies) into a formal project and experience, negotiated with the student's major advisor and instructor for final consent and approval. Senior capstone is paired with another course in the major. See Communicating Arts major descriptions for paired courses in specific program areas (Media, Communication, Theatre). Pass-Fail. Arranged.

Typically Offered:
- Fall, Spring, and Summer Terms

COMM 495 Special Topics Seminar
Specially designed seminar on any number of diverse topics within Communicating Arts. Repeatable up to twelve credits.

Typically Offered:
- Fall or Spring Terms

COMM 498 Independent Study
Individual investigation, project, and/or production by advanced students in Communication, Media, or Theatre. Designed in consultation with instructor and should include a study of related literature and/or production techniques. Prerequisites: Instructor consent and contract prior to enrollment. Repeatable up to six credits. Arranged.

Typically Offered:
- Fall, Spring, and Summer Terms

COMM 499 Intern Teaching in Communication
Working with and assisting a faculty member in teaching a lower-division Communicating Arts course. Includes applied work in preparing and teaching the content of one or more selected units of a course under the supervision of the instructor of record. Open to Communicating Arts majors only. Both faculty and Department Chair consent are required to enroll in this course.

Typically Offered:
- Fall and Spring Terms

EC 470  Child Life
Seminar course for students completing the Child Life concentration. Theoretical foundations of Child Life practice, the therapeutic relationship, family care, assessment and documentation are covered in depth in this course. Attention is given to understanding children in the context of medical issues as they arise in hospital settings, such as end of life care, chronic disease and emergency care. Includes up to 15 hours of field experience.

EC 479  Family and Culture
Seminar is placed on understanding diversity and cultural competence. Students study and develop communication skills for interacting effectively with children, family systems, and co-workers. Attention is given to understanding children in the context of family and culture, to teaching conflict resolution skills, and to implementing anti-bias practices. Includes up to 15 hours of field experience in an early childhood program setting.

EC 482  Seminars in Child Development
Selected topics and problems in the area of child development. May be taken in several units provided a different topic or problem is studied each time. Depending on the term of offering this course can be graded P/NP or Graded A-F.
Typically Offered: Fall, Spring, and Summer Terms

EC 486  Administration of Child Development Programs
Focuses on the rapidly changing field of child development programming. Emphasis on developing the business skills and knowledge that every director must have: funding, budgeting, selecting, training and supervising staff, housing the program, purchasing the equipment, and implementing a standards-based evaluation for the program. Specific licensing procedures, grant writing, and program accreditation are also covered in considerable depth. Designing accessible programs for both typical and atypically developing children is emphasized. Includes up to 10 hours of field experience in child development programs.

An investigation of how human activities affect and are affected by physical Earth processes. Topics include: an overview of Earth's development and internal processes such as plate tectonics, minerals and rocks, surface processes, the use of natural resources, waste disposal and pollution, global climate and related topics. (Lecture 3 hours, laboratory 2 hours) Fall Semester, Distance Learning Center course and Spring Semester course is offered on campus.

Typically Offered:
Occasional by Demand

GEOL 170  Earth Science for Teachers
Broad survey of basic concepts and principles of astronomy, geology, oceanography and meteorology. Emphasizes the relationship between Earth processes and the fundamentals of chemistry, physics, and biology. Designed especially for elementary education majors in order to fulfill an earth science requirement. This class does not meet the General Education requirement for a laboratory science. Qualifies as an Academic-Service Learning course (see Academic Service-Learning for more details). A meaningful AS-L project, which requires pre-service teachers to establish a connection with their area schools, is a required component of the DLC section of this course. (Lecture one hour, laboratory two hours.)

Typically Offered:
Fall and Spring Terms

GEOL 189  Geology Elective
Transfer credits ONLY from another accredited institution not equivalent to a UW-Superior course.

GEOL 281  Special Topics
In-depth study of specialized current topics in Geology selected by the faculty on the basis of student/community interest. May include workshops, seminars, field trips, special problems, independent study, etc. May be repeated when topics are different. Offered on demand. Instructor consent required.

Typically Offered:
Occasional by Demand

GEOL 289  Geology Elective
Transfer credits ONLY from another accredited institution not equivalent to a UW-Superior course.

GEOL 310  Geology of Minnesota and Wisconsin
A field-based course that introduces the geologic history of northern Minnesota and Wisconsin. The regional geologic record is used to reinforce fundamental concepts and skills introduced in Geology 110. Field trip destinations may include the Minnesota North Shore, Soudan Mine, Crystal Cave, and the Mesabi Iron Range. There are two required Saturday trips.

Prerequisites:
Completion of GEOL 110

Typically Offered:
Spring Term Even Years Only

GEOL 315  Climatology
Exploration of the processes that control Earth's climate and affect the environment on timescales of hundreds of millions to tens of years. Discussions include how and why the environment was different in the era of the dinosaurs (relative to today) and concerns about future global warming. Prerequisite: lab science course.

Typically Offered:
Fall Term Odd Years Only

GEOL 350  Physical Oceanography
Emphasizes the physical and chemical processes that operate in the world's oceans. Topics include: the history of oceanography, plate tectonics of the ocean basins, ocean basin sedimentation, ocean water physical and chemical characteristics, ocean currents, waves and tides, and environmental issues of concern to marine scientists. (Lecture 3 hours)

Prerequisites:
Prerequisite for taking this course is successful completion of GEOL 110 or GEOL 112 or GEOL 130 or GEOL 170 or instructor permission.

Typically Offered:
Fall Term Even Years Only

GEOL 360  Geomorphology
Geomorphology is the study of landscapes and landforms. Geomorphology entails the systematic description of landforms, analysis of the processes that form them, and understanding their response to changes in climate, tectonics, human disturbance, and the progression of time. Includes field trips. (Lecture 3 hours, laboratory 2 hours)

Prerequisites:
Prerequisite for taking this course is completion of GEOL 110 or GEOL 130 or instructor permission.

Typically Offered:
Fall Term Even Years Only

GEOL 389  Geology Elective
Transfer credits ONLY from another accredited institution not equivalent to a UW-Superior course.

GEOL 400  Watershed Hydrology

The Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System | 65 of 607
A study of water properties, occurrence, distribution, and movement and their relationship with the environment within each phase of the hydrological cycle. Examines water quantity and quality issues, and water management policies. Uses mix of lecture- and problem-based approaches. Students will be introduced to techniques used in addressing environmental problems such as flooding, water supplies, and groundwater contamination and evaluation. Recommended for science students interested in the environmental sciences and/or securing a position in the environmental field. MATH 115 recommended. (Lecture three hours, laboratory two hours.)

Prerequisites:
- Prerequisite for taking this course is successful completion of CHEM 105, GEOL 110 or GEOL 130 or instructor consent. MATH 115 is recommended.

Typically Offered:
- Fall Term Odd Years Only

Introduction to Gender Studies explores various answers to the question: How does gender influence the way in which we interact with and are impacted by society? To that end, this course introduces students to feminist perspectives and challenges students to incorporate self-exploration with academic skill to analyze one's personal experience, and the experience of others, within social institutions such as family, government, employment, religion, and education through the lenses of gender. We will examine how issues of gender within our society intersect with race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, differing abilities, and age to perpetuate a system of oppression.

University Studies Requirements (2017-19 Catalog):

- Social Science

Typically Offered:
- Fall and Spring Terms

| GST 189      | Gender Studies Elective | 1.00 - 12.00 |

Transfer credits ONLY from another accredited institution not equivalent to a UW-Superior course.

| GST 210      | Sociology of Gender | 3.00 |

Introduces the social construction of sex and gender. It focuses on both local and international materials, with particular attention to gender inequality in contemporary societies. Intersections with class, race, nation and other social categories are also explored. Cross listed with SOCI/GST 210.

University Studies Requirements (2017-19 Catalog):

GST 317 Men and Women in Nazi Germany

In this upper-division examination of the nature of Nazi society and Fascism more generally, the central focus will be on gender—the images of and attitudes towards masculinity and femininity, and alternative sexualities, in the Third Reich. Changes in the role afforded to men and women, and in beliefs about what it means to be male and female, were at the very center of the revolutionary changes that constituted the shift to the "Modern Era." In seeking to understand Fascist attitudes toward gender, therefore, the course is seeking to understand not some peripheral aspect of Nazi society, but its very core, the very essence of modern democracy and its nemesis, Fascism. Much attention will be focused on developing skill in understanding and interpreting films and other visual artifacts and how they reveal ideals and assumptions about gender. Cross-listed as HIST/GST 317. Code 2. G.

Typically Offered:
- Fall Term Every Other Year

GST 322 The Construction of Gender in the United States

An examination of gender and sexual identities and roles in the United States from colonial times through the present. Explores the evolution of these roles and identities and the social, economic, and political forces that shape them. Cross-listed as HIST/GST 322. Code 1. G.

University Studies Requirements (2017-19 Catalog):
- Diversity

Typically Offered:
- Fall Term Every Other Year

GST 325 Writing Women, Women Writing

Women's non-fiction writing from a variety of time periods and cultures as models for the students' own writing projects. Cross-listed as WRIT/GST 325. Course includes Academic Service-Learning (AS-L) high-impact practice.

Typically Offered:
- Spring Term Only

GST 329 Women In Art

Women's expression in painting and sculpture, primarily of the 19th and 20th Centuries.

Typically Offered:
- Fall Term Every Other Year

GST 365 Philosophy of Love and Sex

In this course we will begin with the assumption that love and sex cannot be reduced to "a commotion of one's anatomy." Instead we will consider them as two of the most meaningful aspects of human existence, as our most intimate and profound ways of relating to others and to ourselves. Cross-listed as PHIL/GST 365.

<td>This upper-division seminar examines the role women played in Southeast Asian history from the 19th century till the present, specifically as the region confronted the challenges of colonialism and post-colonial nation-building. Among key issues covered are: (1) the encounter between Western guns and local political systems; (2) race and racism (or, why the other group is always a barbarian); (3) how Southeast Asia became modern; (4) decolonization and/or revolution; (4) political, economic and religious challenges in post-colonial nationalism; (5) the intimate and everyday lives of Southeast Asians; and so on. We will work through these themes through the lens of the role of women and women's groups, examining Western tourists, governesses and wives; sex, prostitution and the control of TD; colonial-era marriage with white guys and the biracial children; Islam and women; and post-colonial women political leaders. We will examine these issues within the framework of the political, social, economic and cultural interactions between Britain, France, Holland, the United States of America, China, Japan, Malaysia, Singapore, Vietnam, Thailand, Indonesia, and Myanmar/Burma. In addition to reading a selection of secondary and primary materials, including poems, biographies, memoirs, and histories, students will also watch music videos and films to understand and analyze the issues. ### Empire in Modern Asia

This course examines the impact of one of the key dynamics of late modern history in Asia: colonialism. It takes a comparative look at how imperialism was experienced by the invading power and the colonized people in traditionally lesser-studied regions of the world. We look at a number of case studies of Western and Japanese colonialism from the 19th century onwards, including (1) the Spanish and the US in the Philippines; (2) the British experience in Asia (primarily India but also Burma); (3) the French in Vietnam; (4) The Dutch experience in Indonesia; and finally, (5) the Japanese in China, Taiwan, and Korea, and later during WWII in Southeast Asia. (Other case studies may also be used.) We examine the social, economic, cultural, political, and personal impact of imperialism on both the metropole and the colony. We will read memoirs, watch music videos and films, and discuss issues such as the nuts and bolts of colonial rule, the role of women, attitudes towards race and identity, indigenous pursuit of modernity, and nationalism among others. Emphasis on learning to think globally and provides University Studies students and majors with an introduction to historical thinking. Code 5.

Modern Europe 1789 to Present

An introductory course on Europe's tumultuous "modern" era, from the French Revolution to the present. Focus on a few key topics, like the Liberal revolutions, industrialization, the World Wars, Nazism and totalitarianism, or the efforts to create a European Union, will allow students both to delve deeply into particular episodes of European history and at the same time to develop skill in the basic methods and purposes of historical inquiry. Course activities will focus on close readings of historical documents, discussion, essay writing, and formal oral argument. Code 2.

<td>In this upper-division examination of the nature of Nazi society and Fascism more generally, the central focus will be on gender—the images of and attitudes towards masculinity and femininity, and alternative sexualities, in the Third Reich. Changes in the role afforded to men and women, and in beliefs about what it means to be male and female, were at the very center of the revolutionary changes that constituted the shift to the “Modern Era.” In seeking to understand Fascist attitudes toward gender, therefore, the course is seeking to understand not some peripheral aspect of Nazi society, but its very core, the very essence of modern democracy and its nemesis, Fascism. Much attention will be focused on developing skill in understanding and interpreting films and other visual artifacts and how they reveal ideals and assumptions about gender. <td>HIST 318</td>
<td>The Holocaust in Modern Memory</td>
<td>The Holocaust, which ended more than 70 years ago, has never been more present than it is today, exercising a hold on the imagination, especially in the United States and Western Europe, more powerful even than in the immediate aftermath of the war. But why should that be true? Why is it that the social memory of this particular event should have such power over generations so far removed in both time and space—particularly when other episodes of genocidal violence, similar in scale and historical importance—play almost no role in our collective memories and consciousness? This upper-division seminar focuses attention on those questions by examining the history of the memory of the Holocaust: how it is remembered; what is remembered and what is forgotten; how the memories are shaped; and to what uses they are put. Close readings of survivor memoirs and historical interpretations, and visual analyses of films and monuments will help students learn to critique the ways in which all “history” is socially constructed. <td>Samurai: A History of Japan</td>

<td>This upper-division course traces the history of Japan through the development of the samurai as a distinct social group over the last millennium. We will focus on the formation of a distinctive Japanese culture and identity through its initial interaction with cultures inhabiting present-day Korea and China; its borrowing and adaptation of political, economic, social, linguistic, religious and educational elements from China and Korea; and the repeated opening and closing of Japan to the outside world over the course of several centuries. We will also look at Japanese contact with the West, beginning with Dutch traders, the encounter with Commodore Perry's US naval fleet of Black Ships, and the conflict with the Allies (principally the US) during WWII. We will examine these issues through the lens of samurai culture: exploring the myths and reality of samurais as warriors and bureaucrats, their professional and family lives, and their symbolic meaning within Japanese and popular culture; and so on. We will also consider whether this samurai/Japanese ethos is culturally and geographically specific, or transferable. This seminar-style course uses first person accounts; tales, fables and histories; scholarly articles; and films (not just the great Kurosawa epics, but also lesser-known accounts by Mizoguchi Kenji, Inagaki Hiroshi, Jiru Jarmusch, Hirayama, Oshima, Yamada and others). This upper-division seminar examines the role women played in Southeast Asian history from the 19th century till the present, specifically as the region confronted the challenges of colonialism and post-colonial nation-building. Among key issues covered are (1) the encounter between Western guns and local political systems; (2) race and racism (or, why the other group is always a barbarian); (3) how Southeast Asia became modern; (4) decolonization and/or revolution; (4) political, economic and religious challenges in post-colonial nationalism; (5) the intimate and everyday lives of Southeast Asians; and so on. We will work through these themes through the lens of the role of women and women's groups, examining Western tourists, governesses and wives; sex, prostitution and the control of VD; colonial-era marriage with white guys and the biracial children; Islam and women; and post-colonial women political leaders. We will examine these issues within the framework of the political, social, economic and cultural interactions between Britain, France, Holland, the United States of America, China, Japan, Malaysia, Singapore, Vietnam, Thailand, Indonesia, and Myanmar/Burma. In addition to reading a selection of secondary and primary materials, including poems, biographies, memoirs, and histories, students will also watch music videos and films to understand and analyze the issues. Cross-listed as HIST/GST 393. Code 5. G.

HIST 394 Interrogating the Vietnam War: A History of Modern Vietnam (1885-1975) 3.00
When we think of the Vietnam War, we think of a critical period in 20th century American history: the swinging 60s, napalm bombs, mysterious Viet Cong fighters, campus protests, the peace movement, and America’s defeat. We may even think of Tom Cruise in Born On the Fourth of July, or that famous picture of desperate people climbing up the ladder to a helicopter on the roof of the US embassy. But there is another side to the war: the Vietnamese side. This course explores the conflict from that other side. To understand why the Vietnamese took up arms, we examine roughly a century of history beginning with the complete loss of independence to the French in the 1880s and ending with the reunification of the country in 1975. We explore why the Vietnamese resisted the French, how young Vietnamese broke with their centuries-long traditions and radicalized, how women found opportunities in a new modernity, how Ho Chi Minh made several efforts to ally with America (and why the US said ‘No’), and how, ultimately, the US got drawn into a war it had little understanding of. Along the way, we will explore the changing nature of what it means to be Vietnamese on a personal, social and national level, as Vietnamese of different ethnic, class, gender and educational groups, from various geographic areas, confront new forces that re-shape their identities. We will read a mixture of primary and secondary materials, including films, memoirs, recollections, newspaper articles and autobiographies by Vietnamese participants. Code 5. RE.

HIST 395 Modern India: From Gandhi to Slumdog Millionaire 3.00
This course examines the impact of colonialism on the Indian subcontinent and on the formation of the modern India. We will also explore contemporary post-colonial themes such as the urbanization of India, the question of Indian-ness in the face of a growing and prosperous global Indian diaspora (or, why there is an Indian restaurant in just about any town in the US). This course is mainly conducted as a seminar in which students take the lead in presenting and discussing the material. The aim is not just to foster a higher level of critical reading, writing, thinking and speaking, but also to refine professional work habits. Code 5. RE.

HIST 496 Historiographical Research Theories and Methodologies 3.00
Advanced seminar in current methodological and historiographical debates and trends in the historical profession. Introduces students both to the ways in which the writing of history has evolved and changed over time, and to the wide variety of theories and methods that dominate approaches to historical research and writing today. Through focused readings and discussions, students learn to recognize and critically evaluate the underlying assumptions, starting questions, methodologies and theoretical models at work in some of the most important historical debates of the past few decades. Individual historiographical research projects serve as the first step toward the students' primary research for their senior theses in HIST 497. Required of all History majors, and ordinarily taken in the fall of a student's senior year.

Prerequisites:
Prerequisite for taking this course is completion of 6 credits of History at the 300-level or above, or with instructor consent.

Typically Offered:
Fall Term Only

HIST 497 Senior Thesis 3.00
Guided research on a selected historical topic resulting in a thesis paper. Working closely with history faculty, students move beyond engagement with the existing secondary literature on their topic to conduct their own primary research and arrive at their own findings and argument. Individual work in cooperation with a faculty thesis advisor will be balanced with collaborative discussions among all students writing theses. The capstone will be a mini-conference in which each student presents her or his research findings to peers and guests.

Prerequisites:
Prerequisite for taking this course is completion of HIST 496.

Field trips designed to give students direct experiences in foreign countries. Each program includes preparatory reading, orientation meetings, a faculty-supervised study tour, and a detailed written evaluation of learning situations associated with the instructor. With consent of the department chair and content adaptation, programs provided by other agencies can be considered for this credit. Code depends on region visited.

Typically Offered:
Occasional by Demand

HIST 499
Independent Study
For advanced students majoring or minor in History who have shown themselves capable of independent work. Each student is directed by a faculty member chosen by the student. Prerequisite: Approval of the department chair. Code will depend on topic selected.

Typically Offered:
Occasional by Demand

Marketing and Communication for Wellness Managers

Prerequisites:
- Prerequisite for taking this course is having completed PSYC 101 and HWM 300.

Marketing and Communication for Wellness Managers

Students will develop basic marketing and promotional skills, grounded in the disciplines of social marketing, health communication and business marketing that address consumer health “needs” and customer “wants”. Students will be able to assess market opportunities in wellness services, programs and facilities, and create marketing strategies and tactics. Emphases will be placed on best practices for behavior change, instead of cost savings for employers, improved customer/employee participation and/or revenues for wellness programs, services and facilities.

MATH 289  Mathematics Elective
Transfer credits ONLY from another accredited institution not equivalent to a UW-S course.

MATH 310  Introduction to Abstract Mathematics
Fundamentals of formal mathematics emphasizing mathematical writing and types of formal proof. Includes significant coverage of topics in logic, set theory and number theory.
Prerequisites:
Completion of MATH 240 with a C- or better.
Typically Offered:
Fall and Spring Terms

MATH 315  Linear Algebra
Introduction to the algebra and geometry of two-and three-dimensional space and extension to n-dimensional space. Topics include: line and coordinate vectors; systems of linear equations and their solution by reduction methods; matrix algebra; determinants; fundamentals of abstract vector spaces; linear independence, dimension theorems; linear transformations; eigenvalues and eigenvectors; diagonal matrices; quadratic forms; inner products; and the Gram-Schmidt orthogonalization.
Prerequisites:
Successful completion of MATH 310.
Typically Offered:
Fall and Spring Terms

MATH 320  Discrete Structures
Continuation of MATH 310. Investigation of concepts of non-calculus mathematics used in computer science, operations research and other areas of applied mathematics. Topics include: relations and functions, recurrence relations, combinatorics, graph theory, and related algorithms.
Prerequisites:
Successful completion of MATH 310.
Typically Offered:
Fall Term Odd Years Only

MATH 344  Differential Equations
Introduction to the theory of ordinary differential equations including some coverage of series solutions, as time permits. Also covers various classical applications, such as spring mass systems.
Prerequisites:
Successful completion of MATH 241.
Typically Offered:
Fall Term Odd Years Only

MATH 362  Topics in Geometry
Modern treatment of topics from Euclidean geometry with an introduction to other geometries. Appropriate for students in Elementary or Secondary Education.
Prerequisites:
Successful completion of MATH 310.
Typically Offered:
Fall Term Odd Years Only

A learner-center approach methods course focusing on the theories, models, and strategies for effectively understanding and teaching mathematics concepts and skills in the five content areas to elementary/middle school children (ages 6-12/13; grades 1-7/8). National and state standards guide the conceptual framework for this course. Topics include Numbers and Operations; Measurement; Geometry; Data Analysis and Probability; and Algebra. In-class micro-teaching required.

Prerequisites:
Completion of MATH 230 or MTHED 250 (C or Better), and T ED Admission

Typically Offered:
Fall and Spring Terms

MTHED 323 Teaching Elementary/Middle School Mathematics II
Study of the theories, models and strategies for teaching mathematics concepts and skills to elementary/middle school children (ages 6-12/13; grade 1-7/8). National and state standards guide the conceptual framework for this course. Field experience or Academic Services-Learning required.

Prerequisites:
Completion of MTHED 322 (C or Better), Completion of T ED 300 (C or Better), and T ED Admission.

Typically Offered:
Fall and Spring Terms

MTHED 339 Secondary Methods in Mathematics Education
General principles and problems of teaching mathematics in the secondary schools. Emphasis on organizing teaching activities; teaching materials and resources; and current methodology. This course is offered on-campus only. Field experience or Academic Service-Learning required.

Prerequisites:
Admission to the Teacher Education Program and Completion of T ED 300 (C or Better)

Typically Offered:
Spring Term Only

<td>The central objective of this course is to help students understand a diverse array of critical thinking styles. This course emphasizes that the type of thinking one applies depends heavily on one's objective, cultural context, and personal style. These goals will be addressed through a series of modules, each one demonstrating different methods of engaging with ideas to determine their value, falsity, and/or truth. Students will be exposed to methods of reasoning in a variety of historical and cultural contexts. Students will be required: to reflect on their own decision-making process; to identify, evaluate and apply diverse perspectives; to connect and contrast different worldviews; and understand the historical sources of, and to demonstrate openness to, dissimilar worldviews. This course explores different ethical and philosophical approaches to human-environment relations, and their implications for long-term ecological sustainability. Topics include wilderness, climate ethics and politics, food ethics, individual vs. collective action, indigenous relationships to the land, pets, and consumption.

This course exposes students to some of the classic pieces in this field of political theory and teaches them how to work with theoretical and philosophical texts that continue to shape, inform, and challenge the analysis of current political phenomena today. Through these texts, the course introduces questions about the nature of human beings, the roots of government authority, the best regime, and the circumstances of legitimate revolution as well as ideals such as liberty, equality, rights, and justice. Cross-listed as PHIL/POLS 262.

Examines the nature of science, the history of science, and the nature and history of the impact of science on human life and thought. Provides some understanding of the methods of science, the difference between science and pseudo science, the political and ideological uses of science, and the moral responsibilities of scientists and science educators. Cross listed as PHIL/PHYS 300.

Field trips designed by the department faculty to give students direct experiences in foreign countries. Each program includes preparatory reading, orientation meetings, a faculty-supervised study tour, and a detailed written evaluation of learning situations associated with the course. With consent of the relevant program and content adaptation, programs provided by other agencies can be considered for this credit. Students must obtain approval for taking these courses prior to participation. Otherwise the course may not count. Also, for specific degree requirements, please consult your advisor. Course can be repeated only if the content is different.

Students will investigate what it means to be concerned with social justice, and how to motivate oneself and others to make desired social change. Central concerns will include: identifying and addressing inequalities of power, self-reflection regarding one's social location, non-hierarchical organizations, and recognizing the value of diversity. This course will be relevant to those with interests in a variety of careers including: education, social work, non-profits, government, and community activism.

In this course we will read philosophers who are concerned with our liberation from inherited, imprisoning belief systems. As such, special attention will be given to the philosophical question of freedom, its limits, and its use as a basis for rationality, morality, and politics. This course will focus primarily on philosophers from the Enlightenment (Kant) through German Idealism (Hegel) Schelling, Kierkegaard, Nietzsche, Marx and Husserl.

"Know thyself" seems like good advice. But what does it mean to know yourself? Aren't some aspects of ourselves hidden from us? Do others know us in ways that we can never know ourselves? This course is an exploration of (mostly 20th Century Continental) philosophers notions of the self/subjectivity. Interestingly, they consider the self as something fundamentally concealed/hiddlen/absent from oneself. Our ongoing question will be; how can we have any self-knowledge in light of these ideas? Philosophers we will consider may include: Husserl, Sartre, Levinas, and Derrida.

Prerequisite for taking this course is completion of any 100 or 200 level PHIL course or POLS 262, or instructor consent.

Prerequisite for taking this course is completion of any 100 or 200 level PHIL course or consent of instructor.
In-depth study of a particular problem, philosopher or period of current interest. May be repeated for up to nine credits provided topics are different.

<td>POLS 100</td>
<td>Introduction to Political Science&lt;br&gt;Politics is often perceived as cynical and subsidiary from the normative interaction of society. But what is politics? What is the role of politics in society? What is the relationship between politics and government? To what extent does politics influence human relations and the ways in which government and its institutions function? The course will examine these questions by focusing on one topic each semester. Each of these topics—such as the concept of borders, citizenship, globalization, immigration, etc.—represents a central debate in politics, and introduces some of the current concerns in our world today.</td>

<td>Introduction to Comparative Politics&lt;br&gt;The recent history of Afghanistan has highlighted the complexities of national and state building. This course explores these two terms and what they mean. Is there a single universal definition and a singular path to modernity or are there multiple definitions and pathways to modernity? The first part of the course will examine the various theories of development with this question in mind. The second part of the course will focus on one developing country. By concentrating on their development pattern we draw out some lessons about tensions and contradictions that accompany development.</td>

Also included is a discussion of the implications for trust and legitimacy, the immediate and long-term consequences of scandal, and the different responses to corruption used by the executive, legislative, and judicial branches. Through this lens, students will gain an understanding of the workings of American National Government.</td>

We particularly examine how we as individuals interact and help maintain the current global order with an understanding that we can change the current order for a better order in the future. The course will cover the potential for biowarfare/bioterrorist acts, how destruction is produced, and government preparedness, response, and recovery from such attacks. Bioterrorism and its various dimensions is the primary focus and thus topics covered in this class. For most weeks, however, we will ask (and attempt to answer) the question what role does/should government have in addressing this issue?

University Studies Requirements (2017-19 Catalog):

Typically Offered:
- Fall Term Only

This course exposes students to some of the classic pieces in this field of political theory and teaches them how to work with theoretical and philosophical texts that continue to shape, inform, and challenge the analysis of current political phenomena today. Through these texts, the course introduces questions about the nature of human beings, the roots of government authority, the best regime, and the circumstances of legitimate revolution as well as ideals such as liberty, equality, rights, and justice. Cross-listed as PHIL/POLS 262.

University Studies Requirements (2017-19 Catalog):

This course is an interdisciplinary examination of various theories of the causes of conflict and conflict resolution within the specific historical context of the disintegration of Yugoslavia during the 1990s, and particularly the Bosnian was of 1992-95. Using those historical events and the questions they raise as a test-case, the course will try to come to some general conclusions about the nature and causes of ethnic conflict and how it differs from interstate conflict; the reasons for and methods of international intervention, including negotiation, arbitration, adjudication, and mediation; the factors that contribute to the success or failure of various methods of intervention and conflict resolution; the challenges involved in re-building societies after war; and the long-term prospects for fostering peace, security, justice, and human rights through such efforts. Code 2. RE.

University Studies Requirements (2017-19 Catalog):
- Humanities - WLCP

Typically Offered:
- Spring Term Odd Years Only

This course introduces students to the origin and theoretical background of some of the central debates within political theory. Focus is on topics such as power and authority, nation-state in a global world, sovereignty and control, gender and identity and human rights. By analyzing and understanding some of the common underlying assumptions and beliefs about human nature, society, and state, we will learn about the forces that shape our economic, social and political systems today.

Field trips designed by the department faculty to give students direct experiences in foreign countries. Each program includes preparatory reading, orientation meetings, a faculty-supervised study tour, and a detailed written evaluation of learning situations associated with the course. With consent of the relevant program and content adaptation, programs provided by other agencies can be considered for this credit. Students must obtain approval for taking these courses prior to participation. Otherwise the course may not count. For specific degree requirements, consult your advisor. The course can be repeated only if content is different.

POLS 302 Social Science Research Methods
The course explores research methods used in social science to study human thoughts, behaviors, interaction, institutions, and populations. The study of research is meant to provide students with the practical tools of doing social science research, including formulating their own research questions and developing analytical strategies to evaluate those questions. In addition, the course provides the theoretical background for reading, evaluating and interpreting existing empirical research.

Typically Offered: Fall Term Only

POLS 330 U.S. State and Local Government
Comparative study of the political behavior and institutions of the state and local governments in the United States; current structural and functional problems confronting these political systems.

Typically Offered: Fall or Spring Terms

POLS 345 Theories of War and Peace
This course examines various political theories in terms of their relevance to the question of war and peace. Specially, how does each theory define peace (negative or positive) what should be done to preserve and maintain peace; whether war is inevitable; and under what conditions is it legitimate to resort to war. The following “traditions” will be covered in the course: realism, liberalism, Marxism, globalization, feminism, post-colonialism, post-modernism, constructivism, international justice, green, globalization and human security.

Typically Offered: Fall Term Every Other Year

POLS 352 Paths to Peace
The first part of the course examines how economic, social, political, environmental and legal policies facilitate movement towards peace in a broad context. The emphasis will be to link policies that enable us to move towards a more just world. The second part of this course examines various approaches to peace from simple peacekeeping to peacebuilding.

Typically Offered: Fall Term Every Other Year

POLS 353 International Law
The first part of this course examines how we define human rights by examining the treaties that serve as the foundation of human rights such as the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights. This section also examines the various institutions that have been created to monitor and enforce these treaties such as the UN Human Rights Council and the European Court of Human Rights. The second part of the course examines the text of various international treaties that relate to subjects such as war crimes, crimes against humanity, genocide, torture, gender discrimination, racial discrimination, and refugees. The course will conclude with an evaluation of the emerging institutional framework to better monitor and enforce these laws, most notably the International Criminal Court.

Typically Offered: Spring Term Every Other Year

POLS 361 Campaigns and Elections
In a representative democracy, active participation in elections is essential to ensure elected officials remain faithful to constituent interests. Does this ideal adequately reflect the nature of elections in the current political system? This course is designed to expose students to the contemporary state of Congressional and Presidential campaigns in the American political system with focus on campaign strategy, the role of the media and campaign finance. The course also investigates contemporary elections, examining who votes and why, and the mechanics of the electoral process.

POLS 372 Power and Resistance
This course explores the politics of power and resistance. It introduces different concepts of modern and pre-modern power and control, and examines instances of resistance from around the world, traversing different time periods, geographies, and cultures. Examples range from peasant revolts to labor movements, feminist struggles to antiwar mobilizations, prisoner uprisings to popular wars. The course inquires into the social forces involved, what they seek to resist, the methods and goals of resistance, and the reception of this resistance by its purported audience. This course incorporates theoretical and historical texts as well as visual material and movies.

Typically Offered: Fall Term Every Other Year

POLS 374 Women and Politics
In the United States, women hold 18% of the seats in the 112th Congress, marking the nation 85th in its level of representation for women. Globally, women constitute 15% of all members of parliament, although significant regional variation persists. How do gendered hierarchies continue to shape and structure political systems? Why have women not yet reached parity in elected office? Should women be represented as women? What difference do women bring to elective office? These and other questions are explored throughout the course, with particular attention to the historical exclusion of women from the public arena, the methods used by women to enter electoral and activist politics, and the current political status of women in the United States and globally. Cross-listed as POLS/GST 374.

POLS 376 Theories of Human Rights

This course examines the nature and origin of human rights, as well as the conflicts and debates that result from the different understanding of the concept. We will explore questions such as: Are human rights individual or collective? Are they universal or should instead be understood as culturally sensitive? Do they include positive rights or only negative rights? And what about economic and social rights? Providing answers to these questions will allow us to understand our own political, economic, and social beliefs, as well as approaches that are different from ours. In order to answer these questions, the course will combine discussions about the concept of human rights with analyses of current cases of human rights violations around the world, including the origin of these violations, desired changes, politics, and effective actions.

Typically Offered:

Fall Term Every Other Year

POLS 381 Theories of Justice

The course examines the different approaches to the concept of justice, in the attempt to help students develop their own critical thinking about the topic. The course overviews the leading contemporary conceptions and theories of justice - including utilitarian, libertarian, communitarian, deliberative-democratic, and feminist theories -, and focuses on the relationship between theories of justice and concepts of liberty and equality. The aim of this course is to examine the ways in which each of these different approaches to justice provides a different vision for the political, economic, and social life, and shapes different institutions and values.

POLS 397 American Conservative Thought

The political debates between liberalism and conservatism are ardent. However, while these two terms are used freely and are attached to varied themes, their meaning is uncertain. Hence this class aims to introduce the students to the meaning of American conservatism. While defining conservatism, students will become familiar with the most relevant topics in the American Conservative Thought. The class introduces the political and philosophical heritage of conservatism, as well as examines themes that are relevant to contemporary American politics today. The focus will be on principles of conservatism, not on analyzing policies or proposals. Moreover, aiming to give a balanced view, a variety of perspectives that support and criticize American Conservatism will be presented.

Typically Offered:

POLS 420 Biotechnology Policy and Ethics

Human reproductive cloning, genetic modification and alteration, personalized genomics, synthetic biology...these are only some of the areas of inquiry in the life sciences that have attracted public interest for their societal, ethical and policy implications. This course examines the political and ethical implications of selected areas of biotechnology that are now a part of the contemporary public debate with particular emphasis on the impact of these technologies on women. Some of the principles examined are legalistic, while others require ethical reasoning evaluating concepts such as human nature, personhood and autonomy. Key questions considered in this course include: Who benefits from these biotechnologies? Who are the primary actors engaged in policy creation? How can emerging technologies best be managed to balance individual freedom and scientific advancement with adequate protections for vulnerable classes? Finally, how do these technologies fit into our belief systems regarding the desirability of emerging biotechnologies in our individual lives and for society more generally?

POLS 456 Feminist Theory and Action

Seminar course providing a deeper look at feminist thought, building on the introduction provided in GST 150. Through readings and films, examines conversations, controversies, and connections among a range of feminist thinkers. Students explore the intersections of feminist thought and action, reading a variety of calls to action and articulating their own. Cross-listed as POLS/GST 456.

Prerequisites:

Prerequisite for taking this course is completion of GST 150 or instructor consent.

Typically Offered:

Spring Term Only

POLS 465 Congress and the Presidency

How have the contemporary Congress and President changed over the past two hundred years? Are these changes consistent with the intent of the Founding Fathers? Do we have an imperial Presidency? Why do Americans consistently approve of their member of Congress yet revile Congress as an institution? This course is designed to explore the historical evolution of the Executive and Legislative branches of government, while simultaneously considering the intention of the Founding Fathers. The nature of this interbranch relationship is evaluated through examination of the political parties, elections and the changing electoral and partisan environments.

Typically Offered:

Spring Term Only

---

POLS 485 Internship

2.00 - 10.00
Structured and focused field experience in a public agency. Students will be assigned duties in various agencies. Prerequisites: Only students with a Political Science major or minor may enroll in this course. Written consent of the instructor must be obtained before registering for this course. Since the internship is an independent learning experience involving the cooperation and assistance of an outside agency, students should notify the instructor in writing of their interest in doing an internship early in the semester before the semester of the actual field experience.

<td>The central objective of this course is to help students understand a diverse array of critical thinking styles. This course emphasizes that the type of thinking one applies depends heavily on one's objective, cultural context, and personal style. These goals will be addressed through a series of modules, each one demonstrating different methods of engaging with ideas to determine their value, falsity, and/or truth. Students will be exposed to methods of reasoning in a variety of historical and cultural contexts. Students will be required: to reflect on their own decision-making process; to identify, evaluate and apply diverse perspectives; to connect and contrast different worldviews; and understand the historical sources of, and to demonstrate openness to, dissimilar worldviews. Introduction to the effects of culture on who we are and how we think of ourselves (and others). Central themes: How does culture construct the categories that come to define our identities (e.g., race, gender, class)? How does this differ from one cultural context (i.e., region, nation, continent) to the next? How do these constructs shape our beliefs, attitudes, and behaviors? How does this contribute to intergroup / international conflict and misunderstanding? Classroom activities and assignments are aimed at confronting, acknowledging, questioning, and challenging the automatic assumptions that result from our own singular cultural experience, and experiencing differences in culture. Meets the requirement for the General Education diversity credit.

- Transfer credits ONLY from another accredited institution not equivalent to UW-S course.
An opportunity to explore interest in possible field(s) of social work practice; with instructor, student selects a field to explore, develops a study contract to demonstrate that he or she understands the field of practice and what it entails. The student is expected to evaluate his or her capacity, interest, and skill sets in relation to that field. Open to majors and non-majors.

Typically Offered:
Fall and Spring Terms

Study Abroad
Field trips designed by the faculty to give students direct experiences in foreign countries. Each program includes preparatory reading, orientation meetings, a faculty-supervised study tour, and a detailed written evaluation of learning situations associated with the course. Students must obtain approval for taking these courses prior to participation. For specific degree requirements, please consult your advisor. May be repeated only if the content is different. As offered.

Typically Offered:
Occasional by Demand

Ecology of Social Welfare Policy
First in a two-course sequence. Provides an ecological overview of policymaking—how differing systems and values interact to create the policymaking environment. Begins with a review of the history of social welfare and uses this historical lens to examine the structure of present social welfare policies and service programs. Focuses on understanding the political forces and processes which impact social policy development, as well as upon how ethical, cultural, social and economic justice issues impact the creation of social welfare policy and programs at the local, regional, national and international levels. Recommend: POLS 150, 230, 330, ECON 235, and/or ECON 251 as an adjunct to more comprehensive understanding of social welfare policy. Open to non-majors.

Prerequisites:
Successful completion of SO W 121 with a grade of C or above is a prerequisite.

Typically Offered:
Spring Term Only

Social Welfare Policy Practice
Second in a two-course social policy sequence. Builds upon the ecological foundation established in the first. Students build critical thinking and other practical skills necessary to conduct social welfare policy analysis. Students will be introduced to the concepts of regulation and resistance, and apply those to understanding current and historical social welfare policies. Students will be taught how to propose social welfare policy alternatives to meet the service, economic and social justice needs of vulnerable regional people. Finally, students will be trained to apply advocacy skills and to use social and economic justice principles in addressing social welfare needs.

Prerequisites:
Successful completion of SO W 325 with a grade of C or above.

Typically Offered:
Fall Term Only

Crisis Intervention
In-depth study of the theoretical basis of what a crisis is, crisis intervention and the steps to be taken in crisis resolution. Focuses on micro, mezzo and macro applications of crisis intervention models and practice skills, examining both situational and maturational crises and the implications of crisis intervention for work with families, groups and communities, and at the international level.

Typically Offered:
Spring Term Only

Methods of Practice I: Interpersonal Skills for Social Workers
Teaches future social work practitioners interpersonal helping skills within a solution focused perspective. Focus is on interpersonal communication and development of interviewing skills ranging from basic to advanced. Students will be taught the conscious use of self, the use of empathy, ethics and boundary issues encountered in interviewing, and cross-cultural differences in the interpersonal skills process. Interviewing with specific populations will also be discussed including work with children, people in crisis and involuntary clients. Exercises, role playing and simulations focused on situations encountered specifically at the micro and mezzo of social work practice are used to enhance learning.

Prerequisites:
Prerequisite for taking this course is having completed SO W 121 or taking it concurrently. Corequisites are enrollment in SO W 341 and SO W 344, and formal admission into the Social Work Program.

Typically Offered:
Fall Term Only

Methods of Practice II: Individual Case Work
Second of a four-course practice sequence devoted to development of the entry-level social work practitioner. Focuses on understanding and using current models of social work practice employed by the generalist social worker in casework with individuals, particularly the ethical/socially sensitive perspective, the ecological model, the problem-solving model, the task-centered approach, evidence-based approach, and the strengths perspective. Course delineates the basic social work helping process: engagement including exploration and data gathering, assessment and planning, intervention, monitoring and evaluation, and termination. Emphasis on presenting students with professional knowledge, values, ethics, and skills to think critically about and conduct effective case work with individuals. Students analyze various social, economic, and human rights justice issues and environmental conditions which impact the practice of social work with individuals.

Prerequisites:
Prerequisite for taking this course is having completed SO W 121 or taking it concurrently. Corequisites are enrollment in SO W 340 and SO W 344, and formal admission into the Social Work Program.

Typically Offered:
Fall Term Only

Human Behavior In the Social Environment I (HBSE I)
Human Behavior in the Social Environment II (HBSE II)

Study of the basic concepts of social systems theory particularly relevant to social work practice. Knowledge from the social sciences is integrated to provide a basis for intervention with individuals, families, groups, organizations and communities. Special emphasis is made on self-examination in relation to ethical, social justice, and human diversity issues and on acquiring transferable sets of skills in learning to interact effectively with vulnerable or at-risk populations.

Prerequisites:
- Successful completion of SO W 340, SO W 341 and SO W 344 with a grade of C or above in all courses are prerequisites. SO W 345 and SO W 366 are corequisites.

Typically Offered:
- Spring Term Only

Methods of Practice III: Family and Group Work

Third course in the methods sequence using the basic framework of social work practice, theory, helping process and skills examined in SOW 340 and 341. Primary emphasis on development of skills to work with small-group systems and families. Group and family work includes learning effective practice approaches with people from diverse client groups and empowering group and family clients. Course focuses on recognizing and resolving ethical dilemmas, human rights issues, and social and economic justice issues within group and family practice contexts.

Prerequisites:
- Successful completion of SO W 340, SO W 341, and SO W 344 with a grade of C or above in all courses are prerequisites. SO W 345 and SO W 366 are corequisites for taking this course.

Typically Offered:
- Spring Term Only

Social Work Practice with American Indian Families

Addresses social work practice issues related to contemporary American Indian family life, including recognition of the importance of American Indian tribal contexts and community-based developmental assets; development and implementation of the Indian Child Welfare Act; impact of sovereignty and other social policy issues on American Indian families; and effective approaches to use when helping American Indian families. Offers an opportunity to better understand and work more effectively with American Indian families. Open to non-majors and can be used as a General Education diversity requirement. Cross-listed FNS/SOW 386.

Typically Offered:
- Spring Term Only

Inquiry into how social factors influence the thought of human beings; major trends and theorists contributing to the rise of sociological thought. Critically examines the work of classical, progressive, minority, and feminist theorists, looking not only at their conclusions, but also their assumptions, and their applicability to contemporary issues. Required for all majors and minors. We recommend that majors take this class in their junior year.

Prerequisites:
- Prerequisite for taking this course is completion of SOCI 101 and 3 additional credits of Sociology.

Typically Offered:
- Fall Term Only

SOCI 389 Sociology Elective
- Transfer credits ONLY from another accredited institution not equivalent to a UW-Superior course.

SOCI 395 Sociological Research Methods
- Introduction to social science epistemology, the design of research, conduct of research and the analysis of findings. Explores the use of survey, ethnography, in-depth interview, and archival, symbolic, and statistical analytic tools. This course is a prerequisite for the sociology capstone (SOCI 498). We recommend that majors take this class in their junior year.

Prerequisites:
- Successful completion of SOCI 101 is prerequisite for enrolling in this course.

Typically Offered:
- Occasional by Demand

SOCI 410 Social Movements in Sociological Perspective
- Examines the central features of social movements and their critical role in shaping history. We begin by examining the difference between social movements, political campaigns, non-profit organizations, and “grassroots” campaigns. We then turn to specific examples of how people have organized for change in the U.S. and abroad, reflecting on the different goals, tactics, and successes of movements throughout history and today. Students in this course will conduct original sociological research into social movements in the Superior/Duluth region and should come away with an understanding of the way that everyday people can and have changed the world.

Prerequisites:
- Prerequisite for taking this course is completion of SOCI 101 or instructor consent.

Typically Offered:
- Spring Term Only

SOCI 411 Bodies: Sociology of the Flesh
- Examines the role of society in understanding and relating to biology, especially the human body. We tend to think of the body as a “given,” but in this class we will explore how the body and our relationship to it has changed dramatically over place and time. We will analyze how bodies are used as grounds for inequality, including not only those rooted in gender but also race, disability, size, and social class. This course also counts for credit toward the Gender Studies minor. Cross-listed as SOCI/GST 411.

Prerequisites:
- Prerequisite for taking this course is completion of SOCI 101, GST 210, or instructor consent.

Typically Offered:
- Fall Term Every Other Year

SOCI 413 Complex Identities: Global Race, Class, and Gender
- Examines race, class, gender, and other major aspects of social identity as intersecting phenomena, including some of their cousins: colonialism, patriarchy, marginalization, and racism. We look carefully at the ways each of these systems of power shifts and influences the others by assuming an intersectional perspective throughout the course. This course has a specifically global emphasis, looking at how seemingly fixed identities like race change radically in different parts of the globe. This course also counts for credit toward the Gender Studies minor. Cross-listed as SOCI/GST 413.

Prerequisites:
- Prerequisite for taking this course is completion of SOCI 101, GST 210, or instructor consent.

Typically Offered:
- Fall Term Only

SOCI 414 Sociology of Superior, WI
- In most sociology classes, we read others’ research about faraway places but in this class, we will be conducting the research, and we will do it in our own local community and with community members and organizations. We will collaborate on a single coherent research project of sociological significance and learn about Superior in the process. How do the big ideas, trends, and questions that we debate in other sociology classes come to bear on our own community? What can we learn by doing the research for ourselves? Research project will focus on race and racism.

Typically Offered:
- Spring Term Every Other Year

SOCI 423 Environmental Sociology
- Investigation of the relationship between the natural world and social systems. We will place particular emphasis on the effect of growth-based economic systems on ecosystems, environmental social movements, and the structural nature of environmental problems and solutions.

Prerequisites:
- Successful completion of SOCI 101 is prerequisite for enrolling in this course.

Typically Offered:
- Fall Term Only

SOCI 424 Sociology of Education
- Exploration of how primary, secondary, and higher education systems in the United States are influenced by social, political, and economic factors. We will pay special attention to the role of education in reproducing class, gender, and racial inequality.

Accounting Program

The Accounting Major works toward developing effective decision-makers and leaders in both the private and public sectors through a strong practical business education as well as a comprehensive liberal arts education.

The Accounting Major is designed to engage students in critical thinking so they can analyze problems, implement strategies, and contribute to the success of a business organization.

While pursuing the Accounting Major, students study under highly qualified faculty members who have expertise in their specialized fields as well as extensive business experience.

The Accounting Major instills excellence, builds confidence, and develops strong leadership skills that graduates can use throughout their careers.

Student Outcomes

The Accounting Program is committed to the UW-Superior Campus Assessment Plan. Accounting student learning outcomes and assessment metrics are developed through a collaborative continuous improvement process that integrates input from the campus and business communities. Our program's student learning outcomes are:

1. Students will demonstrate mastery of the functional areas of accounting.
2. Students will demonstrate the effective use of technology.
3. Students will demonstrate knowledge of moral and ethical principles in accounting and apply them.
4. Students will communicate effectively, orally and in writing in a professional manner.
5. Students will demonstrate the effective use of critical thinking in decision-making.
6. Students will demonstrate the ability to master advanced knowledge of a specific topic within accounting.
7. Students will demonstrate an understanding what it means to be an accounting professional.
8. Students will demonstrate the ability to utilize collective knowledge to synthesize relevant data, using it to construct applicable financial statements and corresponding tax return.

Curriculum

The four-year program is divided into the General Military Course (GMC), primarily for freshmen and sophomores, and the Professional Officer Course (POC), primarily for juniors and seniors. Under the four-year program, students register for Air Force ROTC in their freshman year and complete a four-year academic curriculum, including a three-week summer field training program between their sophomore and junior years. Students may join the program during the sophomore year. The GMC requires attending a one-credit course and a 90-minute leadership laboratory each week. ROTC cadets must also attend physical training twice a week.

Enrollment in the GMC does not confer military status. Normal course progression for GMC students is AIRS 101, 102, 201, 202, along with the associated Leadership Laboratory of AIRS 111, 112, 211, 212.

Students who want to take the POC must complete prerequisite courses, pass the Air Force commissioning physical, and be admitted by the department head. The normal prerequisite for POC admission is completion of the GMC and field training. POC members are student officer candidates; they are obligated to complete the course, accept a commission in the Air Force, and serve a tour of active duty. POC members receive a monthly, tax-free allowance of $450 to $500. Normal course progression for POC members is AIRS 301, 302, 401, 402, along with associated Leadership Laboratory of AIRS 311, 312, 411 and 412.

Program Description

Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps (AFROTC) is a nationwide program that allows students to pursue commissions (become officers) in the United States Air Force (USAF) while simultaneously attending college.

AFROTC classes are held on college campuses throughout the United States and Puerto Rico; students can register through normal course registration processes. AFROTC consists of four years of Aerospace Studies classes (Foundations of the USAF, Evolution of USAF and Space Power, Air Force Leadership Studies, and National Security Affairs/Preparation for Active Duty), and a corresponding Leadership Laboratory for each year (where students apply leadership skills, demonstrate command and effective communication, develop physical fitness, and practice military customs and courtesies). College students enrolled in the AFROTC program (known as “cadets”) who successfully complete both AFROTC training and college degree requirements will graduate and simultaneously commission as Second Lieutenants in the Active Duty Air Force.

The AFROTC program is currently offered at the University of Minnesota Duluth, but they have a crosstown agreement that allows our students to enroll in AFROTC and become full-fledged cadet participants. More information on the AFROTC program can be found here.

More information on AFROTC course descriptions.

Admission Requirements

The program is geared for cadets to take along with their four years of college. Students interested in entering the ROTC program with less than four years remaining in their college program should contact the ROTC office at 218-726-8159 for potential waivers.

Any college student can take the academic courses, AIRS 101 - 402. To be a cadet, students must also enroll in Leadership Laboratory, AIRS 111 - 412, each corresponding semester. Cadets must also pass a medical exam and a fitness test during their first year. For a commission in the United States Air Force, cadets must also pass the Air Force Officer Qualifying Test administered during their sophomore year.

Anthropology Minor

Anthropology is the comparative study of human thought, experience, and behavior in all of its complexity and diversity. The anthropological perspective is crucial for navigating an increasingly global world. The Anthropology minor is part of the Anthropology/Sociology Program, housed in the Department of Social Inquiry. The minor is designed to complement a wide array of majors and is supported by faculty in a range of disciplines.

Student Learning Outcomes

- Cultivate awareness and analysis of the role of "culture" in one's own and others worldviews, practices, identities, and lived experience.
- Demonstrate a critical, historically informed understanding of anthropological inquiry, including concepts, theories, and methods that have been used to study human experience in all its variety.
- Use appropriate research methods, including observation and interviews, to study culture and social life.
- Engage with diverse people, perspectives, and practices in an open-minded, empathetic, and self-reflective manner.
- Integrate questions, evidence, and interpretation effectively in written and oral presentations.

Anthropology Minor Requirements

21 total credits

- Nine of the 21 credits must be at the 300 level or above.
- At least twelve credits must be Anthropology courses.

Required Anthropology courses (6 credits required):

ANTH 101: The Human Experience -- 3.00 credits
ANTH 315: Cultural Anthropology -- 3.00 credits

Anthropology Elective courses (a minimum of 6 credits required):

ANTH 104: The History of Human Origins -- 3.00 credits
ANTH 205: Language, Culture, and Society -- 3.00 credits
ANTH 301: Study Abroad -- 0.00 - 6.00 credits
ANTH 306: African Archeology -- 3.00 credits
ANTH 310: Gender in Cross-Cultural Perspective -- 3.00 credits
ANTH 320: Environmental Anthropology -- 3.00 credits

Associate Degree

- Associate Degree
- Associate Degree Requirements

The associate degree (a two-year degree) is primarily intended to provide a broad liberal arts background and is designed to be the foundation for, and satisfy the general education requirements, for most bachelor degree programs. Students who intend to transfer to another institution should earn an Associate degree prior to leaving UW-Superior. Latin honors are not awarded for associate degrees.

Associate Degree Requirements

The Associate Degree consists of the University Studies Requirements plus 18 additional credits.

60 credits total

Overall Associate Degree Requirements

1. Earn a resident (UW-Superior) cumulative grade point average of 2.0.
2. Earn at least 24 credits from UW-Superior.
3. The last 12 credits of the degree must be earned at UW-Superior.
4. Complete General, Core and Knowledge Category requirements.
5. Complete the Diversity and Global Awareness Requirements.
7. Pay a $50 graduation fee to the Bursar/Cashier's Office prior to the diploma being sent. The graduation fee does not include the cap and gown, which is purchased separately in the University Bookstore.
8. Degrees are not posted to transcripts with outstanding Incomplete or In-Progress grades.
9. Student may not use more than one catalog; student may not satisfy the University Studies/General Education requirements from one catalog, while satisfying the major requirements of another catalog.
10. Degrees are posted in the term in which a graduation application is submitted for the respective degree.
11. Degrees are not posted when a student has been academically suspended.

Additional Associate Degree Requirements

1. Complete a minimum of 60 credit hours (numbered 100 or above); at least 24 credits must be earned at UW-Superior.
2. Complete an additional three credits in the Natural Sciences: courses in Biology, Chemistry, Geology or Physics.
3. Complete an additional three credits in the Social Sciences: courses in Economics, Political Science, Sociology, Psychology or Anthropology.
4. Complete an additional four credits drawn from any of the following disciplines: Anthropology, Art History, Biology, Chemistry, Computer Science, Economics, English, Film/Theatre, Gender Studies, History, Foreign Languages, Geology, Geography, First Nations Studies, Music, Philosophy, Physics, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology or Writing (with the exception of 099, 101, or 102).
5. Complete at least two courses, excluding core requirements, in a single discipline.

Associate of Science-Pre-Engineering Emphasis

The Associate's of Science degree prepares students to succeed in a Bachelor's engineering program of their choice. Students will study the math and science they need in a cost-effective and learner-centered environment. Students will also receive individualized academic advising to help them transition into a four-year engineering program. Completion of the AS degree satisfies University Studies requirements at other University of Wisconsin System universities.

Student Learning Outcomes

- Creative and Critical Thinking:
  - Students will be able to draw reasoned conclusions from sound mathematical or scientific principles and data.
  - Students will be able to critically evaluate given assumptions and reasoning about a problem.
- Communication: Students will be able to communicate effectively using accepted mathematical and scientific notation, terminology, and conventions.
- Individual and Social Responsibility: Students will demonstrate an understanding of how their decisions (personal or professional) can alter the well-being of themselves, others, or the greater environment.

Associates of Science Degree Requirements

Pre-engineering emphasis

For this degree, students do NOT need to fulfill the typical general education/university studies requirements for a bachelor's degree, but only the following requirements.

60 total college level credits with at least a 2.0 GPA
Completion of 24 credits from UW-Superior, including the last 12 credits

Required Core courses (30 credits)

CHEM 105: General Chemistry I -- 5.00 credits
CSCI 201: Introduction to Programming -- 3.00 credits
MATH 240: Calculus and Analytic Geometry I -- 4.00 credits
MATH 241: Calculus and Analytic Geometry II -- 4.00 credits
MATH 242: Calculus and Analytic Geometry III -- 4.00 credits
PHYS 201: Calculus-Based Physics I -- 5.00 credits
PHYS 202: Calculus-Based Physics II -- 5.00 credits

STEM Technical Electives (7 credits)

The technical electives are designed to allow students to explore their desired subfield of engineering. A strategic selection of courses can help with the transfer process to a specific engineering school. Note that students have the option to cross-register for courses at the University of Minnesota-Duluth. Students should discuss their options with their advisor. The following UW Barron County online engineering courses are recommended: EGR 105, 110, 111, 201, and 282.

Any courses from the following prefixes:
BIOL
CHEM (106 or higher)
CSCI (202 or higher)
GEOG GIS courses (241, 343, 442)
GEOL
MATH (300 or higher)
PHYS (301 or higher)

Communication courses (9 credits)

COMM 110: Introduction to Communication -- 3.00 credits
WRIT 102: Introduction to Academic Writing -- 3.00 credits
WRIT 209: Introduction to Professional Writing -- 3.00 credits

General Education/University Studies elective courses (12 credits)

UW-Superior-Superior Humanities Category - 3 credits
UW-Superior Social Science Category - 6 credits from two different prefixes. ECON 250 or ECON 251 is required.
UW-Superior Fine and Applied Arts Category - 3 credits
Diversity requirement (3 credits)

Individual, Social, and Environmental Responsibility (6 credits)

ANTH 320: Environmental Anthropology -- 3.00 credits
BIOL 100: Environmental Science -- 2.00 credits
BUS 363: Business Ethics and Social Responsibility -- 3.00 credits

Biology Program

The Biology curriculum leads to either a Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Arts degree. A minor field of study is required.

Biology has many specialty areas and exciting career opportunities. The courses required for biology majors have been selected to provide a broad introduction to the field of biology. Students are encouraged to individualize their biology curriculum by taking elective courses in their specific areas of interest including: Pre-Medicine and Health Professions, Cell/Molecular Biology, Ecology/Aquatic Biology/Fishery Science, and Plant Sciences. Prospective high school biology teachers should take note of the special requirements for Secondary Certification. Your biology advisor will guide you in choosing a program of study that best suits your interests and goals.

The Biology program is strengthened by the environmental resources of the Lake Superior region and by close working relationships with regional research laboratories. Field and laboratory research experience and internships are provided through cooperation with UW-Superior's Lake Superior Research Institute, Lake Superior National Estuarine Research Reserve, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources, Minnesota Department of Natural Resources, and faculty research grants.

The freshman biology sequence (BIOL 130 and BIOL 132) is typically completed in the first year. Credit for these introductory courses may be awarded to high school students who have taken Advanced Placement courses. A score of 3 on the AP biology exam will earn credit for BIOL 130. For scores of 4 or greater, credit will be awarded for both BIOL 130 and 132. Credit is also awarded for International Baccalaureate (IB) exams. International students should contact the Department chair to discuss advanced placement based on their previous course work. Biology courses numbered over 400 should be taken during the junior or senior year. A formal plan for the required Senior Experience should be approved by the end of the second semester of the junior year.

All Secondary Education students must also meet the Professional Education Requirements (see the Secondary Education information under the Teacher Education section of this catalog) including completion of NSED 339 Teaching Science in the Secondary Schools as well as course work in Chemistry, Physics, and Earth Sciences. See your advisor for recommended classes.

Pre-Medicine and Health Professions Concentration Requirements

This concentration provides comprehensive academic preparation in Biology for students interested in chiropractic, dentistry, medicine, occupational therapy, optometry, pharmacy, physical therapy, physician assistant, podiatry, and veterinary medicine. Admission to professional schools in these fields typically requires additional coursework in areas such as physics, mathematics, and chemistry that can be taken as part of a Minor field or other elective courses.

38 total biology credits plus 9 chemistry credits

Required Biology courses (28 credits required):

BIOL 130: Principles of Biology I -- 4.00 credits

Cell/Molecular Biology Focus

Cell and molecular biologists study basic life processes, seeking to understand them at the molecular level. Students interested in graduate, medical or professional schools, or work in the pharmaceutical or biotechnology industries are encouraged to focus on course offerings in the Biology Major which will expose them to a variety of techniques and areas of study and also provide the opportunity for independent research. Those interested in focusing on Cell and Molecular Biology would benefit from a minor in chemistry (taking CHEM 360, Biochemistry as part of the minor). Students should also consider enrolling in:

BIOL 318: Immunology -- 3.00 credits
BIOL 400: Animal Physiology -- 4.00 credits
BIOL 355: Microbes and Defense -- 4.00 credits
BIOL 465: Laboratory Techniques in Biochemistry and Cell/Molecular Biology -- 2.00 credits

Ecology, Aquatic Biology and Fishery Science Focus

Faculty expertise and the Lake Superior region contribute to the development of both classroom and non-classroom learning experiences in the area of ecology, aquatic biology and fishery science. Students interested in careers in aquatic ecology, marine biology, terrestrial ecology, field biology, resource management, or natural resource education will be advised to take courses within the Biology Major which prepare them for work or graduate studies in these fields. Additional courses in mathematics, statistics, computer science, geographic information systems, and physics are recommended.

Plant Sciences Focus

Rich in forests as well as other plant communities, northwestern Wisconsin provides an excellent setting for the study of plants. Students interested in botany or other plant science are encouraged to take additional courses in the plant sciences, geographic information systems, and geology as part of the Biology Major and as suggested by their advisors.

Biology Teaching Minor (EA-A) Requirements

Students desiring licensure to teach science at the early adolescence through adolescence level must complete the Biology minor described above. Recommended elective courses include BIOL 270 and 280. All Secondary Education students must also meet the Professional Education Requirements (see the Secondary Education information under the Teacher Education section of this catalog) including completion of NSED 339 Teaching Science in the Secondary Schools as well as course work in Chemistry, Physics, and Earth Sciences. See your advisor for recommended classes.

Student Learning Outcome

The Biology Program has developed the following learning outcomes for the Biology major.

1. Students will develop and apply a broad-based knowledge of concepts and terminology from molecular, cellular, organismal and ecological biology.
2. Students will develop critical thinking and problem solving skills by engaging in the scientific process.
3. Students will develop skills in scientific literacy.
4. Students will develop skills in scientific communication.

Admission Requirements

Admission to UW-Superior is sufficient for admission to the Biology program. We recommend college preparatory coursework in math and science in preparation for majoring in Biology.

No admission to this program as of November 3, 2017. Program has been suspended. Current students in good standing have until December 23, 2022 to complete the program.

Students desiring licensure to teach science at the early adolescence through adolescence level must complete the Broad Field Science major described above, making sure that they have completed the equivalent of a minor in biology, chemistry or physics. In addition, all Secondary Education students must meet the Professional Education Requirements (see the Secondary Education information under the Teacher Education section of this catalog) including completion of NSEd 339 Teaching Science in the Secondary Schools. A minimum of six credits in mathematics is also required for teacher certification. See your advisor for recommended classes.

Program Description

The Broad Field Science Program broadly trains students in the sciences. It is especially well-suited for students interested in teaching science at the Early Adolescence-Adolescence Level.

Student Outcomes

Student learning outcomes in this program are still under development, but emphasize the broad nature of the program and broad competencies in the areas of biology, chemistry, physics and earth science.
Student Learning Outcomes

1. Develop Content Literacy in the Social Studies: Students will be trained as "entry-level" social scientists where students do the work of the historian, anthropologist, sociologist, political scientist, or psychologist. Students will be expected to engage in modes of thinking, content-specific literacy, research and writing endemic to the social studies.

2. Intellectualize the Art and Craft of Teaching: Students will be expected to intellectualize the art and craft of social studies education through the successful completion of courses on the sociology and philosophy of teaching and learning. A methods course must also be completed, where students will be introduced to, and expected to master and integrate the latest theories and research in social studies education.

3. Demonstrate Mastery of Content: Students will be prepared for careers in teaching by completing a specially designed curricular path that is rigorous, collegiate, and intellectually challenging. This will culminate in the successful completion of a senior thesis capstone in history or political science in which students must demonstrate a mastery of myriad skills by completing a work based on original research.

Broad Field Social Studies Major (comprehensive) (EA-A)

Broad Field Social Studies is a comprehensive liberal arts major designed specifically for students who intend to teach within the social studies disciplines at the Early Adolescence-Adolescence Level (EA-A). Certification to teach also requires completion of a series of Wisconsin Teacher Certification (DPI) requirements. See the Teacher Education section of this catalog for details. The Broad Field Social Studies program is interdisciplinary and includes coursework in Anthropology, Economics, History, Political Science, Psychology, and Sociology. Broad Field Social Studies students must also complete a concentration in History or Political Science. The Broad Field Social Studies Major is a comprehensive major that fulfills both the major and minor requirements for graduation. The Broad Field Social Studies Major prepares students to teach in their area of concentration and to teach "fusion" courses. Fusion courses are defined as those that integrate several social studies disciplines and require composite preparation in social studies. Civics, social problems, American problems, area studies, and contemporary issues are examples of fusion courses. Coursework in Broad Field Social Studies may also be used, where appropriate, to fulfill the university's University Studies requirements. Students majoring in Broad Field Social Studies are urged to work in close cooperation with their academic advisors to ensure efficient completion of the program.

Business Administration Program

The Business Administration Major works toward developing effective decision-makers and leaders in both the private and public sectors through a strong practical business education as well as a comprehensive liberal arts education. The Business Administration Major offers concentrations in areas of study designed to equip students for immediate entry into professional positions.

The Business Administration Major is designed to engage students in critical thinking so they can analyze problems, implement strategies, and contribute to the success of a business organization.

While pursuing the Business Administration Major, students study under highly qualified faculty members who have expertise in their specialized fields as well as extensive business experience.

The Business Administration Major provides degree concentrations that instill excellence, builds confidence, and develop strong leadership skills that graduates can use throughout their careers.

The Business Administration Major offers the following concentrations:

- Finance
- International Business
- Management
- Marketing
- Supply Chain Management

Student Outcomes

The Business Administration Program is committed to the UW-Superior Campus Assessment Plan. Business Administration student learning outcomes and assessment metrics are developed through a collaborative continuous improvement process that integrates input from the campus and business communities. Our program’s student learning outcomes are:

1. Knowledge of the functional areas of accounting, marketing, finance, and management.
2. Knowledge of the legal, social and economic environments of business.
4. Knowledge of the ethical obligations and responsibilities of business.
5. The ability to use decision-support tools.
6. The ability to communicate effectively.
7. The ability to apply knowledge of business concepts and functions in an integrated manner.
8. The ability to construct and interpret a SWOT analysis, marketing analysis, financial analysis, competitive comparison of companies and other matrices that apply to the strategic planning process.

Admission Requirements

Refer to School of Business and Economics Admission Requirements and Policies.
Business Administration Major Requirements (non-comprehensive)

39-40 total credits
Required School of Business and Economics core courses (39 credits):
ITS 108: Business Computer Applications -- 3.00 credits
MATH 151: Calculus for Business, Life, and Social Sciences -- 3.00 credits or
MATH 240: Calculus and Analytic Geometry I -- 4.00 credits

Chemistry Program

UW-Superior offers a challenging major in chemistry that provides students with several options depending on their career goals. Students majoring in chemistry may seek jobs as professional chemists or teachers after they graduate, pursue advanced degrees in graduate school, or use their degree as the foundation for attending medical or veterinary school. The one-on-one attention students receive provides the opportunity to develop deeper scientific insights, sharpen their independent-thinking skills, and gain hands-on experience.

Students completing the 56-credit chemistry major are well prepared to seek entry-level jobs as professional chemists or to pursue graduate school or medical school. The major emphasizes chemistry but also includes courses in mathematics and physics.

Students interested in careers or advanced study in biochemistry can complete the chemistry major while selecting courses that cover the topics recommended for study by the American Society of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology.

A severe shortage exists of secondary education teachers in chemistry. UW-Superior offers a chemistry major leading to certification to teach chemistry at the high school level. Students benefit not only from a quality education in chemistry but also from UW-Superior's strong Teacher Education program.

Graduates of the chemistry program work at companies such as 3M, Intel, Dow Corning, Potlatch Corp., Pfizer Pharmaceutical and Murphy Oil. Others have gone on to graduate or medical schools such as the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Medical College of Wisconsin, Marquette University, University of Illinois, Purdue University, University of Minnesota and North Dakota State University.

Chemistry Major - Pre-Medicine/Pre-Pharmacy (Biochemistry) Concentration (Comprehensive) Requirements

Biochemistry is the study of the chemical processes occurring in living organisms. Education and skill development in this area are an important part of preparation for further studies in the fields of Medicine and Pharmacy as well as preparation for careers or graduate school in Biochemistry and related scientific disciplines. The field of Biochemistry is very interdisciplinary by nature; among other things, a biochemist needs to possess a knowledge of biology, chemistry, physics and mathematics as well as an appreciation for the interrelationships between these disciplines. Chemistry majors choosing this concentration are typically those who are interested in attending medical, veterinary or pharmacy schools or graduate school in biochemistry. Consult with your advisor and the relevant post-graduate programs regarding additional requirements.

Total - 68 credits

Required courses for the Pre-Medicine/Pre-Pharmacy (Biochemistry) Concentration are:

CHEM 105: General Chemistry I -- 5.00 credits

CHEM 106: General Chemistry II -- 4.00 credits

CHEM 205: Quant Analysis Lecture -- 3.00 credits

CHEM 206: Quantitative Analysis Laboratory -- 2.00 credits

CHEM 320: Organic Chemistry Lecture I -- 3.00 credits

CHEM 321: Organic Chem Lecture II -- 3.00 credits

BIOL 330: Genetics -- 4.00 credits
BIOL 355: Microbes and Defense -- 4.00 credits
BIOL 440: Cell Biology -- 4.00 credits
Students who also choose BIOL 340 will complete a minor in biology. With additional biology coursework, students may earn a second major in Biology.
Students choosing the Pre-Medicine/Pre-Pharmacy (Biochemistry) Concentration will have completed the topics recommended for a biochemistry major by the American Society of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology.

Chemistry Major - Secondary Education - Early Adolescence-Adolescence Level (EA-A) Requirements

A severe shortage exists of secondary education teachers in chemistry. Many high schools must hire students with only a minor in chemistry. Students with this major will be very competitive in the secondary education job market, especially if they also have a secondary education major in biology or mathematics.

35 total credits

Required courses (35 credits required):

Graduates may obtain this major only if they complete all requirements for secondary education certification. A teaching minor or second teaching major is required with this major.

CHEM 105: General Chemistry I -- 5.00 credits
CHEM 106: General Chemistry II -- 4.00 credits
CHEM 205: Quant Analysis Lecture -- 3.00 credits
CHEM 206: Quantitative Analysis Laboratory -- 2.00 credits
CHEM 312: Organic Chemistry--A Short Course -- 3.00 credits
CHEM 313: Intro Organic Chem Lab -- 2.00 credits
CHEM 381: Intermediate Topics -- 1.00 - 3.00 credits
MATH 115: Precalculus -- 5.00 credits
PHYS 107: Algebra-Based Physics I -- 4.00 credits
PHYS 108: Algebra-Based Physics II -- 4.00 credits

1. Students may substitute CHEM 320-323, 327 for CHEM 312/313.
2. Students may substitute CHEM 345 for CHEM 381.
3. Students may substitute PHYS 201 for PHYS 107 and PHYS 202 for PHYS 108.
4. Students must satisfactorily complete all DPI and UW-Superior requirements for secondary education certification, including coursework in Biology and Mathematics.
Chemistry Major- Forensic Chemistry concentration (comprehensive) Requirements Suspended

No admission to this program as of November 3, 2017. Program has been suspended. Current students in good standing have until December 23, 2022 to complete the program.

63 total credits

Forensic chemistry is increasingly used to solve crimes and provide evidence in court. The U.S. Department of Labor and the American Chemical Society are both optimistic about the job prospects for forensic chemists.

The Forensic Chemistry Concentration emphasizes analytical chemistry along with Criminal Justice courses dealing with handling evidence and other legal issues. The courses for this concentration satisfy the admission requirements for many forensic chemistry and forensic science graduate programs.

Those interested in attending graduate school in forensic chemistry or forensic science or pursuing a career in the field of forensics are required to take the following courses specifically tailored to the needs of this field.

Required courses (63 credits required):

CHEM 105: General Chemistry I -- 5.00 credits
CHEM 106: General Chemistry II -- 4.00 credits
CHEM 205: Quant Analysis Lecture -- 3.00 credits
CHEM 206: Quantitative Analysis Laboratory -- 2.00 credits
CHEM 320: Organic Chemistry Lecture I -- 3.00 credits
CHEM 321: Organic Chem Lecture II -- 3.00 credits
CHEM 322: Organic Chemistry Lab I -- 2.00 credits
CHEM 323: Organic Chemistry Lab II -- 2.00 credits
CHEM 327: Molecular Spectroscopy I -- 1.00 credits
CHEM 360: Introduction to Biochemistry -- 3.00 credits
CHEM 375: Instrumental Analysis Lecture -- 3.00 credits
CHEM 376: Instrumental Analysis Lab -- 2.00 credits
CHEM 381: Intermediate Topics -- 1.00 - 3.00 credits

Topic: Introduction to Physical Chemistry - 3.00 credits

BIOL 465: Laboratory Techniques in Biochemistry and Cell/Molecular Biology -- 2.00 credits
or
CHEM 465: Laboratory Techniques in Biochemistry and Cell/Molecular Biology -- 2.00 credits

BIOL 481: Special Topics -- 1.00 - 4.00 credits

Topic: Internship - 2.00 credits

or

CHEM 481: Special Topics -- 1.00 - 6.00 credits

Topic: Internship - 2 credits

BIOL 492: Biology Seminar -- 1.00 credits
CHEM 497: Senior Seminar In Chemistry -- 1.00 credits
BIOL 330: Genetics -- 4.00 credits
LSTU 210: Criminal Procedure -- 3.00 credits
CJ US 212: Criminal Investigations -- 3.00 credits
MATH 240: Calculus and Analytic Geometry I -- 4.00 credits
PHYS 107: Algebra-Based Physics I -- 4.00 credits
PHYS 108: Algebra-Based Physics II -- 4.00 credits

The Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System | 191 of 607
Note: A year of high school biology or BIOL 130 Principles of Biology are recommended as prerequisites for Biology 330.

CHEM 206: Quantitative Analysis Laboratory -- 2.00 credits

Student Learning Outcomes

- Demonstrate command of facts, theories, and concepts of chemistry/physics, and ability to use this knowledge for problem solving and the development and understanding of higher-level concepts.
- Utilize a variety of sources to access scientific information and critically evaluate which sources are most reliable and useful for a particular application.
- Understand and follow a written, abbreviated experimental procedure as well as make modifications to the procedure and troubleshoot the procedure if unexpected results occur.
- Apply knowledge and skills gained from lecture and laboratory courses to independently create a plan for an experiment or project.
- Read and evaluate a set of original research papers in order to create their own critical analysis presented in written and oral form.

Pass-Fail Policy: No students may take Communicating Arts 110 on a pass-fail basis.

Communicating Arts Major - Communication Concentration Requirements

Bachelor of Arts (6 credits of foreign language required) or Bachelor of Science
Communication Program Description
The Communication concentration allows students to explore how social interaction shapes our everyday personal and professional lives, including how we form and negotiate relationships in groups, communities, and cultures. Coursework offers contemporary communication focusing on critical, cultural, and global perspectives. Students prepare themselves to participate creatively and analytically in our ever-changing world.

33 total credits - 15 credits upper-division (300+) minimum required.
Communication Core Courses (12 credits required):
COMM 167: Introduction to Intercultural Communication -- 3.00 credits
COMM 254: Communication Inquiry -- 3.00 credits
COMM 211: Interpersonal Communication -- 3.00 credits
COMM 495: Special Topics Seminar -- 3.00 credits
COMM 491: Senior Capstone -- 0.00 credits
Senior Capstone Statement: Courses available to be paired with COMM 491 for identification as capstone with consent of advisor (minimum 3 credits) include: COMM 332, 356, 425, 467, 495, 498.

Theatre Electives (3 credits required):
COMM 122: Theatre Appreciation -- 3.00 credits
COMM 125: Beginning Acting for Theatre -- 3.00 credits
COMM 273: Oral Interpretation -- 3.00 credits

Media Electives (3 credits required):
COMM 104: Film and Culture -- 3.00 credits
COMM 170: Media and Society -- 3.00 credits

Communication Electives (15 credits required):
COMM 332: Communication in Conflict -- 3.00 credits
COMM 353: Persuasion -- 3.00 credits
COMM 356: Community Engagement in Ghana-Study Abroad -- 1.00 - 6.00 credits
COMM 368: Film Theory and Criticism -- 3.00 credits
COMM 376: Group Communication Processes -- 3.00 credits
COMM 377: Special Topics in Theatre -- 3.00 credits
COMM 391: Advanced Practicum -- 1.00 - 3.00 credits

COMM 498: Independent Study -- 1.00 - 6.00 credits

Communicating Arts Major - Media Concentration Requirements

Bachelor of Arts (no foreign language required)

Media Program Description:
The Media Concentration is divided into four tracks, each offering students an opportunity to explore, analyze, and practice in a specific area of media communication. Coursework blends theories, technologies, and techniques that facilitate student's development as media makers and critics within the powerful and complex media field.

Media Studies Track Requirements - Suspended

No admission to this program as of November 3, 2017. Program has been suspended. Current students in good standing have until December 23, 2022 to complete the program.

34 total credits - 15 credits upper-division (300+) minimum required.

A highly analytical and interdisciplinary course of study focused on developing skills for both critiquing and working in media.

Core Media Studies Courses (16 credits required):
COMM 104: Film and Culture -- 3.00 credits
COMM 170: Media and Society -- 3.00 credits
COMM 191: Practicum -- 1.00 - 3.00 credits
COMM 268: Television and American Culture -- 3.00 credits
COMM 368: Film Theory and Criticism -- 3.00 credits
COMM 455: Theorizing Media Culture -- 3.00 credits

Applied Media Electives (3 credits required):
COMM 134: Digital Audio Production -- 3.00 credits
COMM 203: News Gathering and Reporting -- 3.00 credits
COMM 261: Digital Video Production -- 3.00 credits
COMM 348: Screenwriting -- 3.00 credits
Interdisciplinary Electives (3 credits required):

- GST 150: Introduction to Gender Studies -- 3.00 credits
- MUSI 160: Music Appreciation -- 3.00 credits
- PHIL 160: Philosophy and Film -- 3.00 credits
- SOCI 273: Race and Ethnicity -- 3.00 credits
- ART 342: Photography History, Theory and Criticism -- 3.00 credits

Media Studies Electives (9 credits required):

- COMM 254: Communication Inquiry -- 3.00 credits
- COMM 275: Internship -- 1.00 - 4.00 credits
- COMM 301: Selected Topics in Film and Television -- 3.00 credits
- COMM 353: Persuasion -- 3.00 credits

Computer Science Program

The Computer Science program is ideal for students seeking an intellectually stimulating career that thrives on problem solving and technological innovation. The curriculum offers a wide array of courses that range from programming fundamentals to special interest electives in a variety of application areas including databases, networking, and embedded systems. The program emphasizes technical skills built upon a strong theoretical foundation in preparation for careers in industry or advanced study in graduate school.

The Department of Mathematics and Computer Science offers two majors to suit student interests. The comprehensive major concentrates on theory and application and is designed for students who would like to focus on a single area of study and focus on computer science principles. The liberal arts major emphasizes core concepts and allows students to complement their program of study with a minor in another discipline. Both programs offer internship opportunities for students seeking professional experience prior to graduation.

In addition, the department offers three minors that satisfy degree requirements for non-comprehensive majors. The Computer Science minor introduces students to the essential concepts and provides a survey of the field. The Computer Science Teaching minor works in conjunction with the teacher education major to prepare future educators with key computer science concepts and skills. The Information Technology and Systems minor exposes students to software applications, web page authoring, database management, and other technologies used in the world of practice.

Computer Science Major (Comprehensive) Requirements

The comprehensive Computer Science Major provides the background necessary to prepare students for positions in industry or to pursue graduate study. Students completing this major will have a sufficient understanding of the basic principles and concepts in computer science but also will be able to meet immediate demands for solving real-world computational problems. This program is an ideal choice for students who intend to work as computer science professionals.

Information Technology Minor Requirements

The Information Technology and Systems minor complements a student's major of study by providing the knowledge, skills, and abilities to use information technology in their field of interest. It is tailored for the student with an interest in information technology who wishes to enhance their career opportunities. The program emphasizes choice and allows students to select from a range of topics applicable to their discipline or that pique their curiosity.

*If students are interested in the ITS individually designed major, he or she may fill out the Individually Designed Major form. Contact the Mathematics and Computer Science Department for more information.

Student Learning Outcomes

Computer Science Comprehensive Major

- Applies an appropriate formal process (or informal language) to write a solution to a given problem and to evaluate the validity and effectiveness of a given written solution.
- Solves multi-part problems by performing appropriate analysis and complex calculations.
- Adopts best practices of software engineering, including documentation, teamwork, and integration, to create large software projects; presents results in oral and visual format.
- Understands and effectively utilizes both high and low-level programming concepts and languages.
- Demonstrates fluency in the definitions, results, analysis and reasoning of a given axiomatically defined system.
- Understands the organization of modern computing devices, both intra-machine and inter-machine.

Early Childhood Program Description

The Early Childhood minor is designed to acquaint the student with developmentally appropriate practices for children from birth through age 8. The minor is planned to prepare the student with the professional knowledge, understanding, and skills necessary for designing programs to foster the growth and development of children during the period of early childhood. Specific coursework and field experiences are required.

The minor is excellent preparation for students interested in Education (e.g., early childhood, administration, parent education), in Law (e.g., Child and Family advocacy), Social Service (e.g., family casework, child welfare, licensing, child protection, child policy) or in various health related areas (e.g., pediatrics, nursing, Child Life Specialist) involving children. It is also appropriate for students who are interested in gaining a broader understanding of children and families in contemporary society.

If the student chooses to take the minor in conjunction with the Elementary Education Major, the Early Childhood minor is required for students seeking the Wisconsin EC-MC license (ages birth to 11; Early Childhood through Middle Childhood Regular Education), and requires a student teaching placement in a kindergarten (nine weeks; six credits) and a placement in grades 1-6 (nine weeks; six credits). This minor is open to any student, regardless of their major. A Criminal Background Check and negative TB Test (Mantoux) are required to complete the required field experiences.

EC 481: Seminars in Early Childhood -- 0.50 - 4.00 credits

Seminars in Early Childhood are offered each fall and each spring semester. Students must enroll for a minimum of 1 credit. Enrollment for EC 481 is through the Center for Continuing Education office.

Child Life Certification Program Description

The Child Life program provides students with the expertise in helping children and their families overcome life’s most challenging events. Armed with a strong background in child development and family systems, child life specialists promote effective coping through play, preparation, education, and self-expression activities. They provide emotional support for families, and encourage optimum development of children facing a broad range of challenging experiences, particularly those related to healthcare and hospitalization.

Child Life Certification is conferred through the Child Life Council. To achieve Child Life Certification, each candidate must satisfy all educational and experiential requirements established by the CLCC, and must demonstrate an acceptable level of knowledge of child life theory and practice by successfully completing the Child Life Professional Certification Examination as well as an internship in Child Life.

Child Life Certification is open to any student interested in working with children and families, primarily in a hospital setting. The Certification can be taken in conjunction with any major, or can be completed as an Interdisciplinary Major.

The Child Life program is designed to prepare students to sit for the Child Life Certification examination. Since the Child Life Council may, on an occasional basis, modify requirements for certification it is the responsibility of the student to become familiar with these requirements.

Economics Program (non-comprehensive)

The Economics Major works toward developing effective decision makers and leaders in both the private and public sectors through application of theoretical knowledge to solving socio-economic and business problems and a comprehensive liberal arts education.

The Economics Major is designed to prepare students for successful professional careers and graduate studies.

While pursuing the Economics Major, students study under highly qualified faculty members who have expertise in their specialized fields.

The Economics Major instills excellence, builds confidence, and develops strong quantitative, analytical, critical-thinking and leadership skills that graduates can use throughout their careers.

Student Learning Outcomes

The Economics Program is committed to the UW-Superior Campus Assessment Plan. Economics student learning outcomes and assessment metrics are developed through a collaborative continuous improvement process that integrates input from the campus and business communities. Our program's student learning outcomes are:

1. Students will master the knowledge of economic terminology, concepts, and theories.
2. Students will be able to apply their knowledge to understand the economy in general, as well as analyze various social, political and economic issues.
3. Students will develop economic reasoning and research skills and be able to demonstrate them through critical thinking, rational decision-making, and competent collection, processing and interpretation of information.
4. Students will be able to communicate effectively in oral and written forms using professional economics language.

Admission Requirements

Refer to the Economics Admission Requirements found in the School of Business and Economics Admission Requirements and Policies section of the catalog.

Environmental Science Major (Comprehensive)

Environmental Science at the University of Wisconsin-Superior is an interdisciplinary comprehensive science degree that emphasizes the human relationship to the environment. It requires 66 credits as part of a 120 credit degree. The goal of the program is to provide students with the knowledge and skills necessary to enter the workforce or to continue on to graduate school. Community engagement is a focus of this major, where students will participate in collaborations with research centers on campus as well as partnerships with local businesses, environmental groups, and government agencies.

Student Learning Outcomes

The Environmental Studies major coursework and senior year experience are designed to provide students with three broad learning outcomes:

1. Disciplinary Knowledge - students will acquire fundamental knowledge of environmental science concepts
2. Communication Skills - students will be able to communicate effectively (orally and in writing) about issues and principles related to the environmental sciences
3. Field and Analytical Skills - students will develop and practice field and analytic skills related to environmental sciences

First Nations Studies Program

First Nations Studies is one of four programs housed in the Human Behavior, Justice and Diversity Department. The other three programs are the Legal Studies, Psychology and Social Work Programs.

The First Nations Studies program seeks to promote an understanding and awareness of First Nations people. The program provides the opportunity for First Nations people and non-First Nations people alike to increase their knowledge of the origin of First Nations people in terms of history, culture and philosophy.

The differences between First Nations people and non-First Nations people will be examined through courses on culture and philosophy to gain a true understanding of the First Nations people. Stereotypes will be addressed through history courses with the goal of students gaining an appreciation of First Nations people and their contributions to the world. Other courses will provide an opportunity to gain knowledge and understanding of the role of the First Nations people in the cultural development of the world.

Gender Studies Program Description

A 21-credit minor is available in Gender Studies. It is coordinated and led by the Gender Studies Coordinator and by the Gender Studies Committee, a free-standing advisory committee made up of interested faculty and staff.

The Women’s Studies undergraduate minor was approved in 1976. In 2013, the Women’s Studies Committee refocused the minor and the program, which was renamed Gender Studies. The minor is interdisciplinary with courses offered by a number of academic departments and programs. Members of the Gender Studies Committee serve as faculty advisors for this minor. Students choosing this minor must take 21 semester credits from courses in the approved list in consultation with a Gender Studies faculty advisor.

The mission of the Gender Studies Program is to explore issues of gender and its relationship to structures of power and inequality, with an emphasis on the intersection of gender with multiple identities; to promote critical engagement in a diverse world; and to contribute to possibilities for transformation and change in the university and broader community.

Student Learning Goals

Students will demonstrate the ability to:

1. Analyze identities and expressions of gender and sexuality both globally and historically.
2. Analyze how social structures and institutions create and perpetuate inequalities.
3. Analyze the intersection of gender with other relations of power, recognizing their interconnectivity.
4. Conceptualize different manifestations of feminist actions based upon the context.
5. Engage in informed feminist action.

A wide variety of courses are available in Geography and Geographic Information Systems (GIS). For more information about specific courses, see Geography in the Course Descriptions section of this catalog.

Geography has many specialty areas and exciting career opportunities. The Geography faculty can guide you in selecting a program of study that best suits your interests and goals. Because Geography is inherently interdisciplinary, the minors described below can complement and enhance many major areas of study, such as education, business, communication, legal studies, science, and all areas of international study.

Three minors are currently available:

1. Applied Geographic Information Systems (GIS)
2. Geography Minor with Liberal Education emphasis
3. Geography Minor for Elementary (715 EA-E) or Secondary (72 MC-EA) Teacher Certification

Applied Geographic Information Systems (GIS) Minor Requirements

Geography Minor for Teacher Licensure (EA-A (73) and MC-EA (72) level)-Suspended

No admission to this program as of November 3, 2017. Program has been suspended. Current students in good standing have until December 23, 2022 to complete the program.

The geography minor provides cohesive study of our globalized world, as created by human and non-human forces. The minor bridges the social and physical sciences to study social, political, economic, and environmental interaction processes.

A geography minor is a strong complement to students pursuing degrees in virtually any other field, including but not limited to, Communicating Arts, Business, History, Sociology, Legal Studies, Political Science, and the Natural Sciences.

The geography teaching minor prepares students for certification to teach elementary, middle, and high school geography leading to licensure in Geography (715) at the EA-A (73) level and at the MC-EA (72) level. Students pursuing this option also must meet the professional educational requirements offered by UW-Superior's Teacher Education Department. Secondary Education students pursuing the geography minor also need to complete a teachable major. Majors in English, History, or Broadfield Social Studies are options for licensure. See your advisor for more information. Students must also complete SSED 331 (EA-A) or 339 (MC-EA) for licensure.

A geography minor is a strong complement to students pursuing degrees in virtually any other field, including but not limited to, Communicating Arts, Business, History, Sociology, Legal Studies, Political Science, and the Natural Sciences.

Geographic Information Systems (GIS) Certificate

Geographic Information Systems (GIS) are the basis for understanding our world through digital spatial information. The GIS certificate is designed to meet the growing demand for GIS applications in diverse disciplines. The GIS certificate is intended for two audiences:

1. UW-Superior-students who cannot finish the 21 credit GIS minor, but wish to be recognized for their practical GIS experience and skills acquired through coursework at UW-Superior.
2. Professionals and students from outside UW-Superior who would like to gain and apply spatial knowledge in their field. This audience can complete the GIS certificate online through the UW-Superior [NAMEONLY:CEE].

The courses required to complete the GIS certificate span topics from introductory to advanced applications, including the elements of GIS, spatial data type and acquisition, coordinate systems, projections, data editing and topology, site suitability and data modeling, geoprocessing, geostatistical analysis, spatial interpolation, watershed delineation, network and 3-D analysis.

To earn a GIS certificate, students must complete at least 9 credits from the following courses:

GEOG 241: Fundamentals of GIS I -- 4.00 credits
GEOG 343: Fundamentals of GIS II -- 4.00 credits and either
GEOG 442: Advanced Principles of GIS -- 4.00 credits

Geology and Earth Science Program

The Earth Science program includes minors in Earth Science, Earth and Space Science for elementary or secondary teachers, and Water Resources Management. Related minors in Geography and Applied GIS are described in the Geography section of this catalog. Students who are interested in the field of geology are encouraged to consult with one of the faculty members in this program.

Earth Science Minor Requirements-Suspended

No admission to this program as of November 3, 2017. Program has been suspended. Current students in good standing have until December 23, 2022 to complete the program.

The Earth Science Minor is designed to complement other fields of study. The minor provides a general overview and context of the basic principles and concepts of geology and is a good option for people pursuing careers in the natural sciences.

Viable employment opportunities exist for graduates in the areas of hydrogeology and environmental remediation. Well-qualified scientists with a background in geology, hydrology, chemistry and geographic information systems (GIS) are required to meet this need.

German Program

The German program introduces students to the German language and Central European culture. The courses offered enable students to lay the groundwork for fluency in German and to enhance practical language skills for specific career purposes.

Students may elect to submit a German Studies major proposal for approval in conjunction with UW-Superior’s cooperating institution in Oldenburg, Germany. Professor Emerita Dr. Karen Bahnick has established a scholarship for students who choose to continue their German studies in Oldenburg, Germany, after having completed at least through GERM 202 at UW-Superior and having declared the German minor.

The German program seeks to educate students to become more effective participants in the global community by promoting international and ethnic awareness and sensitivity to other cultures.

Global Studies Program

A 24-credit minor is available in Global Studies. It is coordinated and led by the Global Studies coordinator and by the Global Studies Advisory Committee, a free-standing committee made up of interested faculty and staff.

The Global Studies undergraduate minor was approved in 2009. The minor is interdisciplinary with courses offered by a number of academic departments and programs. Members of the Global Studies Committee serve as faculty contacts for this minor. Students choosing this minor must take 24 credits from courses in the approved list in consultation with a Global Studies faculty advisor.

The mission of the Global Studies Program is to offer a "window on the world" and strengthen global awareness. Students studying Global Studies will gain knowledge, experience and skills for global citizenship through various courses from multiple disciplines. The core courses provide conceptual foundations to think globally. The elective courses enable students to explore their own interests in various pedagogical paths, including study abroad, language acquisition, area study, and issue-specific study. Students are encouraged to consider multiple perspectives and ideas and to advance their critical thinking skills by taking courses from multiple disciplines.

Global Studies Minor-Suspended

No admission to this program as of November 3, 2017. Program has been suspended. Current students in good standing have until December 23, 2022 to complete the program.

Health and Wellness Management Program Description

The Bachelor of Science in Health and Wellness Management is an interdisciplinary program that helps students gain a broad understanding of the ways in which health care systems, health care costs, employee wellness programs and values of health/wellness management programs impact the work environment. Increasing healthcare costs and a growing number of healthcare coverage options will spur demand for professionals to develop strategically integrated wellness programs. In light of these trends, a few areas graduates of the Health and Wellness Management program will be able to help are:

- Integrate a wide array of programs to enhance employee safety and wellness and improve work-life balance
- Influence corporate/community productivity
- Reduce health care costs
- Engage management and leadership at multiple levels

The major is offered through online study in collaboration with partner universities UW-Stevens Point, UW- LaCrosse and UW-River Falls. It is based in the Health and Human Performance Department, and supported by the [NAMEONLY:DLC]. Additional information is available at http://hwm.wisconsin.edu.

History Program Description

UW-Superior’s History Program offers a distinctive global focus. By studying a variety of world regions and the connections among them, students are prepared to live and participate in an increasingly integrated world. The History Program emphasizes research, writing, oral communication, and critical analysis to foster lifelong learning.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Fundamental Academic Skills
   - Clear and effective expository writing, including the ability to construct an effective analytical essay
   - Clear and effective oral communication, including the ability to construct and deliver an effective oral presentation
   - Ability to evaluate arguments on the basis of evidence and to support one's own arguments with evidence
   - Ability to summarize and critically evaluate an author's ideas

2. Historical Skills and Dispositions
   - Ability to independently research a topic or question using a variety of types of secondary and primary materials (e.g. print, electronic, textual, visual) and to produce a fully documented research paper.
   - The ability to construct abstract ideas from the concrete and the ability to apply abstract ideas to understand the concrete.
   - The ability to synthesize existing historical ideas and arguments to produce an original idea.
   - A healthy skepticism toward one's own assertions and the assertions of others

3. Curricular Emphases
   - The ability to make sense of particular world regions while simultaneously seeing global connections.
   - An understanding of how social categories such as race, class, gender, ethnicity, and religion are constructed and the impact of these categories on people's lived experience.

Individually Designed Major Description (non-comprehensive)

Students who have a unique need for a major, and whose needs cannot be met by an existing major, have the option of developing an Individually Designed Major (non-comprehensive). Working with their academic advisor, the student constructs a major course of study. The individually designed major proposal must be signed by the student, his/her academic advisor, and the department chair representing the primary emphasis of the major. Once required signatures are obtained, the student submits a petition to the Credits and Reinstatement Committee for review and final approval. The petition may not be submitted before the second semester of the student’s sophomore year but must be submitted before the end of the student’s junior year.

Individually Designed (non-comprehensive) Major Requirements

A minimum of 33 total major credits

Major Requirements:

The student must work with his/her advisor to develop the Individually Designed Major (non-comprehensive) program plan.

A maximum of three faculty need to be involved in the development and approval of the IDM plan if there are more than one discipline areas featured in the IDM plan.

1. Students must take IDS 301 Individually Designed Major Planning course. This is an online, pass/fail, one credit course available to all students.
2. Student must declare a minor or second major in a different subject area. The same courses cannot be used to meet the Individually Designed (non-comprehensive) major requirements as well as minor or second major requirements.
3. A minimum of 18 credits must be in courses numbered 300 or higher.
4. Plan of courses included on the IDM petition form must include a Capstone course.
5. Student must have earned at least 43 credits prior to submitting the IDM petition form.
6. Must submit (and have approved by the Credits and Student Reinstatement Committee) an Individually Designed major (non-comprehensive) petition form.
7. The petition form must be developed in consultation with the student’s advisor and at least one faculty member representing disciplines other than that of the advisor.

Additional Degree Requirements:

1. A minimum of 36 credits numbered 300 or higher
2. A minimum of 30 credits earned at UW-Superior
3. A resident GPA of at least 2.0 (UW-Superior courses only)
4. A major GPA of at least 2.0 (all courses used to meet major requirements—including transfer courses)
5. The last 12 credits for the degree must be earned at UW-Superior

Individually Designed Minor Requirements

21 total credits Requirements:

1. Students in good standing and have earned at least 43 credits to declare this minor
2. Students must complete an Individually Designed minor petition and have it approved by the Credits and Reinstatement Committee
3. At least 7 credits must be 300 level or higher.

Individually Designed Minor proposals require the approval of the student’s advisor and the appropriate department chair, then submitted to the Credits and Reinstatement Committee for final approval.

Interdisciplinary Studies (comprehensive) Major Description

(Revisions effective April 28, 2014)

The Interdisciplinary Studies major is a comprehensive major and is designed for students who cannot adequately realize their educational objectives through an existing academic program offered at UW-Superior.

The major is designed by the student in consultation with an academic advisor and selected faculty. The student is also required to take IDS 300 Educational Planning, a one credit online course that helps them design the major. The approval process for the major includes the advisor, chairs from the selected academic areas of study, the Director for Distance Learning, and the Credits and Reinstatement Committee.

Additional information about the Interdisciplinary Studies Major can be found at the Online Learning, or by contacting the Online Learning at 877-528-6597 or dlc@uwsuper.edu.

Legal Studies and Criminal Justice Program

Providing courses of study both in Legal Studies and Criminal Justice, the Legal Studies Program is one of four programs housed in the Human Behavior, Justice and Diversity Department. Legal Studies and Criminal Justice are two disciplines under the umbrella of the Legal Studies major. Students can elect to pursue either or both disciplines. The major in Legal Studies requires coursework totaling 35-36 credits, whereas the Criminal Justice concentration offers a comprehensive curriculum of 57-58 credits.

Learning Goals of the Legal Studies and Criminal Justice Program

1. to analyze and interpret legal texts
2. to write well
3. to convey ideas effectively orally
4. to think critically and to reason analytically
5. to practice public service

Legal Studies Major Description

The major in Legal Studies provides an undergraduate liberal arts major grounded in the Humanist tradition of law. The focus of the program is the study of law in itself and in its relations to politics, moral philosophy, society and history.

The impact of law and legal process upon citizens in the United States and around the world has increased markedly in recent years. Factors contributing to the development of law include growth in the complexity of government and regulation, expanded conceptions of individual and group rights, increased public access to knowledge via the internet and increasing exposure to structures of legal ordering, such as healthcare and bank regulation. If citizens are to maintain and advance democratic forms of civic life and participation, they require better knowledge of the role of law, its goals, methods, successes and failures. Coupled to this must be an understanding of the limits of the dominant forms of dispute resolution as well as the benefits of alternative forms.

Students in the Legal Studies major learn about both the theoretical and practical dimensions of law, not only within the American model, but in other legal systems as well. They gain first-hand experience in legal analysis, argument and advocacy as well as in mediation and other forms of alternative conflict resolution (ADR). They learn such substantive areas of law as contracts, real property, family law, etc., and gain an understanding of procedural law in civil and criminal contexts. The program offers coursework in law-related topics involving diversity, multiculturalism, environmental regulation and international law.

Criminal Justice Program Description

Understanding crime and justice is essential in a democratic society, and studying both is challenging. Crime involves coercion, freedom, fear and safety. A low incidence of crime enables society to work toward a higher quality of life. An explosion of crime tears at the fabric of a community. Crime is both a legal and a political concept. The very definition of crime is rooted in law; however, it is not limited to law. Some harms, for various historical, political and cultural reasons, are not included within the penal code. Justice, itself, is an elusive philosophical concept that has legal, political, economic, social and psychological underpinnings as well as implications. Ever present in our thinking is the desire for justice in individual cases as well as the pursuit of living in a just society.

With a strong liberal arts emphasis, the Criminal Justice program encourages intellectual curiosity, critical thinking and extensive communication skills, characteristics associated with rewarding professional and personal lives. At the same time, a primary goal of the UW-Superior's Criminal Justice Program is the academic preparation of individuals planning criminal justice careers as well as the educational advancement of practitioners already enjoying criminal justice careers.

The criminal justice curriculum is both broad and deep, enabling students to critically reflect on the complexity of “the problem” of crime as well as our paradoxical responses to it. Its study requires a multidisciplinary approach. Housed in a Legal Studies major, the concentration in Criminal Justice examines various ways of “knowing” the problem, especially through a rigorous, scientific lens. Completion of core courses in criminal justice permits students to become firmly grounded in a range of perspectives in the justice field. Selection of courses from legal studies provides a significant context for appreciating the fluid boundaries of justice systems. In addition to classes in criminal justice and legal studies, the curriculum consists of coursework in six areas: accounting, philosophy, political science, psychology, social work, and sociology. Taking courses from these disciplines enable students to achieve global views of this complex problem and its possible solutions as well as to “drill down” into critical subject areas. Selection of elective courses encourages students to pursue flexible paths of study tailored to their individual interests in such careers as law enforcement, law and court processing, juvenile and adult corrections as well as graduate education. The result is the achievement of baccalaureate competency in the study of criminal justice.

Graduates from UW-Superior's Criminal Justice program distinguish themselves in many diverse professional fields, in particular, and in schools and the Alumni serve in positions of responsibility across the United States in federal, state and local criminal and juvenile justice agencies as well as in Canadian justice agencies. Others have careers as private attorneys, paralegals, youth counselors, teachers, military officers, security/loss specialists and private investigators.

No minor is required because the Criminal Justice Concentration in Legal Studies is a comprehensive major. Depending on course selection, the number of credits is either 57 or 58.

Legal Studies Minor requirements - Suspended

No admission to this program as of November 3, 2017. Program has been suspended. Current students in good standing have until December 23, 2022 to complete the program.

Completion of 23 credits is required, including 15 credits in required courses, 2 credits in substantive law course and 6 credits from two of three groups.

Required courses (15 credits required):

LSTU 115: Law and Human Behavior -- 3.00 credits
LSTU 261: Contemporary Issues in Law and Society -- 3.00 credits
LSTU 268: Alternative Dispute Resolution -- 3.00 credits
LSTU 305: Methods of Legal Research and Writing -- 3.00 credits
LSTU 450: U.S. Constitutional Law, Part I -- 3.00 credits

or

LSTU 451: U.S. Constitutional Law, Part II-Civil Liberties and Civil Rights -- 3.00 credits

Substantive Law courses (2 credits required; students are encouraged to take more credits from this area as electives):

LSTU 221: Administrative Law -- 2.00 credits
LSTU 222: Estate Planning and Probate -- 2.00 credits
LSTU 223: Family Law -- 2.00 credits
LSTU 224: Personal Injury and Workers' Compensation -- 2.00 credits
LSTU 225: Real Estate Law -- 2.00 credits
LSTU 227: Bankruptcy and Foreclosure Law -- 2.00 credits
LSTU 228: Contract Law -- 2.00 credits

Two Three Groups (6 credits required; those minoring in LSTU must take at least one course denoted below as requiring a term paper):

Group 1-Legal Theory and Practice

LSTU 333: Great Legal Trials: Stories That Changed Law -- 3.00 credits
LSTU 354: Jurisprudence -- 3.00 credits

Group 2-Legal Process and Ordering

LSTU 303: Environmental Law and Regulation -- 3.00 credits
LSTU 321: Judicial Process -- 3.00 credits

Certificate Programs

The Legal Studies program collaborates with the [NAMEONLY: CEE] in offering three certificate programs. Students who are seeking degrees may also complete certificate requirements as part of their elective credits toward a degree. Non-degree-seeking students may seek the certificates through Center for Continuing Education. Completion and awarding of these two certificates is coordinated through the Center for Continuing Education. Contact Dr. Maria Stalzer Wyant Cuzzo in Legal Studies (715-394-8482 or mcuzzo@uwsuper.edu) or Lisa Mattsson in the [NAMEONLY: CEE] (715-394-8033 or lmattsso@uwsuper.edu) for more information.

Mathematics Program

Courses are offered in Computer Science and Mathematics. The curriculum provides fundamental courses as well as a variety of electives for those with special interests. Students may choose a major that prepares them for a career and/or graduate study in Computer Science, Mathematics, or Mathematics Education. Students also can pursue a career in Actuarial Science or Computer Security with appropriate choices of elective courses. More details on programs offered by the Mathematics and Computer Science Department are presented below and at www.uwsuper.edu/acaddept/mathcsci.

Mathematics major programs include Liberal Arts and Secondary Education. Mathematics minor programs include Liberal Arts, Secondary Education and Elementary Education. All major programs permit choices of courses appropriate to individual interests, which should be made in consultation with a Mathematics and Computer Science department advisor.

Preparation for Graduate Study

Students who intend to do graduate work in mathematics should include both MATH 440 and 455 in their course selections when completing one of the major programs above. Many graduate schools require the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) Advanced Mathematics Test.

Actuarial Science

Students of Mathematics can find a rewarding career as an actuary in finance, insurance or any of a wide variety of industries requiring risk analysis and assessment. These courses are recommended: MATH 240, 241, 242, 310, 370, 371; ECON 250, 251; FIN 320, 420, 426; ACCT 200. In general, students should take a broad spectrum of courses in Accounting, Economics, Political Science, Finance and Business Administration as well as Mathematics and Computer Science.

Internship and Professional Practice

Students who major in programs offered by the Department of Mathematics and Computer Science have opportunities for paid work related to their field of study. Prerequisite: Junior standing and approval by the Mathematics and Computer Science faculty.

Mathematics Major Requirements

Mathematics Major (Liberal Arts) prepares students for careers in mathematics, science and research, or for graduate study.

36 total credits

Core required courses (22 credits required):

CSCI 201: Introduction to Programming -- 3.00 credits
MATH 240: Calculus and Analytic Geometry I -- 4.00 credits
MATH 241: Calculus and Analytic Geometry II -- 4.00 credits
MATH 242: Calculus and Analytic Geometry III -- 4.00 credits
MATH 310: Introduction to Abstract Mathematics -- 3.00 credits
MATH 315: Linear Algebra -- 3.00 credits
MATH 498: Mathematics Capstone -- 1.00 credits

Probability, Statistics or Modeling required course (3 credits required):
MATH 370: Probability -- 3.00 credits
MATH 371: Statistics -- 4.00 credits
MATH 380: Introduction to Mathematical Modeling -- 4.00 credits

Advanced Topics required courses (8 credits required):
MATH 421: Theory of Computation -- 4.00 credits
MATH 437: Cryptography -- 4.00 credits
MATH 440: Real Analysis -- 4.00 credits
MATH 450: Topology -- 4.00 credits
MATH 455: Abstract Algebra -- 4.00 credits
MATH 471: Introduction to Complex Variables -- 4.00 credits

Math Upper-Division Elective course (3 credits required):
At least one additional MATH course numbered 300 or above.

Student Learning Outcomes

Mathematics Major

* Applies an appropriate formal process (or formal language) to write a solution to a given problem and to evaluate the validity and effectiveness of a given written solution.
- Solves multi-part problems by performing appropriate analysis and complex calculations.
- Demonstrates fluency in the definitions, results, analysis, and reasoning of a given axiomatically defined system.
- Produces a well-written article synthesizing existing results or providing original results spanning multiple areas of mathematics.
Music Degrees

The Music Department offers curricula leading to the following degrees:

Bachelor of Music Education (B.M.E.)
- Bachelor of Music Education: Choral/General - Completion of program and Wisconsin DPI requirements for this degree leads to EC-A licensure in Choral and General Music in the state of Wisconsin
- Bachelor of Music Education: Instrumental/General - Completion of program and Wisconsin DPT requirements for this degree leads to EC-A licensure in Instrumental and General Music in the state of Wisconsin

Upon completion of the program, students may also apply for licensure in other states.

Bachelor of Music in Performance (B.M.)
- Bachelor of Music in Performance: Instrumental (Non-keyboard)
- Bachelor of Music in Performance: Keyboard
- Bachelor of Music in Performance: Voice

Faculty and Staff

Dr. Erin Aldridge, Professor (Orchestra, Violin)
Dr. Pamela Bustos, Associate Professor (Band, Clarinet, Music Education)
Dr. Katherine Chan, Visiting Assistant Professor (Choir)
Dr. Vicki Fingalson, Associate Professor (Voice, Opera Workshop)
Dr. Lois Veenhoven Guderian, Associate Professor (Music Education)
Dr. Brett Jones, Associate Professor (Percussion, World Music, Music Department Chair)
Dr. Greg Kehl Moore, Professor (Jazz Studies, Saxophone)
Dr. Hector Landa, Visiting Assistant Professor (Piano)
Dr. E. Beth Gilbert, Professor Emeritus
Dr. Norma Stevlingson, Professor Emeritus
Andrea Yezek, Academic Department Associate

Cooperating Academic Staff

Dennis Berryhill, Senior Lecturer (Piano Technology)
Dr. Derek Bromme, Senior Lecturer (Trombone)
Kimberlie Dillon, Senior Lecturer (Oboe)
Dr. Thomas Hamilton, Senior Lecturer (Organ)
Kevin Hoeschen, Senior Lecturer (Viola)
Mina Kaiser, Senior Lecturer (Guitar)
Dr. Jeffrey Madison, Senior Lecturer (Voice)
Deborah Rausch, Senior Lecturer (French Horn)
Michael Roehm, Senior Lecturer (Bassoon)
Christina Roytz, Senior Lecturer (Cello)
Earl Salemink, Senior Lecturer (Trumpet)
Alexander Sandor, Senior Lecturer (Piano)
Melanie Sever, Senior Lecturer (Flute)
All Bachelor of Music in Performance degrees are comprehensive, meaning a minor is not required.

Bachelor of Arts in Music (B.A.)
A minor is required for completion of the Bachelor of Arts in Music degree.

Music: Bachelor of Music Education Degree (B.M.E.)

The Bachelor of Music Education degree allows students interested in a career as music educators the opportunity to hone their musical skills while learning and practicing innovative and research-based teaching strategies under the direction of experienced faculty. All Bachelor of Music Education degrees are comprehensive, meaning a minor is not required. Completion of program and Wisconsin DPI requirements for this degree leads to licensure in either Choral and General Music (EC-A) or Instrumental and General Music (EC-A) in the state of Wisconsin. Students completing this program may also apply for licensure in other states. The Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction serves as the accrediting agency for all approved education licensure programs offered at UW-Superior. The teacher education programs at UW-Superior are reviewed annually using the Continuous Review Process adopted by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction Under PI 34.

Music: Bachelor of Music in Performance Degree (B.M.)

The Bachelor of Music in Performance degree is intended for highly qualified students who are capable of pursuing advanced studies beyond a baccalaureate degree and/or a professional career in music. Enrollment is contingent upon a special performance jury that occurs no earlier than the end of the first semester of study. This special performance jury must also be passed for a student transferring into the Bachelor of Music degree program from another degree program or from another institution. The Bachelor of Music in Performance degree is comprehensive, meaning that a minor is not required.

Accreditation

All degree programs in Music are fully accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM).

Student Learning Goals

Music majors in all degree programs will:

1. Develop the ability to perform music at a high level of mastery in styles most characteristic of the repertory of their major instrument.
2. Successfully participate and perform in music ensembles, demonstrating knowledge of the role of the conductor, composer, performer, and audience.
3. Recognize and analyze the formal and theoretical elements of music both aurally and within the notated musical scores.
4. Relate social, philosophical, technological and artistic developments to music in various time periods.
5. Evaluate musical performances with insight into the performance practices of various genres.

Additionally, Bachelor of Music Education students will:

1. Demonstrate the ability to plan and implement sequentially-ordered comprehensive curriculum and music instruction based on a personal philosophy and the physical, psychological and emotional development of children grades Pre-K-12, and in adherence to national and state standards, and local needs.
2. Demonstrate understanding in available materials, equipment, and computer technology and software for teaching in the schools
3. Demonstrate knowledge of common approaches to music education practiced in Wisconsin and the United States
4. Demonstrate knowledge and understanding in how to assess student learning in music
5. Demonstrate proficiency levels on instruments that support the primary teaching area
6. Conduct ensemble configurations common to particular degree programs (choral, instrumental, general) using techniques appropriate to musical forms and styles, demonstrating ability to analyze ensemble performances and assist performers of various age groups in achieving accurate and artistic interpretations of the music
7. Demonstrate skills for adapting, arranging and/or transposing music in order to meet the needs of school music programs
8. Demonstrate understanding in the organizational and administrative aspects of the school music program

Graduation Requirements

All students majoring in music or music education must satisfy the following requirements:

1. Complete the sequence of courses for one of the degree programs listed below with a grade of C- or better in each music course required for the major, and a minimum grade point average of 2.5. Grades in applied music, ensembles and repertory classes will be excluded when computing this average.
2. Pass the piano proficiency examination one semester prior to graduation, or before student teaching if majoring in music education. Students with credits in MUSI 236, 237, 336, 337, 436, 437 are exempt from this requirement.
3. Participate in a large ensemble each semester enrolled except during student teaching. The large ensembles are Symphonic Band (for woodwind, brass and percussion as their applied major instrument), and A Cappella Choir (for students studying voice as their applied major instrument). Students studying keyboard or guitar as their applied major instrument may choose either Symphonic Band, University Orchestra or A Cappella Choir, depending on their past experience and interests.
4. Enroll in MUSI 150 each semester (must pass a minimum of eight semesters) except during student teaching.
5. Satisfy the graduation requirements listed in the front section of this catalog.
6. Capstone Experience: For students majoring with the Bachelor of Music Education, the capstone experience is student teaching or interning. For students majoring with the Bachelor of Music in Performance, the capstone experience is the full recital. For students earning the Bachelor of Arts in Music degree, the capstone experience, approved by the major advisor, may be a recital, a creative work such as a composition or arrangement, or an independent research project or paper.

Admission Requirements

Freshmen

Upon admission to the university, all prospective music majors must audition for admission to the Music Department. At the end of their first semester, and again at the end of their sophomore year, students will be advised concerning their potential to succeed in their chosen field.

Transfer Students

Students transferring from other institutions must perform an audition on their major instrument and take placement examinations in keyboard, music history and theory before registering for music courses at UW-Superior.

Music Department Residency Requirement

All students, including transfer students, who wish to earn a degree in music from UW-Superior must complete at UW-Superior at least 18 credits in music for a comprehensive degree (Bachelor of Music in Performance and Bachelor of Music Education), and at least 12 credits in music for a non-comprehensive degree (Bachelor of Arts in Music).

Admission to Advanced Standing

Before enrolling for Applied Music courses numbered above 300, students must take the Advanced Standing Exam in Applied Music. This is normally done at the end of the fourth semester of applied study. See applied music instructor for information regarding performance standards for this exam.

Students may register for 300 level ensemble courses (MUSI 304-316) after either:

1. Four (4) semesters at the 100 level, or
2. Upon reaching Junior Status, whichever comes first.

Conditions

Students may not enroll on a Pass-Fail basis in any course required for the major except MUSI 150.

Credit by Examination

The Music Department offers credit by examination in selected music courses. For further information contact the department chair.
Mission and Purposes

The UW-Superior Music Department prepares undergraduate students for success in music as performing artists and educators by providing a challenging, nurturing environment focused on individual and collaborative artistic growth, while also providing opportunities for musical enrichment to the university and community within a liberal arts tradition.

Additionally, the UW-Superior institutional values defined in the Mission Statement and which highlight “individual attention and respect for diverse cultures and multiple voices” are emphasized as guiding principles in the Music Department's philosophy and mission.

The purposes of the Music Department include:

1. To provide an infrastructure to ensure that students have up-to-date resources and global opportunities in their classes and ensembles.
2. To emphasize recruitment and retention of music students.
3. To offer quality degree programs in music education (the Bachelor of Music Education) in order to train those students who wish to prepare themselves for careers teaching public school music.
4. To offer a quality degree program in music performance (the Bachelor of Music in Performance) for those students who demonstrate exceptional musical talent and wish to concentrate on performance.
5. To offer a quality liberal arts degree (the Bachelor of Arts in Music) for those students who wish to combine the study of music with a major or minor in another field.
6. To serve the curricular needs of elementary education majors who have required courses in music fundamentals and music methods for the classroom teacher.
7. To stimulate interest and support of the arts and an understanding of diverse cultures to members of the general students population by offering music courses geared to the needs of the general student. This includes supporting the university's general education program, by offering music courses consistent with the objectives and curricular requirements of this program, enabling students to meet these curricular requirements.
8. To offer quality ensemble experiences for music and general population students, including an emphasis on international experiences/tours.
9. To contribute to the cultural enrichment of this region through various outreach activities and public performances.
   a. By actively engaging in scholarly research/performances.
   b. By serving the needs of all students (on-campus and off-campus) by offering courses through Distance Learning.
   c. By engaging in cooperative ventures with other regional institutions.

2. Ability to effectively identify, evaluate, and formulate arguments
3. Ability to develop, organize, and express ideas in a precise, clear, effective, and systematic manner in writing, discussion, and oral presentations
4. Ability to recognize and appreciate multiple perspectives and limitations of each perspective
5. A high degree of fluency with major philosophical traditions (and some non-canonical), figures, concepts, and methods.
Physical Education Program, Mission & Philosophy

The Health and Human Performance Department (HHP) offers a Physical Education Major program which includes the following concentrations: Physical Education (EC-A Teaching Certification), Exercise Science (non-comprehensive - requires a minor) and Community/Public Health Promotion. Minors are available in Coaching, Health (liberal arts), Health Education, Health and Human Performance, Sports Management, and Early Childhood.

HHP Mission Statement

The mission of the Health and Human Performance Department is to provide students with a knowledge base, creating a positive attitude and lifelong skills in the seven dimensions of wellness: physical, intellectual, emotional, spiritual, career, social and environmental (i.e. personal health) as part of the liberal arts educational foundation. Programs in the Health and Human Performance Department seek to serve all students in a caring educational environment toward liberal arts studies in physical education and health and/or pre-professional studies as physical education health, early childhood, or non-teaching allied health professionals.

Philosophy Statement

The Health and Human Performance Department believes in the education of the total person, body, soul and spirit in that:

- Developing a knowledge base and critical thinking skills concerning responsibility for individual wellness is critical for all human beings.
- All students should be given the opportunity to develop a positive attitude toward healthy behaviors for a lifetime.
- Learning takes place best when there is an emotional attachment; therefore, students need to be engaged in the curriculum.
- Attitudes are caught not taught; teachers must be excited about their courses and the environment in which they teach.
- As we learn to move, we move to learn; and we all have the responsibility to become aware of and learn to respect diversity among people.
- The teaching-learning process is a two-way street; the student-teacher relationship should revolve around good, honest communication, valued learning experiences and assessments, and should bring about expected outcomes for both parties.

We strongly recommend that all majors retain textbooks, course notes and major papers in each of the major courses. These materials will be important assets in other courses in your major and/or minor.

All students with majors or minors in Physical Education and Health must earn a grade of C or better in all required courses in the major and/or minor.

Students seeking teacher certification must meet the requirements detailed in the Teacher Education sections of this catalog.

Liberal Education Requirement

To fulfill the Liberal Education Requirement, all students must successfully complete HHP 102 Health and Wellness. Students with medical restrictions should contact the coordinator of HHP 102 labs before the first lab session. Physical Education majors and minors must earn a grade of C+ or better in HHP 102.

The Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System | 260 of 607
Prerequisites

Students should note that several Health and Human Performance courses at the 200, 300 and 400 levels have specific course prerequisites. These prerequisites are indicated in the Course Descriptions portion of this catalog.

Experiential Learning - Fieldwork - Internship

The faculty of the Health and Human Performance Department believe that a well-designed and meaningful work experience, which builds on the academic foundation provided by a college education, can greatly enhance the total learning experience and facilitate the transition from college to the professional world. Academic credits awarded for Fieldwork, Experiential Learning, range from 1-12. Credits for Internship range from 10-20. Students interested in Internship should read the Health and Human Performance Internship Handbook and contact the instructor for additional information.

Senior Experience

This culminating senior year project integrates and synthesizes the student's coursework (theories, concepts, skill competencies) into a formal project and experience to be presented on Senior Presentation day which is scheduled at the end of each semester.

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to maintain academic integrity in meeting requirements for an undergraduate degree. Evidence of academic misconduct may result in certain sanctions, such as failure in a course or dismissal from the program. Chapter 14 of the UW-Superior Student Disciplinary Procedures of the Wisconsin Administrative Code for the University of Wisconsin System outlines the procedures for identifying academic misconduct and the appropriate sanctions.

Immoral Conduct - Incompetency

A student may be denied admission to the certification program under Wisconsin Administration Code for the Department of Public Instruction PI 34.35 dealing with Incompetency and Immoral Conduct. Recommendations for certification can also be denied under the same statute.

The following are statutory definitions: "Immoral Conduct" means conduct or behavior which is contrary to commonly accepted moral or ethical standards and endangers the health, welfare and safety or education of any pupil. "Incompetency" means a pattern of inadequate performance of duties or the lack of ability, legal qualifications or fitness to discharge required duties, and which endangers the health, welfare, safety or education of any pupils.

See Course Descriptions for information on required courses.

Physical Education Major

Physical Education Major - Physical Education EC-A Teacher Certification Requirements

(Formerly K-12 Teacher Certification)

59 total credits

The Physical Education Major, EC-A Licensure program, follows the teacher certification policies and guidelines established by the UW-Superior Teacher Education Program. HHP 110, Introduction to HHP Majors/Minors, helps students interested in the program to understand its requirements. Upper-level courses are then required in both departments.

Students seeking EC-A teacher certification are required to take selected courses in Physical Education and Teacher Education in a prescribed sequence. It is critical the sequence be followed. Taking courses out of sequence or missing required courses can result in significant delay in completing degree requirements. See your advisor for information on the program requirements and a suggested four-year plan.

Student Learning Outcomes

The University of Wisconsin-Superior Health and Human Performance programs hope to develop these attributes in all students as part of the liberal arts mission of the university by providing a well-rounded, dynamic experience in the wellness course.

- Foster the intellectual growth of all students concerning wellness for life as a core of their liberal arts education.
- Develop critical thinking skills, positive attitudes and personal responsibility in all students toward leading productive and healthy lifestyles.
- Graduate certified physical education/health/early childhood/special education teachers who are engaged in their professional endeavors, able to impart knowledge and skills to diverse populations in a variety of educational settings.
- Graduate students who seek careers in allied health professions who are engaged in their professional endeavors, able to impart knowledge and skills to diverse populations in a variety of professional settings who make a positive contribution to society.
- Achieve accreditation through the Commission on Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs (CAAHEP) for the undergraduate curriculum in exercise science.

Physics Minor Requirements-Suspended

No admission to this program as of November 3, 2017. Program has been suspended. Current students in good standing have until December 23, 2022 to complete the program.

21 total credits

Required courses (10 credits required):

PHYS 201: Calculus-Based Physics I -- 5.00 credits

PHYS 202: Calculus-Based Physics II -- 5.00 credits

Note: MATH 240 (Calculus I) is a prerequisite for PHYS 201. MATH 241 (Calculus II) is prerequisite for PHYS 202.

Note: PHYS 107 & PHYS 205 together substitute for PHYS 201. PHYS 108 and PHYS 206 together substitute for PHYS 202. Special department permission required to enroll in PHYS 205 or PHYS 206.

Physics Elective courses (11 credits required):

Physics courses numbered 301 or higher (PHYS 300 and NSED 339 will not count in this area). PHYS 375 is recommended. 5 credits total from CHEM 345/and CHEM 346 count towards the upper level physics credits.

Physics Teaching Minor (EA-A)-Suspended

No admission to this program as of November 3, 2017. Program has been suspended. Current students in good standing have until December 23, 2022 to complete the program.

Students desiring licensure to teach physics at the early adolescence through adolescence level must complete the Physics minor described above, NSEd 339, CHEM 103 or CHEM 105, and a teachable major field of study. All Secondary Education students must also meet the Professional Education Requirements (see the Secondary Education information under the Teacher Education section of this catalog). Course work in chemistry, physics, and earth sciences is recommended in preparation for licensure exams. See advisor for recommended classes.

Physics Program Description

The physics minor is a strong complement to students pursuing biology, chemistry, computer science, engineering, or mathematics majors. Topics of study include mechanics, electricity, magnetism, thermodynamics, waves, optics and quantum mechanics.

The physics teaching minor prepares students for certification to teach high school physics. Students pursuing this option also must meet the professional educational requirements offered by UW-Superior’s Teacher Education Department.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Knowledge: Students demonstrate a command of facts, theories and concepts of physics and use this knowledge in novel situations.
2. Laboratory Skills: Students safely perform experiments to verify and develop physical models.
3. Communication: Students clearly explain and convince themselves and others of physical truths using the communication tools accepted by the scientific community.

Broad Field Social Studies Major - Political Science Concentration

Students interested in teaching Political Science at the Early Adolescence-Adolescence Level (EA-A) are encouraged to consider the Broad Field Social Studies Major with a Political Science Concentration. Broad Field Social Studies is a comprehensive inter-disciplinary major designed specifically for students who intend to teach within the social studies disciplines at the secondary level. For more information, see the Broad Field Social Studies section of this catalog.

Political Science Program Description

Active citizenship is the foundation of the Political Science program at UW-Superior. We offer courses that are designed to create students who can study the roots of problems, formulate creative solutions to existing local, state, national and international problems, and develop strategies that ultimately address and solve them.

We offer students three emphasis areas in the Political Science Liberal Arts Major:

- American Politics
- International Peace Studies
- Political Theory

Psychology Program Description

Psychology is one of four programs housed in the Department of Human Behavior, Justice and Diversity. The other three are the Legal Studies, Social Work and First Nations Studies Programs. The Psychology program at the UW-Superior prepares students for advanced study in psychology and related disciplines within the context of a public liberal arts education. Our graduates have been successful in master's and doctoral programs in psychology, social work, and counseling as well as in fields such as law and dentistry. For UW-Superior, a liberal arts education means that your coursework will emphasize broad themes such as developing critical thinking skills, understanding diversity, attending to global issues and providing service to the local community.

Social Work Program Description

Social Work is one of four programs housed in the Human Behavior, Justice and Diversity Department. The others are the Psychology, Legal Studies (including Criminal Justice), and First Nations Studies Programs.

The undergraduate major in Social Work offers a Bachelor of Science in Social Work degree, with an ethnic-sensitive, ecological, generalist focus. Coursework educates and prepares entry-level generalist social workers for effective direct practice with individuals, families, small groups, organizations, institutions and communities. Specific areas of concern for the program are the well-being of regional American Indian people and communities, as well as that of elderly persons, persons with mental health issues, and persons with developmental and other disabilities.

Social Work Program Diversity Statement

Respecting and celebrating diversity is an inherent part of the mission of the UW-Superior Social Work program and is a central theme of service when social workers are working in the community. In promoting the dignity, worth and empowerment of the individual client while working to improve and sustain the social environment, our program seeks to strengthen students' interest in, respect for, and skills in working effectively with diverse and vulnerable populations. Our program also seeks to sensitize and prepare students to help service systems toward constructive change when relating to diverse populations.

The Social Work program is administered, and admissions are determined, without discrimination on the basis of race, religion, national or ethnic origin, immigration status, political orientation, creed, physical or mental impairment, age, gender, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

Mission Statement and Program Goals

The undergraduate Social Work program at UW-Superior is structured as a competency based program. The program implements this structure through its mission, program goals and student learning outcomes. Outcomes are assessed based on Council on Social Work Education practice behaviors.

Mission Statement

The mission of the Social Work Program is to teach students the generalist skills and knowledge needed to be responsible and ethical change agents who empower clients/consumers across diverse populations with a local, regional, and global consciousness focusing on social justice, self-awareness and lifelong learning.

Program Goals

Goal 1: Generalist Preparation
To prepare students for entry-level ecologically-based generalist practice at all levels of intervention (individuals, groups, families, organizations, and...
GOAL 2: Diversity
To prepare students for inclusive practice with diverse, underrepresented and vulnerable groups in society throughout a variety of local, regional and global human service settings, particularly empowering practice with American Indian people, elderly persons, and persons with differing abilities.

GOAL 3: Ethics
To prepare students for ethical and principled decision-making guided by the values and standards of the social work profession.

GOAL 4: Social Justice
To prepare students to recognize and apply social justice principles in practice situations.

GOAL 5: Professional Development
To prepare students for lifelong learning, to maintain competence and stay current with best practice.

GOAL 6: Service
To engage students in social justice and change through generalist social work activities with local, regional and international constituencies.

Admission to the Social Work Program

To seek formal admission to the program, the student submits an application packet with the Social Work Program Coordinator before entering SO W 340 Methods of Practice I, SO W 341 Methods of Practice II, and SO W 344 Human Behavior in the Social Work Environment. This usually occurs during the spring semester of the sophomore year. For students transferring to UW-Superior, this occurs also during the spring semester.

Admission requirements include: a grade of C or better in SO W 121 Introduction to Social Work, an overall grade point average of at least 2.3 at time of admission, and demonstration of suitability and capacity to enter the profession of social work according to Admission/Continuation Competencies listed in the Social Work Student Handbook. All applicants meet with a Review Committee as a part of the admission process. The Review Committee consists of social work faculty and may also include a member of the Social Work program's Community Advisory Committee. Students transferring into the program may be granted a conditional admission while they finish the introductory course satisfactorily.

Continuation in the Social Work Program

Continuation in good standing in the program is contingent upon the following:

1. Earning a grade of C or better or pass (P) in all required social work courses, and retaking any required social work course in which a grade below C or pass (P) was received.
2. Maintaining an overall grade point average of 2.3 from time of admission through graduation.
3. Maintaining a grade point within the major courses of 2.5 by the end of the junior year through graduation.

Transfer Students

Transfer students are expected to seek advisement with the Social Work Program Coordinator at or before the time of their first registration. Contact the Admissions Office, the Center for Academic Advising, or the Social Work Program office to be referred to the coordinator. Advisement is a crucial aspect of the transfer process, as much of the time there are articulation agreements in place with the community colleges from which persons transfer that facilitate the smooth transfer of credits.

The Coordinator will furnish transfer students with academic advisement and Social Work program materials, including the Social Work Student Handbook. Transfer students must meet all admission and continuation standards of non-transfer Social Work majors. Procedures for grievance and appeal and continuation in the program are the same for transfer students as for other Social Work majors.

If a transfer student requests that a requirement for the Social Work major be met by a transfer credit, the request may be granted if the course content is comparable. If the course is approved, the grade for the course must be computed as part of the grade point average requirements for the major in Social Work. In addition, any social work courses transferred in must have been taught by an MSW (Masters of Social Work) who graduated from an accredited social work program or must be accompanied by documentation that essential social welfare, and/or content about the development of social work as a profession have been incorporated into the course. Methods and practicum courses must be taken at UW-Superior.

Reapplication to the Social Work Program

Requirements for readmission to the program include:

1. Enrollment for a minimum of one semester at UW-Superior before reapplication.
2. Resubmission of an application following the standards expressed in Reapplication to the Social Work Program found in the Social Work Student Handbook.
3. Junior standing.
4. Grades of C or higher in all required social work courses, and an overall grade point average of at least 2.3, and a grade point in the major of at least 2.5 from the end of the junior year through graduation.
Social Work Major (comprehensive) Requirements

The Social Work Major is a comprehensive major which consists of 64 credits depending upon courses chosen. In effect, an interdisciplinary minor is integrated into the requirements for the major, thus no minor is required.

Sociology Program

The sociology program positions students to understand and take responsibility for the social world as one which is structured by institutions, made meaningful through culture and lived in our actions. The sociology major equips students to better understand as well as intervene in our contemporary world by offering classes on racism, environmental injustice, poverty, sexism, global inequality, and other powerful topics. The sociology program prepares students to become life-long learners who seek understanding as a valuable end in its own right. The program implements the university mission of opening access to the world, its accumulated knowledge and its ways of knowing. We encourage students to use social theory in conjunction with evidence to draw meaningful conclusions about the society they inhabit.

Sociology Major Requirements-Suspended

No admission to this program as of November 3, 2017. Program has been suspended. Current students in good standing have until December 23, 2022 to complete the program.

Spanish Program

The Spanish program introduces students to the Spanish language and Hispanic culture. The various courses offered enable students to lay the groundwork for fluency in Spanish and to enhance practical language skills for specific career purposes.

Students may choose either the Liberal Arts Minor or the Teacher Certification (Ages 6-13 or 10-21) Minor. Students may elect to submit for approval a proposal for a Spanish Studies major in conjunction with UW-Superior's cooperating institution in San José, Costa Rica.

The Spanish program seeks to educate students to become more effective participants in the global community by promoting international and ethnic awareness and sensitivity to other cultures.

Notes:

To be certified, a Spanish Teacher Certification Minor must pass Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction certification requirements. To reach the mandated level of language competence, all Spanish Teacher Certification Minors will be required to spend time in study abroad usually at UW-Superior's cooperating institution in Costa Rica (or to participate in an alternative 30-day immersion experience).

A student should complete SPAN 202 and usually at least one 300-level Spanish course at UW-Superior before participating in Spanish Study Abroad.

There are no certification tests for minors -- ALL TESTS ARE FOR MAJORS. It is up to the student to prepare to meet the standards for a MAJOR, generally through extended study abroad.

For further information on the UW-Superior Spanish Studies Program, go to World Languages, Literatures, and Cultures Department. See also the Office of International Programs section of this catalog. For more information on the courses offered, see Spanish in the Course Descriptions section of this catalog.

Special Education Teaching Minor Requirements

Required courses (21 credits required):

SPED 283: The Exceptional Child -- 3.00 credits
SPED 355: Interventions/Methods in Services in Special Education -- 3.00 credits
SPED 375: Individual Educational Assessment and IEP Development -- 3.00 credits
SPED 488: Methods in Special Education -- 3.00 credits
EC 479: Family and Culture -- 3.00 credits
SPED 493: Inclusive Management Strategies -- 3.00 credits
SPED 496: Practicum in Special Education -- 3.00 credits

Special Education Minor Without Certification

Students may opt to be students who are highly qualified inclusion teachers without the license. The 21 credits for the minor will suffice for the minor without certification. There is an option to continue in special education in the post baccalaureate program, in Master's level classes, that will lead to special education licensure, prior to the completion of a Master's Degree.

Special Education Teaching Minor With Certification

This minor prepares students to be highly qualified inclusion teachers as well as cross-categorical special education teachers. Recently approved by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction, individuals who minor in special education and complete a student teaching experience in special education may be eligible for licensure in special education as a cross-categorical special educator. This type of license allows you to serve students with mild and moderate disabilities in the grade levels 1-12, depending on your practicum and student teaching experiences. You will have an emphasis area during your minor in one of the following: Specific Learning Disability, Emotional Behavioral Disorder, or Cognitive Disability. Assignments will determine your area of emphasis.

The special education minor that leads to the cross-categorical special education license is a direct pathway for an elementary education major. The 21 credits of the Special Education Teaching Minor align directly to the Elementary Education major. The testing requirements are the same as well: PRAXIS II-Middle School Content and the Foundations of Reading Test.

Those students who are double minoring in Early Childhood and Special Education would be required to take the 21 credit minor, the testing requirements for special education, and TED 407.

Those students who are K-12 or 7-12 majors in a specific content area will have additional requirements to gain the special education license. This is due to the emphasis of special educators teaching in the area of Reading and Math. ENGED 275 and ENGED 370 are additional requirements. Additionally, students will be required to complete another 9 weeks of student teaching, after their major student teaching is completed. In all, 12 additional credits are required for licensure for students with a K-12 or 7-12 major.

Sustainable Management Program (comprehensive)

The Bachelor of Science in Sustainable Management is an interdisciplinary program that helps students gain a broad understanding of the ways in which business systems, natural systems, and social systems intersect. The curriculum includes courses in:

- Environmental studies
- Triple bottom line accounting
- Natural resource management
- Information systems
- Logistics, supply chain management, and sustainability

With a Bachelor of Science in Sustainable Management, you will be qualified to help businesses and organizations develop sustainable practices for a global marketplace while helping to preserve natural resources and strengthening community.

The 21 courses (63 credits) in the bachelor's program provide understanding of the intersections among business, natural sciences, and social systems. Each course is three credits. There are no electives. The Capstone course is typically taken during the final semester. Created for working adults, the program allows students to apply previously earned credits (or an associate's degree) toward the online Sustainable Management bachelor's degree. If you have completed the first two years of a bachelor's degree or if you have 60 credits of transferable coursework, you may apply directly to the program.

This major is offered through online study in collaboration with partner universities UW-Parkside, UW-River Falls, and UW-Stout, with support from UW-Extension. It is housed in the School of Business and Economics, and supported by the Online Learning. Additional information is available at http://sustain.wisconsin.edu/sustainability-programs/bachelors/

Teacher Education Program

The Teacher Education (TED) program is designed around the Interstate Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (InTASC) Model Core Teaching Standards, a set of well-defined standards which, when attained by students, lead to a strong preparation for teaching at the elementary or secondary level.
Standards, a set of well-defined standards which, when attained by students, lead to a strong preparation for teaching at the elementary or secondary level. These competencies build upon students’ General Education/University Studies coursework. Students are involved in a wide range of learning activities combining theoretical concerns with practice accomplished through a variety of field experiences. Students are introduced to the classroom early in their professional training and continue to accept more responsibility throughout their program, culminating with the student teaching experience. The program attempts to model the kind of learning environments we expect our graduates will create in the elementary and secondary schools.

Special Accreditation

The Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction serves as the accrediting agency for all approved education licensure programs offered at UW-Superior. The teacher education programs at UW-Superior are reviewed annually using the Continuous Review Process adopted by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction Under PI.34.

Elementary Education Programs

Two options are available for students seeking licensure in elementary education in Wisconsin. The Elementary Education Major with an Early Childhood Minor leads to an Early Childhood-Middle Childhood (EC-MC) license (Ages Birth-11; grades PK-6). The Elementary Education Major with Middle School Teaching Minor leads to a Middle Childhood-Early Adolescence (MC-EA) license (Ages 6-12/13; grades 1-8).

Teacher Education Requirements

The following are the Teacher Education Program Admission requirements:

As of September 27, 2017, the following Teacher Education Program policies have been updated to reflect changes made by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction.

Program Admission Policy:
- Minimum 2.75 GPA based upon the most recent 40 collegiate credits including those earned during the semester of application.
- Completion of TED 200 with a grade of C or above Program Completion Policy:

- Minimum 2.75 cumulative GPA
- Completion of education courses within major with grade of C or above

Content Knowledge Assessment Policy:
Option 1:
- Minimum 3.00 combined cumulative GPA on teaching major and teaching minor coursework

Option 2:
- Minimum 2.75 combined cumulative GPA on teaching major and teaching minor coursework
  AND
- Passing score(s) on standardized test(s) approved by the state superintendent which shall include the state’s model academic standards

Catalog Requirement Term

Refer to university policy regarding catalog requirement term. No matter which catalog a student uses for graduation, he or she may be required to meet new requirements in Teacher Education, especially if new certification/licensure/program admission/student teaching policies have been put in place.

Students must always meet current Department of Public Instruction (DPI) certification/licensure requirements in the state of Wisconsin. DPI certification standards represent minimal requirements. Teacher Education programs have the right to exceed minimal requirements. Students who do not meet the requirements for admission to the Teacher Education programs within five years of the date of admission to the university must meet the requirements of the catalog current at the time of application to the programs. Admission to the programs remains valid for seven years. Students who fail to register for any classes for two consecutive semesters must reactivate their program status through the Teacher Education Department.

High Impact Practices

All education majors must complete one Academic Service-Learning (AS-L) project and the designated Senior Year Experience (SYE). These High-Impact Practices are included in required courses taken by all education majors. AS-L is embedded in TED 270, and the SYE is completed during student teaching.

General Transfer Policies for Elementary Education Majors

1. Complete coursework required for licensure either through receiving transfer credit or taking the course at UW-Superior.
2. A student who is already certified in secondary education (EA-A level) must meet the student teaching requirements of the desired elementary licensure level.
3. In order for an education methods course from another institution to be considered as a substitute for a methods course at UW-Superior, it must at a minimum have equivalent credit hours.
4. No education course that is more than five years old may be used to satisfy degree requirements.

Secondary Education Programs

Many options are available for students seeking licensure in secondary education in Wisconsin. Each of these major leads to Early Adolescence-Adolescence (EA-A) licensure (Ages 10-21; grades 5-12) in their respective content area. Students are also required to complete a minor and should consult with their advisor to select a minor to complement their teaching (EA-A) major. Content area course requirements for each of the secondary education programs are available within the content area's section of the course catalog.
General Education/University Studies Requirements for Secondary Education Certification/Licensure

Secondary or K-12 teacher curriculum graduates may receive the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Fine Arts, Bachelor of Music Education or Bachelor of Science degree. (See requirements in major.) Secondary or K-12 teacher certification students are required to meet the General Education/University Studies requirements of the university, specifically including a local, state and national government course (POLS 230 OR POLS 150+POLS 330), and biological and physical sciences courses. The Teacher Education faculty is committed to building upon the preparation brought by the liberally educated student at this institution. Teachers at the secondary and K-12 levels must exemplify the attributes of a liberally educated person.

All secondary and K-12 teacher certification candidates with a previous bachelor's degree must meet licensure requirements as outlined in PI-34 Wisconsin Teacher Education Program Approval and Licenses Law.

Professional Requirements for Secondary Certification/Licensure

The professional requirements for secondary education certification/licensure students consist of courses in the Teacher Education programs, appropriate methods courses in the major and minor areas, and student teaching.

Professional Education required courses (26 credits required):

- T ED 200: Introduction to Education -- 3.00 credits
- T ED 253: Human Development -- 3.00 credits
- T ED 270: Multicultural Education -- 3.00 credits
- T ED 300: Theories of Student Learning -- 3.00 credits
- T ED 339: Instructional and Assessment Strategies -- 3.00 credits
- T ED 407: The Middle School and Its Students -- 3.00 credits
- ENGED 465: Content Area Literacy -- 3.00 credits
- T ED 494: Principles and Practices of Inclusive Teaching -- 3.00 credits
- Methods Courses in major/minor fields-2.00-4.00 credits

Teaching Experience required course (12 credits required):

- T ED 442: Student Teaching in the Middle/Secondary School -- 6.00 - 12.00 credits
- T ED 443: Student Teaching in Special Areas-Early Childhood-Adolescence (4-18) -- 6.00 - 12.00 credits
- T ED 449: Internship in Middle/Secondary School Teaching -- 6.00 - 12.00 credits
- T ED 450: Internship in Special Areas Teaching K-12 -- 6.00 - 12.00 credits

Note: T ED 407 Required for students seeking Wisconsin EA-A certification and strongly recommended for students seeking Wisconsin EC-A (pre-K-post high school) certification

General Policies for Certified Teachers Adding Additional Certifications

For additional certifications, a student must show evidence of completion of:

1. Appropriate coursework by furnishing a list of coursework which has been completed and a list of courses that needs to be completed including the terms to be taken.
2. Submission of Student Teaching Application including required supplemental materials by the application deadline.
3. Additional appropriate standardized test scores must be at the Wisconsin passing levels.
4. Student teaching: nine weeks as assigned by the coordinator of student teaching.

Special Education Teaching Minor With Certification

This minor prepares students to be highly qualified inclusion teachers as well as cross-categorical special education teachers. Recently approved by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction, individuals who minor in special education and complete a student teaching experience in special education may be eligible for licensure in special education as a cross-categorical special educator. This type of license allows you to serve students with mild and moderate disabilities in the grade levels 1-12, depending on your practicum and student teaching experiences. You will have an emphasis area during your minor in one of the following: Specific Learning Disability, Emotional Behavioral Disorder, or Cognitive Disability. Assignments will determine your area of emphasis.

The special education minor that leads to the cross-categorical special education license is a direct pathway for an elementary education major. The 21 credits of the Special Education Teaching Minor align directly to the Elementary Education major. The testing requirements are the same as well: PRAXIS II - Middle School Content and the Foundations of Reading Test.

Those students who are double minoring in Early Childhood and Special Education would be required to take the 21 credit minor, the testing requirements for special education, and TED 407. Those students who are K-12 or 7-12 majors in a specific content area will have additional requirements to gain the special education license. This is due to the emphasis of special educators teaching in the area of Reading and Math. ENGED 275 and ENGED 370 are additional requirements. Additionally, students will be required to complete another 9 weeks of student teaching, after their major student teaching is completed. In all, 12 additional credits are required for licensure for students with a K-12 or 7-12 major.

Student Teaching Requirements as determined by the Educator Preparation Program:

T ED 453: Student Teaching SPED Elementary and Middle School -- 6.00 - 12.00 credits
OR
T ED 454: Student Teaching SPED Middle and High School -- 6.00 - 12.00 credits

Special Education Teaching Minor Without Certification

Students may opt to be students who are highly qualified inclusion teachers without the license. The 21 credits for the minor will suffice for the minor without certification. There is an option to continue in special education in the post baccalaureate program, in Master's level classes, that will lead to special education licensure, prior to the completion of a Master's Degree.

Special Education Teaching Minor Requirements

Required courses (21 credits required):

SPED 283: The Exceptional Child -- 3.00 credits
SPED 355: Interventions/Methods in Services in Special Education -- 3.00 credits
SPED 375: Individual Educational Assessment and IEP Development -- 3.00 credits
SPED 488: Methods in Special Education -- 3.00 credits
SPED 493: Inclusive Management Strategies -- 3.00 credits
EC 479: Family and Culture -- 3.00 credits
SPED 496: Practicum in Special Education -- 3.00 credits

K-12 Education Programs

Three options are available for students seeking licensure in K-12 education in Wisconsin. All three comprehensive majors lead to an Early Childhood-Adolescence (EC-A) licensure (Ages 4-18; grades PK-12) in their respective content area. Program requirements for each of the K-12 education programs are available within the content area's section of the course catalog.

Professional Requirements for K-12 Certification/Licensure

The professional requirements for K-12 education certification/licensure students consist of courses in the Teacher Education programs, appropriate methods courses in the major and minor areas, and student teaching.

Professional Education required courses (26 credits required):

Note: T ED 407 Required for students seeking Wisconsin EA-A certification and strongly recommended for students seeking Wisconsin EC-A (pre-K-post high school) certification

Note: It is recommended that T ED 339 be taken in the junior year. Because special methods courses may not be offered every year, it may be necessary to take the methods course before T ED 339 is taken. The student should consult with his/her advisor at that time.

Special Education Teaching Minor Without Certification

Students may opt to be students who are highly qualified inclusion teachers without the license. The 21 credits for the minor will suffice for the minor without certification. Secondary Teaching Majors

- Biology (EA-A)
- Broad Field Language Arts (EA-A)
  - To qualify for a license in Broad Field Language Arts (301), an individual shall have completed a language arts program major or minor. The Language arts program shall include competencies in each of the subcategories listed in this subdivision under P134 with a concentration in at least one of the subcategories. A concentration is required to teach upper level high school courses in the specific subject category. English language and composition subcategory is available as an individual minor license (300) and shall be included in the broad field language arts license.
- Broad Field Science (EA-A)
  - Wisconsin DPI defines PI 34 licensure criteria for “Upper Level” secondary certification students in broad field science as follows: “A person with a broad field science license may teach any science class at the early adolescence-adolescence level, up through grade 10, and any basic science class in grades 11-12 that is not: A) part of the college preparatory sequence; B) an advance placement course; C) an elective with more depth of content than basic courses. To teach a course under the criteria in A, B, or C (above), the teacher must have a concentration in that subject area.
- Broad Field Social Studies - History (EA-A)
  - Wisconsin DPI defines PI 34 licensure criteria for “Upper Level” secondary certification students in broad field social studies as follows: “A person with a broad field social studies license may teach any social studies class in grades 11-12 that is not: A) part of the college preparatory sequence; B) an advance placement course; C) an elective with more depth of content than basic courses. To teach a course under the criteria in A, B, or C (above), the teacher must have a concentration in that subject area.”
- Broad Field Social Studies - Political Science (EA-A)
  - Wisconsin DPI defines PI 34 licensure criteria for “Upper Level” secondary certification students in broad field social studies as follows: “A person with a broad field social studies license may teach any social studies class at the early adolescence-adolescence level, up through grade 10, and any basic social studies class in grades 11-12 that is not: A) part of the college preparatory sequence; B) an advance placement course; C) an elective with more depth of content than basic courses. To teach a course under the criteria in A, B, or C (above), the teacher must have a concentration in that subject area.”
- Chemistry (EA-A)
- English (EA-A)
- History (EA-A)
- Math (EA-A)
- Political Science (EA-A)

Secondary Teaching Minors

A teaching minor is not required for secondary teaching majors. Students should consult with their advisor to select a minor to appropriately complement their teaching (EA-A) major. Program requirements for each of the secondary education programs are available within the content area's section of the course catalog.

- Biology (EA-A)
- Chemistry (EA-A)
- Computer Science (EA-A)
- English (EA-A)
- Geography (EA-A)
- History (EA-A)
- Mathematics (EA-A)
- Physics (EA-A)
- Political Science (EA-A)
- Psychology (EA-A)
- Sociology (EA-A)
- Spanish (EA-A)

Student Teaching and Internship

In all student teaching or internship experiences, the student takes charge of classes in off-campus affiliated schools under direction of a cooperating teacher. The student prepares units of instruction and lesson plans; meets with university supervisors, cooperating teachers, and the coordinator of student teaching/field experiences in both group and individual situations; participates in co-curricular activities; works with consultants in special areas; and cooperates with school and community patrons. Experiences prior to student teaching or internship prepare students for successful completion of student teaching or internship.

Students are required to student teach full-time for at least eighteen weeks in one placement or nine weeks each in two placements based upon the calendar of the cooperating school(s). Twelve semester credits of full-time student teaching are required for certification.

Not more than two areas of certification may be completed in the semester period. Students seeking certification in more than two subject areas or certification levels will be required to take additional student teaching/internship beyond the semester.

The internship program is for students who have demonstrated a high level of academic achievement and characteristics that would predict successful teaching. The program involves solo teaching for up to 50 percent of the day during a full semester. The student will operate under a special license obtained from the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction and will be under contract to the cooperating school district. School districts must initiate the process for an internship approval through the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction. Cooperating school districts initiate internship opportunities and are dependent upon availability within our cooperating school districts.
All coursework in a student's major, minor, general education/University Studies, and education courses is expected to be completed prior to student teaching or internship. Students should arrange their schedules to permit devoting full time to the student teaching or internship responsibilities. Because student teaching or internship placement involves many legal and diplomatic considerations, students may not solicit a student teaching or internship placement on their own. Students are cautioned against having district administrators call on their behalf.

Student teaching placements farther than 75 miles from UW-Superior will be charged a fee in addition to tuition. Placements within 75 miles of UW-Superior are considered tier 1 placements and will not be charged an additional fee. Placements between 76-225 miles from Superior will be charged a tier 2 fee; placements from 226-400 miles from Superior will be charged a tier 3 fee. Payment of this fee is due at the beginning of the student teaching placement. Placement fees for tier 2 and tier 3 placements will be established for each academic year by the start of the spring semester of the prior academic year. All student teaching must take place within a 400 mile radius of UW-Superior.

Criteria for Application for Student Teaching:

- A minimum grade of C in each education course.
- A minimum cumulative GPA of 3.00 (non-rounded) at the time of application as well as at the end of the semester prior to student teaching/internship experience.
- A plan for successful completion of all general education/University Studies, major, minor, education coursework prior to the beginning of student teaching.
- Successful completion of the electronic Teacher Education portfolio.
- Completion of Wisconsin state-required standardized test(s) for licensure areas at level(s) specified by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction.
- Submission of Student Teaching Application including required supplemental materials by the application deadline.

If you have any questions about applying for student teaching, contact your advisor.

Successful Completion of the Student Teaching or Internship Experience

1. At least four written observations by the supervisor. The student will be evaluated on communication skills, content knowledge, human relations knowledge and pedagogical knowledge, directly related to the program's standards.
2. Recommendations of cooperating teachers which document the ability of the student to satisfactorily meet the standards of the program, communication skills requirements, content knowledge, and human relations knowledge.
3. Successful compilation and presentation of an electronic portfolio, the edTPA, which demonstrates that the student has met program standards and technology proficiency. Teacher candidates are also required to fulfill the program's Senior Year Experience requirements.
4. A passing score on the edTPA is not required for graduation; however, a passing score is required to be certified for Wisconsin licensure.

Theatre Program

Theatre has been called the most collaborative of all the arts. It is the emphasis on collaboration that makes the theatre major at UW-Superior unique. Our major prepares students to immediately enter the job market in a variety of careers within the performing arts. Careers are not limited to acting, but also include technical theatre, stage management, community outreach, marketing, public relations, fundraising, audience services, grant writing, and events coordinator/planner. We have an active and growing program emphasizing personal attention and active student participation.

Theatre Major Requirements

All students graduating from Communicating Arts/Theatre receive a Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) degree instead of a Bachelor of Science (B.S.) degree. Communicating/Theatre students are exempt from the two semesters of a second language requirement to earn the B.A. (as approved by Faculty Senate February 21, 2012).

NOTE: Theatre majors are required to take four, 1-credit practicum (or 1 may be acting). A maximum of 6 credits of practica may be applied toward the requirements for a BA in Theatre. All theatre majors are required to be involved in University Theatre productions, as well as an annual portfolio review.

Program Description

The mission of UW-Superior’s Transportation and Logistics Management major is to “develop exceptional leaders through the integration of a liberal arts and business foundation with a Transportation and Logistics Management curriculum and internship.”

Transportation management deals with the operational aspects of the five modes of transportation: air, highway, land, marine, rail, and pipeline. Logistics assumes a systems approach to a wide variety of activities such as materials handling, warehousing, traffic management, inventory control, and packaging. The major focuses on the management of transportation and logistics as an integrated supply chain system. The T&L Management major offers many career opportunities. In addition to the thousands of transportation and logistics firms that hire T&L majors, graduates work for governmental agencies in planning, operations, and analysis. The demands of the global market place require business leaders to have a command of transportation and supply chain management.

The program has a strong international component and draws on many disciplines to produce graduates with problem solving, analytical, teamwork, and communications skills. In addition to transportation and logistics courses, the students have a foundation of liberal arts and general business courses to assist in developing ethical decision makers who have a global perspective and a lifetime passion for learning. A significant learning component of the T&L Management major is the required 6-8 week internship. Students have performed internships with government agencies and private companies across the United States and overseas.

The T&L Management major is the only transportation or logistics undergraduate major in Wisconsin. Students learn Supply Chain Management as part of their T&L core curriculum. Students enjoy the benefits of UW-Superior’s personal attention from faculty and its quality business courses, as well as Superior-Duluth’s role as a North American transportation hub for all five modes of transportation.

Student Learning Outcomes

The Transportation and Logistics Management major is committed to the UW-Superior Campus learning assessment plan. T&L student learning outcomes and assessment metrics are developed through a collaborative continuous improvement process that integrates input from the campus and business communities. Our program’s student learning outcomes are:

1. Knowledge of the functional areas of accounting, marketing, finance, and management.
2. Knowledge of the legal, social, and economic environments of business.
4. Knowledge of the ethical obligations and responsibilities of business.
5. The ability to use decision-support tools.
6. The ability to communicate effectively.
7. The ability to apply knowledge of business concepts and functions in an integrated manner.
8. Knowledge of transportation operations and supply chain management, as well as related global, ethical, cultural, environmental, technological, regulatory, and risk management issues faced by transportation and supply chain managers.

Transportation and Logistics Management Major Internships

The internship program is designed to provide an opportunity for an upper-level student to gain valuable experience with a transportation/logistics: company, government agency, or not-for-profit. The student would be able to apply the knowledge they have learned in the classroom and from readings to an operating organization. The intent is to expand that static knowledge in a dynamic setting and to assist the organization in a productive manner. The student will then bring that knowledge back to the university and share his or her experience and insight in the classroom enriching other students and faculty. The transportation/logistics organization is able, at a relatively low expense, to utilize the services of a student whose education and drive is focused on serving that industry. The organization has an opportunity to evaluate a potential employee and give current employees additional leadership experience as they mentor the student. In addition when the organization provides feedback to the university on the internship program, they help shape the education of their future employees.

Internship Time Frame
A minimum six-week long internship for 2 credits is required of all Transportation and Logistics Management Majors. A typical workweek is 20 to 40 hours.

Students, in cooperation with a company, may elect to do a longer internship. Internships of eight weeks are quite common, and some companies and students seek a 15-week long semester internship. After the initial six weeks, students may be awarded 1 credit for each additional 45 hours provided that the student also completes all required academic assignments associated with the internship. The credit is awarded on a pass/fail basis and is from two to seven credits total.

Academic Requirements:

While serving as interns the students are required to keep a daily log that describes the type of activity that they are engaged in each working day. The students are required to submit a final report that we request that they have reviewed by their supervisor prior to sending to the University. Upon their return to the university, the students are required to make a formal public presentation to the faculty or in one of the Transportation and Logistics Management courses. The formal presentation will either describe the operations of the firm or a project that the student completed while on the internship. Representatives from the firm would be welcome to attend these presentations.

History

The Transportation and Logistics Research Center (TLRC) was founded in 1999 with a mission to provide applied transportation, logistics, and supply chain research, education, and advisory services that benefit the region's economy. The TLRC is continually active in transportation and logistics research projects. The faculty and academic staff associated with the center have training in economics, accounting, geography, statistics, transportation, logistics, and various other business disciplines. Since its founding in 1999, the center has received more than $10 million in grants and endowments. The TLRC is part of the School of Business and Economics and is located in Erlanson Hall Room 105.

The mission of the TLRC is to provide applied transportation and logistics research, education, and advisory services that advance the economy of the region.

Through its strategic goals (as listed below) the center works to promote and enhance its mission:

- Be actively involved in applied research projects that enhance the region's transportation and logistics systems.
- Develop and distribute informational publications and presentations to the academic community and general public.
- Establish continuing education courses in transportation and logistics to improve the economic effectiveness and safety of the region's transportation systems.
- Accept recommendations from the advisory board of professionals to continuously improve the center's service to the university and the community. The Transportation and Logistics Advisory Board is composed of representatives from key sectors of the transportation and logistics industry and are uniquely able to assist in creating excellence in education.
- Initiate distinguished speaker series to provide university and community opportunities to learn from and meet leaders in the field.
- Organize seminars and workshops that expose the region to new ideas and highlight opportunities.

Projects and Research

The Transportation and Logistics Research Center partners with many different local and national organizations on research projects, seminars, outreach, and education. Examples of these companies and organizations include:

- CN Railroad
- Key Lakes 1, Inc.
- BNSF Railroad
- Halvor Lines, Inc.
- Duluth Port Authority
- Dart Transit
- Con-way Freight

The Transportation and Logistics Research Center is an active member of the following research organizations.

Great Lakes Maritime Research Institute (GLMRI):

GLMRI represents a consortium of the University of Wisconsin-Superior Transportation and Logistics Research Center and the University of Minnesota Duluth Swenson College of Science and Engineering and Labovitz School of Business and Economics. The GLMRI was established in 2004, and on June 1, 2005 the U.S. Maritime Administration designated GLMRI as a National Maritime Enhancement Institute. This National Maritime Enhancement Institute is dedicated to developing and improving economically and environmentally sustainable maritime commerce on the Great Lakes through applied research.

The director of the Transportation and Logistics Research Center, Dr. Richard Stewart, also serves as a co-director of the GLMRI.

To learn about the latest research efforts in marine transportation, logistics, economics, engineering, environmental planning, and port management, visit http://www.glmri.org/

National Center for Freight and Infrastructure Research and Education (CFIRE)

This multi-university research center is led by UW-Madison's University Transportation Research Center. http://www.wistrans.org/cfire - CFIRE is a National University Transportation Research Center funded by the U.S. Department of Transportation. UW-Superior's Transportation and Logistics Research Center has been a CFIRE consortium member since 2006.

Wisconsin Space Grant Consortium

UW-Superior hosted the 17th annual meeting in 2007 and will host the 26th annual meeting in 2016. UW-Superior has been awarded student scholarships and grants.

https://spacegrant.carthage.edu

Council of University Transportation Centers (CUTC)

UW-Superior's Transportation and Logistics Research Center is a member of CUTC. Collectively, council members have advanced the state of the art in all modes and disciplines of transportation. In doing so, they have made significant and lasting contributions to the nation's mobility, economy, and defense. In 2014 council's membership consisted of 97 of the nation's leading university-based transportation research centers. Membership in the council is limited to any organized center, institute, division, unit, or specifically identifiable organization devoted to transportation research, education and technology transfer that is an integral part of a university or four-year college.

Student Research Opportunities

The Transportation and Logistics Research Center offers the opportunity to qualified students looking to become involved in undergraduate research. Student research opportunities vary each semester depending on the number of ongoing projects. Opportunities include part-time jobs, student research assistantships, fellowships and internships to help students gain valuable research experience, and further their education goals.

Writing Program Description

The Writing Program, housed in the Writing and Library Science Department, offers a wide variety of courses in creative, professional, and academic writing. These courses include the core writing courses and introductory and advanced writing courses that comprise the Bachelor of Arts degree in Writing and the Writing Minor.

The Bachelor of Arts degree in Writing offers students depth of study in writing process and craft, creative and professional writing, and theories of language and rhetoric. Practice in diverse writing genres prepares students for a wide range of academic and professional goals. The degree program will prepare students for many types of careers in writing, including freelance work, technical writing, grant writing, editing, copywriting, and creative writing. Our faculty and staff include many practicing and published writers and scholars.

In addition, we encourage students in any major to take our courses as electives and to consider choosing a minor in writing. Students in any major may choose a writing minor, offered both on campus and online, to complement the coursework in their major; this includes all Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science majors. Excellent employment opportunities exist for students who combine a writing minor with any major, since writing is required in most professions. Students in comprehensive majors may also add a writing minor, and students in the teacher certification majors may add a writing minor in addition to their required, teachable minors.

Writing is fundamental to a liberal arts education, and proven writing ability is one of the most valuable assets a graduate can have. Employers frequently consider writing ability and expertise when hiring. Argumentation and persuasion of specific audiences are fundamental abilities required of informed citizens. Further, the study and practice of language, rhetoric, and writing in its various forms provide an excellent opportunity for creative expression and better critical thinking. For more information about specific courses, see Writing (WRIT) in the Course Description section of this catalog.

The design and content of this course is specific to students seeking careers in public health, community health, allied health, or other professions that require an understanding of the bacteria and viruses in our community that can lead to disease and other ailments. Epidemiology is a unique branch of the public health perspective that strives towards the prevention of disease. This course will outline how microbes play a significant role in our daily lives as agents of infectious disease, how they are a major public health concern, and how certain microbes are necessary for the sustenance of life on earth.

Prerequisites:
Prerequisite for taking this course is having completed BIOL 115.

| HWM 305      | The Wellness Profession | 3.00 |
|              | This course explores the definition of health, health promotion and holistic wellness. You will learn the professional role and personal commitment required to implement life-style wellness programs. The course includes an overview of the history and philosophy contributing to the success of wellness and health promotion professionals. You will be introduced to experiential and self learning of a personal wellness program that facilitates improved health in the seven-dimensions including: Social, Physical, Emotional, Career, Intellectual, Environmental and Spiritual. |

Prerequisites:
Prerequisite for taking this course is having completed PSYC 101.

| HWM 310      | Changes Across the Life Span | 3.00 |
|              | This course explores research and theory regarding the nature and processes of human development from early adulthood through old age and death. Key topics include biological theories of aging; the changing body; disorders of the brain, personality development; changing memory and thinking skills; relationship issues, careers and retirement, and death/dying. |

Prerequisites:
Prerequisite for taking this course is having completed BIOL 115.

| HWM 315      | Resource Management for Wellness Managers | 3.00 |
|              | The objective of this course is to examine the issues in healthcare and defining the quality of care in healthcare programs. The course will focus on health care financing and insurance, objectives of financial management, leadership styles, managing costs, and managing healthcare professionals. |

| HWM 320      | Health and Medical Terminology | 3.00 |
|              | The purpose of this course is to introduce the student to the basic terminology. Since health care uses a unique blend of prefixes, suffixes and terms related to both preventative and clinical care, it is important that the wellness profession has the knowledge and abilities to decipher this information. |

| HWM 325      | Health Literacy | 3.00 |
|              | This course will explore the current understandings and work in health literacy research, advocacy, and outreach efforts across the various health education and related fields. It will include readings, discussions, and competencies in evaluation health information for quality and credibility; locating health information and determining quality resources; identifying and assessing population health literacy; and understanding the networks of agencies working in the health settings to address literacy in the health field. |

Prerequisites:
Prerequisite for taking this course is HWM 300.

| HWM 335      | Worksite Health Environment | 3.00 |
|              | This course examines the workplace environment's influence on daily health decisions and focuses on practical, contextual lever of behavioral change. Novel insights from the fields of behavioral economics and consumer marketing will be reviewed to help students understand the cognitive barriers to health behavior change and the environmental nudges that can be leveraged to overcome these barriers at work. Students will explore environmental assessment tools, active design principles, workplace policies, supportive research and real world examples. |

Prerequisites:
Prerequisite for this class is having successfully completed HWM 300.

| HWM 345      | Physical Activity and Nutrition for Wellness Managers | 3.00 |
|              | This course presents professional recommendations and guidelines for physical activity and nutrition. Students will design workplace strategies that will meet recommendations and guidelines to support employees. |

CJUS 160 Field Exp./Cert Prog CJUS 1.00 - 3.00

An academically grounded, structured professional experience in a justice setting. Students seeking credit should consult with the director of the Criminal Justice program for application guidelines. Written approval of the instructor must be obtained before registering. Since the field experience is an introductory, independent learning experience involving the cooperation and assistance of outside agencies, a student should notify the instructor in writing of an interest in enrolling in the course several months before the semester of the actual field experience. Instructor consent required. Formal arrangements with an agency may be easier to complete with careful, early planning.

Typically Offered: Fall and Spring Terms

CJUS 189 Criminal Justice Elective 1.00 - 9.00

Transfer credits ONLY from another accredited institution not equivalent to a UW-Superior course.

CJUS 207 Police and Society 3.00

Broad survey of the role of the police in American society. Special attention given to the origins of policing, the nature of police organizations and police work, and problems and issues in the relationship between police agencies and the community.

Typically Offered: Fall Term Only

CJUS 212 Criminal Investigations 3.00

Problems of directing and controlling criminal investigation; survey of the fundamentals of investigation, crime scene search and recording, collection and preservation of evidence, scientific investigation, crime analysis, information sources, interview and interrogation, and case monitoring and preparation.

Typically Offered: Spring Term Only

CJUS 289 Criminal Justice Elective 1.00 - 9.00

Transfer credits ONLY from another accredited institution not equivalent to a UW-Superior course.

CJUS 301 Study Abroad 0.00 - 6.00

Field trips designed to give students direct experiences in foreign countries. Each program includes preparatory reading, orientation meetings, a faculty-supervised study tour, and a detailed written evaluation of learning situations associated with the course. With consent of the relevant program and content adaptation, programs provided by other agencies can be considered for this credit. Students must obtain approval for taking these courses prior to participation, otherwise the course may not count. For specific degree requirements, consult your advisor. May be repeated only if content is different.

Typically Offered: Fall and Spring Terms

CJUS 312 Gender, Crime, and Justice 3.00

Exploration of the social construction of gender in crime and delinquency as well as in justice systems; analysis of how assumptions about female and male natures, as well as appropriate roles and positions in society affect the interpretation and application of law; comparison of women/girls and men/boys as offenders, victims and practitioners. Cross-listed as CJUS/GST 312.

University Studies Requirements (2017-19 Catalog): Diversity

Typically Offered: Spring Term Only

CJUS 315 Criminal Courts and American Justice 3.00

Examination of the middle stages of justice processing; includes the role of local legal cultures, innovative methods for addressing criminal harms, and nontraditional dispositions of criminal cases.

Typically Offered: Occasional by Demand

CJUS 316 Crime, Corrections and Punishment 3.00
Survey of philosophical, historical, sociological, psychological and political aspects of the American prison and related programs in the criminal justice system; problems of inmate culture, control, supervision and treatment are emphasized through analysis of penal institutions and treatment/release programs. Attention is given to examining incarceration through the "eyes" of inmates. The course may be taught from an academic service learning perspective, involving field experiences in custodial settings.

PSYC 212 Critical Thinking

The central objective of this course is to help students understand a diverse array of critical thinking styles. This course emphasizes that the type of thinking one applies depends heavily on one's objective, cultural context, and personal style. These goals will be addressed through a series of modules, each one demonstrating different methods of engaging with ideas to determine their value, falsity, and/or truth. Students will be exposed to methods of reasoning in a variety of historical and cultural contexts. Students will be required: to reflect on their own decision-making process; to identify, evaluate and apply diverse perspectives; to connect and contrast different worldviews; and understand the historical sources of, and to demonstrate openness to, dissimilar worldviews. Cross-listed PHIL/PSYC 212.

</table>
An opportunity to explore interest in possible field(s) of social work practice; with instructor, student selects a field to explore, develops a study contract to demonstrate that he or she understands the field of practice and what it entails. The student is expected to evaluate his or her capacity, interest, and skill sets in relation to that field. Open to majors and non-majors.

Typically Offered:
- Fall and Spring Terms

SO W 301 Study Abroad
Field trips designed by the faculty to give students direct experiences in foreign countries. Each program includes preparatory reading, orientation meetings, a faculty-supervised study tour, and a detailed written evaluation of learning situations associated with the course. Students must obtain approval for taking these courses prior to participation. For specific degree requirements, please consult your advisor. May be repeated only if the content is different. As offered.

Typically Offered:
- Occasional by Demand

SO W 325 Ecology of Social Welfare Policy
First in a two-course sequence. Provides an ecological overview of policymaking-how differing systems and values interact to create the policymaking environment. Begins with a review of the history of social welfare and uses this historical lens to examine the structure of present social welfare policies and service programs. Focuses on understanding the political forces and processes which impact social policy development, as well as upon how ethical, cultural, social and economic justice issues impact the creation of social welfare policy and programs at the local, regional, national and international levels. Recommend: POLS 150, 230, 330, ECON 235, and/or ECON 251 as an adjunct to more comprehensive understanding of social welfare policy. Open to non-majors.

Prerequisites:
- Successful completion of SO W 121 with a grade of C or above is a prerequisite.

Typically Offered:
- Spring Term Only

SO W 326 Social Welfare Policy Practice
Second in a two-course social policy sequence. Builds upon the ecological foundation established in the first. Students build critical thinking and other practical skills necessary to conduct social welfare policy analysis. Students will be introduced to the concepts of regulation and resistance, and apply those to understanding current and historical social welfare policies. Students will be taught how to propose social welfare policy alternatives to meet the service, economic and social justice needs of vulnerable regional people. Finally, students will be trained to apply advocacy skills and to use social and economic justice principles in addressing social welfare needs.

Prerequisites:
- Successful completion of SO W 325 with a grade of C or above.

Typically Offered:
- Fall Term Only

SO W 329 Crisis Intervention
In-depth study of the theoretical basis of what a crisis is, crisis intervention and the steps to be taken in crisis resolution. Focuses on micro, mezzo and macro applications of crisis intervention models and practice skills, examining both situational and maturational crises and the implications of crisis intervention for work with families, groups and communities, and at the international level.

Typically Offered:
- Spring Term Only

SO W 340 Methods of Practice I: Interpersonal Skills for Social Workers
Teaches future social work practitioners interpersonal helping skills within a solution focused perspective. Focus is on interpersonal communication and development of interviewing skills ranging from basic to advanced. Students will be taught the conscious use of self, the use of empathy, ethics and boundary issues encountered in interviewing, and cross-cultural differences in the interpersonal skills process. Interviewing with specific populations will also be discussed including work with children, people in crisis and involuntary clients. Exercises, role playing and simulations focused on situations encountered specifically at the micro and mezzo of social work practice are used to enhance learning.

Prerequisites:
- Prerequisite for taking this course is having completed SO W 121 or taking it concurrently. Corequisites are enrollment in SO W 341 and SO W 344, and formal admission into the Social Work Program.

Typically Offered:
- Fall Term Only

SO W 341 Methods of Practice II: Individual Case Work
Second of a four-course practice sequence devoted to development of the entry-level social work practitioner. Focuses on understanding and using current models of social work practice employed by the generalist social worker in casework with individuals, particularly the ethnic/socially sensitive perspective, the ecological model, the problem-solving model, the task-centered approach, evidence-based approach, and the strengths perspective. Course delineates the basic social work helping process: engagement including exploration and data gathering, assessment and planning, intervention, monitoring and evaluation, and termination. Emphasis on presenting students with professional knowledge, values, ethics, and skills to think critically about and conduct effective case work with individuals. Students analyze various social, economic, and human rights justice issues and environmental conditions which impact the practice of social work with individuals.

Prerequisites:
- Prerequisite for taking this course is having completed SO W 121 or taking it concurrently. Corequisites are enrollment in SO W 340 and SO W 344, and formal admission into the Social Work Program.

Typically Offered:
- Fall Term Only

SO W 344 Human Behavior In the Social Environment I (HBSE I)

The Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System | 354 of 607
Examines social work perspectives, knowledge and theory related to development of human beings across the life span in relation to their emotional, physical, intellectual, social, spiritual and cultural contexts. Knowledge from the social sciences is integrated to provide a comprehensive view of people interacting with their environments.

Prerequisites:
Corequisites are enrollment in SO W 340 and SO W 341.

Typically Offered:
Fall Term Only

SO W 345 Human Behavior in the Social Environment II (HBSE II) 3.00
Study of the basic concepts of social systems theory particularly relevant to social work practice. Knowledge from the social sciences is integrated to provide a basis for intervention with individuals, families, groups, organizations and communities. Special emphasis is made on self-examination in relation to ethical, social justice, and human diversity issues and on acquiring transferable sets of skills in learning to interact effectively with vulnerable or at-risk populations.

Prerequisites:
Successful completion of SO W 340, SO W 341 and SO W 344 with a grade of C or above in all courses are prerequisites. Enrollment in SO W 365 and SO W 366 are corequisites.

Typically Offered:
Spring Term Only

SO W 350 Introduction to Addiction and Recovery 3.00
Overview of the dynamics of addiction, examining its impact upon individuals, families, agencies and communities. Includes description of the recovery process and the role of social work, criminal justice and other helping professionals in the treatment of addiction. Opportunity to conduct intensive study of this area. Emphasis is placed on learning to interact effectively with vulnerable and at-risk populations.

Typically Offered:
Fall Term Only

SO W 365 Methods of Practice III: Family and Group Work 3.00
Third course in the methods sequence using the basic framework of social work practice, theory, helping process and skills examined in SOW 340 and 341. Primary emphasis on development of skills to work with small-group systems and families. Group and family work includes learning effective practice approaches with people from diverse client groups and empowering group and family clients. Course focuses on recognizing and resolving ethical dilemmas, human rights issues, and social and economic justice issues within group and family practice contexts.

Prerequisites:
Successful completion of SO W 340, SO W 341, and SO W 344 with a grade of C or above in all courses are prerequisites. SO W 345 and SO W 366 are corequisites for taking this course.

Typically Offered:
Spring Term Only

SO W 366 Methods of Practice IV: Agency, Community and Global Practice 3.00
Final course of the four course practice sequence devoted to the development of the entry-level generalist social work practitioner. It builds upon the basic framework of social work casework practice, theory, helping process and skills examined in SO W 340 and 341. Primary emphasis on development of skills to work with small-group systems and families. Group and family work includes learning effective practice approaches with people from diverse client groups and empowering group and family clients. Course focuses on recognizing and resolving ethical dilemmas, human rights issues, and social and economic justice issues within group and family practice contexts.

Prerequisites:
Successful completion of SO W 340, SO W 341 and SO W 344 are prerequisite with a grade of C or above in all courses. Enrollment SO W 345 and SO W 366 are corequisites for taking this course.

Typically Offered:
Spring Term Only

SO W 380 Social Work Research Methods 3.00
First of a two-course sequence, introducing basic concepts and approaches of social science research. Specific focus on the empowering community- and agency-based approaches often employed by social work researchers, and emphasis on understanding the research process including conceptualization, planning, data collection, data analysis, and research writing. Express attention given to ethical and diversity issues often encountered in social work research writing. Express attention given to ethical and diversity issues often encountered in social work research.

Prerequisites:
Successful completion of SO W 121 with a grade of C or above is a prerequisite.

Typically Offered:
Spring Term Only

SO W 386 Social Work Practice with American Indian Families 3.00
Addresses social work practice issues related to contemporary American Indian family life, including recognition of the importance of American Indian tribal contexts and community-based developmental assets; development and implementation of the Indian Child Welfare Act; impact of sovereignty and other social policy issues on American Indian families; and effective approaches to use when helping American Indian families. Offers an opportunity to better understand and work more effectively with American Indian families. Open to non-majors and can be used as a General Education diversity requirement. Cross-listed FNS/SOW 386.

University Studies Requirements (2017-19 Catalog):
Diversity

Typically Offered:
Spring Term Only
SO W 389 Social Work Elective
Transfer credits ONLY from another accredited institution not equivalent to a UW-S course.

SO W 420 Prep for Field Seminar
A non-credit course required of all social work majors, consisting of activities completed in the semester before the student enters the field internship. These seminars focus on the formal application for an internship including the resume, cover letter and references; the expectations for the internship as outlined in the Internship Guide; the use of the Field Agency Directory to find a placement; discussion and practice of job skills interviewing; and assistance in being matched with an appropriate placement. Pass/Fail.

Prerequisites:
Successful completion of SO W 340, 341, and 344 with a grade of C or above in all courses is prerequisite.

Typically Offered:
Fall and Spring Terms

SO W 422 Social Work Field Instruction I
Social Work Field Instruction I.

Prerequisites:
Successful completion of SO W 340, 341, 344, 345, SO W 365 and 366 with a grade of C or above in all courses and completion of SO W 420 with a pass is prerequisite. Enrollment in SO W 423 is a corequisite.

Typically Offered:
Fall, Spring, and Summer Terms

SO W 423 Social Work Field Seminar I
Enrollment in SO W 422 is corequisite.

Prerequisites:
Enrollment in SO W 422 is corequisite.

Typically Offered:
Fall, Spring, and Summer Terms

SO W 426 Selected Topics in Social Work
Intensive study of a specific area. This is a Social Work elective and may be repeated for credit when topics are different. Open to non-majors. On demand.

Typically Offered:
Occasional by Demand

SO W 427 Social Work Field Instruction II
Social Work Field Instruction II.

Prerequisites:
Successful completion of SO W 340, 341, 344, 345, SO W 365 and 366 with a grade of C or above in all courses, and completion of SO W 420 with a grade of pass is prerequisite. Enrollment in SO W 428 is corequisite.

Typically Offered:
Fall, Spring, and Summer Terms

SO W 428 Social Work Field Seminar II
Social Work Field Seminar II.

Prerequisites:
Enrollment in SO W 427 is corequisite.

Typically Offered:
Fall, Spring, and Summer Terms

SO W 480 Research Projects
While registered for these credits, students complete the individually designed and/or team research projects proposed in SO W 380 Social Work Research Methods.

Prerequisites:
Prerequisite for taking this course is completion of SO W 380 and MATH 130 or PSYC 301 with a grade of C or better in all courses.

Typically Offered:
Fall Term Only

SO W 489 Social Work Elective
Transfer credits ONLY from another accredited institution not equivalent to a UW-S course.

SO W 498 Independent Projects
Students complete an intensive independent study project. Student self-directed study, with instructor input, for which the student develops a detailed contract to guide the project. Contract must demonstrate understanding, application and integration of the social work topic under study. Contract must address ethical, diversity and social justice implications of topic chosen. The class may be designed around any one of a number of relevant social work topics. Instructor's approval.

Prerequisites:
Prerequisite for taking this course is having declared SO W as the Major and SO W 121
Typically Offered:
Fall and Spring Terms

Mission Statement

UW-Superior's Mathematics and Computer Science Department provides majors and minors in Computer Science, Mathematics, and Mathematics Education. The programs provide a core of fundamental courses along with an array of electives that enable students to pursue special interests. Using this versatile, highly regarded program, students can choose a major, minor, certification or associates degree that prepares them for a career or graduate study in Computer Science, Mathematics, Information Technology and Systems, Engineering or Mathematics Education.

Faculty and Staff

Bezroukov, Serguei - Professor
Kahler, Heather - Senior Lecturer
Khoroosi, Hossain - Senior Lecturer
Lynch, Shaun - Professor
Rosenberg, Steven - Professor
Scott, Chad - Professor and Department Chair
Toscano, Marilyn - Senior Lecturer
Totushek, Jon - Assistant Professor
Tucker, Shin-Ping - Professor

Associate Degrees

The Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System | 359 of 607
CSCI 202 Continuation of CSCI 202. Concepts and implementation techniques for various algorithms and related data structures of particular interest to computer scientists; analysis of the complexity (efficiency) of algorithms. Topics include: stacks and queues, hashing, graphs and trees, data compression, game strategy, and related algorithms.

Prerequisites:
CSCI 202 with a grade of C- or better is prerequisite for taking this course.

Typically Offered:
Fall Term Only

CSCI 327 Embedded Systems Design
A firmware and hardware development course for students with a serious interest in Micro-controller programming, Embedded Systems, or Engineering. Topics include: assembly and/or C programming of micro-controllers, interrupt processing, basic hardware and logic design, programming micro-controller peripherals like ADC, DAC, timers, PWM, comparators, programming and using serial interfaces, communication with user, basics of printed boards design.

Prerequisites:
Completion of CSCI 224 or CSCI 201 is recommended for taking this course.

Typically Offered:
Spring Term Odd Years Only

CSCI 331 Computer Graphics and 3-D Modeling
Data structures and algorithms used in computer graphics emphasizing programming rather than graphics design. Topics include: graphics algorithms, design and implementation of graphics applications, 2-D and 3-D modeling, and animation. Mathematical treatment of topics that require an understanding of fundamental concepts in calculus and linear algebra.

Prerequisites:
The prerequisite for taking this course is having completed CSCI 201. CSCI 202 recommended.

Typically Offered:
Spring Term Even Years Only

CSCI 340 Software Development and Professional Practice
Best practices in the field of software development. Students complete a medium-scale software project as members of a development team. Topics include: professional ethics and responsibilities; multi-tier systems; software life cycle; requirements analysis; system modeling; implementation and testing; re-engineering and maintainability.

Prerequisites:
Prerequisite for taking this course is having completed CSCI 303

Typically Offered:
Spring Term Only

CSCI 351 Internet Programming
Internet technologies for the World Wide Web such as XHTML, DHTML, CSS, CGI, JavaScript, and HTML5. Topics include: composing XHTML/XML web pages; page layout control with cascading style sheets, form processing and validation, working with images and JavaScript based animation, fundamentals of CGI programming under Unix/Linux environment, server-side programming with Perl and PHP; server configuration issues; and database access.

Prerequisites:
The prerequisite for taking this course is having completed CSCI 201. CSCI 202 recommended.

Typically Offered:
Occasional by Demand

CSCI 356 Database Systems
Information Management (IM) plays a critical role in almost all areas where computers are used. The course discusses the representation, organization, transformation, and presentation of information; algorithms for efficient and effective access and updating of stored information; data modeling and abstraction; relational algebra and Structured Query Language (SQL); and database design, implementation, querying, and administration. Pre-requisite: Having completed CSCI 201 is recommended when enrolling in this course.

Typically Offered:

CSCI 381 Special Projects
Various individual and small-group projects carried out under the supervision of one or more instructors. Requires weekly progress reports plus a final report and/or a final exam. May be repeated, but no more than a total of four credits may be earned from both MATH 381 and CSCI 381. Pass-Fail only. Preliminary project plan and an independent study contract required prior to enrollment.

Typically Offered:
Occasional by Demand

CSCI 389 Computer Science Elective
Transfer credits ONLY from another accredited institution not equivalent to a UW-S course.

Typically Offered:
Occasional by Demand

CSCI 390 Computer Science Internship
Work in an approved position to gain experience in solving real problems using computer science, mathematics, and statistics. Interns may receive salaried appointments with cooperating companies. Pass-Fail only.

Typically Offered:
Occasional by Demand

CSCI 399 Mathematical Sciences Seminar

The Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System | 360 of 607
Students carry out individual investigations in current literature and present their findings to the entire department. Taken during senior year. Pass-Fail only. Independent study contract required prior to enrollment.

CSCI 451 Operating Systems

- Credits: 4.00
- Description: In-depth study of the concepts, issues, and algorithms related to the design and implementation of operating systems. Topics include: process management, process synchronization and inter-process communication; memory management; virtual memory; interrupt handling; processor scheduling; device management; I/O; file systems; and introduction to networking and network security. Students conduct programming projects and case studies to investigate modern operating systems such as Solaris, Linux, and Windows.

Prerequisites: The prerequisite for taking this course is having completed CSCI 201. CSCI 202 recommended.

Typically Offered: Spring Term Odd Years Only

CSCI 461 Computer Architecture and Organization

- Credits: 4.00
- Description: In-depth study of fundamentals of computer hardware organization. Topics include: digital logic and circuits; finite state machines; computer arithmetic, machine instructions and assembly language; pipeline design, memory management and design; storage system design; I/O modules, operating system support; structure and function of computer processors, RISC vs. CISC architecture, micro-programmed control, and computer security.

Prerequisites: The prerequisite for taking this course is having completed CSCI 224.

Typically Offered: Fall Term Even Years Only

CSCI 470 Net-Centric Computing

- Credits: 4.00
- Description: Introduces the structure, implementation, and theoretical background of computer networking. Topics include: the ISO/OSI reference model and protocol stack; implementation details of various network protocols; routing algorithms; wireless challenges and protocols, mobility management, broadcasting and multicasting, multimedia networking, introduction to network security.

Prerequisites: The prerequisite for taking this course is having completed CSCI 201. CSCI 202 recommended.

Typically Offered: Spring Term Even Years Only

CSCI 481 Special Topics

- Credits: 1.00 - 4.00
- Description: Investigation of one or more topics of current interest not covered in other courses. Not intended for independent study projects. May be repeated, but no more than a total of eight credits may be earned from both MATH 481 and CSCI 481.

Typically Offered: Occasional by Demand

CSCI 489 Computer Science Elective

- Credits: 1.00 - 12.00
- Description: Transfer credits ONLY from another accredited institution not equivalent to a UW-S course.

CSCI 498 Individual Capstone Project

- Credits: 1.00
- Description: Students carry out a project under the supervision of a faculty member, write a report, and present the results to the entire department. Taken during senior year.

Typically Offered: Fall and Spring Terms

CSCI 499 Group Capstone Project

- Credits: 3.00
- Description: Group projects in software engineering are carried out by students under supervision of a faculty member.

Prerequisites: The prerequisite for taking this course is having completed CSCI 340.

Typically Offered: Fall Term Only

Transfer credits ONLY from another accredited institution not equivalent to a UW-Superior course.
Examines the impact computers and Internet technology have had on people and society through the lens of Internet law, ethics, and intellectual property. Designed to be a forum where students discuss and debate critical issues related to these areas. Students participate in exercises that stimulate critical thinking and prepare them to address complicated issues that provoke a wide range of opinions.

Typically Offered:
- Fall Term Even Years Only

ITS 364
Digital Multimedia
Examines the history and underlying theory behind computer integration of text, sound, video, animation, and graphics. Survey the fundamental concepts and historical development of multimedia. Review current and future applications of multimedia. Introduce the practical tools and techniques for developing digital media applications. Students gain practical experience in design and implementation of multimedia applications on a platform.

Typically Offered:
- Fall Term Even Years Only

ITS 370
Information Security
Provides the knowledge of information assurance and security necessary for modern programmers, analysts, and other IT professionals and also important for business managers, auditors and many other careers. Covers a diverse range of topics recommended by the Association for Computing Machinery, including operational issues, policies and procedures, attacks and defense mechanisms, risk analysis, recovery and business continuity, data security, cryptography, and digital forensics.

Typically Offered:
- Fall Term Odd Years Only

Global E-Commerce Systems
A close look at technology that enables e-commerce to leverage information to their strategic advantage. Examines the business use to improve productivity, manage information, market and sell products, streamline supply chains, and compete on a global scale that has led to a revolution in the e-business enterprise. Students are guided to understand basic e-commerce and e-business systems on key areas of developing, managing, and maintaining a successful e-commerce site. Case studies and examples illustrate how theory is successfully translated into real-life business scenarios.

Typically Offered:
- Spring Term Only

ITS 381
Special Projects
Various individual and small-group projects carried out under the supervision of one or more instructors. Requires weekly progress reports plus a final report and/or a final exam. May be repeated, but no more than a total of four credits may be earned from both ITS 381 and CSCI 381. Pass-Fail only. Prerequisites: Preliminary project plan and an independent study contract. Offered as needed.

Typically Offered:
- Occasional by Demand

ITS 389
Information Technology Elective
Transfer credits ONLY from another accredited institution not equivalent to a UW-Superior course.

ITS 400
Information Technology and Systems Internship
Students extend classroom learning in the ITS field. Students obtain the cooperation of an employer and prepare a learning contract. Students will submit weekly recaps of activities and a final report about their experience. The internship may be taken any academic term. Pass-Fail only.

Typically Offered:
- Fall, Spring, and Summer Terms

ITS 481
Special Topics
In-depth study of specialized current topics in information technology and systems. May be repeated when topics are different. Offered as needed.

Typically Offered:
- Occasional by Demand

ITS 489
Information Technology Elective
Transfer credits ONLY from another accredited institution not equivalent to a UW-Superior course.

ITS 498
Individual Capstone Project
Students will integrate an information technology and systems (ITS) application into the senior experience in their program of study. Requires weekly progress reports and demonstration of learned skills through a project under the supervision of one or more instructors. Pass-Fail only.

Typically Offered:
- Fall, Spring, and Summer Terms

ITS 499
Group Capstone Project
Group projects are carried out by students. Students will integrate an information technology and systems (ITS) application into the senior experience in their program of study. Requires weekly progress reports and demonstration of learned skills through a project under the supervision of one or more instructors. Pass-Fail only.

Typically Offered:
- Fall, Spring, and Summer Terms

Mission Statement

Accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music, the UW-Superior Music Department has a long-standing reputation for training excellent musicians. This enables our graduates to gain admission to leading graduate schools and to hold positions as performers, teachers and professors throughout the United States and abroad.

Faculty and Staff

Erin Aldridge, Professor (Orchestra, Violin)
Pamela Bustos, Associate Professor (Band, Clarinet, Music Education)
Vicki Fingalson, Associate Professor (Voice, Opera Workshop)
E. Beth Gilbert, Professor (Piano, Music Theory)
Lois Veenhoven Guderian, Associate Professor (Music Education)
Brett Jones, Associate Professor (Percussion, World Music)
Greg Kehl Moore, Professor (Jazz Studies, Saxophone)
Richard Robbins, Assistant Professor (Choir, Music Education)

Cooperating Academic Staff

Dennis Berryhill, Lecturer (Piano Technology)
Nixon Bustos, Lecturer (String Bass)
Kimberlie Dillon, Lecturer (Oboe)
Thomas Hamilton, Lecturer (Organ)
Kevin Hoeschen, Lecturer (Viola)
Tyler Kaiser, Lecturer (Guitar)
Janell Kokkonen Lemire, Lecturer (Harp)
Jeffrey Madison, Lecturer (Voice)
Lucia Magney, Lecturer (Cello)
Deborah Rausch, Lecturer (French Horn)
Michael Roehmholdt, Lecturer (Bassoon)
Earl Salemink, Lecturer (Trumpet)
Alexander Sandor, Lecturer (Piano and Class Piano)
Melanie Sever, Lecturer (Flute)
Larry Zimmerman, Lecturer (Trombone, Euphonium, Tuba)
Andrea Yezek, Academic Department Associate

Mission Statement

Our mission is to foster intellectual growth and career preparation (graduate programs, professional programs, or work in natural sciences) in accordance with the liberal arts tradition at UW-Superior. As a science department, we focus on giving students a solid knowledge base and the skills in their respective subjects. Science students will know, understand, apply, and communicate the principles and facts related to their particular disciplines.

Laboratory Techniques in Biochemistry and Cell/Molecular Biology
Principles and practices of techniques used in biochemistry and in cell and molecular biology. Includes protein isolation and analysis, enzyme kinetics, carbohydrate analysis, immunological techniques for analysis, and techniques of gene cloning and manipulation. Recommended: CHEM 462, BIOL 355 AND BIOL 440 or concurrent enrollment. (Lecture one hour, laboratory three hours) Cross-listed as: BIOL/CHEM 465.

Prerequisites:
- BIOL 330 and CHEM 360 are pre-requisites for this class

Typically Offered:
- Fall Term Only

BIOL 481
Special Topics
In-depth study of specialized current topics in biology selected by the faculty on the basis of student/community interest. May include workshops, seminars, field trips, special problems, independent study, etc. Course may be repeated when topics are different. Instructor permission to enroll in this course.

Prerequisites:
- Prerequisite for taking this course is Junior standing or Instructor consent.

Typically Offered:
- Occasional by Demand

BIOL 484
Fish Population Ecology and Management
Focuses on two important ecological questions regarding fish populations: 1) What factors cause changes in the size of fish populations? 2) What factors influence the total number of species found in a particular environment? These questions are addressed by investigating how individual fish allocate time and resources in response to environmental conditions, and how different allocation schemes influence individual fitness. May be used to satisfy Senior Experience requirement for Biology major. (Lecture three hours, laboratory two hours.)

Prerequisites:
- Successful completion of BIOL 330 or 340, MATH 102 or MATH 113 or equivalent are prerequisites

Typically Offered:
- Occasional by Demand

BIOL 489
Biology Elective
Transfer credits ONLY from another accredited institution not equivalent to a UW-Superior course.

Typically Offered:
- Occasional by Demand

BIOL 491
Research in Biology
A course developed in cooperation with faculty or area research laboratories designed to provide students with practical experience in experimental biology. Candidates for this course must outline a research problem and complete a Contract for Independent Learning prior to registration. (May be repeated for a total of four credits.) Instructor consent required. May be used to satisfy Senior Experience requirement for Biology major.

Typically Offered:
- Fall, Spring, and Summer Terms

BIOL 492
Biology Seminar
Study of a topic through literature research. Student studies a topic and effectively summarizes the available information in written and oral form. Presentation techniques are emphasized. May be used to satisfy Senior Experience requirement for Biology major.

Typically Offered:
- Fall and Spring Terms

BIOL 496
Internship
On-the-job experience with local agencies (e.g. Wisconsin DNR) that provides students with opportunities to apply their skills to practical problems. In collaboration with a faculty sponsor, students must complete a Contract for Independent Learning prior to registration. May be used to satisfy Senior Experience requirement.

Typically Offered:
- Fall, Spring, and Summer Terms

BIOL 497
Senior Year Experience
This course provides instruction to develop and deliver an oral presentation in a scientific conference format to serve as a culminating experience for the Biology major. Presentation topics are connected to a capstone project completed in BIOL 491 Research in Biology or BIOL 496 Internship, either of which must be taken as a pre-requisite or co-requisite course. Meets in face-to-face format 2 hours per week.

Typically Offered:
- Fall or Spring Terms

Introduces the concepts of chemistry into the interpretation of chemical effects on the environment. Prerequisites: None. Meets the General Education requirement for Natural Science (environmental component). Credits cannot be counted toward a Chemistry major or minor. Offered both on campus and online.
University Studies Requirements (2017-19 Catalog):

Natural Sciences - Environment

CHEM 101
Elements & The Environment
Typically Offered:
Fall and Spring Terms
3.00
Introduction to basic concepts of chemistry and their importance in gaining a better understanding and appreciation of our environment. Many topics of current environmental concern will be discussed. Meets the General Education requirement for Natural Science (environmental component). Credits cannot be counted toward a chemistry major or minor. Students cannot earn credit for both CHEM 100 and 101.

CHEM 102
Chemistry of Everyday Phenomena
Typically Offered:
Occasional by Demand
4.00
Explores the chemistry of foods, drugs, household chemicals, personal hygiene products, agricultural chemicals, materials and other types of chemistry relevant to the student. Current chemistry topics in the popular press will be critically examined. Topics not usually addressed in other science general education courses will be presented. A small part of the course will be devoted to elementary statistics (evaluation, not calculation) to enable students to understand science and medicine as it is commonly reported. An important but minor part of the course involves discussion of the role of research in technology development and standard of living, and the impact of the chemical industry on the national and world economies. Meets the General Education requirement for Natural Science (laboratory component). Credits cannot be counted toward a Chemistry major or minor. Prerequisite: None. (Three lectures and one two-hour laboratory.)

CHEM 103
Principles of General Chemistry
Typically Offered:
Occasional by Demand
3.00
This course exposes the students to the main principles of modern chemistry and its applications, as needed for the following Sustainable Management courses: SMFT-315 "Global Environmental Chemistry" and SMGT-320 "Energy for Sustainable Management". Each student is expected to develop a working knowledge of the topics covered in the Power-Point presentations and the textbook, to demonstrate some ability to work independently, and to be able to solve the problems assigned for the homework and comparable exercises.

Prerequisites:
Successful completion of MATH 102 with a grade of C- or better is prerequisite for taking this class.

CHEM 105
General Chemistry I
Typically Offered:
Fall Term Only
5.00
Introduction to physical and chemical properties of the elements, chemical reactions, gas laws, chemical nomenclature, structure of atoms, chemical bonding, and solutions. Intermediate algebra (MATH 102) or equivalent strongly recommended as prerequisite. (Four lectures and one three-hour laboratory.) Fall Term Only on campus; Spring Term Only offered online.

CHEM 106
General Chemistry II
Typically Offered:
Fall Term Only
4.00
Continuation of CHEM 105 studying chemical equilibria, kinetics, electrochemistry, chemical compounds and reactions, qualitative analysis of ions, organic chemistry and nuclear chemistry. Three lectures and one three-hour laboratory.

Prerequisites:
Chemistry105 is a pre-requisite for Chem 106

CHEM 107
Supplementary Problems in General Chemistry II
Typically Offered:
Spring Term Only
1.00
A course designed to expand and provide extra help on those topics in General Chemistry II which frequently cause difficulty for the less well prepared student. Can only be taken simultaneously with General Chemistry II (CHEM 106). Credits cannot be applied to Chemistry Major or Minor. One Lecture-recitation per week.

CHEM 181
Introductory Topics
Typically Offered:
Occasional by Demand
1.00 - 2.00
Introductory studies of special interest selected by a student and/or faculty member. The course may be independent-study, and it may be either lecture, laboratory, or both. The study most commonly will be introductory laboratory research work by a student considering a chemistry major, but also may be used for other special studies by a highly prepared student in chemistry. Pre- or corequisite: varies with topic and permission of instructor. Individual sections of the course may be offered for a grade or may be offered pass-fail only. May be repeated for a maximum of two credits. Offered upon sufficient demand.

CHEM 189
Chemistry Elective
Typically Offered:
Occasional by Demand
1.00 - 12.00

| ENSC 350     | Environmental Science Research Methods
This is a field-based environmental science research methods class that will: 1) provide students with hands-on experience with a suite of research methods, 2) provide examples of real-world science-based problem-solving, and 3) demonstrate how environmental research can provide needed information for natural resource managers to make management decisions.
Prerequisites: Successful completion of BIOL 340.
Typically Offered:
Fall Term Only | 2.00 |
| ENSC 491     | Research in Environmental Science
A course developed in cooperation with faculty or area research laboratories designed to provide students with practical experience in environmental science. Candidates for this course must outline a research problem and complete a Contract for Independent Learning prior to registration. (May be repeated for a total of four credits.) Instructor consent required. May be used to satisfy Senior Experience requirement for Environmental Science.
Typically Offered:
Fall and Spring Terms | 1.00 - 4.00 |
| ENSC 496     | Internship in Environmental Science
On-the-job experience with local agencies (e.g. Wisconsin DNR) that provides students with opportunities to apply their skills to practical problems. In collaboration with a faculty sponsor, students must complete a Contract for Independent Learning prior to registration. May be used to satisfy Senior Experience requirement.

| GEOG 100     | World Regional Geography
Develops basic factual knowledge and awareness of the physical and cultural features of the world environment. Explores regional and world scale patterns of resources, climate, applied technology and trade, political alignments, and other aspects of the current world. All world political units are analyzed from a regional perspective. Students gain significant knowledge of world spatial relationships. Offered: Every Fall and Spring Terms on campus; Every Spring Term On Line.
University Studies Requirements (2017-19 Catalog):
Diversity
Global Awareness
Social Science
Typically Offered:
Fall and Spring Terms | 3.00 |
| GEOG 102     | Cultural Geography
Explores the influence of culture on perceptions, decisions, and interpersonal relations on both planetary and local scales of life. A broad range of cultural topics are considered, including the origins of culture, human development, political and social organization, religions and languages, and evolving human landscapes. Prepares students to be well-informed citizens of our increasingly interconnected global community. Offered On Campus Spring Terms and On Line Fall Terms.

1.00 - 4.00

GEOG 302 Economic Geography
Study of how spatial organization of economic activities affects such issues as economic growth, employment, investment patterns, mobility, and the prices paid for goods. Industrial economic activities are examined by addressing issues such as why some areas are more suitable than others for economic activities and how markets function in the real world. Transportation networks that connect areas and issues of global interdependence are central themes in this course. This course has been approved as Writing Certificate Eligible (WCE) -- see section of catalog for WCE Description/details. (lecture two hours, laboratory two hours) Offered On Campus Fall Terms, and On Line Spring Terms.
Prerequisites:
Prerequisite for taking this course for TRSP majors is completion of ECON 250 and ECON 251. Non-TRSP majors are required to take a GEOG course or consent of instructor.
Typically Offered:
Fall and Spring Terms
3.00

GEOG 343 Fundamentals of GIS II
Introduction to GIS-specific content, including database, topology, and basic and advanced analysis operations. Also covers statistical and spatial analytical techniques including attribute analysis and site suitability and models. Introduces students to ArcGIS software (ArcCatalog, ArcMap, and ArcToolbox). Laboratory activities include mapping density, mapping change, finding what's inside, finding what's nearby, measuring geographic distribution, analyzing pattern, and identifying clusters. Students examine a wide range of GIS functions using the geostatistical analysis and data management tools. Each student is required to complete a real world project using ArcGIS software.
Prerequisites:
Prerequisite for taking this course is completion of GEOG 241.
Typically Offered:
Spring Term Only
4.00

GEOG 350 Geography of Wisconsin
A spatial examination of the state of Wisconsin utilizing both physical and human considerations. It synthesizes and emphasizes the 20th and 21st century environmental issues that are related to physical characteristics such as geologic history, hydrologic, and climatic forces as well as how these physical factors have impacted the human development of the state. Examples of human issues include indigenous and immigrant settlement, economic, and political patterns.
Typically Offered:
Fall Term Only
3.00

GEOG 357 Advanced Topics in Human/Environment Interaction
Advanced Topics in Human/Environment Interaction is a study of the effects of the physical and biological factors affecting human population growth, evolution, development, and settlement as well as how our behavior impacts the physical world. The influence of environment on human development, and the schools of thought that develop, crosses many disciplinary areas of study. The basic theories integral to biology and geography, often studied separately as part of discipline—specific courses, will be integrated into the study of humans and their physical environment. The emphasis of the course is to offer topics from a variety diverse perspectives, with both a reading/lecture and lab component.
Prerequisites:
BIOL 100 or GEOL 130 or Instructor Consent Required
Typically Offered:
Spring Term Only
3.00

GEOG 389 Geography Elective

GEOG 402 Urban Planning and Transportation Systems
Broad introduction to cartography and Geographic Information Systems with emphases on both theory and practice. Fundamental principles of numerical data entry, digitizing, data manipulation and analysis, and interpretation of spatially referenced data will be explored. Additional topics include cartographic basics such as mapping, coordinate systems, projections and remote sensing. Students are introduced to the skills necessary to run a vector-based GIS. The GIS lab offers students an opportunity to use GPS systems and GIS (ArcGIS10.x) to improve their conceptual and technical GIS skills while working one-on-one with the instructor. Lab will cover map design, geodatabase creation, spatial data download, examining metadata, geoprocessing, digitizing, geocoding, spatial analysis, and 3D-analysis. In the lab each student will carry a real world project using ArcGIS software. (lecture three hours, laboratory two hours) ITS 108 or basic computer skills recommended. Offered Every Fall Even and Spring Terms of Even Years Only.
Typically Offered:
Fall Term Only
3.00
Comparative examinations of planning theories and practices that shaped the geography of 19th and 20th century urban and suburban areas. Introduction to the intraurban and interurban influences of transportation systems on land use and planning will be explored. Stresses the ways in which planners and planning ideologies have responded to different social, economic, political and technological (transportation and communication) innovations and pressures. The class includes an examination of 21st Century problems, pressures and solutions to urban and transportation needs. Qualifies as an Academic-Service Learning course (see Academic Service-Learning for more details). A significant semester-long group AS-L project, which connects the student with the Twin Ports community, is a substantial learning goal in the face-to-face section of this course. Cross-listed as GEOG/TRSP 402. S18, S20.

Prerequisites:
For non-SBE majors, completion of GEOG 302 or consent of Instructor. For SBE majors, completion of GEOG 302 and admission to the SBE program.

Tutoring students in 100-level physics courses under supervision of a physics staff member. (Three hours per week per credit.)

PHYS 401 Modern Physics

Non-classical phenomena and their explanation in relativity and quantum mechanics. Topics include Special Relativity, relativistic transformations, E=mc² spacetime, wave-particle duality of matter and light, the Heisenberg uncertainty principle, Schrödinger's equation, atomic physics, quantum numbers, spin, nuclear physics, radioactivity, nuclear forces, and the Standard Model.

Prerequisites: Completion of PHYS 108 or 202.

Typically Offered: Occasional by Demand

PHYS 448 Atomic And Quantum Physics

Introduction to the philosophy and mathematics of quantum mechanics, including uncertainty, wave-particle duality, problem solving in tunneling and boundary conditions, time-dependent wave functions, the quantum mechanics of hydrogen, alkali metals, and chemical bonding. (Lecture four hours.)

Prerequisites: Completion of PHYS 202 or PHYS 206.

Typically Offered: Occasional by Demand

PHYS 481 Special Topics

In-depth study of specialized current topics in physics selected by the faculty on the basis of community interest. May include workshops, seminars, field trips, special problems, independent study. May be repeated when topics are different. Instructor consent required.

Typically Offered: Occasional by Demand

PHYS 489 Physics Elective

Transfer credits ONLY from another accredited institution not equivalent to a UW-Superior course.

PHYS 491 Physics Research

Individual laboratory and/or theoretical investigation of a problem selected by the student and faculty or other skilled supervisor. The project will include study of related literature and formal reporting. Designed to give junior/senior level students practical experience in physics research. May be repeated for a total of four credits. Instructor Consent required.

Typically Offered: Occasional by Demand

The School of Business and Economics (SBE) offers undergraduate majors in:

- Accounting
- Business Administration (Comprehensive)
  - Finance
  - International Business
  - Management (on campus and in an online format)
  - Marketing
- Business Administration (non-comprehensive major, requires another major or non-SBE minor)
- Economics (non-comprehensive major, requires another major or non-SBE minor)
- Sustainable Management (comprehensive online major)
- Supply Chain Management
- Transportation and Logistics Management

The School of Business and Economics also offers the following minors:

- Business Minor (requires a non SBE major)
- Marketing Minor (requires a non SBE major)

The school also offers Master's Degrees in:

- Sustainable Management (online)
- Data Science (online)
- Health and Wellness Management (online)

Mission

The mission of the School of Business and Economics is to build on the students' liberal arts foundation using a dynamic interactive curriculum that prepares tomorrow's business leaders.

Admission Policies

Admission to the SBE undergraduate programs:

Students who are pursuing an SBE major or minor must be admitted to the School of Business and Economics prior to enrolling in most 300/400 level business courses. To ensure a timely graduation, students who wish to be admitted to 300/400 level business courses must establish their eligibility by completing the SBE Admission Application during the preceding academic term. Students planning admission to the SBE should contact the SBE office in Erlanson 301 and arrange to be advised by an SBE faculty member.

Students pursuing a major in Sustainable Management should consult the Academic Program Director with questions pertaining to admission to this program.

Admission to the SBE graduate programs:

Students pursuing graduate degrees should consult their respective Academic Program Directors with questions pertaining to admission to these programs.
Transfer Students Applying Credit for SBE Admission

Grades in transfer courses applying to SBE admission will be included in grade point average computations to ensure that all students, including transfer students, meet the same minimum grade point average requirements.

A transfer course will be accepted as the SBE equivalent course ONLY if the number of credits transferred equals or exceeds 75 percent of the number of credits of the UW-Superior course (e.g., a three credit transfer course would be accepted to replace a four credit UW-Superior course; a two credit transfer course would NOT be accepted to replace a three credit UW-Superior course.

All SBE admission requirements also apply to transfer students. Grade point average computation will include grades earned at colleges or universities previously attended. Grades of D in courses transferred to and repeated at UW-Superior will not be included in these computations.

SBE faculty and staff will not assume the responsibility of assessing any aspects of foreign academic credentials, courses or grades for purposes of admission, transfer credits or course equivalencies. SBE will assist the UW-Superior Transfer Specialist in determining course equivalency when there are questions about transferability.

Applying Prior Learning Experience

Students with prior learning experience such as relevant military training or industry training may be able to apply it towards SBE degrees. Students may also test out of courses. Contact the Student Services and/or the Veterans and Nontraditional Student Center for assistance with any of the above options.

SBE Major Admission Requirements

For majors in Accounting, Business Administration (comprehensive and non-comprehensive) and Transportation and Logistics Management.

1. 2.3 overall cumulative GPA required (including transfer courses).
2. Complete the following courses with a GPA of at least 2.0 with no grade lower than C-: ITS 108; ACCT 200, 201; ECON 250, 251 and BUS 270.
3. Complete WRIT 102, 209; COMM 110; MATH 151 or 240.
4. All but 12 credits of the remaining University Studies Requirements.
5. Students may not enroll on a pass/fail basis in any of the courses listed in 2 & 3.
6. Complete the SBE graduation plan.

Conditional Admission

Students who do not meet all admission requirements can be considered for conditional admission if:

1. Requirements will be completed during the semester that admission is applied for or
2. The student files a SBE Appeals Petition detailing unusual and compelling circumstances to support a conditional admission and the petition is approved by the Appeals Committee (see SBE staff in Erlanson Hall 301 to help with the petition process).

Note: Credits earned in MATH 151 or MATH 240 will apply toward the University Studies mathematics requirement.

SBE Economics Major Admission Requirements

1. Earn an overall grade point average of 2.3 or higher (including transfer courses).
2. Complete the following courses with a GPA of at least 2.0 and no grade lower than C-: BUS 270; ECON 250 and ECON 251.
3. Complete WRIT 102, 209; COMM 110; MATH 151 or 240.
4. All but 12 credits of the remaining University Studies Requirements.
5. Students may not enroll on a pass/fail basis in any of the courses listed in 2 & 3.
6. Complete the SBE graduation plan.

To enroll in 300/400 level business courses, Economics majors must be admitted to the School of Business and Economics.

Economics majors lacking experience with spreadsheet, database, and internet software applications are strongly encouraged to take ITS 108-Business Computer Applications.

Students who have completed ECON 235 can enroll in all 300/400 level economics courses without being admitted to the SBE. However, if a student who has taken ECON 235 subsequently declares an SBE major, then he or she will have to complete ECON 250 and ECON 251 in order to meet all requirements for admission to the SBE.

Conditional Admission

Students who do not meet all admission requirements can be considered for conditional admission if:

1. Requirements will be completed during the semester that admission is applied for, or
2. The student files an SBE Appeals Petition detailing unusual and compelling circumstances to support a conditional admission and the petition is approved by the Appeals Committee.

Note: Credits earned in MATH 151 or MATH 240 will apply toward the University Studies mathematics requirement.
Sustainable Management Admission Requirements

The Bachelor of Science in Sustainable Management is a completely online degree completion program. It is offered by four University of Wisconsin campuses: UW-Parkside, UW-River Falls, UW-Stout, and UW-Superior. Created for working adults, the program allows students to apply previously earned credits (or an associate's degree) toward the online Sustainable Management bachelor's degree. You are required to take each of the 21 courses in the curriculum. There are no electives and, because of the unique nature of the program, no other courses may be substituted for courses in the curriculum.

For admission into the program, students are required to have completed:

- 60 credits of undergraduate coursework or an associate's degree with a grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 or greater
- The UW-Superior University Studies requirements
- The following prerequisites:
  - College Algebra (MATH 113 Algebra with Application, or an equivalent course)
  - Statistics (MATH 130 Elementary Statistics or an equivalent course)
  - General Chemistry (CHEM 105 General Chemistry I, CHEM 103 Principles of General Chemistry or an equivalent course)
  - Introductory Biology (BIOL 123 Concepts in Biology, or an equivalent course)
  - Speech/Introduction to Communication (COMM 110 Intro to Communication or an equivalent course)

Note: Courses in BOLD are available online through UW-Superior. Students may complete prerequisites face-to-face or online, at UW-Superior or elsewhere.

SBE Minor Admission Requirements

The Business and Marketing Minor are available to all students with a non-SBE major.

Students with a Business or Marketing Minor must be admitted to the School of Business and Economics prior to enrolling in 300/400-level business courses. To be admitted, students must first:

1. Earn an overall grade point average of 2.3 prior to applying for admission to the SBE.
2. Complete the following courses with a grade point average of at least 2.0 with no grade lower than C-: ACCT 101; BUS 211; ECON 235 and FIN 210.
3. Complete the following:
   - MATH 112 or 115 or 130 or 230 or 240; or CSCI 101 or 201 or 211
   - WRIT 102 & WRIT 209
   - COMM 110 or COMM 211
   - All but 12 credits of the remaining University Studies requirements.

The following courses can be taken prior to being admitted to the SBE but only after completing the necessary course prerequisites:

- BUS 270, prerequisite ITS 108
- ECON 330 and ECON 333, prerequisite ECON 235

Conditional Admission

Students who do not meet all admission requirements can be considered for conditional admission if:

1. Requirements will be completed during the semester that admission is applied for, or
2. The student files an SBE Appeals Petition detailing unusual and compelling circumstances to support a conditional admission and the petition is approved by the Appeals Committee (see SBE staff in Erlanson 301 for help with the petition process).

Note: Credits earned in MATH 151 or MATH 240 will apply toward the University Studies mathematics requirement.

Exceptions for Taking Upper-level SBE Courses without Being Admitted to the SBE

Students who have completed ECON 235 can enroll in all 300/400 level economics courses without being admitted to the SBE.

Non-SBE majors, with at least junior level status, may enroll in the following courses without being admitted to SBE: ACCT 365; BUS 301, 306, 340, 341, 363, 370, 377, 380, 382, 405, 411, 430, 483, 495, 499; TRSP 402. Consult the SBE staff in Erlanson Hall 301 on how to obtain the necessary signatures.

Residency Requirement

All students including transfer students, who wish to earn a degree from UW-Superior with a comprehensive major offered by the SBE must complete at least 18 of the credits associated with upper-division (300/400 level) major requirements at UW-Superior. At least nine of the 18 credits must be earned in courses other than BUS 306, 370, 380, 495 and FIN 320.

Students who wish to earn a non-comprehensive major (minor required) in the SBE must complete at least 12 of the credits associated with upper division (300/400 level) major requirements at UW-Superior.
Internships

The SBE faculty believes a well-designed and meaningful work experience, which builds on the academic foundation provided by a college education, can greatly enhance the total learning experience and facilitate the transition from college to the business world. Academic credits awarded for the internship range from two to seven credits. Students interested in receiving credit for internship should contact the SBE internship coordinator or SBE staff in Erlanson Hall 301 for additional details.

On Campus Courses Offered Only Once Each Year

Students should make special note of the following courses, which are required for the School of Business and Economics students and are generally offered no more than once a year. The specific semesters during which the various courses are offered are indicated in the class schedule published online.

Normally offered fall semester: ACCT 351, 352, 355, 361, 464, 467; BUS 375, 382, 405, 474, 482, 483; ECON 330, 333, 350, 430; FIN 210, 420; TRSP 315, 401, 405; GEOG 302; LSTU 303. Normally offered spring semester: ACCT 101, 353, 357, 359, 461, 462, 365, 466; BUS 363, 371, 373, 475, 484; ECON 335, 351, 435, 470; FIN 321, 426; TRSP 305, 325, 430. GEOG 302 and LSTU 303 are required for Transportation and Logistics Management Majors.

On Campus Courses Offered Only Once Every Two Years:

Students should make special note of the following courses, which are generally offered no more than once every two years. Students should check the class schedule published online to determine when the following courses are offered. TRSP 402/GEOG 402, BUS 340, 341, 411, 475, 477; ECON 335, 362.

Courses More than Seven Years Old at Time of Graduation:

Students who plan to graduate with an SBE major should be aware that the SBE retains the option to require the student to repeat any course(s) that will be more than seven years old at the time of graduation. This policy applies to any courses used to satisfy major requirements, regardless of the college or university that granted the credit initially. This policy is of particular importance to transfer and re-entry students who have the responsibility to obtain a ruling from the SBE Appeals Committee on whether a course more than seven years old needs to be repeated.

ACCT 461  Business Taxation
3.00
Taxes of corporations, partnerships, estates, trusts, and gift taxation.

Prerequisites:
Admitted to SBE or (Jr. Status and Acct 101 or Acct 200, and Acct 201; or instructor permission)

Typically Offered:
Spring Term Only

ACCT 462  Advanced Financial Accounting
3.00
Applications of accounting theory to business combinations, partnerships, multinational companies, and other miscellaneous topics.

Prerequisites:
Admitted to SBE and Acct 352 and 353; or instructor permission.

Typically Offered:
Spring Term Only

ACCT 464  Auditing Principles
3.00
Introduction to professional auditing and the study of audit examinations which precede the attestation of the fairness of financial statements.

Prerequisites:
Admitted to SBE and Acct 352 and 353; or instructor permission.

Typically Offered:
Fall Term Only

ACCT 466  Senior Project in Accounting
2.00
Capstone course which integrates the various areas of accounting related to a business and includes a senior experience component.

Prerequisites:
Admitted to SBE and minimum of 18 credits from 300-400 level Acct courses.

Typically Offered:
Fall Term Only

ACCT 467  Tax Research
1.00
Introduction to the techniques required to research tax issues.

Prerequisites:
Admitted to SBE and concurrent enrollment in or prior completion of ACCT 361 or ACCT 460.

Typically Offered:
Fall Term Only

ACCT 489  Accounting Elective
1.00 - 9.00

<td>Overview of the interrelationships between humans and the environment. The first third of the course focuses on important ecological concepts. The remainder deals with human influence on the environment and sustainable practices to avoid or ameliorate the negative impacts. The ecological concepts are used throughout to identify, understand, and provide a basis for proposing possible solutions to contemporary environmental problems. Overall, the course provides students with a better understanding of how humans can more positively affect the environment in which they live. No Pass-Fail.</td>

|              | Prerequisites:
Admission to the Sustainable Management major, or consent of the Program Advisor, and on a space-available basis. | |
| SMGT 220     | Systems Thinking | 3.00 |
|              | In this course students will use systems thinking to apply the concept of sustainability in various business, social, and scientific contexts. Rather than looking at problems by analyzing their component parts, students will learn to analyze whole systems. Students then model the relationships and behaviors to identify leverage points for change. No Pass-Fail. | |
| SMGT 230     | Triple Bottom Line Accounting for Managers | 3.00 |
|              | Introduction to the discipline of financial and managerial accounting and how this information is used. Students gain a basic knowledge of the preparation of financial statements and their analytical use. Further, students will explore how this accounting information is applied by managers in the decision-making process, helping organizations meet the triple bottom line (strong profits, healthy environment, and vital communities). No Pass-Fail. | |
|              | Prerequisites:
College Algebra (MATH 113 or equivalent) and admission to the Sustainable Management Major, or consent of the Program Advisor, and on a space-available basis. | |
| SMGT 235     | Economics in Society and Sustainability | 3.00 |
General introductory course highlighting economic, social, and environmental issues facing society. In addition to covering traditional issues such as markets and prices (microeconomics), government economic management (macroeconomics), and international trade, it introduces economic content into the analysis of selected topics such as poverty and discrimination, the environment, and the provision of government services. Critiques of conventional economic thought, within the context of systems thinking and ecological economics, are integrated throughout the course. No Pass-Fail.

Prerequisites:
College Algebra (MATH 113 or equivalent) and admission to the Sustainable Management Major, or consent of the Program Advisor, and on a space-available basis.

SMGT 240 Technical Writing for Sustainable Management 3.00

The psychology and mechanics of written communications are thoroughly explored and widely applied. Also included are non-written applications in such business areas as international/intercultural, nonverbal, and ethical communications related to sustainability. No Pass-Fail.

Prerequisites:
Admission to the Sustainable Management major, or consent of the Program Advisor, and on a space-available basis.

SMGT 310 Ecology and Sustainability 3.00

Interrelationships of organisms with each other and their environments. Investigation into composition and dynamics of populations, communities, ecosystems, landscapes, and the biosphere with emphasis on sustainability. Online only. No Pass-Fail.

Prerequisites:
BIOL 123 or equivalent, or consent of the Program Advisor, and on a space-available basis.

SMGT 315 Global Environmental Chemistry 3.00

Exploration of chemical environments as interdependent thermodynamics and kinetic systems. The “system/surroundings” perspectives of thermodynamics will be applied to systems of progressively larger size to arrive at the comprehensive view of the global environmental system. No Pass-Fail.

Prerequisites:
General Chemistry (CHEM 103, CHEM 105 or equivalent) and admission to the Sustainable Management Major or Program Advisor permission and on a space available basis.

SMGT 320 Energy for Sustainable Management 3.00

Students learn to apply basic engineering principles to existing and emerging energy technologies to provide a better understanding of energy production, consumption, and environmental impact; and how these principles relate to sustainable management. Topics cover a wide range of energy systems including nuclear, fossil fuels, wind, solar, biofuels and biomass. No Pass-Fail.

Prerequisites:
College Algebra (MATH 113 or equivalent) and General Chemistry (CHEM 103, CHEM 105 or equivalent) and admission to the Sustainable Management Major, or Program Advisor permission, and on a space-available basis.

SMGT 325 Natural Resource Management 3.00

Examines the interdependence between natural resources associated with land, air, and water. Explores significant environmental issues regarding the policies and problems in the use and management of natural resources related to soils, vegetation, landscape within the context of social needs and sustainability. No Pass-Fail.

Prerequisites:
SMGT 235 and admission to the Sustainable Management Major, or consent of the Program Advisor, and on a space-available basis.

SMGT 330 Marketing for a Sustainable World 3.00

An analysis of an organization’s opportunities to develop sustainability practices as they relate to the development of product, pricing, supply and distribution channels (retail, wholesale), promotion (advertising, sales promotion, public relations) and target markets. No Pass-Fail.

Prerequisites:
SMGT 235, and admission to the Sustainable Management Major, or consent of the Program Advisor, and on a space-available basis.

SMGT 331 Sustainable Organizational Finance 3.00

Introduction to the theory and methods of sustainable organizational finance. Topics include financial statements; discounting and budgeting; uncertainty and risk/reward trade-offs; and assessing the financial implications of the triple bottom line (e.g. climate change, carbon trading, human resource management, and creating environmentally-conscious shareholder value). No Pass-Fail.

Prerequisites:
SMGT 230, and SMGT 235, and admission to the Sustainable Management Major; or permission of the program advisor. Offered on a space-available basis.

SMGT 332 Economics of Environmental Sustainability 3.00

Examines the interaction between market activity and the environment, applies economic analysis to the efficient and sustainable management of environmental goods and resources, and examines how economic institutions and policies can be changed to bring the environmental impacts of economic decision-making more into balance with human desires and the needs of the ecosystem. No Pass-Fail.

Prerequisites:
SMGT 235, and admission to the Sustainable Management Major; or permission of the program advisor. Offered on a space-available basis.

SMGT 335 Management and Environmental Information Systems 3.00

Use of the computer as a problem-solving tool, as part of data processing systems; information systems and decision support tools for managers; information systems planning and development; overview of computer hardware, software, database management, networking and web technologies; green data centers; energy efficient trends in information technology; data and information usage in green businesses. No Pass-Fail.

Prerequisites:
SMGT 230, and admission to the Sustainable Management Major, or consent of the Program Advisor, on a space-available basis.
SMGT 340 Organizational Behavior and Sustainability
Management principles and theories underlying human behavior in organizations are investigated. Topics include personality, motivation, communication, decision-making, leadership, teamwork, ethics, power, diversity, and work stress. Constraints and opportunities of an “eco” friendly organization are realized. No Pass-Fail.
Prerequisites:
COMM 110 (or its equivalent), admission to the Sustainable Management Major, or have consent of the Program Advisor, on space-available basis.

SMGT 350 Operations Management and Sustainability
Introduction to the role of the operations function in an organization; linear programming; continuous and intermittent production processes; aggregate planning; inventory control; materials management; scheduling; project management; quality assurance; operations for green enterprises. No Pass-Fail.
Prerequisites:
College Algebra, (MATH 113 or equivalent) and Statistics, (MATH 130 or equivalent), and admission to the Sustainable Management Major, and BUS 270 or consent of the Program Advisor on a space-available basis.

SMGT 360 Environmental and Sustainability Policy
Topics include the spectrum of historical, theoretical and technical issues applicable to sustainable management of natural resources, environmental quality standards and risk management. Identifies administrative structures that form the basis for selecting appropriate responses to complex management problems faced by industry, government and non-governmental agencies. The historical development and current framework of public policy are investigated and specific foundational legislation is critiqued. No Pass-Fail.
Prerequisites:
SMGT 315 and admission to the Sustainable Management Major, or consent of Program Advisor, on a space-available basis.

SMGT 370 Logistics, Supply Chain Management, and Sustainability
Introduction to the concepts, functions, processes, and objectives of logistics and supply chain management activities. Covers activities that are involved in physically moving raw materials, inventory, and finished goods from point of origin to point of use or consumption. Covers the planning, organizing, and controlling of such activities, and examines the role of supply chain processes in creating sustainable competitive advantage with respect to quality, flexibility, lead-time, and cost. Topics include customer service, inventory management, transportation, warehousing, supply chain management, reverse logistics, green supply chains and international logistics. No Pass-Fail.
Prerequisites:
SMGT 350 and admission to the Sustainable Management Major, or consent of the Program Advisor, on a space-available basis.

SMGT 430 International Management for a Sustainable World
Analysis of the theory and practice of managing international organizations. Includes sociocultural aspects and group dynamics of international business and service organizations through the study of sustainable management practices. Implementation of a triple bottom line solution to organizational problems will be emphasized. No Pass-Fail.
Prerequisites:
SMGT 235 and admission to the Sustainable Management Major, or consent of the Program Advisor, on a space-available basis.

SMGT 435 International Development and Sustainability
Historical roots of the idea of development; economic theories of growth and their implications for sustainability, and interrelationships between population growth, food security, poverty, inequality, urbanization, technological change, international trade and environmental change at local, regional and global scales. Contemporary issues and alternatives. No Pass-Fail.
Prerequisites:
SMGT 235 and admission to the Sustainable Management Major, or consent of the Program Advisor, on a space-available basis.

SMGT 460 Environment and Society
Introduction to the fundamentals of human-environmental interaction; a grasp of how these interactions create problems; and how the elements of social, technological, and personal choices combine to overcome them. No Pass-Fail.
Prerequisites:
SMGT 315 and admission to the Sustainable Management Major, or consent of Program Advisor, on space-available basis.

SMGT 495 Sustainable Management Capstone
An application and study of sustainable management through the solution of an industry-based project. Implementation of a triple bottom line solution to industrial problems will be emphasized. No Pass-Fail.
Prerequisites:
Senior standing, advisor consent and must be admitted to SMGT major, or have program advisor consent, on a space-available basis.

Comparative examinations of planning theories and practices that shaped the geography of 19th and 20th century urban and suburban areas. Introduction to the intraurban and interurban influences of transportation systems on land use and planning will be explored. Stresses the ways in which planners and planning ideologies have responded to different social, economic, political and technological (transportation and communication) innovations and pressures. The class includes an examination of 21st Century problems, pressures and solutions to urban and transportation needs. Qualifies as an Academic-Service Learning course (see Academic Service-Learning for more details). A significant semester-long group AS-L project, which connects the student with the Twin Ports community, is a substantial learning goal in the face-to-face section of this course. Mission Statement

The Social Inquiry Department fosters intellectual growth and career preparation within a liberal arts tradition that emphasizes individual attention and embodies respect for diverse cultures and multiple voices. Through its contribution to the University's general education program and its major and minor curricula, the department helps students to become life-long learners who seek understanding as a valuable end in its own right. In particular, the department encourages students to apply reflective and systematic thought to the social world using the methodological tools of the social sciences and humanities. Our goal is to produce graduates who approach their lives, both as professionals and as responsible members of local and global communities, with reason and creativity. The Department offers majors and minors in Sociology, Political Science, History and Broad Field Social Studies, along with minors in Anthropology, Global Studies, Philosophy and Gender Studies.

<td>Introduction to Gender Studies explores various answers to the question: How does gender influence the way in which we interact with and are impacted by society? To that end, this course introduces students to feminist perspectives and challenges students to incorporate self-exploration with academic skill to analyze one's personal experience, and the experience of others, within social institutions such as family, government, employment, religion, and education through the lens of gender. We will examine how issues of gender within our society intersect with race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, differing abilities, and age to perpetuate a system of oppression.</td>

The Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System | 432 of 607
In this upper-division examination of the nature of Nazi society and Fascism more generally, the central focus will be on gender—the images of and attitudes towards masculinity and femininity, and alternative sexualities, in the Third Reich. Changes in the role afforded to men and women, and in beliefs about what it means to be male and female, were at the very center of the revolutionary changes that constituted the shift to the "Modern Era." In seeking to understand Fascist attitudes toward gender, therefore, the course is seeking to understand not some peripheral aspect of Nazi society, but its very core, the very essence of modern democracy and its nemesis, Fascism. Much attention will be focused on developing skill in understanding and interpreting films and other visual artifacts and how they reveal ideals and assumptions about gender. Cross-listed as HIST/GST 317. Code 2. G.

HIST 111  Modern World History

Focuses on themes rather than chronology. Students follow the growing globalization of the world through the study of themes like nationalism, industrialization, imperialism, capitalism, decolonization, technologies, gender, race, everyday lives, world systems, migration and Diaspora. Will employ analysis of primary documents, photographs, maps, music, films or other sources of history and build skills of effective writing, clear presentations, use of convincing evidence, increasing geographic literacy and placing the history of specific regions in a global context. Aims to provide an introduction to the discipline of history and its methods. Emphasis on learning to think globally. Code 7.

HIST 112  The Ancient Mediterranean World

General-education-level course introducing students to the basic outlines of the history of the Mediterranean region -- including Greece, Rome, Spain, northern Africa, and Palestine -- from the earliest times to the Middle Ages. While investigating some key events and stories from these places and times, students learn to critically evaluate the ways these stories are re-told in our time, using actual texts and documents from the times in comparison to books and movies about those times from our day. Code 2.

HIST 115  World Religions

A course on the history or world religions, some great and some small: Abrahamic, Dharmic, indigenous faiths and religions of the Tao. The course stresses links between faiths and their historic origins. All faiths are equally respected. It is NOT a debate about which faith is true or better than another. Code 7.

HIST 119  Kings, Concubines, Thinkers, Farmers in East Asia

China, Japan and Korea make up one of the fastest-growing regions today. We buy all sorts of stuff made in China; text on our Samsung phones; drive our Hondas, Toyotas, and Hyundais; listen to K-pop; watch Jackie Chan and cheered on Yao Ming; read manga comics and watch anime; consume dim sum and chow mein, ramen and sushi, kimchi and bibimbop. This course seeks to understand what makes these societies tick; societies that share many similarities but are continually asserting their unique linguistic, cultural and political identities. We reach back to the pre-modern period to examine the lives of the elite (emperors, princes, generals, poets, philosophers) and everyday folks (soldiers and samurais, farmers, traders, monks, concubines). The course will use a diverse range of sources, from scholarly articles and memoirs to documentaries, movies and music videos. The course centers on active-dynamic learning such as focused in-class discussion, presentations, critical thinking, as well as short- and medium-length essays. It introduces students to the study and discipline of history. Code 5.

HIST 120  Empire in Modern Asia

This course examines the impact of one of the key dynamics of late modern history in Asia: colonialism. It takes a comparative look at how imperialism was experienced by the invading power and the colonized people in traditionally lesser-studied regions of the world. We look at a number of case studies of Western and Japanese colonialism from the 19th century onwards, including (1) the Spanish and the US in the Philippines; (2) the British experience in Asia (primarily India but also Burma); (3) the French in Vietnam; (4) the Dutch experience in Indonesia; and finally, (5) the Japanese in China, Taiwan, and Korea, and later during WWII, in Southeast Asia. Other case studies may also be used. We examine the social, economic, cultural, political, and personal impact of imperialism on both the metropole and the colony. We will read memoirs, watch music videos and films, and discuss issues such as the nuts and bolts of colonial rule, the role of women, attitudes towards race and identity, indigenous pursuit of modernity, and nationalism among others. Emphasis on learning to think globally and provides University Studies students and majors with an introduction to historical thinking. Code 5.

The Holocaust, which ended more than 70 years ago, has never been more present than it is today, exercising a hold on the imagination, especially in the United States and Western Europe, more powerful even than in the immediate aftermath of the war. But why should that be true? Why is it that the social memory of this particular event should have such power over generations so far removed in both time and space--particularly when other episodes of genocidal violence, similar in scale and historical importance--play almost no role in our collective memories and consciousness? This upper-division seminar focuses attention on those questions by examining the history of the memory of the Holocaust: how it is remembered; what is remembered and what is forgotten; how the memories are shaped; and to what uses they are put. Close readings of survivor memoirs and historical interpretations, and visual analyses of films and monuments will help students learn to critique the ways in which all "history" is socially constructed. HIST 385  Samurai: A History of Japan  3.00
This upper-division course traces the history of Japan through the development of the samurai as a distinct social group over the last millennium. We will focus on the formation of a distinctive Japanese culture and identity through its initial interaction with cultures inhabiting present-day Korea and China; its borrowing and adaptation of political, economic, social, linguistic, religious and educational elements from China and Korea; and the repeated opening and closing of Japan to the outside world over the course of several centuries. We will also look at Japanese contact with the West, beginning with Dutch traders, the encounter with Commodore Perry’s US naval fleet of Black Ships, and the conflict with the Allies (principally the US) during WWII. We will exploring the myths and reality of samurais as warriors and bureaucrats, their professional and family lives, and their symbolic meaning within Japanese and popular culture; and so on. We will also consider whether this samurai/Japanese ethos is culturally and geographically specific, or transferable. This seminar-style course uses first person accounts; tales, fables and histories; scholarly articles; and films (not just the great Kurosawa epics, but also lesser-known accounts by Mizoguchi Kenji, Inagaki Hiroshi, Jim J. Kim J. armusch, Hirayama, Oshima, Yamada and others). Code 5.

HIST 393  Women, Colonialism, and Nationalism in Modern Southeast Asia  3.00
This upper-division seminar examines the role women played in Southeast Asian history from the 19th century till the present, specifically as the region confronted the challenges of colonialism and post-colonial nation-building. Among key issues covered are (1) the encounter between Western guns and local political systems; (2) race and racism (or, why the other group is always a barbarian); (3) how Southeast Asia became modern through the lens of women and women’s groups, examining Western tourists, governesses and wives, sex, prostitution and the control ofVD; colonial-era marriage with “white guys” and the biracial children; Islam and women; and post-colonial women political leaders. We will examine these issues within the framework of the political, social, economic and cultural interactions between Britain, France, Holland, the United States of America, China, Japan, Malaysia, Singapore, Vietnam, Thailand, Indonesia, and Myanmar/Burma. In addition to reading a selection of secondary and primary materials, including poems, biographies, memoirs, and histories, students will also watch music videos and films to understand and analyze the issues. Cross-listed as HIST/GST 393. Code 5. G.

HIST 394  Interrogating the Vietnam War: A History of Modern Vietnam (1885-1975)  3.00
When we think of the Vietnam War, we think of a critical period in 20th century American history: the swinging 60s, napalm bombs, mysterious Viet Cong fighters, campus protests, the peace movement, and America’s defeat. We may even think of Tom Cruise in Born on the Fourth of July, or that famous picture of desperate people climbing up the ladder to a helicopter on the roof of the US embassy. But there is another side to the war: the Vietnameseside. This course explores the conflict from that other side. To understand why the Vietnamese took up arms, we examine roughly a century of history beginning with the complete loss of independence to the French in the 1880s and ending with the reunification of the country in 1975. We explore why the Vietnamese resented the French, how young Vietnamese broke with their centuries-long traditions and radicalized, how women found opportunities in a new modernity, how Ho Chi Minh made several efforts to ally with America (and why the US said “No”), and how, ultimately, the US got drawn into a war it had little understanding of. Along the way, we will explore the changing nature of what it means to be Vietnamese on a personal, social and national level, as Vietnamese of different ethnic, class, gender and educational groups, from various geographic areas, confront new forces that re-shape their identities. We will read a mixture of primary and secondary materials, including films, memoirs, recollections, newspaper articles and autobiographies by Vietnamese participants. Code 5. RE.

Philosophy concerns some of the most fundamental questions: Why do human beings exist? Does everything have a cause? Can you think without language? What does it mean to live a good life? What is the nature of freedom? Are humans truly free? We will consider these questions and more through exploring perspectives from around the globe, from the ancient to the contemporary.

PHIL 211 Contemporary Moral Problems

Are all acts inherently selfish? Should everyone follow the same moral laws? Do we need God to tell us how to behave? Why should we be good and what does that even mean? Should all living creatures be treated equally? In this course we will entertain questions like these as we apply moral theories to a selection of contemporary issues (for example, human rights, environmental ethics, the global sex trade, the death penalty). A key concern will be our ethical responsibilities in the diverse contemporary global theater. Offered on-line only.

PHIL 212 Critical Thinking

The central objective of this course is to help students understand a diverse array of critical thinking styles. This course emphasizes that the type of thinking one applies depends heavily on one’s objective, cultural context, and personal style. These goals will be addressed through a series of modules, each one demonstrating different methods of engaging with ideas to determine their value, falsity, and/or truth. Students will be exposed to methods of reasoning in a variety of historical and cultural contexts. Students will be required to reflect on their own decision-making process; to identify, evaluate and apply diverse perspectives; to connect and contrast different worldviews; and understand the historical sources of, and to demonstrate openness to, dissimilar worldviews. Cross-listed PHIL/PSYC 212.

PHIL 250 The Philosophy of Children

In this course, we will consider children and childhood through a philosophical lens, as well as exploring the manner in which children themselves think about philosophical concerns such as ethics, politics, spirituality, dreaming, time and the nature of reality. Childhood will be explored as a culturally-constructed phenomenon. Specific topics will vary but include some of the following: gender, race, national and class differences; children’s work and labor; children’s rights; children’s play, art and literature; and education. This is an excellent course for students going into education, psychology, counseling, or social work.

PHIL 300 History and Philosophy of Science

1.00 - 12.00

The Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System | 442 of 607
Examines the nature of science, the history of science, and the nature and history of the impact of science on human life and thought. Provides some understanding of the methods of science, the difference between science and pseudo science, the political and ideological uses of science, and the moral responsibilities of scientists and science educators. Cross listed as PHIL/PHYS 300.

Typically Offered:
Spring Term Even Years Only

PHIL 301 Study Abroad
Field trips designed by the department faculty to give students direct experiences in foreign countries. Each program includes preparatory reading, orientation meetings, a faculty-supervised study tour, and a detailed written evaluation of learning situations associated with the course. With consent of the relevant program and content adaptation, programs provided by other agencies can be considered for this credit. PHIL 330 Social Justice
Students will investigate what it means to be concerned with social justice, and how to motivate oneself and others to make desired social change. Central concerns will include: identifying and addressing inequalities of power, self-reflection regarding one's social location, non-hierarchical organizations, and recognizing the value of diversity. This course will be relevant to those with interests in a variety of careers including: education, social work, non-profits, government, and community activism.

PHIL 340 Enlightenment, Freedom and Alienation (19th Century Philosophy)
In this course we will read philosophers who are concerned with our liberation from inherited, imprisoning belief systems. As such, special attention will be given to the philosophical question of freedom, its limits, and its use as a basis for rationality, morality, and politics. This course will focus primarily on philosophers from the Enlightenment (Kant) through German Idealism (Hegel) Schelling, Kierkegaard, Nietzsche, Marx and Husserl.

Prerequisites:
Prerequisite for taking this course is completion of any 100 or 200 level PHIL course or POLS 262, or instructor consent.

Typically Offered:

PHIL 350 The Self-Unconcealed (20th Century Philosophy)
"Know thyself" seems like good advice. But what does it mean to know yourself? Aren't some aspects of ourselves hidden from us? Do others know us in ways that we can never know ourselves? This course is an exploration of (mostly 20th Century Continental) philosophers notions of the self-subjectivity. Interestingly, they consider the self as something fundamentally concealed/hidden/absent from oneself. Our ongoing question will be: how can we have any self-knowledge in light of these ideas? Philosophers we will consider may include: Husserl, Sartre, Levinas, and Derrida.

Prerequisites:
Prerequisite for taking this course is completion of any 100 or 200 level PHIL course or consent of instructor.

Typically Offered:
Spring Term Every Other Year

PHIL 351 Selected Topics
In-depth study of a particular problem, philosopher or period of current interest. May be repeated for up to nine credits provided topics are different.

Typically Offered:

PHIL 356 Philosophy of Love and Sex
In this course we will begin with the assumption that love and sex cannot be reduced to "a commotion of one's anatomy." Instead we will consider them as two of the most meaningful aspects of human existence, as our most intimate and profound ways of relating to others and to ourselves. Cross-listed as PHIL/GST 365.

PHIL 459 Philosophies of Pregnancy, Childbirth and Mothering
This course will explore pregnancy, childbirth, and mothering from two perspectives: the embodied experience of women and its political-social context. We will consider how women's firsthand experiences of motherhood are responses to a broader social milieu. This approach will enable us to think about a variety of philosophical themes and questions with regard to our topic including: philosophical method, embodiment, sex and gender, the origins of ethics, moral obligation, virtue, moral luck, intersubjectivity, and oppression. Cross-listed as PHIL/GST 459.

The course will cover the potential for biowarfare/bioterrorist acts, how destruction is produced, and government preparedness, response, and recovery from such attacks. Bioterrorism and its various dimensions is the primary focus and thus topics covered in this class. For most weeks, however, we will ask (and attempt to answer) the question what role does/should government have in addressing this issue?</td>

In the United States, women hold 18% of the seats in the 112th Congress, marking the nation 85th in its level of representation for women. Globally, women constitute 15% of all members of parliament, although significant regional variation persists. How do gendered hierarchies continue to shape and structure political systems? Why have women not yet reached parity in elected office? Should women be represented as women? What difference do women bring to elective office? These and other questions are explored throughout the course, with particular attention to the historical exclusion of women from the public arena, the methods used by women to enter electoral and activist politics, and the current political status of women in the United States and globally. Cross-listed as POLS/GST 374.

POLS 376 Theories of Human Rights

This course examines the nature and origin of human rights, as well as the conflicts and debates that result from the different understanding of the concept. We will explore questions such as: Are human rights individual or collective? Are they universal or should instead be understood as culturally sensitive? Do they include positive rights or only negative rights? And what about economic and social rights? Providing answers to these questions will allow us to understand our own political, economic, and social beliefs, as well as approaches that are different from ours. In order to answer these questions, the course will combine discussions about the concept of human rights with analyses of current cases of human rights violations around the world, including the origin of these violations, desired changes, politics, and effective actions.

University Studies Requirements (2017-19 Catalog):
Global Awareness

Typically Offered:
Fall Term Every Other Year

POLS 381 Theories of Justice

The course examines the different approaches to the concept of justice, in the attempt to help students develop their own critical thinking about the topic. The course overviews the leading contemporary conceptions and theories of justice - including utilitarian, libertarian, communitarian, deliberative-democratic, and feminist theories -, and focuses on the relationship between theories of justice and concepts of liberty and equality. The aim of this course is to examine the ways in which each of these different approaches to justice provides a different vision for the political, economic, and social life, and shapes different institutions and values.

Typically Offered:
Fall Term Every Other Year

POLS 389 Political Science Elective

Transfer credits ONLY from another accredited institution not equivalent to a UW-Superior course.

POLS 397 American Conservative Thought

The political debates between liberalism and conservatism are ardent. However, while these two terms are used freely and are attached to varied themes, their meaning is uncertain. Hence this class aims to introduce the students to the meaning of American conservatism. While defining conservatism, students will become familiar with the most relevant topics in the American Conservative Thought. The class introduces the political and philosophical heritage of conservatism, as well as examines themes that are relevant to contemporary American politics today. The focus will be on principles of conservatism, not on analyzing policies or proposals. Moreover, aiming to give a balanced view, a variety of perspectives that support and criticize American Conservatism will be presented.

Typically Offered:
Spring Term Every Other Year

POLS 420 Biotechnology Policy and Ethics

Human reproductive cloning, genetic modification and alteration, personalized genomics, synthetic biology...these are only some of the areas of inquiry in the life sciences that have attracted public interest for their societal, ethical and policy implications. This course examines the political and ethical implications of selected areas of biotechnology that are now a part of the contemporary public debate with particular emphasis on the impact of these technologies on women. Some of the principles examined are legalistic, while others require ethical reasoning evaluating concepts such as human nature, personhood and autonomy. Key questions considered in this course include: Who benefits from these biotechnologies? Who are the primary actors engaged in policy creation? How can emerging technologies best be managed to balance individual freedom and scientific advancement with adequate protections for vulnerable classes? Finally, how do these technologies fit into our belief systems regarding the desirability of emerging biotechnologies in our individual lives and for society more generally?

Typically Offered:
Spring Term Every Other Year

POLS 456 Feminist Theory and Action

Seminar course providing a deeper look at feminist thought, building on the introduction provided in GST 150. Through readings and films, examines conversations, controversies, and connections among a range of feminist thinkers. Students explore the intersections of feminist thought and action, reading a variety of calls to action and articulating their own. Cross-listed as POLS/GST 456.

Prerequisites:
Prerequisite for taking this course is completion of GST 150 or instructor consent.

Typically Offered:
Spring Term Only

POLS 465 Congress and the Presidency

Spring Term Every Other Year
How have the contemporary Congress and President changed over the past two hundred years? Are these changes consistent with the intent of the Founding Fathers? Why do Americans consistently approve of their member of Congress yet revile Congress as an institution? This course is designed to explore the historical evolution of the Executive and Legislative branches of government, while simultaneously considering the intention of the Founding Fathers. The nature of this interbranch relationship is evaluated through examination of the political parties, elections and the changing electoral and partisan environments.

Typically Offered:
Spring Term Every Other Year

POLS 485 Internship
Structured and focused field experience in a public agency. Students will be assigned duties in various agencies. Prerequisites: Only students with a Political Science major or minor may enroll in this course. Written consent of the instructor must be obtained before registering for this course. Since the internship is an independent learning experience involving the cooperation and assistance of an outside agency, students should notify the instructor in writing of their interest in doing an internship early in the semester before the semester of the actual field experience.

Typically Offered:
Fall or Spring Terms

POLS 489 Political Science Elective
Transfer credits ONLY from another accredited institution not equivalent to a UW-Superior course.

POLS 494 Global Studies Capstone
Required culminating senior year project which integrates and synthesizes the student's coursework (theories, concepts, skill competencies) into a formal project and experience, negotiated with the student's minor advisor and instructor for final consent and approval. Senior capstone is paired with another course in the minor.

Typically Offered:
Spring Term Only

POLS 497 Student Initiated Seminar
The program offers a specially designed seminar or student-initiated seminar when there is sufficient interest. For further information, see the program coordinator.

Typically Offered:
Occasional by Demand

POLS 499 Senior Seminar
Guided research on a selected topic in political science. Each student produces a formal written research paper based on systematic investigation of the question. Individual work in consultation with a faculty thesis advisor will be balanced with collaborative discussions among all students writing theses. The capstone will be a public presentation of each student's research findings.

Mission Statement

UW-Superior’s Center for Adult Education and Outreach serves the life-long learning needs of the people of Northern Wisconsin and beyond by providing educational programs, research, and resources with an emphasis on extending University expertise into the community.

Adult Education and Outreach Programs

A major portion of UW-Superior’s academic outreach mission is fulfilled by faculty and staff working in collaboration with community partners through UW-Extension.

The Center’s units:
- Center for Continuing Education
- Online Learning
- The Northern Center for Community and Economic Development
- Small Business Development Center

provide university learning and expertise for residents of the region and state.

Center for Continuing Education

The Center for Continuing Education provides credit and non-credit workshops, and other learning experiences designed for adult learners.

Credit Courses

The Center for Continuing Education offers a variety of online, video and classroom undergraduate and graduate, credit courses within many academic disciplines, providing educational opportunities to those not able to attend during traditional class hours or who are not enrolled full time. Most courses are offered evenings and weekends, either on campus or in other northern Wisconsin locations. Current offerings are listed on the Center for Continuing Education.

Continuing Education credit courses are transcripted, may be included as part of a student's resident credits, and count toward graduation.

Professional Development for Educators

Credit courses conferences and workshops are offered each year to enhance the professional expertise of teachers, administrators, guidance counselors, school psychologists, and curriculum directors.
Certificate Programs

Human Resource Generalist Certificate Program

This program is geared to busy professionals whose duties include human resource management or students who wish to get a first-hand look at some of the issues impacting the field of human resource management today. Six workshops in eight full days are required to complete this program. Individuals completing the required 4.8 Continuing Education Units (48 hours) are awarded a Human Resource Generalist Certificate. Participants may also register to receive 3 academic credits as BUS 499, Human Resource Generalist. Participants may complete the program in one year or two. For more information, call 715-394-8469.

Mediation Certificate Program

The Center for Continuing Education is a regional leader in the mediation field through quality, diversified, active-learning courses and training designed to serve multiple audiences interested in mediation theory and practice. The certificate program includes a total of 6 semester credits consisting of 3 required courses. Courses may also be taken on a noncredit basis. Professional education workshops are also offered for area mediators and conflict resolvers who need to fulfill ongoing professional education. www.uwsuper.edu/mediation. View the requirements for the Mediation Resolution Certificate in the certificate section of this catalog.

Upon completion of the Mediation Certificate, participants will be able to:

- Demonstrate understanding of core theory and skills of mediation practices
- Identify potential ethical issues and professional expectations for mediators
- Demonstrate dispute resolution skills through applied practices
- Identify strategies to improve the mediation process for individuals

In order to successfully complete this certificate for credit, you must earn a GPA of 2.0 for each course. Visit www.uwsuper.edu/mediation for more information.

Paralegal Certificate Program

The Paralegal Certificate Program consists of 30 credits of coursework in a variety of paralegal areas of theory and practice. Participants must complete 18 required core credits and 12 elective credits. The Paralegal Certificate is usually completed within two years. Completing the certificate program will qualify an individual to work as a paralegal, legal assistant, or office support staff member in law firms, government agencies, private business or non-profit organizations.

Upon completion of the Paralegal Certificate, participants will be able to:

- Demonstrate foundational knowledge of the law, including legal processes, reading and analyzing legal texts, legal research and writing, and criminal and civil legal systems.
- Demonstrate foundational knowledge in the field of paralegalism, such as assisting in trial preparation, interviewing clients and witnesses, preparing comprehensive reports and letters, preparing discovery documents, and the ethical issues surrounding the profession.
- Apply legal foundational knowledge to real world settings through internship experiences.

In order to successfully complete this certificate, you must earn a minimum GPA of 2.0 for each course. The Paralegal Certificate is listed on the University official transcript. Visit www.uwsuper.edu/paralegal for more information.

Nonprofit Administration and Human Resource Certificate Program

Participants complete 100 hours of training by combining the Nonprofit Core workshops with five Human Resource core workshops including coaching for peak performance, resolving conflict in the workplace, performance feedback tools, labor management relations and team building strategies and techniques.

Fund Development Certificate Program

The Nonprofit Fund Development Certificate Program is designed to provide individual with the knowledge, understanding, and skills required to be an effective team or board member in a nonprofit organization. The workshops selected are aligned with some of the concepts required for the Certified Fund Raising Executive (CFRE) exam. Persons completing this certificate will have a well-rounded foundation of not just fund raising but fund development, a critical distinction.

Health and Human Issues

The Health and Human Issues Program provides many choices for learning through workshops, conferences, and individual learning opportunities. Subject areas include, but are not limited to aging issues, mental health, Alzheimer's disease, diabetes, obesity, arthritis, cancer, hepatitis, and healthy lifestyles. For information on current offerings call 714-293-8463 or 800-370-9882.
Leadership Superior/Douglas County

The Center for Continuing Education sponsors a regional 10-month program to enhance the progress of northern Wisconsin by training present and future leaders and helping them to become engaged in their community. Participants are selected through a competitive process. Persons who live and/or work in Superior or Douglas County are invited to apply for the program each June. For further information contact 715-394-8030 or visit www.uwsuper.edu/leadership.

Criminal Justice Paralegal Certificate Program

The Criminal Justice Paralegal Program offers those interested in working in criminal law professional settings the opportunity to gain knowledge and skills relevant to the field. This 29 credit, concentrated certificate will help build your credentials in the field of criminal law. Most students will complete this certificate in two years.

Upon completion of the Criminal Justice Paralegal Certificate, participants will be able to:

- Demonstrate foundational knowledge of the law with particular depth of emphasis on criminal law contexts, including legal processes, reading and analyzing legal texts, and legal research and writing.
- Demonstrate foundational knowledge in the field of paralegalism, such as assisting in trial preparation, interviewing clients and witnesses, preparing comprehensive reports and letters, preparing discovery documents, and the ethical issues surrounding the profession.
- Apply legal foundational knowledge to real world settings through internship experiences.

In order to successfully complete this certificate, you must earn a minimum GPA of 2.0 for each course. The Criminal Justice Paralegal Certificate is listed on the University official transcript.

Nonprofit Administration and Fund Development Certificate Program

Participants complete 100 hours of training by combining the Nonprofit Core workshops with workshops including fundraising basics and beyond, volunteer management and recruitment, special event fundraising and “friend-raising”, etc.

Certificate in Ethical Leadership Program

This certificate is designed to teach foundational leadership principles and competencies. This certificate consists of 3 required courses, 6-9 semester credits total (the final course can be taken on a non-credit basis). The required courses are:

IDS 220: Emotional Intelligence -- 3.00 credits
IDS 320: Ethical Leadership -- 3.00 credits
IDS 420: Applied Ethical Leadership -- 3.00 credits

(IDS 420 3 credits or on a noncredit basis)

- Demonstrate awareness of the roles emotional intelligence and empathy play in effective leadership.
- Demonstrate enhanced communication, critical thinking and decision-making skills.
- Demonstrate basic understanding of leadership styles, ethical principles, and core values.
- Apply ethical decision-making to real world settings.

In order to successfully complete this certificate, students must earn a minimum GPA of 2.0 for each course. The 9-credit Certificate in Ethical Leadership will be listed on the University official transcript.

Certificate in Autism Spectrum Disorder

This nine-credit intensive program can be completed in one summer at either the undergraduate or graduate level. Required courses include: SPED 481/681 Sec. 901 - Autism Spectrum Disorders: Foundations; SPED 481/681 Sec. 902 - Autism Spectrum Disorders: Methods I; SPED 481/681 Sec. 903 - Autism Spectrum Disorders: Methods II. You may take one or two courses or take all three courses to earn an ASD Certificate. Courses are available on the UW-Superior campus or remote learning options. The program focuses on current strategies, internationally effective best practices and recent neurological research. You will have the opportunity to develop or enhance your skill, knowledge and services for teaching, learning and care for students, clients and family members with autism.

You may also apply for special education licensure in autism spectrum disorders in Minnesota after completion of the program if you already have a Special Education license. Minnesota state autism teaching licensure is considered and granted on a case by case basis by the MN DOE. This program does not provide any licensure in WI. WI does not license Autism.

Upon completion of the Certificate in Autism Spectrum Disorder, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate knowledge of research and best practices across multiple disciplines related to autism spectrum disorder.
- Demonstrate the ability to accurately collect and interpret data to document and evaluate student progress, strategy implementation, and programming in children/youth/adults with autism.
- Apply understanding of the interconnections between the areas of difficulty (cognitive, social/emotional, behavioral, communication and sensory integration) for those with autism and how to program in a meaningful, purposeful manner.

This can be taken on either a credit or non-credit basis. In order to successfully complete this certificate for credit, students must earn a minimum GPA of 2.0 for each course at the undergraduate level and GPA of 3.0 at the graduate level.
Distance Learning Center

The Online Learning provides degree completion programs through online learning. Distance Learning Center programs are listed in the Student Services section of this catalog.

The Northern Center for Community and Economic Development

Located in: Erlanson Hall 305
Phone: 715-394-8294

The Northern Center for Community and Economic Development focuses on applied research and education in Northern Wisconsin. It works with and through the county-based Community Resource Development Educators of UW-Extension. This is in support of the statewide educational emphases in four areas:

1. economic development
2. natural resources
3. leadership and organizational development
4. local government

It also provides leadership and support to statewide programming in the area of sustainable communities. As a regional center, it also works directly with multi-county and statewide organizations and agencies on issues of specific importance to Northern Wisconsin. It seeks to foster partnerships and collaborative relationships in order to leverage limited regional resources.

Small Business Development Center

Located in: Erlanson Hall 108
Phone: 715-394-8352; toll free: (800) 410-8351
Web: http://wisconsinsbdc.org/superior

The Small Business Development Center provides services for small business owners and managers as well as aspiring entrepreneurs in eight northwest Wisconsin counties. The SBDC offers confidential, individual consulting that cover specific topics requested by the entrepreneur. The SBDC also conducts training programs in a variety of business related areas including:

- writing a business plan
- financial essentials
- Growth Wheel
- first steps to starting your own business
- PeerSpectives CEO roundtable
- Probe financial management

The Small Business Development Center offers consulting services at no charge through funds provided by the US Small Business Administration, and an seven-session Lean Start Entrepreneurial Training Program in connection with the Wisconsin Economic Development Corporation.
First Year Seminar Courses

Program Goal - to integrate students into a community of higher order learners by engaging their interest and imagination. Each seminar will advance the Program Goal through the following student Learning Goals:

Students will be more disposed to:

- value learning in its own right and see themselves as having the ability and right to invest themselves in this learning;
- pursue learning collaboratively, both in formal academic settings and elsewhere;
- actively question previous knowledge and examine new ideas and multiple perspectives.

First Year Seminars are encouraged for all entering first year students. These small seminars of 15 first year students are specially chosen each year to offer a broad array of topics that are either unusual in their focus or in their approach to the topic. Each is designed to challenge and inspire while supporting students in their transition to this campus, its Liberal Arts focus, and its resources for and expectations of students. Each seminar meets a University Studies or Core requirement. It should be taken during the first semester on campus and must be taken before sophomore registration.
High Impact Practices

- High Impact Practices (HIPs)
  - First Year Experience (FYE)
  - Global Awareness Initiative
  - Academic Service-Learning (AS-L)
  - Senior Experience
  - Undergraduate Research and Scholarship and Creative Activity (URSCA)
- Writing Across the Curriculum
- Certificate of Writing Excellence

High Impact Practices (HIPs)

Beginning in 2004, the UW-Superior Faculty Senate has endorsed six new Programs designed to further the campus public liberal arts mission. Each Program has become part of the campus' commitment to providing students with a dynamic engaging learning experience. Each provides or directs activities on campus and in the community that prepare students for 21st century careers and life-long learning.

First Year Experience (FYE)

First Year Experience delivers a package of initiatives designed to introduce students into the campus community and our public liberal arts mission. These initiatives offer incoming students a set of experiences that integrate them within UW-Superior community academically, socially, and culturally. These experiences include: SOAR (Summer Orientation Advisement and Registration), Weekend of Welcome programming, Transfer Orientation programming, student leadership opportunities, and a variety of community-building activities.

FYE also includes an academic focus with First Year Seminars and Peer Mentors. First Year Seminars are designed to introduce students to the liberal arts through active and collaborative learning, critical thinking, and reflective judgment. Students have the opportunity to choose from an array of diverse topics that are selected to challenge and engage students in seminars limited to 15 students. Peer Mentors are paired with the First Year Seminars and serve as an academic and general resource for new students.

Global Awareness Initiative

Global Awareness is promoted across the curriculum at UW-Superior, as well as through the Office of International Programs. UW-Superior, which enrolls over 200 international students from over 50 countries annually, emphasizes courses and programs that help students explore local and global cultures, diverse life experiences, and multiple worldviews different from their own.

These global awareness studies, which address diverse United States and global world cultures, explore issues of equity, diversity and inclusion related to racial, ethnicity, class, religious, gender, and sexuality inequality. Global Awareness studies encourage us to be knowledgeable and empathetic to the struggles around the globe related to human rights, personal and social freedoms, and social justice. Frequently, global awareness is facilitated or augmented by experiential learning in diverse communities, study away/abroad opportunities, and collaborative international online learning.

Academic Service-Learning (AS-L)

Academic Service-Learning (AS-L) is community-based learning, embedded within a credit-bearing course, enhancing students' understanding of the course's learning objectives and of their sense of civic responsibility.

Courses with an AS-L designation will provide students an opportunity to have hands-on, real-world experiences by applying knowledge from the course while simultaneously meeting identified community needs. Research has shown that AS-L experiences provide students with a distinctive advantage for their career and/or graduate school preparation.

The Center for Academic Service-Learning (CAS-L) aims to make UW-Superior a regional leader in Academic Service-Learning pedagogy, thus providing a distinctively public quality to UW-Superior liberal arts mission. The Center provides support and resources to match learning outcomes with community needs.

Senior Experience

Each department has a required Senior Year Experience. SYE supports students' integration of their extensive college learning experiences and the deep knowledge of their major field of study. The SYE is a culminating experience and creates a capstone to the students UW-Superior education.

Each student is required to share his or her Senior Experience work with the campus and wider community. These public presentations of Senior Experiences are uniquely designed by each discipline in accordance with expectations of the particular field of study and serve as a celebration of their achievements.

Undergraduate Research and Scholarship and Creative Activity (URSCA)
The Center for URSCA promotes student involvement in a broad range of research and scholarly work beginning in their first year on campus. It is a natural fit with the other five High Impact Programs that engage students in taking responsibility for their learning and in finding interesting and dynamic means of applying. URSCA activities strengthen students' critical thinking, analysis, and problem solving abilities whether it is in science or literature, psychology or the arts. By learning these abilities in all sorts of courses across the curriculum students enter their Senior Capstone ready to take on their SYE project.

URSCA is involved in sending students and their research to Posters in the Rotunda (Madison), The UW System Wisconsin Symposium, and to other state and national conferences as funds allow. In collaboration with the UW Superior Foundation it coordinates the Summer Undergraduate Research Fellowship Program and every spring it holds a Day of Celebration of students' URSCA projects.

Writing Across the Curriculum

In recognition of the key role writing plays in a liberal education, the Writing across the Curriculum Program aims to promote a culture of writing at UW-Superior. To this end, it offers students the opportunity to seek a Certificate of Writing Excellence. For faculty and teaching staff, the program provides support through grants and brown-bag sessions for making student writing a meaningful part of courses and curricula. Finally, the program sponsors a variety of writing events on campus and beyond.

Certificate of Writing Excellence

The Certificate of Writing Excellence Program at the University of Wisconsin-Superior enables students to attain and exhibit excellence in writing. The program is administered through the UW-Superior Writing across the Curriculum (WAC) Program. The Writing across the Curriculum Coordinator advises certificate-seeking students concerning their progress toward fulfilling the requirements.

The certification is shown on students' transcripts and can be listed on their resumes, thus providing prospective graduate schools and employees with an indication of their level of attainment in an area—writing—that is important in these arenas.

Requirements:

1. Application to the program prior to completion of 75 credits: Students are encouraged to apply early in their college careers but must apply prior to the completion of 75 credits. Students beyond 75 credits may petition for admission by submitting a descriptive and well-supported written request to the Writing across the Curriculum (WAC) Coordinator.

2. Successful completion of four writing-certificate-eligible (WCE) courses (at least two of which are upper-level courses), for a minimum of 12 credits, receiving a B or higher in each. One WRIT course at the 200-level or above can be included among the four courses; the rest must be writing-certificate-eligible courses, which will have prefixes other than WRIT or ESL. No more than two of the four courses can have the same prefix. (View up-to-date list of WCE courses)

3. Attendance at three (minimum) UW-Superior WAC-coordinated workshops. One must concern learning to construct the portfolio for the certificate; the others will concern how to improve one's writing.

4. One specific project involving substantial use or study of writing beyond the classroom (academic service learning project, leadership role on campus, internship, completion of a digital storytelling project pertaining to writing, participation in writing events such as a writing workshop [excluding those for Requirement 3], a series of readings, a professional conference, etc.) The student's choice of project must be pre-approved by the WAC Coordinator.

5. Successful completion of a portfolio of work, to include:
   - One sample of the student's written work from each writing-certificate-eligible course, revised and improved upon beyond the draft graded for the course.
   - A copy of the work produced during the beyond-the-classroom project or proof of participation in a writing-specific event.
   - A reflective essay on the experience/writing process of the beyond the classroom project.
   - A reflective essay on the student's growth as a writer throughout his or her work on the writing for the certificate. This work will make direct reference to the written works included in the portfolio.

The portfolio must be approved by the WAC Coordinator in order for the student to receive the certificate.

For more information on this certificate visit the Certificate of Writing Excellence webpage.

Background

The National Estuarine Research system (https://coast.noaa.gov/nerrs/) is a network of 28 Reserves which are administered by the U.S. Department of Commerce, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) and promotes stewardship of the nation's estuaries through science and education using a system of protected areas. The Lake Superior Reserve System builds federal, state, and community partnerships and promotes management and stewardship of estuarine and coastal habitats through scientific understanding linked with public education through a combination of research, education and public outreach.

Lake Superior Reserve Mission and Goals

The Lake Superior Reserve works in partnership to improve the understanding of Lake Superior freshwater estuaries and coastal resources and to address the issues affecting them through an integrated program of research, education, outreach and stewardship.

- Goal 1 -- Conduct applied research and monitoring to increase the understanding of Lake Superior freshwater estuaries and coastal ecosystems
- Goal 2 -- Educate youth, students, community members, and visitors about Lake Superior freshwater estuaries and coastal resources and improve their ability to address coastal issues
- Goal 3 -- Increase the ability of community leaders and other decision makers to address critical Lake Superior coastal management issues
- Goal 4 -- Protect and enhance the ecological health of the St. Louis River Watershed and Lake Superior coastal habitats

Information

The Lake Superior National Estuarine Research Reserve (Lake Superior Reserve) is the 28th Research Reserve in the NERR System and is the only NERR located in Wisconsin within NOAA's Lake Superior Biogeographical Region. Designated in October 2010, Lake Superior Reserve joins Old Woman Creek Reserve on Lake Erie as the second Great Lakes freshwater estuary in the NERR System. Lake Superior Reserve is situated on the most western tip of Lake Superior and contains examples of many of the types of habitats associated with the St. Louis River freshwater estuary and its watershed. The St. Louis River is the largest United States tributary to Lake Superior and flows 179 miles through a 3,634 square mile watershed. The lower 23 miles of the St. Louis River form the boundary between Wisconsin and Minnesota.

University of Wisconsin and Lake Superior Reserve

The Lake Superior Reserve is a state - federal partnership. The federal partner, NOAA, provides federal funds and guidance to the Reserve, while the state partner, University of Wisconsin, provides matching funds and is responsible for the management of the Reserve. Two entities within the University of Wisconsin System have strong ties to the Reserve. Federal funds enter the state through the University of Wisconsin-Extension (UWEX), the State's designated lead agency for the Lake Superior Reserve, which is the only Reserve in the NERR system to be managed by the Extension arm of a University. The Lake Superior Reserve is housed within two buildings, owned by the University of Wisconsin-Superior (UW-Superior), on Barkers Island in Superior, Wisconsin. The administrative offices, laboratory, educational center, and Interpretive Visitors Center are located in these buildings which are part of UW-Superior campus. Lake Superior Reserve staff members are appointed through either UWEX or University of Wisconsin-Superior.

The Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System | 496 of 607
In addition to the Lake Superior Reserve facilities, the UW-Superior owns a 72 acre parcel of land within the Lake Superior Reserve boundaries that includes Dutchman Creek on the south shore of Lake Superior, which is named the Nelson Outdoor Laboratory.

Projects and Research

There are paid and volunteer student opportunities. Students majoring in natural and social science programs, arts and the humanities have opportunities to participate in research projects as student research or education assistants, work study, interns, or volunteers.

Areas of interest include: Natural Sciences, Chemistry, Economics, Business, Mathematics, Sociology and Anthropology, Physics, History, Psychology and Behavior Sciences, Engineering, Education, and Art.

Public Education

National Estuarine Research Reserves serve as “living classrooms” for educators, students and the public in general. Research Reserves take a local approach in advancing freshwater estuary literacy and generating meaningful experiences for all kinds of people interested in learning about, protecting and restoring estuaries. Reserves provide adult audiences with training on coastal issues of concern in their local communities; offer classes for K-12 students; support teachers through professional development programs in coastal and estuary education; and provide public education events.

History

Founded in 1967 and approved by the Board of Regents in 1969, the [NAME:LSIR] (LSRI) is the applied environmental research and related public outreach unit of UW-Superior. Supported almost entirely by extramural funding, the Institute's mission is to conduct environmental research and provide services that directly benefit the people, industries, and natural resources of the Upper Midwest, the Great Lakes Region, and beyond; provide non-traditional learning and applied research opportunities for undergraduate students; and foster environmental education and outreach in the Twin Ports and surrounding communities. Faculty and academic staff associated with the Institute possess training in biology, chemistry, aquatic ecology, ecological modeling, environmental education, geology, microbiology, plant ecology, statistical analysis, taxonomy, and toxicology.

LSRI has received more than 500 grants and contracts with a combined extramural budget of more than $25 million. More than 45 federal, state, and local agencies have supported LSRI.

Projects and Research

LSRI is well equipped and staffed to conduct environmental research and monitoring. Facilities include analytical chemistry laboratories, culture rooms for fish and invertebrates, toxicity testing systems, a microbiology laboratory, and a taxonomy laboratory. LSRI scientists have extensive experience conducting field sampling on Lake Superior, inland lakes, wetlands, and streams.

Recent research activities include studies on the occurrence and control of exotic species in the Great Lakes, effects of chemicals on aquatic organisms and ecosystems, biological evaluations of contaminated sediments in the Great Lakes, and gathering and assessing environmental parameters in Lake Superior.
coastal wetlands, streams, and nearshore areas, monitoring water and air quality of the Lake Superior region, analysis of trace levels of organic and inorganic pollutants, and determination of mercury levels in Great Lakes’ fish.

In addition to research, the Institute is active in the publication of results. Papers are presented at scientific meetings and published in professional journals. LSRI scientists have written and published six toxicity research data books that have a worldwide distribution.

Public Education

LSRI has been involved with several public environmental education programs, including the National Science Foundation's Young Scholars program, American Indian Science and Engineering Society Workshop for teachers, Wisconsin Water Action Volunteer program, Bird Studies Canada volunteer Marsh Monitoring program and a collaborative effort with the University of Illinois Urbana/Champaign called Envirovet. All programs combine classroom presentations with daily field and laboratory activities. Participants in the programs range from elementary school students to senior citizens.

Student Research Opportunities

LSRI has employed nearly 600 undergraduate students and provided research experience for countless other students at the University of Wisconsin-Superior. Many of the students who have participated in research projects have gone on to pursue post-graduate education and/or careers in the sciences. Many students majoring in the sciences at UW-Superior participate in environmentally oriented research projects under the direction of faculty and staff from the LSRI. Student participation occurs during the school year through part-time jobs as student research assistants and during the summer through full-time jobs as student research assistants or student research interns. In this way, students gain valuable research experience and earn money to help finance their education.

Student research opportunities exist primarily in conjunction with research projects funded by state and federal agencies. The types of opportunities vary according to expertise of staff and availability of funds within those areas.

McNair Scholars Program

Staff

Dr. Marcia S. Francis, Director
Ms. Michelle Vinoski, Academic Coordinator
Ms. Debra Provost, Program Assistant

History

The Ronald E. McNair Postbaccalaureate Achievement Program (McNair Scholars Program) is a graduate school preparation program. It prepares low-income, first-generation college students and students from groups under-represented in graduate education for doctoral study. Qualifying university students who demonstrate academic ability can apply to the McNair Program as sophomores, juniors or seniors.

Students take part in an extensive graduate school preparation program which consists of monthly workshops and individual meetings, GRE preparation, and mentoring by faculty mentors. As juniors and seniors, they conduct research similar to what they would produce as graduate students and participate in a summer research internship. In the fall of the year students formally present their research projects at a campus-wide research symposium at National McNair Research Conferences and other conferences within their field of study.

Projects and Research

The McNair Scholars Program began providing services to students nationally in the 1989-1990 academic year. The University of Wisconsin-Superior received funding through the U.S. Department of Education for the Ronald E. McNair Post-Baccalaureate Achievement Program beginning October 1, 1999. The McNair Scholars Program at UW-Superior has worked with over 200 students on research projects across all academic disciplines.

- For a list of current scholars see: www.uwsuper.edu/mcnair/scholars.cfm.
- For information on previous research projects and faculty mentors see: www.uwsuper.edu/mcnair/alumni.

Student Research Opportunities

Applications are due in late October each year. Students in all majors are welcome to apply. For more information on qualifications and for applications see: www.uwsuper.edu/mcnair/applicants.cfm.

Undergraduate Research, Scholarship and Creative Activity (URSCA)

History

The Undergraduate Research, Scholarship and Creative Activity Committee was established by the Faculty Senate in the spring of 2011. While such activities have long been established on campus, the committee was created to formalize and celebrate this work. Specifically the committee was charged to promote and support undergraduate research, creative activity and scholarship. The committee is advisory to the Provost and reports to the Undergraduate Academic Affairs Council.

Projects

The URSCA committee serves as a coordinating body to assist students and staff in accessing regional, state and national opportunities for research, scholarship and creative activities as well as opportunities to showcase these works.

Public Education

The committee organizes at least one all-campus undergraduate research celebration day annually and maintains and publishes a calendar of state and national undergraduate research opportunities for UW-Superior students.

History

The Transportation and Logistics Research Center was founded in 1999 with a mission to provide applied transportation, logistics and supply chain research, education, and advisory services that benefit the region's economy. The Transportation and Logistics Research Center is continually active in transportation and logistics research projects. The faculty and academic staff associated with the center have training in economics, accounting, geography, statistics, transportation, logistics, and various other business disciplines. Since its founding in 1999, the center has received more than $10 million in grants and endowments. The Transportation and Logistics Research Center is part of the School of Business and Economics and is located in Old Main 135.

The mission of the TLRC is to provide applied transportation and logistics research, education, and advisory services that advance the economy of the region.

Through its strategic goals (as listed below) the center works to promote and enhance its mission:

- Be actively involved in applied research projects that enhance the region's transportation and logistics systems.
- Develop and distribute informational publications and presentations to the academic community and general public.
- Establish continuing education courses in transportation and logistics to improve the economic effectiveness and safety of the region's transportation systems.
- Accept recommendations from the advisory board of professionals to continuously improve the center's service to the university and the community.
- Initiate distinguished speaker series to provide university and community opportunities to learn from and meet leaders in the field.
- Organize seminars and workshops that expose the region to new ideas and highlight opportunities.

Projects and Research

The Transportation and Logistics Research Center is continually active in transportation and logistics research projects. The faculty and academic staff associated with the center have training in economics, accounting, geography, statistics, transportation, logistics, and various other business disciplines. Since its opening in 1999, the center has received more than $8 million in grants and endowments.

The Transportation and Logistics Research Center partners with many different local and national organizations on research projects, seminars, outreach, and education. Examples of these companies and organizations include:

- CN Railroad
- Key Lakes 1, Inc.
- BNSF Railroad
- Halvor Lines, Inc.
The Transportation and Logistics Advisory Board is composed of representatives from key sectors of the transportation and logistics industry and are uniquely able to assist in creating excellence in education.

The Transportation and Logistics Research Center is an active member of the following research organizations.

Great Lakes Maritime Research Institute (GLMRI) -- GLMRI represents a consortium of the University of Wisconsin-Superior Transportation and Logistics Research Center and the University of Minnesota Duluth Swenson College of Science and Engineering and Labovitz School of Business and Economics.

The GLMRI was established in 2004, and on June 1, 2005 the U.S. Maritime Administration designated GLMRI as a National Maritime Enhancement Institute. This National Maritime Enhancement Institute is dedicated to developing and improving economically and environmentally sustainable maritime commerce on the Great Lakes through applied research.

The director of the Transportation and Logistics Research Center, Dr. Richard Stewart also serves as a co-director of the GLMRI.

To learn about the latest research efforts in marine transportation, logistics, economics, engineering, environmental planning, and port management, visit http://www.glmri.org/.

National Center for Freight and Infrastructure Research and Education (CFIRE) This multi-university research center is led by UW-Madison's University Transportation Research Center. http://www.wistrans.org/cfire is a National University Transportation Research Center funded by the U.S. Department of Transportation. UW-Superior's Transportation and Logistics Research Center has been a CFIRE consortium member since 2006.

Wisconsin Space Grant Consortium - UW-Superior hosted the 17th annual meeting in 2007 and has been awarded student scholarships and faculty grants.

Council of University Transportation Centers (CUTC). UW-Superior's Transportation and Logistics Research Center is a member of CUTC. Collectively, council members have advanced the state of the art in all modes and disciplines of transportation. In doing so, they have made significant and lasting contributions to the nation's mobility, economy, and defense. In 2014 council's membership consisted of 97 of the leading university-based transportation research centers. Membership in the council is limited to any organized center, institute, division, unit, or specifically identifiable organization devoted to transportation research, education and technology transfer that is an integral part of a university or four-year college.

Student Research Opportunities

The Transportation and Logistics Research Center offers the opportunity to qualified students looking to become involved in undergraduate research. Student research opportunities vary each semester depending on the number of ongoing projects. Opportunities include part-time jobs, student research assistantships, and internships to help students gain valuable research experience, and further their education goals.

Learning Goals for the University Studies Program

University Studies Requirements for 2017-2019

The Learning outcomes of the University Studies Program at the University of Wisconsin-Superior are:

Communication:

a. Students will understand and be understood by others to share meaning through diverse modes including listening, reading, visualizing, speaking, performing/presenting, creating, and writing.
b. Students will apply modes, styles, and conventions of communication appropriate to the students' work and their audience.
c. Students will identify the essential components of a work/presentation and describe their relationship to each other and to the broader context.
d. Students will clearly express themselves to achieve a purpose.
e. Students will civilly engage in an exchange of ideas integrating diverse perspectives.

Individual and social responsibility:

a. Students will engage in personal development, interpersonal competence, and social responsibility through active learning.
b. Students will engage in thoughtful analysis that fosters well-being and holistic self-development.
c. Students will articulate their roles and responsibilities in a global community.
d. Students will practice healthy interdependence and mutual respect for others through teamwork.
e. Students will demonstrate informed civic engagement, including intercultural competence as a dimension of the experience.
f. Students will apply ethical reasoning in the academic and community learning experiences.

Creative and Critical Thinking:

a. Students engage in creative and critical thinking based on multiple forms of evidence, processes, and diverse perspectives.
b. Students will articulate important questions, theories, and creative processes.
c. Students will analyze information to answer specific questions.
d. Students will evaluate assumptions and biases associated with a project, practice, or process.
e. Students will consider multiple, diverse, and global perspectives to answer important questions or produce original work.
f. Students will use evidence to reach and present innovative conclusions or produce original work.

Description of University Studies Core Categories

1. Academic and Professional Writing (WRIT 102 and 209)

Improves students’ abilities to read critically and write academic arguments with an emphasis on information literacy, elements of persuasion, documentation, and citation, develops their ability to write in a range of genres related to the rhetorical situations, audiences, technologies, and multicultural environments of the 21st century workplace, with an emphasis on liberal arts career skills.

2. Communicating Arts (COMM 110)

Helps students develop essential interpersonal communication, group communication, and public speaking competencies through practice, analysis, and critical exploration of diverse human interactions.

3. Mathematics and Computer Science (MATH & CSCI)

Develops the skills necessary for analytical and quantitative problem-solving in all subjects, using central concepts and methods from mathematics and computer science, including number systems, symbolic representation, formal languages, mathematical modeling, and logical reasoning.

4. Health and Human Performance (HHP 102)

Provides students with a knowledge base, creating a positive attitude and lifelong skills concerning the seven dimensions of wellness:

- Physical
- Intellectual
- Emotional

The Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System | 501 of 607
Description of University Studies Knowledge Categories

HUMANITIES

History
Enables students to recognize that reasoned interpretations of the human past must be consistent with verifiable historical evidence and are, nonetheless, contested as they are reshaped to serve the concerns of the present; and empowers students to create personal meaning by developing their own reasoned interpretations of the human past.

Literature
Instills the joy of reading literature; stimulates the power of the imagination; promotes the analysis of various types of literary expression; and explores different traditions and modes of telling stories.

World Language, Culture, and Philosophy
Encourages students to make connections across all areas of knowledge, different modes of communication, and diverse cultural, linguistic, and conceptual traditions; and encourages students to develop empathy and understanding for other cultural, linguistic, and conceptual traditions.

SOCIAL SCIENCES

Enables students to examine human behavior or interaction using the methods and assumptions of social science research.

NATURAL AND PHYSICAL SCIENCE

Environmental Course
Enables students to understand our natural environment and the effects of human interactions on it.

Lab Course
Enables students to understand the nature of science and scientific inquiry through hands-on experiences.

FINE AND APPLIED ARTS

Fine Arts History, Criticism, and Appreciation
Helps students to analyze, evaluate, and relate artists, creative artifacts, and artistic productions of diverse cultures from ancient times to the present.

Aesthetic Experience
Gives students practical experience in developing their own creativity in one or more genres of expression, and augments appreciation for the diversity of creative communication.

Description of University Studies Diversity & Global Awareness Categories

Diversity Requirement
Promotes understanding of issues arising from diversities such as racial, ethnic, linguistic, class, religious, rural/urban/suburban, gender, sexual orientation, abilities, and national origin.

Global Awareness Requirement
1) Broadens students' horizons through exposure to perspectives from traditionally lesser studied regions and cultures (i.e., non-Eurocentric), and 2) Encourages students to see social, economic, cultural, and/or political connections among world regions.
University Studies Requirements

All students entering UW-Superior as freshmen must complete the Core University Studies Requirements of WRIT 102 and 209, COMM 110, HHP 102 and their choice of MATH or CSCI among their first 60 credits. Failure to complete these courses by that time will result in a hold being placed on an ensuing registration that does not contain the missing course(s), which may not then be dropped. Students will only be able to register through the Registrar's Office and enrollment in the missing course(s) must be included.

A. Core Courses

University Studies requirements, especially the core courses, should be taken early. Core courses strengthen reading, writing, public speaking, problem solving, analytical, and interpersonal skills. Core courses (WRIT 102 and 209, COMM 110, HHP 102, and the MATH or CSCI course) cannot be applied or substituted for any major or minor requirement.

All core courses should be taken in the freshman and sophomore semesters: WRIT 102 and 209 taken sequentially in the first and second year; COMM 110 in the first year, MATH or CSCI started during the first semester; HHP 102 in the first semester.

WRIT 102 and 209 (each 3 credits)

Core Writing Course Placement

Placement is determined by cut scores on the ACT or SAT as shown on the chart below. In the absence of an ACT or SAT score, students can take the Wisconsin English Placement Test (WEPT) for placement. Students may also take the WEPT to improve their placement; however, the WEPT is not required if students earn an ACT or SAT score with which they are satisfied.

Placement into WRIT 099: Fundamentals of Writing. This course prepares students for the challenge of reading and writing at the college level. This course must be taken within 30 credits. Students must pass this course with a C- or better to continue on to WRIT 102 or else be repeated until a C- is earned.

Transfer students, see Transfer Student Policy below.

Placement into WRIT 102: Intro to Academic Writing. Upon placement, this course should be taken in the freshman year, fall or spring. The course must be taken within 30 credits. Students must pass this course with a C- or better to continue on to WRIT 209 or else be repeated until a C- is earned.

Transfer students, see Transfer Student Policy below.

Credit for Prior Learning in WRIT 102: Students who earn a 26+ on the ACT (and equivalent cut scores for SAT and/or WEPT) are exempt from WRIT 102 and may seek enrollment in WRIT 209 before they have reached sophomore level by gaining the instructor's permission. WRIT 209 is recommended for sophomore-level students.

Regardless of placement, students with an AP Lang/Comp or AP Lit/Comp score of 3 or higher earn 3 credits for WRIT 102. Regardless of placement, students who earn a 50 or higher on the CLEP College Composition exam earn 3 credits for WRIT 102.

Placement into WRIT 209: Intro to Professional Writing. With the completion of WRIT 102 with a C- or better, this course should be taken in the sophomore year, fall or spring. The course must be taken within 60 credits. Students must pass this course with a C- or better to complete the Core Writing Courses.

Transfer students, see Transfer Student Policy below.

Transfer Student Policy for Core Writing Placement: Students who arrive at UW-Superior with 6 credits of 100-level college writing completed at a C- or higher have satisfied the requirements for WRIT 102 and WRIT 209. Some majors may still require WRIT 209 if a Professional Writing course has not been completed.

Students who arrive with 3 credits of 100-level writing completed at a C- or higher have satisfied the requirements for WRIT 102. Students may seek enrollment in WRIT 209 before they have reached sophomore level by gaining the instructor's permission. WRIT 209 is recommended for sophomore-level students.

Communicating Arts 110 (3 credits)

No student may take COMM 110 on a Pass-Fail basis.

Mathematics and Computer Science (3 credits)

Students must choose a minimum of three credits in MATH and/or CSCI courses from among these courses: MATH 112, 113, 115, 130, 151, 240 or CSCI 101, 112, 130 and CSCI 101 are recommended. For students with appropriate preparation, MATH 113, 115, 151, 240 and CSCI 201 are also recommended. Students are encouraged to work with a faculty advisor to select a course appropriate to their level of mathematical preparation, interests, and major field of study.

All students entering UW-Superior are required to take the Wisconsin Math Placement Test. Test results are used to determine which Mathematics and Computer Science courses students are eligible to take at that time. Students with insufficient preparation may become eligible to take more advanced Mathematics and Computer Science courses by completing one or more lower-level courses as indicated by the Math Placement Test results. Students placing into the remedial level MATH 090 or MATH 095 are expected to complete the remedial course before earning 30 credits.

Health and Human Performance 102 (3 credits)

All students must successfully complete HHP 102 Health and Wellness or FYS 100. Students with medical restrictions should contact the coordinator of HHP 102 before the first lab session. All Health and Human Performance department majors and minors must earn a grade of C or better in HHP 102.

B. Knowledge Categories

The University Studies courses listed in the Knowledge Categories expose students to a broad array of concepts, perspectives and methodologies. They all integrate skills from the core courses into their content and require active engagement.

No more than six credits from any one program bearing the same prefix may be applied toward Knowledge Category requirements.

The credits given are the minimum for each category.

GA = Meets Global Awareness requirement
D = Meets diversity requirement

HUMANITIES (9 credits)

History (3 credits): FNS 223 (D), 224 (D); ANTH 104 (GA); HIST 104, 111 (GA), 112, 115 (GA), 119 (D), 120 (GA), 125 (GA), 140 (GA), 131, 141, 151, 152, 160 (GA), 181 (D, GA), 223 (D), 224 (D); POLS 101 (GA), 175 (GA).
Literature (3 credits): ENGL 211, 212, 218, 221, 222, 228 (D), 229 (GA), 241 (GA), 242 (GA); FYS 102.

World Language, Culture, and Philosophy (3 credits): FNS 101, 110 (D); FREN 101; GERM 101, 102, 201, 202; HIST 154 (D); MUSI 161 (GA, D); PHIL 151, 160, 211, 212, 262; POLS 101 (GA), 262, 265; PSYC 212; SPAN 101, 102, 201, 202; WLLC 207

Any foreign language course will meet the Humanities Elective requirement if it is a language proficiency (rather than culture) course and at minimum three credits.

SOCIAL SCIENCES (6 credits) (Must include two different prefixes)

ANTH 101 (D), 205; CJUS 106; ECON 235, 250, 251; FIN 210; FNS 151; GEOG 100 (D, GA), 102 (D, GA); GST 150 (D), 210 (D); IDS 131; LSTU 115, 261; POLS 100 (GA), 150, 230, 260; PSYC 101, 230; SOCI 101, 201, 210 (D), 273 (D)

NATURAL AND PHYSICAL SCIENCE (6 credits) one environmental and one lab course required

Environmental Course: BIOL 100, 170; CHEM 100; GEOL 120

Lab Course: BIOL 115, 123, 130; CHEM 102, 105; GEOG 110, 112, 120; PHYS 100, 107, 160, 201

FINE AND APPLIED ARTS (6 credits)

Art History, Criticism, and Appreciation (3 credits): ART 221, 222; COMM 104, 122, 285; MUSI 160, 266 (D).

Aesthetic Experience (3 credits): ART 101; COMM 125, 180, 273; HHP 133; MUSI 101-116, 118, 120-139, 170; WRIT 250, 280

C. Diversity and Global Awareness Requirement

Undergraduate coursework must include a minimum of three credits with a focus on issues of diversity. Courses within the Knowledge Categories that also satisfy this requirement are indicated with “D.” Students must choose separate diversity and global awareness courses.

Diversity (3 credits): ANTH 205, 310, 315, 333; ART 224, 331; CJUS 312; COMM 467; ECON 438; ENGL 228, 229, 328; FNS 110, 223, 224, 242, 304, 386, 480; GEOG 100, 102; GST 150, 210, 255, 258, 302, 312, 322, 365, 374, 459; HIST 119, 154, 160, 181, 223, 224, 302, 322, 333, 393, 395; LSTU 365; MUSI 161, 266; PHIL 250, 330, 365, 459; POLS 374; PSYC 258, 270, 360; SO W 386; SOCI 210, 273; SPAN 315, 350; TED 270; WRIT 255

Undergraduate coursework must include a minimum of three credits with a focus on global awareness issues. Courses within the Knowledge Categories that also satisfy this requirement are indicated with “GA.” Students must choose a separate diversity and global awareness course.

Global Awareness (3 credits): ANTH 101, 104, 310, 320, 333, 368; ART 224, 331; ECON 430, 435, 438; ENGL 241, 242; FNS 368; GEOG 100, 102; GST 302; HIST 104, 111, 115, 120, 125, 140, 160, 181, 302, 333, 368, 371, 385, 394; MUSI 161; POLS 100, 101, 175, 376; SOCI 201; SPAN 303

Mission Statement

“The mission of Technology Services is to provide technology services that are accessible, reliable, convenient, and secure for the purpose of empowering the UW-Superior community to use technology in teaching, learning, research, creative activity and service.”

Please visit Technology Services for a complete list of the services and systems that are provided or contact the technology helpdesk at 715-394-8300 or email helpdesk@uwsuper.edu with any technology questions you may have.

Organization and Services

Technology Services consists of three units:

Technology Support Services (a.k.a. the help desk) provides a variety of services and facilities for Students, Faculty and Staff to effectively use current and emerging technology solutions. This unit supports several functions including:

- Help Desk Services - The central contact point for all technology issues and questions. The help desk also consults and processes technology purchases and they manage and maintain a technology equipment loan service that offers Students, Faculty and Staff the ability to borrow computers and other technology tools in support of academics. The help desk provides a library of training materials that they make available to Students, Faculty, and Staff at no charge to further develop technology skills.

- Classroom Technology and Multimedia Services - Technology in the class room is supported by the unit including the installation and maintenance of equipment, Audio/Video production, streaming audio, graphic design and production, and assistance with media conferencing are some of the services provided in support of instructional development.

- Teaching and Learning Systems - The Learning Management system (Learn@UWsuperior/D2l) and other teaching and learning software systems such as plagiarism detection and survey software are supported by the unit.

- Web Support Services - The campus webmaster is a member of the University Relations Office and is responsible for the installation and maintenance of the content management system. The webmaster also provides consultation to the entire organization and is responsible for the overall design and functionality of the website.

Infrastructure Services is responsible for providing highly available, high quality access to the University's electronic resources and the internet. This includes maintaining the systems that support email, access to the internet, wireless coverage and the security systems that protect the campus network and desktop systems. The unit also provides all technology hardware support including computers, servers, student computing labs and the campus telephone system.

Application Services is responsible for the development and maintenance of the primary administrative information systems essential to the operation of the University and the integration with those systems. The primary systems include the student information system (E-hive/PeopleSoft) and the campus document management system (ImageNow). The unit works closely with student support offices to provide administrative tools and applications for both Students and Faculty.

Technology Policies

Use of technology resources is governed by the policies of the University of Wisconsin-Superior Information and Instructional Technology Services (IITS), the University of Wisconsin System and its Board of Regents, and by Federal and State laws. Failure to comply with policies and guidelines can result in loss of access privileges, university disciplinary action, and/or criminal prosecution. A complete list of policies and guidelines is available at Information and Instructional Technology Services.

About Yellowjacket Athletics

The University of Wisconsin-Superior provides a variety of opportunities for men and women to participate in intercollegiate athletics at the NCAA Division III level competing against the finest schools in the nation, thereby enriching the all-around collegiate experience of our student-athletes. Yellowjacket student-athletes are expected to place a priority on academics while participating in an outstanding athletic program, thus striving for excellence as a student and as an athlete.

The athletic programs are not scholarship-based, therefore scholarships received by student-athletes are on the basis of academic performance. UW-Superior intercollegiate athletic programs are intended to enrich both the student-athlete and the university community. Through the athletic programs, the university strives to provide the following:

1. A healthy, competitive, and professionally supervised athletic experience for student-athletes.
2. An array of programs that encourage wide involvement of students either as student-athletes or spectators.
3. A co-curricular laboratory for students interested in related areas such as physical education, coaching, officiating, advertising, sports medicine, broadcasting, and recreation that complements the academic programs of the university.
4. Equal opportunity for men and women student-athletes to participate in competitive intercollegiate sports in each of the three seasons.

Affiliations

UW-Superior competes in NCAA Division III at the national level and is a member of the Upper Midwest Athletic Conference (UMAC) at the conference level. For the sport of hockey, UW-Superior competes as an associated member in the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC).

Facilities
In accordance with the NCAA Handbook and our governing sport conferences, UW-Superior has implemented additional bylaws and definitions as it relates to the eligibility of student-athletes.

1.1 NCAA Rules. The University of Wisconsin-Superior will abide by the eligibility rules adopted by the Division III membership of the NCAA with the exception of these institutional rules that are more restrictive as set forth in this document.

1.2 Regular Term. A “regular term” is considered to be the traditional fall and spring terms as listed in the institutional's official catalog, excluding intersessions (e.g., J-Terms, winter sessions).

1.3 Initial Eligibility. A first-time entering freshman student is eligible to represent the institution in intercollegiate athletics provided the student is admitted to the institution in accordance with the provisions of NCAA Bylaw 14.1.7.

1.3.1 Academic Year of Residence. To satisfy an academic year of residence, a student-athlete shall:

a. Be enrolled in and complete a minimum full-time program of studies for two (2) full semesters or three (3) full quarters, or
b. Be enrolled in a minimum full-time program of studies with two (2) full semesters or three (3) full quarters and pass a number of hours that is at least equal to the sum total of the minimum load of each of the required terms.

1.3.1.1. Summer Term. A summer term shall not be used to satisfy a term of residence, but hours earned at the institution during the summer may be used to satisfy the requirements of (b) above.

1.3.2 Freshman Credit Rule. A student-athlete must have earned a minimum of nine (9) credit hours from the start of the first-regular term of attendance to the beginning of the second regular term of attendance to the beginning of the second regular term of attendance to be eligible to compete the second-term of the first year of initial enrollment.

1.4 Academic Eligibility. A student-athlete is eligible to compete provided the student-athlete meets NCAA eligibility requirements as stipulated in NCAA Bylaw 14. In addition, student-athletes must meet institutional grade point average and credit hour requirements as stipulated within this document.

1.4.1 Grade Point Average Requirement. A student-athlete must achieve a total cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0 (based on a maximum 4.0 scale) if any of the following conditions have been met:

a. The student-athlete has been charged with one (1) or more seasons of participation;

b. The student-athlete has earned 24 or more credit hours;

c. The student-athlete has been charged with two (2) or more full-time terms of attendance.

1.4.2 Credit Hour Requirements. To be eligible to compete the second season and subsequent seasons in any sport, a student-athlete must earn the following credit hours:

a. After the completion of the first season of participation: 24 semester/36 quarter degree credit hours.

b. After the completion of the second season of participation: 48 semester/72 quarter degree credit hours.

c. After the completion of the third season of participation: 72 semester/108 quarter degree credit hours.

1.4.3 Regaining Eligibility During a Term. A student-athlete who is not eligible to compete at the beginning of a regular term may not regain his/her eligibility during that term with the exception of incomplete grades (see 1.4.9) and grade changes, provided the incompetes and grade changes are processed in accordance with normal institutional policies and practices.

1.4.4 Eligibility Between Terms. A student-athlete who is regaining eligibility at the conclusion of the regular fall term may begin competing at the time his/her eligibility has been officially certified by the institution, but not sooner than the day after the date of the last scheduled exam listed in the institution's official catalog for the fall term. If a student-athlete becomes ineligible at the conclusion of the regular fall term (e.g., GPA deficiency), the ineligibility shall become effective at the time his/her eligibility has been officially certified by the institution, but not later than the first day of classes of the regular spring term. [See also 1.4.13.]

1.4.5 Suspension. A student-athlete suspended by the institution for academic or non-academic reasons is to be rendered ineligible immediately. A student-athlete under suspension will not be permitted to compete (but may practice assuming he/she is enrolled full time) during an appeal process.

1.4.6 Transfers. To meet the provisions of 1.4.1, the cumulative minimum grade-point average must be achieved in all grades earned at all collegiate institutions during a transfer's first term of attendance at the certifying institution. In addition, credit hours earned at all collegiate institutions are to be used to meet the credit hour requirements of 1.4.2 during a transfer's first two (2) terms of attendance [provided they are consecutive terms] at the certifying institution. Thereafter, the cumulative grade point average should be determined by whatever method is employed by the institution for students generally and only those credit hours which are accepted toward a degree and appear on the institutional transcript may apply.

1.4.7 Repeat Courses. Repeated courses may be used to satisfy the minimum full-time enrollment requirement for practice and competition provided such courses are counted toward full-time enrollment for students generally. However, repeated courses (with a previous grade of “D” or better) may be used only once to satisfy the credit hour requirements of 1.4.2.

1.4.8 Remedial, Tutorial, Noncredit or Distance Learning Courses. In accordance with normal institutional policies, remedial, tutorial, noncredit or distance learning courses may be used to satisfy the minimum cumulative grade-point average and credit hour requirements of 1.4.

1.4.9 Incomplete Grades. Incomplete grades may be used to satisfy the requirements of 1.4 provided they are removed in accordance with the institution's regulations applicable to all students.

1.4.10 Academic Forgiveness/Bankruptcy. Student-athletes may avail themselves to academic forgiveness/bankruptcy policies that are applied to students generally.

1.4.11 Advanced Placement Credit Hours. Advanced placement (AP) credit hours are included in the credit hour and grade point average calculations to satisfy the requirements of 1.4 in accordance with normal institutional policies pertaining to AP credits.

Other athletic facilities include Siinto S. Wessman Arena, which houses the men's and women's hockey teams; Ted Whereatt Field, home to the baseball team; and the Yellowjacket Soccer Complex, home of the men's and women's soccer teams. UW-Superior has an agreement for use of Liebaert Field for its softball program.
1.4.11 Exception for AP Credit Hours. Advancement placement hours are not to be included in the credit hour and grade point average calculations during a student-athlete's first two (2) terms of attendance.

1.4.12 Medical Hardships. Medical hardship waivers may be granted by the student-athletes governing sport conference if the request meets the NCAA requirements for a hardship and is submitted on the prescribed form.

1.4.12.1 Calculating Seasons of Participation. Years for which a student-athlete was granted a medical hardship shall be considered as seasons of participation for purposes of determining the grade-point average and credit hour requirements of Bylaw 1.4.

1.4.13 Certification of First-Time, Mid-Year Enrollees for Subsequent Seasons of Competition. It is permissible to certify at mid-year those students-athletes who were first-time, mid-year enrollees (this does not apply to transfers or re-enrollees) for purposes of satisfying the credit hour requirements of Bylaws 1.4.2.

1.4.14 Mid-Term Enrollees. Mid-term enrollees are not eligible for competition until the completion of that term.

1.4.15 Intersessions. Credit hours earned during an intersession (e.g., J-Term) that are used to satisfy the requirements of 1.4 would apply towards whichever semester/quarter the intersession is applied institutionally. If the intersession is considered to be independent, the credits earned can be applied to either the fall or spring semester/quarter.

1.4.15.1 Full-Time Enrollment. Hours enrolled during an intersession (e.g., J-Term) can be counted towards full-time enrollment for whichever semester/quarter the intersession is applied institutionally. If the intersession is considered to be independent term by the institution, those hours cannot be counted toward full-time enrollment for either the fall or spring semester/quarter.

1.5 Waiver of Eligibility Rules. A waiver request may be submitted on behalf of a student-athlete in cases where, because of special circumstances, the application of any rule results in an unintended hardship to a student-athlete. The Director of Athletics, in consultation with the Faculty Athletics Representative(s), Registrar, and Senior Women Administrator, is empowered to grant waivers to the institution's eligibility rules as the facts may warrant in each individual case. A waiver of one rule does not automatically waive any other rule.

1.5.1 Submission of Eligibility Waivers. A waiver request of an institutional eligibility rule may be submitted on behalf of an enrolled, prospective, or transfer student-athlete. Waiver requests of eligibility rules must be submitted in writing by an institution's faculty athletics representative(s) on the prescribed waiver request form. It shall be the responsibility of the faculty athletics representative to determine the facts of the case, and to ensure the completeness and accuracy of the information submitted with the waiver request. Each filed waiver must include all pertinent supporting information or documentation, including academic transcripts of all courses taken at any collegiate institution attended by the student-athlete. In the case of a prospective student-athlete, documentation related to the prospects standardized test score(s), high school GPA, and class rank is required.

1.5.2 Waiver Authority. Copies of a waiver request of an institution eligibility rule (with supporting materials) must be sent to the Director of Athletics, Faculty Athletics Representative(s), Registrar, and Senior Women Administrator. The Director of Athletics shall determine the means by which the committee will consider any particular waiver request. In cases in which ample precedent has been established or the facts of the case do not raise disputed issues, the Director of Athletics has the authority to grant the waiver absent any review by the entire committee.

Advocacy

The Dean of Students Office plays an important role in helping students navigate the campus environment and in providing programs and services that enrich students' personal and educational development. The staff in the Dean of Students office serve as advocates for students on a wide range of topics and assist students in making positive connections with staff, faculty, other students and services. Students are encouraged to contact the Dean of Students office staff if they have question or concerns.

Student Rights and Responsibilities

Each student at the University has the right to learn in an environment free from threats, danger, or harassment. Students also have the responsibility to conduct themselves in a manner that complies with campus policies and procedures. UWS Chapters 17 and 18 of the Wisconsin Administrative Code list the university policies students are expected to uphold and describes the procedures used when students are accused of misconduct. Chapter 17 also lists the possible responses the university may apply when a student is found to violate policy.

UW-Superior students are also obligated to complete course work with honesty and academic integrity. They also have the right to expect that all students will be graded fairly and have the right of due process should they be accused of academic misconduct. UWS Chapter 14 of the Wisconsin Administrative Code explains the policies and procedures that need to be followed in the case of academic misconduct.

Policies related to student conduct can be found at www.uwsuper.edu/studentconduct. The Associate Dean of Students office also can provide a physical copy of policies if requested. Contact the Associate Dean of Students/Title IX Coordinator at 715-394-8243 or at the Yellowjacket Union Information Desk.

First Nations Center

The [NAME:FIRSTNATIONCENTER], centrally located on the third floor of Swenson Hall, provides a space for Native students and other students interested in Native American culture to gather, study and learn in a positive environment. The FNC staff provide students with advocacy, advisement, and cultural counseling.

The Center serves as liaisons between the campus and the greater community to assist in raising awareness of Native American culture. As a part of Indian Country, the First Nations Center works to build an understanding of Native American cultural world view in the region. Collaboratively, the FNC and the Native student organization work with other departments on campus to provide Native American programs and events. (The university also provides a minor in First Nations Studies.)

For more information call 715-394-8132 or visit www.uwsuper.edu/firstnationscenter.

Gender Equity Resource Center (GERC)

The Gender Equity Resource Center staff create a safe environment within the campus community for all genders. Services and opportunities include exploration of diverse gender roles, education about gender and sexuality, and advocacy of equity for people of varying ages, economic statuses, cultural backgrounds, races, physical abilities, genders, and sexual identities occurs. The program staff collaborate with many departments and student organizations to provide programs and resources that empower students of all genders and sexual identities to have a successful college experience.

The Gender Equity Resource Center, located Swenson Hall 1031, is a welcoming place where advocates for gender equity, the LGBTQ (lesbian, gay, bi-sexual, trans, queer/questioning) community, and allies can provide support and education to the campus about gender equity and sexual identities.

For more information contact 715-394-8091, genderequity@uwsuper.edu, or www.uwsuper.edu/genderequity.

Office of Multicultural Affairs (OMA)

The Office of Multicultural Affairs (OMA) is dedicated to the academic and social success of African American, American Indian, Asian American, and Hispanic/Latino students while fostering a climate of respect for all people and cultures. The staff in OMA want students to have help with whatever needs arise; a home away from home; a broadening of worldviews; experience with people and cultures other than their own.

Programs and Services

The Office of Multicultural Affairs is proud to sponsor programs and events that enrich and honor the lives of not only American Indian, Asian American, African American, and Hispanic/Latino American students, but the campus community as a whole. OMA programs and events help students make important connections within the campus community, gain leadership skills, learn about diverse cultures and issues, and more.

Programs
- Leadership and Mentorship Program
- Making College Accessible
- Diversity Dialogues

The Multicultural Center

The Multicultural Center is located at Old Main, Room 232. It is a great place for students to study, to hold meetings, receptions, socials, guest lecture, presentations, and so forth.

For more information, contact OMA at 715-394-8084, oma@uwsuper.edu, or www.uwsuper.edu/oma.

Veteran and Nontraditional Student Center (VNSC)

The Veterans and Nontraditional Student Center supports all nontraditional students (including veteran/military students and family members, students who are 25 or older, who have a spouse, and/or who have children) throughout their educational journey at UW-Superior.
The Center offers:

- A place where veteran/military and nontraditional students can relax, study, use a computer, or talk with someone.
- Programs, events and a culture that foster life-long learning which include an annual Veteran's Day Honoring Ceremony, Veterans Week events, the annual Veterans Expo, Veterans Club, camping trips, VA and federal work study positions, parenting programs, and other engaging events.
- Direct services including information about other campus and community, VA/GI Bill® benefit assistance, career preparation, and other helpful services programs.
- Opportunities to bring students together, developing friendships and unity.
- Childcare Subsidies to students with children who are enrolled in select childcare centers in Superior. The subsidy reduce the cost of childcare tuition and is paid directly to the state licensed center. Students interested in a childcare subsidy can apply online.

First Year Experience

Mission Statement

First Year Experience exists to support a diverse group of students in their academic and social transition into the university by fostering community building, personal growth, and life-long learning through a variety of beneficial courses, programs and services.

Orientation

WoW (Weekend of Welcome)

This is students' crash course introduction to all things UW-Superior. During this event, you will find your niche on campus. Through your WoW group, you will meet new people, make friends and connect with an upper-classmen who will serve as your Peer Leader. These friends will be with you as you find your way around campus, attend educational sessions, and explore who you are at UW-Superior. All freshmen and transfer students coming in with 21 or fewer post high school credits are required to attend WoW.

*Students entering in spring semester will attend Winter WoW.

First Year Seminars (FYS)

The First Year Seminar is designed to introduce first year students to the liberal arts through active and collaborative learning, critical thinking, and reflective judgment. Students can choose from an array of unique and diverse topics selected to challenge and engage and which are limited in size to 15 students.

Second Year + Initiatives

General Programming and Outreach

Throughout the year, FYE will do outreach and provide programs aimed to support students in their second year. Our staff will serve as a resource and guide as students navigate the new challenges year two of college can bring.

Living, Learning, Leadership (Certificate Program)

The newly expanded Certificate in Ethical Leadership will consist of learning from the established courses of Emotional Intelligence, Ethical Leadership, and the Living, Learning, Leadership course which is a culminating course that provides opportunities to apply what they learned in the courses to real world situations. Students will earn a 9 credit certificate that will be part of their student transcript.

Mission Statement

Student Health and Counseling Services (SHCS) supports student well-being by providing health education, prevention, promotion and treatment, ultimately influencing academic achievement and connectedness with campus and community.

Services Offered

Student Health and Counseling Services operates out of the Marcovich Wellness Center. SHCS offers services both on-campus and off-campus to eligible UW-Superior students. On campus services include free counseling, health education services and referrals. Off-campus services include medical services at the UW-Superior contracted medical providers for physical, reproductive and psychiatric care. Please check UW-Superior Student Health and Counseling Services for the listing of current providers and medical procedures covered.

Medical Services

All medical services are coordinated through St. Luke's Mariner Medical Clinic located at the Mariner Mall, 109 N 28th St. E, Superior, WI; 715-395-3900. Students should identify themselves as UW-Superior students. Students' medical needs will be assessed, whether they need simple medical advice or an appointment with a physician.

Free transportation to and from the clinic (from and back to UW-Superior campus only; not to an off-campus address) is available through UW-Superior by calling Courtesy Cab at 218-590-9222 and showing a student ID to the driver. If a student requests to be dropped off anywhere other than UW-Superior campus, the student will have to pay cab fare.

Student Health Insurance

Individual health insurance is available for purchase through the Wisconsin Marketplace. It is recommended that all students who are not covered by their family's insurance plan purchase medical insurance. Information is available by calling 715-394-8236. Health insurance is mandatory for international students and student athletes.

Counseling Services

The SHCS staff seeks to meet the developmental needs of students, responding to unexpected life crises. Counseling services emphasize personal growth through self-care and the development of adaptive skills through a variety of therapeutic interventions. SHCS maintains referral and informational resources for students and the campus. Mental health consultations and referrals are available. At UW-Superior, students will receive FREE culturally sensitive, confidential sessions with Licensed Professional Counselors. Call 715-394-8236 to schedule an appointment or stop by Marcovich Wellness Center 1729.

The Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System | 516 of 607
Mission Statement

Through our programs and facilities, we provide an array of recreation and wellness opportunities that foster active and healthy lifestyles. Through involvement with Campus Recreation students will:

- Articulate the importance of physical activity for personal and professional balance and growth.
- Communicate effectively and work towards a shared goal.
- Apply necessary skills and abilities and be empowered to develop and mature.

Programs

Intramurals

Intramurals provides action packed activities for the entire campus community featuring team and individual competitions throughout the school year. Programs are designed to help students, faculty, and staff become more involved in recreational activities regardless of age, gender, skill level, or past experience. Campus Recreation offers male, female, and co-recreational opportunities organized for various skill levels.

Outdoor Adventure

The Superior Adventures consists of Outdoor Adventure Trips, Outdoor Equipment Rental, Superior Challenge Ropes Course, and the Climbing Wall. The intent of Superior Adventures is to provide outdoor and social experiences emphasizing adventure, environmental awareness, education, challenge, personal development, safety, a sense of community and fun.

Climbing Wall

The National Bank of Commerce Climbing Wall is a 28-foot tall, state-of-the-art structure designed to challenge first-timers or seasoned veterans. We change our routes every semester to maintain a high level of fun and challenge. No experience or equipment necessary. The climbing wall staff will outfit you with all the necessary gear, instruction and encouragement you need.

Open Recreation

Open Recreation offers students and Marcovich Wellness Center members the opportunity to participate in less structured, non-tournament recreation. You must be a student or have an Marcovich Wellness Center membership to participate in open recreation. Open recreation times are subject to change due to special events and facility maintenance. Throughout the year, space is regularly reserved for drop-in activities.

Fitness/Wellness

The focus of our Fitness and Wellness programs are to serve the fitness needs of our campus community through various programs, including group fitness and personal training. One of the goals of Campus Recreation is to assist students in leading healthy and active lifestyles.
Aquatics

Located in the Marcovich Wellness Center is a fully accessible 25-yard pool staffed with friendly, professional lifeguards who will ensure that you have a safe and positive aquatic experience. The pool is open in the early morning, noon, and in the late afternoon/early evening for your convenience. Activities such as water basketball, open swimming, water aerobics, and lap swimming is offered.

Sport Clubs

A Sport Club is a recognized student organization under the administration of the Campus Recreation Department. Each club is a student-based group intended to provide recreational, competitive, and instructional opportunities in addition to those offered by intramurals, physical education programs, or intercollegiate athletics.

Challenge Course

The Superior Challenge Ropes Course (SCRC) offers a series of activities designed for individual and group participation regardless of age, physical/cognitive limitations, or ability. Participants develop skills in problem solving, communication, decision making, trust, as well as gain a strong sense of self-worth and accomplishment.

The Superior Challenge Ropes Course experience also promotes calculated risk-taking, enhances leadership and management skills, facilitates organizational change, and builds effective teams. Our outdoor facility at UW-Superior features 15 high elements, 9 low elements and a variety of initiatives.

Facilities

Marcovich Wellness Center

The Marcovich Wellness Center (MWC) houses the Health and Human Performance Department, Athletic programs, Student Health and Counseling Services, and the Department of Campus Recreation. Used for academics, athletics, and recreation, the MWC features a field house with indoor track, 2,500-seat Mertz Mortorelli Gymnasium, Toby and Sharon Marcovich Fitness Center, Minnesota Power Weight Room, exercise and physiology lab, classrooms, racquetball courts, National Bank of Commerce Climbing Wall, dance studio, and offices for all four departments.

Superior Challenge Ropes Courses

The Superior Challenge Ropes Course is located just west of Siinto S. Wessman Arena. It includes high and local ropes elements to accommodate any skill level. The course offers a series of activities for both individual and group participation regardless of age, physical limitation or ability. This facility is open by reservation only.

Student Organizations

Over 50 recognized student organizations provide a variety of opportunities for student involvement and leadership. For a current listing of recognized student organizations or for information on forming a new student organization, see the Student Organizations website: www.uwsuper.edu/studentorgs.

Campus Wide Events

UW-Superior hosts a number of annual campus events including:

'JacketFest: Student Involvement and Job Fair

'JacketFest is held at the beginning of the fall semester and provides an opportunity for students to engage with a number of student organizations, part-time employers, and local non-profit agencies.

Friends and Family Weekend

Friends and Family Weekend is an annual fall festival planned especially for UW-Superior students, friends, and their families. The weekend is filled with fun campus activities for all ages and a great way to experience campus life at UW-Superior.

'Jacket Racket Weekend

UW-Superior's homecoming weekend is dedicated to honoring Yellowjacket pride. The weekend brings together students for activities such as Yellowjacket Hockey, Union Bash, and the Spirit Board Competition.

Learn more at www.uwsuper.edu/jacketracket.

Leadership

Leadership resources are accessible to all UW-Superior students at any skill level. Student Involvement offers many ways to strengthen your leadership skills - attend a workshop, participate in Launching Leaders, or work one-on-one with the Student Involvement staff.

Launching Leaders is a self-paced leadership certificate program that offers all students an introduction to campus and community involvement while providing pathways to personal growth and development.

Yellowjacket Activities Crew (YAC)

The Yellowjacket Activities Crew (YAC) is an organization of students that plan social and recreational programs for the campus community and the Yellowjacket Union. Free entertainment events include:

- Musicians and Bands
- Comedians

The Yellowjacket Union (YU) is a vibrant, energetic place where friends meet at UW-Superior to learn, eat, relax and play. The Yellowjacket Union engages the campus community by providing facilities, services, programs and involvement opportunities that promote student development, reinforce educational goals and foster inclusiveness.

Dining Services

Mission Statement

Campus dining is an integral part of the University experience. Our mission is to provide fresh, great tasting food and excellent service that offers customers fun and flexible dining options.

Information

All students, faculty and staff may eat in any of the dining service areas located in the Yellowjacket Union. Students with a meal plan eat most of their meals in the all-you-can-eat Union Caf® and may use retail operations according to the terms of their respective meal plan contracts. We accept meal plans, Jacket Cash, U.S. dollars and debit/credit cards at all dining locations. Students who are required to live in the residence halls are also required to sign up for a meal plan. Contracts are available from Residence Life or at the Yellowjacket Union Desk. A contract must be completed before meal plan services may be used.

Bookstore

Mission Statement

UW-Superior's Bookstore provides an inviting, collegiate atmosphere offering valuable services and merchandise in a convenient and competitive manner while promoting growth opportunities for students and enriching campus community.

Hours of Operation

Emeriti Policy

University of Wisconsin-Superior Policy
Effective 1-14-2016

DESIGNATION OF EMERITUS/EMERITA STATUS

1. INTRODUCTION
   a. Emeritus/emerita status is an honor bestowed by the Chancellor in recognition of past contributions to the university. Emeritus/emerita appointments confer no monetary advantages, and are not granted automatically upon retirement. Emeritus/emerita status is limited to faculty, academic staff, limited appointees and University Staff permanently retiring from the University of Wisconsin-Superior.

2. ELIGIBILITY
   a. Emeritus status may be awarded to a retiring person who:
      i. Is retiring permanently and eligible for the University retirement annuity;
      ii. Has ten years or the full time equivalent of service to the University (ex: IAS who has taught 50% for 20 years; University Staff at 75% for 14+ years, etc.)
      1. Staff whose classification has changed (e.g. Classified who later becomes University staff, academic staff who becomes faculty or University Staff who becomes academic staff) may count total years of service, not just the years in the latter classification.
   b. Has been nominated by a colleague, unit, department, dean, or director for emeritus/a status in writing

3. NOMINATION PROCESS
   a. Faculty and/or staff must be nominated for emeritus/emerita status
      i. It is usual that emeritus/a be granted prior to retirement or within three months of the nominees official retirement date
   b. It is incumbent upon the person retiring
      i. to make his or her wish to be considered for emeritus/emerita status known
      ii. to request a letter of nomination for the status by a director, unit, department, colleague or dean who knows their work
   c. Nomination should include:
      i. Name of retiree being nominated, position, department, and their start date at the university
      ii. Expected date of retirement (copy of retirement letter)
   d. If the nominee holds double or divided appointment with another department or unit, the nomination can come from either department or unit. It is not necessary for both departments or units to submit a nomination.

4. PROCEDURES FOR GRANTING EMERITUS/A STATUS
   a. For Faculty:
      i. Nominations for emeritus/a status are forwarded to the department for review and vote. Approved nominations are submitted to the Dean of Faculties and Graduate Studies who forwards the nomination, via the Provost, to the Chancellor.
      ii. The Chancellor makes the final decision on granting emeritus/a status. Emeritus/a status will begin on the date of official retirement.
   b. For Academic or University Staff:
      i. Nominations for emeritus/a status are forwarded to the Personnel Compensation Committee (academic staff) or the University Staff Senate (University Staff) who forwards the nomination via the Provost, to the Chancellor.
      ii. The Chancellor makes the final decision on granting emeritus/a status. Emeritus/a status will begin on the date of official retirement.

5. PRIVILEGES
   a. Award of emeritus/a status carries with it the faculty or staff members' title code at the time of retirement (e.g. Professor Emeritus/a, Academic Advisor Emeritus/a, or University Program Associate Emeritus/a). In addition the following privileges are provided:
      i. Each emeritus/a may obtain one “Emeritus/a” staff ID card at no cost. Replacement ID cards will need to be paid for by the individual
      ii. Access to JDH Library resources including: borrowing, Universal Borrowing, interlibrary loan, access to data bases/subscription resources locally or offsite (proxy access).
      iii. Technology privileges such as continued email and campus wireless access.
      iv. Access to campus recreation activities and MWC memberships at special rates set by Campus Recreation
      v. Complimentary entrance University Theater productions.
      vi. Complimentary entrance to UW-Superior Music concerts.
      vii. Complimentary entrance to regular season Athletic events.
      viii. Emeriti may apply for parking permits on the same basis as currently employed faculty or staff. Permits for unreserved areas shall be available at no cost or at a reduced rate (determined by Parking Services)
      ix. Listing with the faculty, academic or University Staff in catalogs and in the university directory
      x. Invitation to participate in public ceremonies such as commencements, academic processions, and other ceremonies as appropriate

6. CHANGES TO THIS POLICY
   a. Any changes being proposed to this policy must be forwarded to and approved by each of the governance bodies (faculty, academic staff, and University Staff) before changes can go into effect.

Assessment

UW-Superior is committed to assessing student learning for accreditation compliance and continuing improvement of teaching and learning. Assessment is based on three Student Learning Goals established in 2014:

1. Communication
2. Individual and Social Responsibility
3. Creative and Critical Thinking

See full explanation of Goals at www.uwsuper.edu/assessment.

The University engages in several best practices for assessment, including: outcomes-based learning, direct assessment of student work by faculty/staff, and the participation of faculty and staff. All Faculty and staff participate in the assessment of student learning in three educational contexts:

1. Academic Program (majors and minors)
2. University Studies
3. Co-Curricular Units such as Student Affairs

Academic Program Assessment

Assessment of student learning takes place annually in each academic department/program. Faculty and instructional staff are themselves responsible for assessing their students' learning, analyzing the results, and making changes to the curriculum if deemed necessary. Academic programs may simultaneously assess a UW-Superior Student Learning Goal and a specialized program goal. Mainly, assessment in academic programs occurs during students' Senior Capstones.

University Studies Assessment

The University Studies curriculum also delivers the Student Learning Goals, and the categories within the program are assessed annually by the instructors who teach in the relevant category. The University Studies committee also approves and reviews course materials to ensure they meet the criteria for inclusion and participation in assessment.

Co-Curricular Assessment

Campus-wide, various units support student learning outside of the classroom, through student employment, programming, and events. These units also deliver the Student Learning Goals and have begun using surveys to understand their impact on students' learning.
Education Options

- Programs leading to a degree
- Academic outreach programs and other learning programs
- Pre-college programs

Programs leading to a degree

UW-Superior offers many options to accommodate the education needs of traditional and nontraditional students.

Undergraduate (Bachelor's Degree): Academic programs of at least 120 semester credits leading to a Bachelor's Degree.

Online Learning: Selected academic programs offered through a flexible program of study that does not require on-campus class attendance. Distance Learning students complete academic work through online and other communication technologies.

Graduate Studies: Academic programs leading to a Master of Arts, Master of Science in Education or Specialist in Education degree.

Associate Degree: A 60-semester-credit program leading to an Associate Degree.

Academic outreach programs and other learning programs

Continuing Education/Extension: Credit and noncredit classes and workshops for people seeking continuing professional education and lifelong learning.

Online Learning: Complete a bachelor's degree from home through the Online Learning or enroll in individual online courses.

Special Adult Students: Anyone taking courses at UW-Superior but not seeking a degree.

Pre-college programs

Youth Options

The Youth Options program enables high school juniors and seniors to enroll in one or more courses at an institution of higher education in Wisconsin.

School districts are required to pay the cost of tuition, books and fees and to determine whether the course satisfies state graduation and high school credit requirements.

For more information, see the Admissions section of this catalog or contact the UW-Superior Admissions Office at 715-394-8230 or admissions@uwsuper.edu.

Upward Bound

UW-Superior offers the Upward Bound program for eligible students attending Superior High School who face challenges in pursuing higher education without additional support.

During the academic year, students receive tutoring, counseling and study skills training to help them improve their grades and self-confidence. They also visit college campuses, attend plays, concerts and lectures; and build relationships through social, recreational and cultural activities.

During the summer Upward Bound students participate in a six-week residency program on the UW-Superior campus.
Force of Publication

The statements set forth in this catalog are for informational purposes only and should not be construed as the basis of a contract between a student and this institution.

While the provisions of this catalog will ordinarily be applied as stated, UW-Superior reserves the right to change any provision listed in this catalog, including but not limited to academic requirements for graduation and schedules for course offerings without actual notice to individual students.

Every effort will be made to keep students advised of any such changes. Information on changes will be made available in the Office of the Chancellor, academic departments, Registrar’s Office and Admissions Office.

It is especially important that students note it is their responsibility to keep themselves apprised of current graduation requirements for their particular degree program. Degree Progress Reports are available electronically through the E-Hive to help students stay current with degree/major/minor requirements.

This catalog is prepared to enable prospective and enrolled students, and others, to learn about the University of Wisconsin-Superior. It is also intended to explain policies, requirements, regulations and procedures in a manner that will help the student progress through the university. Faculty, advisors and staff at the University of Wisconsin-Superior will provide assistance, but ultimately the responsibility for compliance rests with the student.

Curriculum Changes

The new knowledge continually emerging in the field of education, changing concepts in the presentation of this knowledge and consideration of certification requirements may necessitate certain changes in the curriculum of a given department. However, when such changes are anticipated or made after careful review and evaluation, full consideration will have been given to the impact these changes might have on the student's overall academic program during her or his period of matriculation. Consideration will also be given to the impact of any changes on the faculty and the institution as a whole.

The policies and procedures in the undergraduate sections of the catalog apply to graduate students unless explicitly stated otherwise in the graduate section of the catalog.
History of UW-Superior

UW-Superior traces its roots to 1893, when state legislators established Superior Normal School to train teachers. The institution grew steadily, becoming Superior State Teachers College in 1926 and granting its first bachelor's degree. Graduate programs were added following World War II. In 1951, the Board of Regents changed the institution's name to Wisconsin State College-Superior.

The college assumed university status in 1964. In 1971 it became part of the University of Wisconsin System and assumed its present name. In 1998, UW-Superior was designated Wisconsin's Public Liberal Arts College by the University of Wisconsin System Board of Regents.

UW-Superior's enrollment is approximately 2,600 students. Most come from cities throughout Wisconsin and Minnesota, but the campus community also includes students from many other states as well as countries around the world. They enjoy a student-to-faculty ratio of approximately 16:1 and the opportunity to work closely with faculty who are leaders in their fields.

Along with traditional campus programs, UW-Superior offers a variety of learning programs to meet the varied needs of people in Wisconsin and around the country. Flexible and affordable online learning options enable people to complete a bachelor's or master's degree from their homes. The Center for Continuing Education offers a wide array of courses and certificate programs that make university expertise available to people throughout the region.
Welcome to UW-Superior

The General Catalog 2017-2019 describes the university’s undergraduate and graduate academic programs, courses and procedures. It provides information you need to apply for admission, financial aid and campus housing, pay tuition and fees, and take full advantage of the student services we provide.

Our Mission

The University of Wisconsin-Superior fosters intellectual growth and career preparation within a liberal arts tradition that emphasizes individual attention, embodies respect for diverse cultures and multiple voices, and engages the community and region. To accomplish these ends, the university will:

1. Provide students with a carefully articulated and comprehensive foundation in liberal studies as a base for all degree programs.
2. Award associate and baccalaureate degrees in selected fields in education, arts, humanities, sciences, social sciences, business, and pre-professional programs.
3. Offer graduate programs in areas associated with its undergraduate emphases and strengths.
4. Extend its undergraduate and graduate resources beyond the boundaries of the campus through alternative delivery of programs.
5. Expect scholarly activity, including research, scholarship and creative endeavor, that supports its programs at the associate and baccalaureate degree levels, its selected graduate programs, and its special mission.
6. Maintain an inclusive campus community that challenges students to develop their intellectual, personal, cultural, and social competencies.
7. Engage in appropriate inter-institutional relationships and community partnerships to enhance educational and service opportunities.
8. Foster, with the University of Wisconsin-Extension, the development of cooperative and general outreach programming and the integration of the Extension function with that of this institution.

Arrange a Campus Visit

If you're considering applying to UW-Superior, we urge you to visit us. An admissions counselor will meet with you and your family to answer all your questions. You can learn more about financial aid, tour campus, talk to current students, sit in on a class, talk to professors, or meet with an athletic coach.

To arrange a guided campus visit, contact our Admissions Office by calling 715-394-8230 or by e-mailing admissions@uwsuper.edu. Additional admissions information for undergraduate and graduate students is available online at www.uwsuper.edu/admissions.

Our University

The University of Wisconsin-Superior helps students attain the knowledge, skills and experiences to succeed in their careers and beyond. We do that by focusing on our strengths: small classes, world-class research facilities, renowned performing arts centers, one-on-one contact with professors, an emphasis on active learning, and a supportive environment. The university is one of 13 comprehensive universities in the University of Wisconsin System and it shares in the UW System mission. UW-Superior is designated Wisconsin’s Public Liberal Arts College by the University of Wisconsin System’s Board of Regents and is a member of the Council of Public Liberal Arts Colleges.

Our Community

Superior offers the convenience of city living and the year-round recreational opportunities of the Northland.

Situated in the northwest corner of Wisconsin, Superior overlooks the western tip of Lake Superior. This historic city of 27,000 remains an important Great Lakes port and transportation hub while also providing jobs in manufacturing, retail and education. The city combines with neighboring Duluth, Minnesota, to provide a rich metro setting with live entertainment and shopping as well as numerous opportunities for internships and careers.

The city is located just five minutes from Duluth and Lake Superior, and just a short drive from fishing, hiking, skiing, biking and other outdoor activities.
Governance, Accreditation and Approved Programs, Laws

- Accreditations
- Laws
- UW System
The University of Wisconsin - Superior is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC), one of six regional accreditation organizations recognized by the United States Department of Education and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation.

Being accredited by the HLC is a sign of quality to the general public that also allows the university to receive student aid and scholarship money. UW-Superior has been accredited continuously since 1916.

Accreditation by the HLC and by other nationally recognized agencies assurance to the public, in particular to prospective students, that an institution has been found to meet the agency's clearly stated requirements and criteria and that there are reasonable grounds for believing that it will continue to meet them. Individual academic programs and departments are accredited or approved, as noted in respective sections of this catalog by:

- Association of Small Business Development Centers
- Council on Social Work Education -- Social Work
- National Association of Schools of Music -- Music
- Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction: Educator Preparation (Teacher, Administrator, Pupil Services) -- Teacher Education
Equal Opportunities in Education

University of Wisconsin-Superior is an equal opportunity educator in accordance with Wisconsin statute 36.12 governing the University of Wisconsin System, which states: “No student may be denied admission to, participation in or the benefits of or be discriminated against in any service, program, course or facility of the system or its institutions or centers because of the student's race, color, creed, religion, sex, national origin, disability, ancestry, age, sexual orientation, pregnancy marital status or parental status.” (89-90 Wis. Stats). The statute further states that if there is a complaint against the institution alleging student discrimination, the complainant must file the complaint with the institution within 300 days of the alleged violation.

The University offers classroom instruction and educational services in compliance with federal legislation including Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, and the Civil Rights Restoration Act of 1987.

The University seeks to maintain a positive educational environment and regards sexual harassment of any student by other students or members of the faculty or staff as unacceptable behavior as defined in the Sexual Harassment Policy approved by the University of Wisconsin System Board of Regents on May 8, 1981.

Complaints regarding alleged discrimination or harassment should be addressed to the Director of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion, Old Main Room 208, 715-394-8015 or via email. The initial contact is confidential and may be limited to requests for information about discrimination/sexual harassment policies and procedures, discussion of existing situations and/or options for resolving complaints. These options include resolutions by mutual consent or by filing a written complaint.

Use and Disclosure of Social Security Number

Federal law allows the UW System to request and use the Social Security number (20 U.S.C., Section 1232g).

Disclosure of that social security number is voluntary. Applications received without it will be processed, and another form of student identifier number will be assigned. However, failure to provide the social security number may result in denial of services or benefits.

Authorization to Enroll International Students

In compliance with the Immigration and Nationality Act (P.L. 87-195), UW-Superior publishes the following statement: “This school is authorized under federal law to enroll non-immigrant alien students.”

Consumer Information

Information required under the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, Title IV parts 668, 674, 675, 676, 682, 690, and 692 regarding, but not limited to, eligibility and criteria for receiving and availability of financial aid, rights and responsibilities of those receiving financial aid, standards of progress, terms of payment, repayment schedules for those receiving financial aid, conditions of employment related to financial aid, total educational costs of attending UW-Superior and refund policies can be obtained from the Financial Aid Office, Old Main 110, 715-394-8220 or finaid@uwsuper.edu.

UW-Superior veteran enrollment requirements and standards of progress information are available from the Registrar's Office, Old Main Room 139, 715-394-8228 or registrar@uwsuper.edu.

The University is required through state statute (Assembly Bill 431) to share statistics with current students concerning crimes on campus and reported campus incidents of sexual assault and date rape. As required by law, this information is distributed annually to students through the UW-Superior website. In addition, federal laws, Student Right to Know Law and the “Campus Security Act” requires the university to inform prospective as well as current students of similar crime statistics and information on student graduation rates. This information is distributed annually to students through the UW System Introduction and UW-Superior website.

The University is required to provide annually to every student and employee information concerning the university's policies on illicit drugs and alcohol. In compliance with the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act amendments of 1989, UW-Superior publishes and distributes this information annually. Additional information is available on the university's website or may be obtained from the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Campus Life/Dean of Students at the Yellowjacket Union, 715-394-8241 or campuslife@uwsuper.edu.
Privacy of Records

The University ensures students access to their official University records and maintains the confidentiality of personally identifiable information in accord with federal law. The university's privacy policy implementing the requirements of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is available at www.uwsuper.edu/registrar.

Program Integrity

Pursuant to the United States Department of Education's Program Integrity Rule, an individual may file a complaint against any of University of Wisconsin System's public institutions alleging a violation of one or more of the following categories with the University of Wisconsin System Administration ("UWSA").

- Complaints that allege a violation of state consumer protection laws that include but are not limited to fraud and false advertising;
- Complaints that allege a violation of state law or rule relating to the licensure of post secondary institutions; and/or
- Complaints relating to the quality of education or other State or accreditation requirements.

Under the UWSA policies and procedures, an individual should utilize the institution's internal complaint or review policies and procedures through the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Campus Life/Dean of Students at the Yellowjacket Union, 715-394-8241 or campuslife@uwsuper.edu, prior to contacting the UWSA. If a resolution is not reached at the institution level, or if you believe that the nature of the complaint or its impact on the system as a whole warrants an immediate review by the University of Wisconsin System Administration, please contact the University of Wisconsin System Administration - Office of Academic, Faculty and Global Programs (AFGP) afgp@uwsa.edu or call 608-262-5862.

The university is required to provide all prospective and current students with the contact information of the state agency or agencies that handle complaints against post secondary education institutions offering distance learning or correspondence education within that state. Students are encouraged to utilize the institution's internal complaint or review policies and procedures through the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Campus Life/Dean of Students at the Yellowjacket Union, 715-394-8241 or campuslife@uwsuper.edu, prior to filing a complaint with the state agency or agencies. A list of contacts from each state in which a student may file a complaint is available at http://www.sheeo.org.
The mission of the University of Wisconsin System is to develop human resources, to discover and disseminate knowledge, to extend knowledge and its application beyond the boundaries of its campuses, and to serve and stimulate society by developing in students heightened intellectual, cultural, and humane sensitivities; scientific, professional, and technological expertise; and a sense of value and purpose. Inherent in this mission are methods of instruction, research, extended education, and public service designed to educate people and improve the human condition. Basic to every purpose of the system is the search for truth.

Mission Statement

The Admissions Office strives to attract qualified students who can contribute to the vibrancy of the campus and to engage the campus community in the recruitment of students.

Admission to UW-Superior

The University of Wisconsin-Superior welcomes all students who meet entrance standards. UW-Superior strives to create a campus community that reflects the diversity of our country. We encourage students of color and others from traditionally underrepresented groups to consider joining us. Students are admitted without regard to race, color, creed, disability, ancestry, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, pregnancy, marital or parental status, national origin, sex or religion. Discrimination on the basis of any of these categories will not be tolerated.

Students planning to apply for admission should do so early in their senior year of high school. Nontraditional students and transfer students should apply well in advance of the semester they wish to begin at UW-Superior. Priority deadlines are April 1 for fall and December 1 for spring. Complete information and the necessary application forms may be obtained online at www.uwsuper.edu/admissions or by contacting the Admissions Office.

Apply online

Apply online at http://apply.wisconsin.edu. UW System Applications for fall will be accepted starting September 1 and processing of the applications will begin September 15.

Visit our campus

We encourage prospective students to visit our campus.

Admissions categories

Admissions requirements vary for different types of students. Find the category that describes you, and then use the admissions information under that category in this portion of the catalog.

Freshmen: Graduates of high schools in the United States or those who have received a GED or HSED who have not attended another university, technical college or other school after high school. Students who have earned college credits while in high school are considered Freshmen.

Transfer or Advanced Standing Students: Students transferring from accredited universities or colleges with 12 or more credits. Applicants with fewer than 12 transferable credits must meet the freshmen requirements.

Distance Learning: Students seeking to earn a degree through an online program of study.

International Students: Anyone seeking to enroll as a freshman or transfer student who is not a citizen or immigrant (permanent resident) of the United States.

Special Students: Anyone taking courses who does not wish to earn a degree. Special students are not eligible for financial aid.

Special Students Auditing a Course: Anyone who wished to enroll in a class and not receive credit or a grade. Auditing students are expected to attend class.
Admissions Requirements

Applicants must satisfy the following minimum requirements to be considered for admission:

I. Graduation from a recognized high school or equivalent

- A recognized high school is one which is:
  1. Operated by a public school district.
  2. A private school accredited by an association certified by the U.S. Department of Education to accredit private schools, and whose names appear in the Federal Register as an accreditation association.
  3. A private school that's not accredited but which may be recognized by an institution in the University of Wisconsin System, based on the performance of previously admitted graduates from that high school.
- An applicant who has not graduated from a recognized high school must provide evidence of ability to begin college work. Such evidence may include General Education Development test scores or a high school equivalency examination. Home-school students will be considered for admission based on a complete review of their curriculum, test scores and other evidence that can be used to demonstrate their preparedness for college-level work. Other applicants who have not graduated from a recognized high school must provide evidence of ability to begin college work. Such evidence may include General Education Development (GED) test scores or a high school equivalency examination (HSED).

II. College preparatory credits

Applicants must have taken a minimum of 17 high school credits in the following pattern.

- 4 - English: including three credits of literature and composition
- 3 - Mathematics: algebra, geometry and higher
- 3 - Social Science/History
- 3 - Natural Science
- 4 - Other Electives: Chosen from the above areas, foreign language, fine arts, computer science and other academic and vocational areas.

Students admitted on the basis of an equivalency certificate diploma or GED examination shall be considered to have fulfilled these minimum requirements.

III. Evaluation criteria

UW-Superior Freshman Admission

The University of Wisconsin-Superior fosters intellectual growth and career preparation within a liberal arts tradition that emphasizes individual attention and embodies respect for diversity and multiple voices.

The University of Wisconsin-Superior strives to create a campus community that reflects the diversity of our world.

Admission to the University of Wisconsin-Superior will be determined by a comprehensive review of academic and non-academic factors.

Academic factors include the challenge of the high school curriculum, cumulative grade point average (GPA), high school class rank, and standardized test scores. (The applicant must submit ACT or SAT scores if under the age of 20).

Home-school students will be considered for admission based on a complete review of their curriculum, test scores and other evidence that can be used to demonstrate their preparedness for college-level work. Non-academic factors include, but are not limited, to such things as leadership, community service, unique talents, and other personal characteristics that contribute to the diversity of the University.

Special consideration will be given to service veterans with at least 180 days of active duty.

Special consideration will be given to non-traditional age applicants 20 years of age or older.

IV. Other considerations

A. Special consideration will be given to applicants who:
   1. Are educationally or economically disadvantaged.
   2. Achieve a GED total score of 2500 points

B. Requirements for out-of-state students will be the same as those for Wisconsin residents. Additional admission criteria will be required of international students.

Application and Enrollment Procedures

Students applying to enter the university as freshmen should submit the following to the Admissions Office beginning September 1. Contact the Admissions Office for application deadlines. Early application is recommended due to enrollment limitations with priority consideration given to those who apply before April 1st for fall and December 15th for spring.

The Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System | 554 of 607
1. A completed UW System application for admission, which can be found online at www.uwsuper.edu/admissions
2. A $50 nonrefundable application fee payable to UW-Superior.
3. An official transcript of all high school credit completed. Students who have not graduated at the time of application will also need to arrange to have the high school forward a final transcript upon high school graduation. A transcript is only considered official if received in a sealed envelope directly from the high school, faxed from the high school or sent electronically directly to UW-Superior.
4. Official scores from the American College Test (ACT) or from the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT). Submission of the ACT/SAT results is optional for applicants age 20 or older. Scores will be considered official if on a high school transcript or sent directly from ACT or SAT.
5. Applicants who wish to be admitted on the basis of high school equivalency must submit official documents such as the Certificate of General Education Development (GED) or other appropriate certificate. Include and unofficial transcript of GED scores.
6. Admitted students who wish to enroll must pay a $100 enrollment deposit, as described in their letter of admission. This deposit will be applied to the costs of the first semester of attendance.
7. Results of the Wisconsin Mathematics Placement Test must be submitted before enrolling. Students who have not submitted ACT or SAT scores and have not completed Writing 101 also need to take the Wisconsin English Placement Test. These tests usually offered in April and May. Most [NAMEUWSYSTEM] institutions are test sites. The Admissions Office will inform admitted students when and where they may take these tests. View more information regarding placement exams.
8. Upon completion of admission steps, students will receive an invitation to select a SOAR (Summer Orientation, Advising, and Registration) date for class registration. SOAR attendance is considered required for all new entering freshman level students. For more information about the SOAR program, please contact Admissions Office.

Transfer or Advanced Standing Students

Admissions Requirements

Students transferring to UW-Superior from accredited college parallel programs, colleges or universities with 12 or more earned credits and a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 (C) or better will usually be admitted in good standing. Some academic majors require higher grade point averages to be admitted into their programs.

Transfer applicants with 12 or more credits with less than a 2.0 average may be admitted on probation if their previous collegiate record meets the requirement of Standards for Academic Good Standing at UW-Superior and if they would have originally qualified for admission as freshmen at UW-Superior. If the transfer applicant has not already earned an Associate Degree or Bachelor's Degree at another college or university, then an official high school transcript needs to be submitted to the Admissions Office.

Meeting University Studies requirements

The UW-Superior lower-division University Studies requirements are considered satisfied for those students who have earned an associate of arts degree from a UW System institution or from any of the Minnesota State Colleges and University (MNSCU) Community Colleges.

Students who earn Associate of Art or Associate of Science degrees from many community colleges in neighboring states may also be considered to have satisfied the UW-Superior lower-division University Studies requirements. Students should contact the Admissions Office or their community college transfer advisor for more information regarding articulation agreements which list specific courses which must be taken within the degree. (Note: Associate of Applied Science degrees does not meet the requirement.)

UW-Superior also offers program-to-program articulation agreements for students who have graduated from many programs within the Wisconsin Technical College System, UW Colleges and the MNSCU system.

View information regarding articulation agreements.

Credit for Military Training

Credit may be awarded for military experience or military school training. Depending on the branch of the military, students are requested to supply their military services transcript to the transfer coordinator in the Admissions Office to have the credit recommended by the American Council on Education be given for training to the student record.

Selecting a Catalog of Entry

Transfer students may select the pertinent catalog of entry at UW-Superior which corresponds with the start of the academic year at their previous institution. The maximum time between a catalog of entry and a catalog of exit is seven years.

Evaluating Credits

An official evaluation of credits will be made and forwarded to the transfer applicant when his or her application form, application fee, and all transcripts have been received by the Office of Admissions and the student has been admitted to the University. Transfer analysis will be based only on official transcripts received directly from the transfer institution, not from student copies. A maximum of 72 semester credits may be transferred to UW-Superior from any one or combination of two-year colleges.

Credits with a grade of D- or better earned at accredited college parallel programs, colleges, or universities will transfer except in freshman English, WRIT 101 and WRIT 102 which need to be a C- or better.

Elementary Education majors and teacher certification students must earn a minimum of C in COMM 110 and HHP 102.

Application and Enrollment Procedures

Students applying for admission as transfer students must complete the following:

1. Complete the [NAMEONMLY:UWSYSTEM] application for admission available online.
2. Submit $50 nonrefundable fee payable to UW-Superior. (This fee is waived if the applicant is transferring directly from a two-year UW College as a degree-seeking student).
3. Submit official transcripts from each college or university previously attended. A transcript is only considered official if received in a sealed envelope from the school or sent electronically directly to UW-Superior from a school official.
4. Submit official high school transcripts if the applicant has not already earned an Associate Degree or Bachelor's Degree at another college or university.
5. Admitted students who wish to enroll must pay a $100 enrollment deposit, as described in their letter of admission. This deposit will be applied to the costs of the first semester of attendance.
6. Upon receipt of enrollment deposit, students will receive an invitation via email to complete an online transfer orientation program. This required step contains information regarding student policies, advising, and university resources.

The Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System | 555 of 607
Distance Learning

The Distance Learning admission follows the same comprehensive process used for other UW-Superior admissions categories. Students who have completed high school within the past five years must meet UW-Superior freshmen or transfer admission requirements, as appropriate. Applications by those more than five years beyond high school will be reviewed with greater consideration of non-academic factors. These latter applicants are encouraged to use the application essay to explain special circumstances or personal changes since previous academic work, as well as plans to ensure success in the intended program.

International students may be admitted on an individual basis, and must meet the UW-Superior International Student admissions requirements. Youth Options students must meet the UW-Superior Youth Options admissions requirements. Non-degree seeking students must meet the UW-Superior Special Students admissions requirements.

All students must have regular access to broadband Internet service for online study.

International Students (Undergraduate)

Application Procedures and Requirements

UW-Superior welcomes qualified students from other countries. The Office of International Programs is responsible for the admission of undergraduate international students. International applicants are encouraged to refer to the undergraduate international admissions website, www.uwsuper.edu/admissions/international for updated information about the application process, requirements, costs, financial assistance and related information.

Undergraduate international applicants may apply to enroll as degree-seeking freshmen or transfer (advanced standing) students. Undergraduate international students who wish to enroll through a UW-Superior-affiliated international program may apply as Special Students.

International students who wish to enroll in undergraduate courses must submit the following:

1. A completed undergraduate student application and appropriate application fee.
2. Official academic records for secondary and all post-secondary education. Official records must be submitted in their native language and must be accompanied by an official English translation. Official records should be sent to the UW-Superior Office of International Programs directly from the institution or examining board.
3. Verification of English language proficiency (non-native English speaking students only). The requirement will be considered satisfied by any of the following: 1) a TOEFL score of 61 iBT (Internet-Based Test) or 500 PBT (Paper-Based Test), 2) an IELTS (International English Language Testing System) score of 5.5 or higher, or 3) successful completion of English 101 at an accredited U.S. college or university. See English as a Second Language section for related information and requirements.
4. SAT or ACT score report. Native English speakers under age 20 must submit an SAT score or an ACT score. Non-native English speakers and native English speakers 20 or older are encouraged to submit SAT or ACT exam results if available.
5. Documentation of sufficient financial support to live and study full-time at [NAMESCHOOLNAME]. Financial verification is required before the university will issue the U.S. government form, Form I-20, necessary to obtain an F-1 student visa or to transfer from another U.S. institution.

Freshmen and transfer students who have not taken a mathematics or English course at an accredited U.S. institution are required to take the UW-Superior math placement test and English or ESL placement test, as appropriate, before enrollment or as early as possible during the first semester. The English placement test may not be required if an ACT or SAT score is submitted.

Admitted international students who wish to enroll must pay an enrollment deposit, as described in their letter of admission. This deposit will be applied to the costs of the first semester of attendance.

Conditional Admission for Non-Native English Speaking Students

International students who meet all requirements for undergraduate admission except for English proficiency may apply for conditional admission. Conditionally admitted students attend an intensive English language school until they have met the UW-Superior English proficiency requirement. Students who wish to apply for conditional admission must submit the items indicated above, except verification of English proficiency, and the application materials required by the intensive English language school they choose to attend. Conditionally admitted students will be eligible for standard admission to UW-Superior after they have submitted proof of English proficiency and updated documentation, which must be received at least three weeks prior to the start of the semester.

English as a Second Language (ESL) Requirements

ESL Placement Exam

Non-Native English-speaking students who submit English proficiency scores in the following ranges are required to take the UW-Superior ESL placement test prior to the beginning of their first semester.

TOEFL iBT: 61-81
TOEFL PBT: 500-550
IELTS: 5.5-6.0

International students whose score falls above these ranges, or who score at least 450 on the SAT critical reading section or at least 18 on the ACT English section, are required to take the UW English Placement Test (EPT) prior to their first semester.

Four ESL courses are offered at UW-Superior: ESL 090 (2 credits), ESL 091 (3 credits), ESL 092 (3 credits) and ESL 093 (2 credits). Credits for these courses, the credits for which do not count toward graduation. Students are placed into appropriate ESL course(s) based on their ESL placement test results.

Within 3 business days of the completion of online orientation, a transfer student will receive their academic advisor assignment via email. Students can contact their advisor at that time to schedule their registration appointment.
who are required to ESL also take one or more appropriate undergraduate credit-bearing courses during their first semester.

Transition from ESL 092 to WRIT 099, 101 or 102:

Students who are required to take ESL 092, Writing for Academic Purposes, are required to take an appropriate English writing course, WRIT 099, WRIT 101 or WRIT 102, the following semester. In the latter half of the semester, ESL 092 students are given the following assignments as part of the ESL 092 course: 1) a 30- to 40-minute timed writing assignment and 2) a multi-draft, two- to three- page essay assignment. The ESL 092 instructor forwards scanned copies of the students' work to the Composition Coordinator two weeks prior to the last day of classes. Determinations regarding placement into WRIT 099, 101 or 102 are made based on the assessment of these writing assignments, not the UW EPT. The Composition Coordinator is responsible for overseeing these determinations and notifying students by the final day of classes.

Special Students

Admission Requirements

Special Students (Non-degree seeking) may take university courses without being admitted as degree-seeking students. This is useful for high school students starting early on college coursework and adults seeking specific credits to advance their careers, earn teacher certification, or gain personal enrichment.

To be admitted as a Special Student, an applicant must be a current high school junior or senior, a high school graduate, or the holder of a GED.

Special students should be aware that they:

1. In most instances, cannot qualify for financial aid.
2. Cannot compete in intercollegiate athletics.
3. Can only earn up to 29 semester credits under this classification.
4. Can apply appropriate credits earned toward a degree.
5. Pay the same tuition and fees as a degree-seeking student.
6. Admitted students who wish to enroll must pay a $100 enrollment deposit, as described in their letter of admission. This deposit will be applied to the costs of the first semester of attendance.

Application Procedures

High school students must complete a UW System application available online at www.uwsuper.edu/admissions and submit a high school transcript and a letter of recommendation from their high school counselor or principal to the Admissions Office.

Other applicants seeking to enroll as a special adult student must complete the UW System special (non-degree seeking) application available online at www.uwsuper.edu/admissions. There is no application fee.

Changing From Special to Degree-Seeking Status

Students who enter the university as a Special Student may remain in that classification until they earn a maximum of 29 semester credits. If they choose to become degree-seeking students or they reach the maximum 29 credits they must:

Special students who elected to enter the institution as non degree-seeking students but who would have met the admissions criteria may be changed to degree-seeking upon completion of items below.

1. A completed UW System application for admission as a degree seeking student which is available online at www.uwsuper.edu/admissions.
2. Pay the $50 admission fee.
3. Have earned a 2.0 grade point average or higher as a special student at UW-Superior.
4. Submit an official high school transcript or GED scores to the Admissions Office.
5. If attended college elsewhere, submit official transcripts from each college or university previously attended to the Admissions Office.
6. A transcript is only considered official if received in sealed envelope from the school, faxed directly from the school or sent electronically directly to UW-Superior.
7. If students are under 20 years of age at the time they convert, they must submit official ACT or SAT test score to the Admissions Office.
8. Undergo a comprehensive admission review

Special students who did not meet the university’s admission criteria when they initially applied must successfully earn a minimum of 12 credits at UW-Superior (excluding credits in courses below the 100 level) in good academic standing to be considered for admission as degree-seeking students. In addition, the credits must include one course from the core requirements and one course each from two knowledge categories identified in the general education requirements.

Special Auditing Students

Students may audit courses in which they will not receive credit nor a grade. Audited courses do not count toward a degree and cannot be converted to credit after the last day to add classes. A student's transcript will indicate "Aud" and students must indicate when registering that they wish to audit the class. Information regarding costs of auditing courses can be found online at www.uwsuper.edu/bursar/fees.

Application Procedures: Submit UW-Superior Adult Application and indicate wish to audit courses and include registration for the classes they wish to audit. Auditors who may who are eligible for Social Security Disability must provide the eligibility documentation to Educational Success Center.

Youth Options

The Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System | 557 of 607
Admissions Requirements

The Youth Options program enables Wisconsin high school juniors and seniors to enroll in one or more courses at an institution of higher education in Wisconsin. School districts are required to pay the cost of tuition, books and fees and to determine whether the course satisfies state graduation and high school credit requirements.

UW-Superior welcomes Youth Options students and will attempt to accommodate them if they meet admission requirements and if there is space available in the desired courses. School district approval as a Youth Option student will not guarantee admission to UW-Superior or enrollment in desired courses.

Application Procedures

To be considered for admission as a Youth Options student, applicants must submit to the Admissions Office the following:

1. A completed UW System application for admission which is available online at www.uwsuper.edu/admissions.
2. An official transcript of all high school credit completed as of the end of the prior semester. This transcript should indicate current class rank. A transcript is only considered official if received in a sealed envelope from the high school, faxed directly from the high school or sent electronically directly to UW-Superior.
3. Results of the ACT are desirable, but not mandatory.
4. A brief statement describing the student's reasons for enrolling in the Youth Options Program and a list of courses the student would like to take at UW-Superior.

Admission to UW-Superior as a Youth Options student is subject to course, program and institutional enrollment limits, and to admission requirements as authorized by the Board of Regents. Generally, a Youth Options student must be ranked in the upper half of his or her class to be considered for admission. Admission to UW-Superior as a Youth Options student will not guarantee availability of space in any desired course.

Youth Options applicants should be aware of the following:

1. Course enrollment priority will be given to UW-Superior's degree-seeking students.
2. If admitted to UW-Superior, the Admissions Office will inform Youth Options students the procedures for registering for classes. Before registering for university courses, Youth Options students must submit proof that the proposed coursework has been approved by the school administration.
3. It is the student's responsibility to make the appropriate arrangements to pay for tuition, fees and course materials. Tuition and fees shall be assessed according to institutional policies in regard to withdrawal, dropping a course, late fees, and refunds.
4. Youth Options students will be subject to UW-Superior codes of conduct and academic policies.
5. All coursework taken by Youth Options students will be recorded and transcripted as post-secondary credit. It is the responsibility of the student and the school board to determine whether the coursework may also satisfy high school credit requirements.
6. Course selection is dependent upon appropriate high school preparation, course prerequisites and, in some cases, consent of the instructor.

Advanced Admission for Selected High School Students

Admissions Requirements

Selected high school students who meet university requirements may be accepted to take courses for audit or credit. These students may pursue their university academic work during summer session or the regular academic year. High school juniors and seniors may be admitted and enrolled for credit if:

1. They submit a completed UW System application.
2. They rank in the upper half of their high school class.
3. There is room for them in the class.

Credits and grades will be averaged into the student's grade point average after one term of University attendance.

Application Procedures

High school students who meet the requirements for enrollment at the University prior to high school graduation may apply by submitting the following:

1. Students who want to earn college credit must submit:
   - A completed [NAMEONLY:UWSYSTEM] application for admission which is available online at www.uwsuper.edu/admissions.
   - An official high school transcript. A transcript is only considered official if received in a sealed envelope from the high school, faxed directly from the high school, or sent electronically directly to UW-Superior.
   - Submission of either ACT or SAT test scores is recommended.
   - A letter of recommendation, on high school letterhead, from either the principal or counselor.
2. Students who wish to enroll as audit students (no college credit) must submit:
   - A completed UW System application for admission.
   - An official high school transcript. A transcript is only considered official if received in a sealed envelope from the high school, faxed directly from the high school, or sent electronically directly to UW-Superior.
   - Submission of ACT or SAT scores is recommended.
3. Admitted students who wish to enroll must pay a $100 enrollment deposit, as described in their letter of admission. This deposit will be applied to the costs of the first semester of attendance.

Advanced Placement

High School seniors who have completed college-level courses through the College Board's Advanced Placement Program may take the advanced placement examinations designed by the Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System | 558 of 607 examination administered by the Educational Testing Service and have their scores, test papers and reports sent to UW-Superior. The university has approved the granting of credit for Advanced Placement in a number of areas. Further information is available online at www.uwsuper.edu/admissions or by contacting the Admissions Office.

Project Lead the Way

High school students who have completed Project Lead the Way courses may be eligible for college credit.

Mission Statement

The Bursar/Cashier's Office provides a centralized, automated revenue receipting system that includes collection of payments for tuition, fees, books, room, board and miscellaneous charges, and acts as a deposit service for campus department revenue. The Bursar/Cashier's Office also distributes payroll checks, posts all financial aid loans, grants and scholarships, and disburses refunds. They are committed to satisfying their customer's needs to the best of our ability. They will respond to all requests with courtesy, accuracy, and prompt service.

Semester Costs

Undergraduate fees are set by the University of Wisconsin System Board of Regents and are subject to change without notice. The amount includes tuition and segregated fees. However, it does not include meals, housing, lab and material fees charged in some courses, or the miscellaneous fees listed elsewhere in this section of the catalog.

The fees listed below are for one semester, full-time undergraduate students. They are for comparison purposes only because we must prepare this catalog in advance. All tuition, fees and other charges are expected to change yearly. For current tuition and fee listings, please visit the Bursar/Cashier's Office.

Tuition and Fee Estimate for Fall Semester 2018

WI Resident: $4,044
Minnesota Resident: $4,294
Non-resident: $7,830

Online Courses

Tuition for online (Internet-based) classes during the 2015-16 academic year was $305 per undergraduate credit and $565 per graduate credit. Each class had a $60 administrative fee. Online classes are charged separately from "traditional" classes; therefore, they are not included in the 12-18 credit tuition plateau.

(For Example: in the 2016-17 academic year, an undergraduate student with Wisconsin residency enrolled for 12 on-campus credits and 3 online credits would be charged $4018.43 for the on-campus credits plus an additional $915 for the online credits plus the $60 administrative fee for the online credits).

For current semester costs, prospective students should refer to the Fee Schedule, Payment Information and Due Dates available on the Bursar/Cashier's Office.

Residency Status

Wisconsin requires payment of nonresident tuition by students who are residents of states other than Wisconsin. For undergraduate students, residency status is determined at the time of admission. Residency status of graduate students is determined during the admission process in the Graduate Studies program.
A student's original resident status remains in effect unless the student requests and is granted reclassification. To learn more about residency and reclassification, see the Registrar's Office section of this catalog.

Minnesota Students

The Minnesota-Wisconsin Reciprocity Agreement enables Minnesota residents attending UW-Superior to pay the same tuition rate they would pay at a similar state institution in Minnesota. This offers a substantial savings over the nonresident fee.

To take part in this program, Minnesota students must file for and receive reciprocity before the end of their first semester of enrollment. We recommend students file for reciprocity before the semester starts or as early as possible. It is the student's responsibility to apply for reciprocity. Failure to apply for and receive reciprocity will cause the student to be liable for paying nonresident tuition and fees.

The Minnesota Higher Education Services Office requests that students apply for Minnesota Reciprocity online from any internet access computer at: http://www.ohe.state.mn.us.

Questions about eligibility, the application process, or technical assistance should be directed to the Minnesota Education Services Office at 800-657-3866.

Fees

Auditing Classes Credit Fee Policy

1. Wisconsin residents age 60 or older (as of the first day of classes) will not pay tuition. All other senior citizens will pay a percentage of the per-credit fee based on residency (see #6 below).
2. Disabled Wisconsin residents who are receiving disability benefits under either Supplemental Security Income (SSI) program or federal Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) program will not pay tuition.
3. Students taking courses for credit who are also auditing a course will pay full fees, just as if all courses were for credit. For example, a student who is taking two three-credit courses for credit and auditing another three-credit course will pay the fees for nine credits, including segregated fees.
4. Audit-only students have the option to pay segregated fees if access to segregated fee-funded services is desired. If segregated fees are not paid, access for audit-only students is limited to the library and non-segregated fee-funded activities of the student union.
5. All auditing students will be charged lab fees.
6. Audit-only students will pay a percentage of the per-credit fee based on residency:
   - Wisconsin residents under age 60 pay 30 percent of incidental fees (rounded).
   - Nonresidents pay 50 percent of incidental fees and nonresident tuition (rounded).
   - Minnesota residents pay 30 percent of incidental fees and reciprocity fee (rounded). Minnesota residents must apply for and receive reciprocity from the State of Minnesota. If they do not receive reciprocity, they will be considered the same as nonresidents and will pay according to that schedule.

Lab Fees

Lab fees and where they must be paid are listed in the [NAME:CLASSSCHEDULE]. Some lab fees are added to the student's academic fee bill and are payable at the Bursar/Cashier's Office. Other lab fees require payment at the first class meeting and are paid directly to the vendor conducting the class.

Miscellaneous Fees

- Add Fee - A $20 fee must accompany any late add that occurs during the last week of classes or thereafter.
- Admission Fee - A $44 fee must accompany each application for admission to an undergraduate program. A $56 must accompany each application for admission to a graduate program.
- Senior Fee - A $50 senior fee will be assessed to all degree-seeking undergraduates who are senior status (84 or more credits). This fee is assessed one time per student, per degree.
- Graduation Fee - A $50 graduation fee will be assessed to all degree-seeking graduates once 22 graduate-level credits have been earned. This fee is assessed one time per student, per degree.
- Parking Permit - A parking permit is required to park in university lots. Permits may be purchased at Parking Services located at Catlin Avenue and Belknap Street.
- Drop Fee - A drop fee of $20 will be assessed for each transaction (independent of number of credits) processed after the second week of classes.
- Withdrawal Fee - A withdrawal fee of $50 will be charged to students who withdraw after the semester begins and during the refund period. Students who are de-registered for nonpayment after the semester begins also will be charged $50.
- Re-registration Fee - A $25 re-registration fee will be charged to all students who are de-registered for nonpayment, petition for re-admittance, and are allowed back into classes.
- Late Payments Fees - A $75 late payment fee will be charged if the required down payment is not made by the end of the first week of school. This will be pro-rated for part-time students.
- New Student Orientation Fee - An orientation fee will be assessed to all new freshmen and transfer students.

All fees are subject to change.

Paying Fees
Current information should be obtained by referring to the Fee Schedule and Payment Information and Due Dates published each semester at www.uwsuper.edu/bursar. A Schedule of Student Fees is also available in the Bursar/Cashier's Office, Old Main, Room 136, before each semester begins.

Payment Location

Fees can be paid at the Bursar/Cashier's Office, Old Main, Room 136. Fees can also be paid by mail or dropped in the Night Depository slot outside Old Main, Room 136.

Deadline

The exact due dates can be found in the Fee Payment Information published each semester. Failure to comply with these due dates may cause registration to be canceled. This includes students receiving financial aid.

Financial aid may be used to meet the minimum payment due as long as financial aid recipients have completed all necessary requirements to have the aid disbursed by the payment deadline.

Billing and Payment

The university has adopted electronic billing, therefore, no billing statements will be mailed to students. Billing statements for Fall Semester will be available for viewing or printing through the My E-Hive portal at www.uwsuper.edu on or shortly after August 1 and for Spring Semester after January 1. Students unable to access the My E-Hive portal should contact the Technology Help Desk at 715-394-8300 or 1-800-806-2890 for login and password assistance. The Bursar/Cashier's Office will send an e-mail reminder to all registered students' university e-mail accounts informing them to view their bills prior to the payment due date. Failure to access bills online will not excuse any payment due dates or late payment fees.

Terms and Conditions of Fee Payment

Before class registration new students will review and accept the terms and conditions of fee payment. This is our confirmation that you actually plan to attend and agree to the terms and conditions of fee payment. Failure to agree to the terms and conditions of fee payment will prevent registration.

Fee Payment Options for Fall and Spring Terms*

The following options are being review and are subject to change. Please visit the Bursar/Cashier's Office for up-to-date payment options.

Tuition is due in full on or before the fifth day of classes. UW-Superior, at its discretion, will extend credit to students unable to pay the tuition in full by the fifth day of classes. Students are not required to sign up for the installment plan. If you plan on participation in the installment plan, make a $100 minimum down payment by the fifth day of classes. Failure to pay the minimum $100 by the fifth day will result in a $75 late payment fee and may result in deregistration from classes.

The installment plan has two options:

Option 1: Partial Payment Without a Service Charge
Make a $100 down payment on or before the fifth day of classes and pay the balance before the twenty fifth day of the term. This date is published on the Bursar/Cashier's Office Calendar as the first installment date.

Option 2: Partial Payment With a Service Charge
Make a $100 down payment on or before the fifth day of classes and pay balance in two installments; half by the twenty fifth day of the term and the balance by the forty fifth day of the term. A service fee of 1.5% will be assessed on the unpaid balance after this date.

All students are assumed to be on the partial payment plan when they sign the terms and conditions form and until all fees are paid in full.

Failure to pay the balance by the forty fifth day of the term will result in a registration hold.

Financial aid recipients must complete the necessary requirements for the Financial Aid Office by the due dates set in order to use financial aid for the $100 down payment. Billing dates for the remaining payments will be published on the Bursar/Cashier's Office Calendar.

Use of the partial payment plan does not imply that a student can withdraw from school and be excused from the remaining payment for the semester. This plan merely defers portions of the fees to be paid later in the term. If a student withdraws after the refund period ends in the fourth week, fees must be paid in full. A withdrawal fee of $50 will be charged all students who withdraw after the semester begins and during the refund period. Students who are deregistered for non-payment after the semester begins will also be charged $50. Terms and conditions are subject to change without notice.

Late Payment Fees

The Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System | 564 of 607
All students are required to make the down payment by the end of the first week of classes. After that, a late payment fee of $75 will be assessed to full-time students (prorated for part-time students) in the second session week and thereafter. Deregistration may be considered in the fourth session week for students who have not made payment.

Refund of Fees

UW-Superior has contracted with BankMobile, a refund vendor, to provide refunding options to students. Refunds result from financial aid disbursements in excess of the balance due and withdrawals during the refund period in excess of payments. Refund options include:

1. Electronic Funds Transfer:
   The refund will be transferred to bank or credit union designated by the student.

2. BankMobile Account:
   The refund will be deposited to a BankMobile Vibe Account and funds will be available on a debit card.

Through a contractual relationship with BankMobile, UW-Superior offers optional bank accounts that are linked to the BankMobile Vibe card. Students, faculty, and staff are not required to open an account with BankMobile, and they do not need to have a BankMobile account in order to use services, such as meal plans, and the library. Many financial institutions are available within the community to meet personal banking needs, and UW-Superior encourages everyone to consider all options. UW-Superior followed a competitive procurement process in selecting and contracting with BankMobile.

Refunds of less than $5 will not be processed.

For detailed refund process information, please visit the Bursar/Cashier’s Office website at www.uwsuper.edu/bursar.

Miscellaneous Fees

Miscellaneous refunds are made if the department assessing the fee requests the Bursar/Cashier’s Office to process a refund. If you believe you are entitled to a refund of a miscellaneous fee, check with the department assessing the fee.

Tuition

Tuition refunds may be made as a result of withdrawal from the university or reduction in the number of enrolled credits. Refunds are pro-rated according to the following schedule:

- Fee refund schedule for withdrawals and class drops below full time for full-term courses (excluding summer session):
  - First and second week: 100 percent refund
  - Third and fourth week: 50 percent refund
  - Thereafter: 0 percent refund

The refund may be returned to financial aid programs if payment was from financial aid proceeds.

Official withdrawal forms are available in the Registrar’s Office, Old Main, Room 139. Students are considered enrolled unless an official withdrawal card is on file. Refunds are based on the date of withdrawal. The date of withdrawal is determined by the Registrar’s Office when the proper withdrawal form is filed in the Registrar’s Office.

Official Drop/Add forms are available in the Registrar’s Office - Forms, Old Main, Room 139. During the 100-percent refund period, a student who adds and drops credits shall be assessed additional fees or receive a refund based on the net result of those adds and drops. After the 100-percent refund period (starting with the third week), students will be assessed for all adds and drops. A drop fee of $20 will be assessed for each transaction (independent of number of credits dropped) processed after the second week of classes.

Room and Board, Residence Hall Deposit

Housing and meal plan refunds are made on a weekly pro-rated basis. A session week is defined to end as of 11:59 p.m. each Saturday. Refunds are made in accordance with provisions found in the Housing Contract.

Returned Checks and Delinquent Accounts

A $20 Non-Sufficient Funds charge will be added to all accounts for returned checks.

Extenuating Circumstance Petitions
This petition form is for students requesting waiver or refund of tuition and segregated fees. The members of the decision making Committee are appointed by the Chancellor according to the guidelines in FPPP44.

Any actions affecting academic record (transcript) must be petitioned through the Credits and Reinstatement Committee.

Tuition Plateau

In the fall and spring terms, undergraduate students enrolled between 12 and 18 credits and graduate students enrolled between 9 and 15 credits will not incur any additional tuition charges. In the summer term undergraduates enrolled between 6 and 9 credits will not incur any additional tuition charges. Lab and program fees are still assessed.

Mission Statement

The purpose of The Center for Academic Advising is to contribute to student satisfaction, and thereby increase campus retention rates, through the offering of high-touch and comprehensive advising services for the undergraduate student population.

The UW-Superior Center for Academic Advising’s mission is to advocate for, support, and empower students to be successful and achieve their educational goals. It is also our mission to collaborate with campus partners to ensure continuity of service and provide the best educational experience for students.

Services Offered

The Center for Academic Advising provides comprehensive academic advising services to:

- Freshmen or sophomores in all majors
- Undeclared students regardless of year
- Students considering changing majors
- Students who are readmitted after suspension
- Individually designed majors and interdisciplinary studies majors
- Associate degree seeking students
- Non-degree seeking students

Additional services offered by the Center for Academic Advising include:

- Goal setting
- Course selection
- Policy clarification
- Academic success planning
- Individualized degree planning

The office also serves as an academic advising information clearinghouse, general referral source, academic advisor training and development center, and academic policies and procedures consultant for UW-Superior departmental advisors and administrators.

Shared Advising Structure

UW-Superior utilizes a total intake advising model called the Shared Advising Model (SAM). The model applies to both on-campus and online learners. In this structure students are assigned two advisors who shift between a primary and secondary role. Generally, freshmen and sophomores are assigned to a primary, professional advisor in the Center for Academic Advising and a secondary, faculty advisor in their academic department (undeclared students will only have one primary, professional advisor until they declare). The specific relationships between the Center for Academic Advising and the academic departments are outlined in individual agreements held in the Center and the departments.

Professional advisors in the Center also serve students planning to change their majors, students with Interdisciplinary Studies (IDS) or Individually Designed Majors (IDM), new transfer students, and students readmitted from suspension. The Center assigns and re-assigns advisors, completes change of major/minor forms, and maintains advising data for the campus.

In addition to providing advising services to students, the Center for Academic Advising plays an essential role in campus-wide retention initiatives and advisor training and development. All new faculty and professional advisors go through training hosted by the Center. The Center houses advising resources available to all campus advisors and hosts professional development events throughout the year.

UW-Superior subscribes to an appreciative advising philosophy and uses case management to ensure close, pro-active relationships with students. Advisors are expected to become partners on their advisees’ academic journey, developing advisees’ decision making skills, comfort level and abilities as a college student.

Declaring or Changing a Major or Minor

The Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System | 567 of 607
Each year, up to 1/3 of the new students arriving on campus enter the university as "undeclared". Other students declare a major and later change it - some change majors more than once. At UW-Superior that's OK! The undeclared major is the ideal place to explore topics, ideas, and professions that may be new to you - all while earning credits toward your degree and being connected to the campus community. As your knowledge and experience grows, you will find a major that fits your needs and interests. Your professional academic advisor is available to assist you if you need help making the decision. When you are ready to declare your major, or if you wish to change your major, you may do so online at www.uwsuper.edu/advise/forms.

Vision Statement

The vision of the Center for Academic Advising is to ensure that academic advising is a full partner in integrated, collaborative, comprehensive, and systemic campus-wide retention initiatives.

Academic Advising Definition

Academic advising is an educational process that, by intention and design, facilitates students' understanding of the meaning and purpose of higher education and fosters their intellectual and personal development toward academic success and lifelong learning (NACADA, 2004)

Academic advising is a collaborative experience in which students and their advisors are partners in meeting the essential learning outcomes, ensuring student academic success, and outlining the steps for achievement of the students' personal, academic, and professional goals. This partnership requires the participation and engagement of both the advisor and the student throughout the duration of the student's educational experience at the university. Both the student and the advisor have clear responsibilities for ensuring the advising partnership is successful (NACADA, 2004).

Functions of the Advising Center

Individual student appointments

Professional academic advisors in the CAA work with online and on-campus freshmen, sophomores, exploratory/undeclared, readmitted, transfer, and special students to explore their interests, skills, and values as they complete their university studies, program admission requirements, and other first and second year coursework or declare a major.

Advisor assignments

The CAA manages primary and secondary advisor assignments for all undergraduate students. Students can find their advisor assignment in their E-Hive Student Center. Students who see "Assigned, Staff" for their advisor assignment should contact the CAA.

Primary advisors are notified via e-mail when a new student has been added to their roster. Advisors are asked to reach out to their new advisee(s) to introduce themselves and provide instructions for setting up an appointment with them.

Administering major, minor, degree, catalog year, and advisor changes

The CAA processes requests for major, minor, degree, catalog year, and advisor changes from undergraduate students. Forms to request a change can be found in Center for Academic Advising Advising Forms. Requests are processed within three to five business days of being submitted, and a confirmation is sent to students when the request has been processed.

Consultation and professional development for advisors across campus

The CAA staff are available to departments for consultation and to provide orientation and development opportunities and resources regarding advising best practices and policies.

Advising holds

The University places enrollment holds each semester to ensure that all undergraduate students discuss their course selections with their advisors before registration. Once the student has met with the advisor and had the course selection approved, the advisor will lift the enrollment hold. This allows the student to register for classes after the enrollment appointment time.

Who advises?

Faculty Advisors are central to UW-Superior's academic advising structure. All faculty with one year of service at the University and who have completed the new advisor orientation and training assume academic advising responsibilities. Faculty primarily advise juniors, seniors, and students admitted to specific academic programs. Faculty advisors also act as mentors for freshmen and sophomores.

Professional Academic Advisors in the Center for Academic Advisement work predominately with freshmen, sophomore, undeclared, readmitted, transfer, and non-degree seeking students. Additionally, the Center serves as a support resource to faculty advisors, facilitates advisor orientation and development, and plays a vital role in the retention efforts of the University.

Key Academic Staff in departments such as the Educational Success Center, Continuing Education, Educational Leadership, and the Office of International Programs also advise special student populations, and are listed as co-advisors in addition to the professional and faculty advisors for the students that they serve.

1. Understanding of degree progress using academic reports in E-Hive
2. Ability to make effective decisions in regard to academic and career goals
3. Ability to accept responsibility for personal and academic decisions

Return to Superior: Degree Completion at UW-Superior

Return to Superior: Degree Completion at UW-Superior

Research shows* that college graduates earn more money and are more satisfied with their jobs compared to those without a college education. That’s been especially true throughout the Great Recession and the recovery: those with the most education have the lowest unemployment rates and the highest income, but you know it’s not just about the money. It’s about expanding your mind and your horizons. It’s about finishing something you started. It’s about showing the world, and yourself, what you can do. No matter what led you to pause your education, what matters most now is your desire to move forward. So take the next step: Return to UW-Superior.
Return to UW-Superior is a program designed to help students who wish to complete a degree after an extended period of time. Students work with a professional academic advisor to develop a degree plan that incorporates students’ previously earned credits into a path to graduation.

Here’s how to get started:

- Contact your Return to Superior Coordinator
- Decide your field of study, and whether you’ll enroll on-campus or online
- Submit a Reentry Application
- Send your official transcripts, if you completed any course work outside of UW-Superior
- Register for classes with an advisor

*Research by Georgetown University’s Center on Education and the Workforce

Students who left UW-Superior on academic suspension will also need to file for reinstatement if planning on returning for Fall or Spring semesters. Simply complete a Petition for Reinstatement and return to the Registrar’s Office.

Assist Program

ASSIST (Academic Student Support Intervention for Success and Transition) is designed to be a collaborative tool that aides communication between students, academic advisors, and faculty. ASSIST is used by faculty, instructional staff, and other teaching staff to inform professional academic

Mission Statement

The Online Learning provides access to selected UW-Superior academic programs for learners who need a flexible study schedule or learning opportunities regardless of location. Students may select enrollment through the Distance Learning Center when applying for university admission. The Center offers online courses on a term basis that parallels the on-campus program. Students may complete a degree, enroll in individual courses, or earn credit through assessment of prior learning. Financial aid is available to qualified students, and designated scholarships for Distance Learning students are offered by the UW-Superior Foundation.

Undergraduate Degree Programs Available to Distance Learning Students

Six different undergraduate majors may be completed through the Online Learning:

Communicating Arts Major

The Communicating Arts major with a concentration in Speech Communication prepares students for opportunities in management, human resources, sales, professional development, training, not-for-profit and community development, other business or organizational communication careers, as well as graduate study. The major consists of 33 credits and requires a minor. For information about courses and requirements of this major, please refer to the Communicating Arts section in the Undergraduate Academic Programs portion of this catalog.

Elementary Education Major

The Elementary Education major is available for Wisconsin licensure at Early Childhood through Middle Childhood (EC-MC, PreK-6th Grade) or Middle Childhood through Early Adolescence (MC-EA, 1st Grade-7th/8th Grades) levels. Students must be able to complete a semester of student teaching in a Wisconsin school. One three-week summer session in Superior and attendance at several one-day seminars/meetings in Superior are required.

For additional information about courses and requirements of this major, please refer to the Elementary Teacher Education section in the Undergraduate Academic Programs portion of this catalog.

Exercise Science Major

The Physical Education major with a concentration in Exercise Science provides the knowledge and skills for career in areas such as adult fitness, cardiac rehabilitation, or related fields. Students gain knowledge in human body structure, nutrition, and clinical exercise physiology. They also learn about teaching, leadership, organization and administration, and safety and emergency responsibility skills.

For additional information about courses and requirements for this major, refer to the Physical Education Program of this catalog.

Health and Wellness Management Major

The Health and Wellness Management major is designed to equip students with the skills necessary to design, develop, implement, and maintain health and wellness programs in the workplace. The 63-credit major incorporates coursework in human and population health, healthcare information technology, marketing, leadership, and related subjects. For additional information about courses and requirements of this major, visit the website hwm.wisconsin.edu and the Health and Wellness Management program section of this catalog.
Interdisciplinary Studies Major

The Interdisciplinary Studies major is an individually designed liberal arts academic program which can be designed to meet educational, career or personal goals. The Interdisciplinary Studies major:

- requires a minimum of 51 credits (comprehensive major) or 33 credits with a minor
- includes a minimum of three academic areas of study
- must have a purpose, a theme, a rationale
- includes a capstone experience

The major is designed by the student in consultation with an academic advisor and selected faculty. The approval process for the major includes the advisor, faculty panel members from the selected academic areas of study, and the University Credits Committee.

For additional information about courses and requirements for this program, refer to the Interdisciplinary Studies Program of this catalog.

Sustainable Management Major

The Sustainable Management Major is an interdisciplinary business management program that helps students gain a broad understanding of the ways in which business systems, natural systems, and social systems intersect. The 63-credit major incorporates coursework in business management, environmental science, natural resources, information systems, and logistics, all with a focus on sustainable practices. For additional information about courses and requirements of this major, visit the website sustain.wisconsin.edu and the Sustainable Management Program of this catalog.

Mission Statement

The mission of the Educational Success Center (ESC) is to support UW-Superior students by providing resources and advocacy to foster academic success, enhance student retention, and promote graduation.

The Educational Success Center (ESC) upholds this mission by supporting students in acquiring the knowledge, skills, and mindset necessary for achieving their educational goals. ESC assists students in the following ways: making a successful transition into, through, and out of the university; developing the academic skills needed to take full advantage of educational opportunities; cultivating the mindset and habits that promote commitment and perseverance; and encouraging every student to develop the commitment and motivation to learn.

ESC provides all UW-Superior students FREE academic services and programs. However, some programs, e.g. Student Support Services, Disability Support Services and the Bridge Program have eligibility requirements (as described below) and additional services will be provided within those programs. The Educational Success Center is located in Swenson Hall 1024/1025.

Student Support Services

TRIO Student Support Services (SSS) is a federally funded program by the Department of Education designed to serve students who meet federal family income guidelines, who are first generation college students (neither parent(s) nor guardian(s) has earned a four-year college degree), and/or who have documented disabilities. View the Eligibility Requirements.

In order to participate in the TRIO SSS Program, students MUST meet one or more of the three eligibility criteria outlined above. Some of the additional services TRIO SSS provides to eligible participants are academic advisement, ASSIST (Academic Student Support Intervention for Success and Transition) management, educational workshops and seminars, graduate school preparation, grand aid scholarships, mentoring program, and various social and cultural events.

The goal of TRIO Student Support Services is to increase the college retention and graduation rates of its participants and facilitate the process of transition from one level of higher education to the next. TRIO SSS provides opportunities for academic development, assist students with basic college requirements, and serves to motivate students to successfully complete their postsecondary education.

TRIO Student Support Services Grant Aid/Scholarship

Each year TRIO SSS awards over $30,000 in Grant Aid/Scholarships to its eligible participants to help with education costs at UW-Superior. Qualifying SSS participants are encouraged to apply before or by the FIRST Friday of May of each year. Priority will be given to:

- Students who are enrolled and remained active in the TRIO SSS program.
- Students who have demonstrated progressive academic achievement toward graduation.
- Students who receive Federal Pell Grants, determined by the [NAME:FINDAID].

To apply, please visit the Educational Success Center website for more information, www.uwsuper.edu/support.

BRIDGE Program

The BRIDGE Program at UW-Superior is offered annually. Participating students enroll in a full-time load of courses (12-15 credits) with relevant courses that meet university requirements, but with additional resources to support their academic success. In this program students have the advantage of a supportive learning community that includes structured academic support services. All Bridge students are required to enroll in a Collegiate Study Skills course and to attend regularly-scheduled tutoring and study sessions that support their coursework.

The mission of the Bridge program at UW-Superior serves students who would benefit from additional academic support during their first semester of enrollment at UW-Superior. The program provides additional structure and resources to participating students in order to facilitate or "bridge" their successful transition to the college academic environment.

Tutoring Services
The Academic Support Center and Math Lab are located in the Educational Success Center in Swenson Hall 1024/1025. We also offer 24/7 online tutoring. All tutoring services are FREE to currently enrolled UW-Superior students. The Educational Success Center employs nearly 40 students per semester as tutors in our labs. Tutors provide one-on-one group tutoring in math, study skill strategies, and other content areas.

Both the ASC and Math Lab are staffed by student tutors who receive extensive training. Student tutors also have opportunities to further refine their skills through enrollment in tutoring practicums (IDS 305 or MTHED 305).

Academic Support Center: Swenson Hall 1025

The Academic Support Center (ASC) is a content area tutoring lab that offers students the opportunity to work with talented traditional and non-traditional aged students who know what it takes to succeed in the classroom. Trained peer tutors offer day and evening assistance in a host of student-to-student services including one-on-one tutoring, small group tutoring, navigating campus computer software, teaching study skills, and help with time management skills.

The ASC offers a quiet study area and 14 computers for student-use. All ASC services are FREE to current UW-Superior students. If we don't have a content area tutor you are looking for, just ask us! We can find a tutor for almost any subject.

The ASC is open 8:00 a.m.- 6:00 p.m. Monday to Thursday and 8:00 a.m.- 4:00 p.m. on Fridays.

Math Lab: Swenson Hall 1024

The Math Lab provides students with free math tutoring in subjects ranging from MATH 090 (Fundamentals of Mathematics) to Math 240 (Calculus I). Assistance for other higher-level math courses, as well as computer science courses, may also be available. Students are welcome during open hours to stop by and work with peer tutors individually or as a group to obtain clarification on important math concepts.

The Math Lab offers day and evening assistance through trained peer tutors, One-on-One math tutor, small group tutoring, a quiet study area, textbooks from every math course through Calculus I available for student use in the lab, and daily calculator rentals.

The Math Lab is open 8:00 a.m.- 4:30 p.m. Monday to Thursday and 8:00 a.m.- 4:00 p.m. on Fridays.

24/7 Online Tutoring

Online tutoring services are available to both on campus and distance learning students. For more information about online tutoring services, please call 715-394-8560 or email support@uwsuper.edu.

Please contact us about Summer Tutoring Services Hours.

Disability Support Services

Disability Support Services (DSS) staff are committed to provide reasonable accommodations for students covered by the Americans with Disabilities Act. Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability against persons in any program or activity receiving or benefiting from federal funds. Section 504 and the Americans with Disabilities Act also require these institutions to make reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities. These mandates apply to documented learning, physical, sensory, and psychiatric disabilities. Students may familiarize themselves with the DSS Handbook online at www.uwsuper.edu/dr.

The Disability Support Services Coordinator serves as a liaison for students with disabilities, and coordinates reasonable accommodation requests. To become eligible for accommodations, interested students must:

1. Identify themselves to Disability Support Services and provide appropriate documentation of the disability;
2. Schedule an appointment to review the information and develop an accommodation plan with DSS;
3. Inform instructors of accommodation needs at the beginning of each semester by giving them a Faculty Accommodation Form; and
4. Meet with Disability Support Services to update the accommodation plan and to arrange timely services. For questions related to services for students with disabilities, e-mail disability@uwsuper.edu or call 715-394-8019.

Testing Services

The UW-Superior Testing Services is located in Swenson Hall 1025. It offers UW Placement exams, Disability Testing Accommodation, and ACT/SAT Exams. Please visit the Testing Center for additional information, call 715-394-8087, or email support@uwsuper.edu to schedule an exam.

Placement Testing

UW-Superior policy dictates the following:

- Math Placement Test: Required for all students
- English Placement Test: Optional - we place students based upon their ACT English score (we recommend that students take this exam if their ACT English score is 18 or below)
- Foreign Language Tests (French, German, or Spanish): Required for all students who have taken a language in high school, prior to registering for any language courses at UW-Superior. Foreign language is required for students seeking the Bachelor of Arts degree as well as for students in some academic programs.
- Please note: Students with Youth Options credit, Advanced Placement credit, or transfer credit who believe they might satisfy the English, Mathematics, or Foreign Language requirement; please contact us to determine whether your credits will exempt you from any of these testing requirements.
- All new freshmen should complete testing during the spring Regional Testing Program, and are required to submit the results of the Wisconsin Placement Tests prior to registration for classes.
- Visit the Placement Testing webpage for additional information.
Developmental Education and Instruction

ESC offers a variety of fundamental courses to help students with their transition to UW-Superior. These courses teach study skills, time management skills, and prepare students for success in higher level courses. These courses include:

- IDS 095: Collegiate Study Skills -- 1.00 - 3.00 credits
- IDS 195: Collegiate Relationships -- 3.00 credits
- IDS 305: Tutoring Practicum -- 1.00 - 3.00 credits
- MATH 090: Fundamentals of Mathematics -- 3.00 credits
- Educational Workshops and Seminars
- Supplemental Instruction (SI)*

*Supplemental Instruction (SI) is a FREE service offered to students in a select number of courses each semester. Participation is voluntary, but all students enrolled in the applicable courses are strongly encouraged to attend SI sessions. SI provides regularly scheduled review sessions of course material outside of the classrooms. SI review sessions are peer-led, informal seminars in which students compare notes, discuss readings, predict test items, and develop tools for effective organization.

Specialty Services

The Educational Success Center is here to assist all UW-Superior students in cases of homelessness and to help coordinate confidentially the resources you need. If you, as a student, are currently without a safe place to live or are in danger of losing your housing, please contact the Educational Success Center immediately.

Our Homelessness Handbook is intended as a guide for UW-Superior students who either are currently homeless or are at risk of experiencing homelessness. It should also be used by UW-Superior staff who may not be aware of what resources we have to offer. All relevant offices should keep a copy of this handbook available at all times.

If you have any questions about these or other services or know of other resources that should be listed or corrected, please contact us.

TRiO Programs

Upward Bound

Upward Bound is a federally funded program created in 1964 to identify and assist promising high school students who face barriers to completing high school and enrolling in a post-secondary institution. Over the past 50 years, more than 818 Upward Bound programs across the nation have helped hundreds of thousands of young people. The University of Wisconsin-Superior is one of 14 Upward Bound programs in Wisconsin providing support services to high potential students who would be unlikely to pursue higher education without extra support. Upward Bound provides that support at no cost to the families or the school district.

McNair Scholars Program

The McNair Scholars Program prepares income eligible, first generation college students and students from groups underrepresented in graduate education for doctoral study. Each year, 25 students are chosen to participate in the program's activities, which include seminars, cultural events, graduate school visits, and more. During the summer, 12 scholars participate in a paid individual research experience, working collaboratively with a faculty mentor on a project of interest to the student. Program participants also receive GRE preparation instruction and help in the graduate school application process.

Financial Aid

About Financial Aid

UW-Superior offers a variety of financial aid programs to assist students with their educational goals. During the 2015-2016 aid year approximately $20.1 million was awarded through federal, state and university sources to provide scholarships, grants, loans, and waivers, along with work study earned, to undergraduate students. Specific information can be found at www.uwsuper.edu/finaid.

Financial aid is available to most students and limited to educational costs. These costs include fees, tuition, books and supplies, room and board, transportation, and miscellaneous personal expenses. To receive financial aid, a student must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, commonly called FAFSA, at www.fafsa.ed.gov.

Students whose aid applications are finalized by the financial aid priority date will receive the first consideration for aid. Aid applications completed after the priority date will receive aid packages as funds are available. Students must re-apply each year.

To be eligible for most financial aid, students must be enrolled as a degree-seeking or teacher certification student at least half time; this is six credits per semester for undergraduates. They also must maintain satisfactory academic progress and comply with Selective Service registration, among other requirements.

Grants, scholarships and fellowships that exceed the cost of tuition, fees, books and required educational equipment and supplies are considered to be taxable income and you may be required to pay taxes on it. For additional information contact a tax advisor.

Educational Costs

These are estimated costs used by the Financial Aid Office to determine financial need for each academic year. Actual current costs are available from the UW-Superior Bursar/Cashier's Office located in Old Main, Room 208. Estimated tuition, fees, housing and meals costs for 2017-2018.

Tuition and Fees

(Based on full-time enrollment September-May):

- Wisconsin Resident Tuition and Fees: $8,144
- Minnesota Reciprocity Tuition and Fees: $8,644
- Nonresident Tuition and Fees: $15,716

Indirect Educational Costs

(Individual circumstances affect these costs. Contact the Financial Aid Office):

- Books and Supplies: $1,000
- Off or On-Campus Room/Board: $6,710
- Travel: $1,960
- Miscellaneous Personal: $1,800

Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy

A student must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) toward a degree to receive financial aid, including loans. Failure to maintain satisfactory progress will result in the student having his/her financial aid suspended. A student who has been suspended by the Financial Aid Office may file a petition to have his/her financial aid reinstated (see the Appeal Procedure below).

The UW-Superior SAP Policy has two components, Grade Point Average (GPA) and Pace of Completion Rate. The Grade Point Average (GPA) component is the same as the requirement for academic standard (see below). Students who are suspended due to failure to meet GPA requirements will be notified by the Registrar's Office. When academic reinstatement occurs, financial aid reinstatement will automatically occur, only as it pertains to GPA. The Financial Aid Office monitors Pace of Completion at the end of Summer College only. The Financial Aid Office will notify students if they have not met Pace of Completion. Those students will need to file a Petition for Financial Aid Reinstatement with the Financial Aid Office. (Note: It is possible that at the end of second semester a student may be required to file an appeal with both the Registrar's Office, due to GPA, and the Financial Aid Office, due to Pace of Completion.)

The Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System | 576 of 607
Grade Point Average Standards (Same as the Academic Standards)

Academic Probation: Students are placed on academic probation whenever their:

1. Cumulative grade point average drops below 2.0 for undergraduates; 3.0 for graduates, or
2. Semester grade point average is less than 1.66 regardless of the cumulative grade point average for undergraduates; semester GPA is less than 3.0, regardless of the cumulative GPA for graduates.

Undergraduate students on probation must earn a 2.0 semester grade point average the following semester to move to good standing (3.0 for graduate students). If students fail to earn a 2.0 semester grade point average (3.0 for graduate students) while on probation, they will be suspended. Once the cumulative grade point average improves to 2.0 or above (3.0 for graduate students), students are no longer on probation.

Transfer students accepted with less than a 2.00 cumulative grade point average (3.0 for graduate students) from all previously attended institutions will be admitted on academic probation.

Suspended students readmitted by the Credits and Reinstatement Committee are readmitted on academic probation.

Academic Suspension: The University reviews the academic records of all students at the end of each term. Students that have previously been on probation are placed on academic suspension if their semester grade point average is less than 2.0 (3.0 for graduate students).

Students suspended for failure to maintain academic good standing are declared ineligible to continue to enroll during any fall or spring term. Suspended students may attend classes during Summer College without being readmitted, but will not be eligible for financial aid.

Pace of Completion Standards

There are two components to Pace of Completion: Credits Attempted vs. Credits Earned, and Progression through Program. Transfer students are assumed to be making satisfactory progress upon entering UW-Superior (i.e., financial aid suspension at another institution does not carry forward).

The obtaining of a degree, with the exception of an associate degree, automatically reinstates the student's eligibility for financial aid.

Credits Attempted vs. Credits Earned

Attempted credits are: credits enrolled in on the census date, credits added after the census date, and posted transfer credits. Incompletes and drops with Withdraw (W) grades after the census date are counted as attempted credits, but do not affect GPA. Remedial credits are counted as attempted credits, and affect GPA. Financial aid may be received for remedial coursework only if it is required for a degree. Repeated courses are counted as attempted credits as many times as the course is repeated. Example: A student repeats a previously failed three credit class with a passing grade. Thus, the student has attempted six credits and earned three. If both attempts of the class result in two grades of “P”, then the student has attempted six credits but earned zero credits.

Financial aid may be received for repeat coursework as many times as necessary to pass the course, if SAP is met. Financial aid is allowed for only one repeat for a course in which a passing grade has previously been earned. For GPA purposes, a repeated course grade replaces the prior grade.

Credits attempted successful are credits earned. The successful completion of credits attempted is credit for which a grade of A, A-, B+, B, B-, C+, C, C-, D+, D, D-, P, or IP is received, and all posted transfer credits.

Suspension will occur when credits attempted vs. credits earned falls below 67%

Ex. Credits Earned/Credits Attempted = Pace of Completion (must be at or above 67%)

Students reinstated on probation (see appeal procedure below) will be given an Academic Plan and monitored at the end of each payment period. If the Academic Plan is not met, suspension will occur. Students who meet the conditions of their Academic Plan will remain on probation until the required completion rate is met.

Progression Through Program (Maximum Timeframe)

Students may receive financial aid for no more than 150% of the published length of the currently enrolled academic program, measured in credits. For example, a student's academic program is 120 credits. Financial Aid may be received for no more than 180 credits. When pursuing a second degree, the 150% rule may be appealed.

A student who completes the academic requirements for a program but does not yet have the degree or certificate is not eligible for further financial aid for that program.

Appeal Procedure

Students who do not meet the above standards may be considered to be making satisfactory progress based on an individual evaluation due to special circumstances, including but not limited to: the death of a relative of the student, an injury or illness of the student, or other circumstances. A student has the right to submit a petition to the Student Financial Aid Review Board explaining the circumstances that prevented the student from meeting the standards of the Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy, why that will change, and how the student will again make SAP. If the first petition is denied, the student can submit a second petition. There are no personal appeals and the decision of the Student Financial Aid Review Board is final.

The Board generally meets the week prior to the start of classes each term. Other meetings are scheduled on an as needed basis. Students may contact the Financial Aid Office for current information on meeting times. The results from actions of the committee will be emailed to the student following the meeting. It is possible that the Board may recommend a more aggressive Academic Plan for the student, which must be in place before aid will be reinstated.

Refunds and the “Return of Title IV Funds” Policy

When a student withdraws or is expelled from school and has been awarded federal financial aid, per federal law, a portion of that awarded aid may be required to be returned. The amount to be returned may come from the institution, the student, or a combination of the two. To determine who is responsible to return the funds to the federal government, two calculations are necessary.

The Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System | 577 of 607
Calculation 1: First, per the "Return of Title IV Funds" formula dictated by the federal government, the Financial Aid Office will calculate the amount of financial aid awarded to the student that must be returned to the federal government by the institution and the student, if the student withdraws prior to completing 60% of the term. The federal formula is applicable to a student receiving a TIP grant, Pell grant, SEOG, Perkins Loan, Direct Subsidized, Direct Unsubsidized, and Direct PLUS loans. The percentage of Title IV aid to be returned is equal to the number of calendar days remaining in the semester. Scheduled breaks of more than four consecutive days are excluded. Once this calculation has been performed, the Financial Aid Office will notify the Bursar/Cashier's Office of the amount the institution and/or student is required to return to the Title IV financial aid programs.

Calculation 2: The Bursar/Cashier's Office will then calculate the refund of institutional charges due the student per the University of Wisconsin refund policy mandated by the State.

Financial aid recipients are encouraged to contact the Financial Aid Office to be advised of the impact of withdrawing from the university prior to initiating the process.

Information required under the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, Title IV parts 668, 674, 675, 676, 682, 690, and 692 regarding, but not limited to, eligibility and criteria for receiving and availability of financial aid, total educational costs of attending UW-Superior and refund policies can be obtained from the Financial Aid Office, Old Main Room 110, 715-394-8220 or finaid@uwsuper.edu.

UW-Superior veteran enrollment requirements and standards of progress information are available from the Registrar's Office, Old Main Room 139, 715-394-8228 or registrar@uwsuper.edu.

The University is required through state statute (Assembly Bill 431) to share statistics with current students concerning crimes on campus and reported campus incidents of sexual assault and date rape. As required by law, this information is distributed annually to students through the UW-Superior website (Campus Safety Office Daily Crime Report). In addition, federal laws, Student Right to Know Law and the "Campus Security Act" requires the university to inform prospective as well as current students of similar crime statistics and information on student graduation rates. This information is distributed annually to students through the UW System Introduction and the UW-Superior website.

The University is required to provide annually to every student and employee information concerning the university's policies on illicit drugs and alcohol. In compliance with the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act amendments of 1989, UW-Superior publishes and distributes this information annually. Additional information is available on the university's website or may be obtained from the Office of the Dean of Students at the Yellowjacket Union, 715-394-8244 or dos@uwsuper.edu.

The Office of International Programs provides assistance and services to prospective and current international students at UW-Superior. International students can get help with issues such as: application and admission procedures; adjusting to campus and community life; maintaining U.S. immigration status; employment and internships; medical insurance; taxes; and personal, cultural or academic issues.

The office also conducts new international student orientation, hosts cultural events, and advises the World Student Association. The office also manages all study away programs including faculty-led short-term programs, semester and academic year programs abroad, and the National Student Exchange.

Admission Requirements for International Students

Application Procedures and Requirements

UW-Superior welcomes qualified students from other countries. The Office of International Programs is responsible for the admission of undergraduate international students. International applicants are encouraged to refer to the undergraduate international admissions website, www.uwsuper.edu/admissions/international, for updated information about the application process, requirements, costs, financial assistance and related information.

Undergraduate international applicants may apply to enroll as degree-seeking freshmen transfer (advanced standing) students or non-degree Special Students. International students who wish to enroll in undergraduate courses must submit the following:

1. A completed international undergraduate student application and appropriate application fee.
2. Official academic records for secondary and all post-secondary education. Official records must be submitted in their native language and, if not in English, must be accompanied by an official English translation. Official records should be sent to the UW-Superior Office of International Programs directly from the institution or examining board.
3. Proof of English language proficiency (for students whose native language is not English). The requirement will be considered satisfied by any of the following: 1) a TOEFL score of 61 iBT (Internet-Based Test) or 500 PBT (Paper-Based Test), 2) an IELTS score of 5.5 or higher, or 3) successful completion of English 101 at an accredited U.S. college or university. See the international admission website for additional ways of satisfying this requirement. See English as a Second Language section for related information and requirements.
4. SAT or ACT score report. Students whose native language is English and who are under age 20 must submit an SAT score or an ACT score. Exceptions may be made on a case-by-case basis. Non-native English speaking students and native English speaking students who are 20 or older are encouraged to submit SAT or ACT exam results if available.
5. Documentation of sufficient financial support to live and study full-time at UW-Superior. Financial verification is required before the university will issue the U.S. government form, Form I-20, necessary to obtain an F-1 student visa or to transfer from another U.S. institution.

Freshmen and transfer students who have not taken a mathematics or English course at an accredited U.S. institution are required to take the UW-Superior math placement test and English or ESL placement test, as appropriate, before enrollment or as early as possible during the first semester. The English placement test may not be required if an ACT or SAT score is submitted.

Admitted international students who wish to enroll must pay an enrollment deposit, as described in their letter of admission. This deposit will be applied to the costs of the first semester of attendance.

Conditional Admission for Non-Native English Speaking Students

International students who meet all requirements for undergraduate admission except for English proficiency may apply for conditional admission. Conditionally admitted students attend an intensive English language school until they have met the UW-Superior English proficiency requirement. Students who wish to apply for conditional admission must submit the items indicated above, except verification of English proficiency, and the application materials required by the intensive English language school they choose to attend. Conditionally admitted students will be eligible for standard admission upon completion of their English language program.
to UW-Superior after they have submitted proof of English proficiency and updated documentation, which must be received at least three weeks prior to the start of the semester. Students may satisfy the English proficiency requirement through coursework at the following English language institutes:

- ESL
- Global Language Institute
- WESLI
- ELS
- MESLS
- FLS
- Spring International

English as a Second Language (ESL) Requirements

ESL Placement Exam

Students whose first language is not English who submit English proficiency scores in the following ranges are required to take the UW-Superior ESL placement test prior to the beginning of their first semester.

TOEFL iBT: 61-79
TOEFL PBT: 500-550
IELTS: 5.5-6.0

International students whose score falls above these ranges, or who score at least 450 on the SAT critical reading section or at least 18 on the ACT English section, are required to take the UW English Placement Test (EPT) prior to their first semester.

Four ESL courses are offered at UW-Superior:

- ESL 131: Reading Academic Texts -- 3.00 credits
- ESL 132: Writing for Academic Purposes -- 3.00 credits
- ESL 133: Listening to Academic English -- 2.00 credits
- ESL 134: Speaking for Academic Purposes -- 2.00 credits

Credits earned in the courses listed above count toward graduation and are part of the student's cumulative GPA. Students are placed into appropriate ESL course(s) based on their ESL placement test results. Students who are required to enroll in ESL courses also take one or more appropriate undergraduate credit-bearing courses during their first semester.

Immigration Procedures

Advisors trained in immigration regulations assist students in maintenance of lawful F-1 Student Status including such matters as full-time enrollment and good academic standing, obtaining Social Security cards, and authorization for off-campus employment including both Curricular and Optional Practical Training.

Insurance Requirements

The University of Wisconsin System requires all F-1 students to have illness and accident insurance coverage. This requirement is for their protection because medical care in the United States is very expensive. If a student does not have adequate insurance coverage, one serious illness, injury or catastrophic medical emergency could mean financial ruin. In such a case a student would almost surely have to return home, which would mean the end of his/her educational dreams in the United States. UW-Superior offers an affordable international student accident and sickness insurance policy underwritten by AIU. With few exceptions, all international students are required to enroll in the UWS international student health insurance program. Please contact international@uwsuper.edu before purchasing any other insurance. Otherwise, a student may end up having to pay for two plans.

Please note that the UWS policy covers illness and accidents only. It does not cover routine physical examinations, sports examinations, routine vision or dental care. We strongly recommend that students take care of these needs in their home country before coming to UW-Superior, or while they are home during University breaks.

The requirement to purchase our UW-Superior insurance policy can be waived ONLY for students who provide proof of national health insurance from their home country that meets or exceeds the policy offered through UW-Superior. We cannot accept coverage from other U.S.-based insurance providers.

If you believe that your policy meets or exceeds the university coverage, you must complete and sign a waiver form and give us a copy of your valid policy enrollment card NO LATER THAN THE END OF THE FIRST WEEK OF CLASSES. We will not read through your policy searching for the required information. It is your responsibility to study your policy to determine the coverage level.

Study Away

Study Away is experiential learning at its best! Time spent overseas, or on another National Student Exchange (NSE) campus in the US, will open a window to the world that broadens students' international and intercultural awareness. To function effectively in the increasingly global economy, U.S. students need to acquire new perspectives, knowledge and skills to succeed. Study Away brings a fresh perspective to career choice and human relationships. Each student returns home a changed person able to see the world through new lenses.
UW-Superior offers numerous short-term and semester/academic year opportunities for students to study in other countries or on other NSE campuses while receiving course credit at the University. Information about Study Away programs is available from at www.uwsuper.edu/studyaway.

All credits earned through any Study Away program are listed on the official UW-Superior transcript and are used to calculate UW-Superior cumulative GPA.

Financial Aid for Study Away

In nearly all cases, students’ financial aid eligibility will transfer for study abroad, and they may be eligible for additional funding through grants, scholarships, and loans. Our staff provides coaching in applying for scholarships such as the Benjamin Gilman.

Faculty Led Programs

Short-term programs led by faculty members are offered to a variety of destinations including Bali, Bosnia, China, France, Ghana, India, Mexico, Scotland and Spain. New programs are developed on a regular basis. These programs which travel in January or May range from 3 to 9 credits and all include a pre-course during the semester before departure. Requirements and program fees vary so please check with the program staff at studyabroad@uwsuper.edu for more information.

Wisconsin in Scotland

The Wisconsin in Scotland (WIS) aka Experience Scotland, program is an amazing experience that offers virtually limitless opportunities for educational and personal growth. It is an opportunity full of challenges, new experiences, and great rewards and a chance to live in a Scottish castle/palace!

The Wisconsin in Scotland program is a facet of the West Central Wisconsin Consortium (WCWC), under the authority granted by the UW Board of Regents. UW-River Falls, UW-Stout, UW-Superior, UW-Parkside, UW-Whitewater, UW-Colleges and Normandale Community College offer participation in the WIS program to their students and faculty members. Students can participate for either one semester or for the summer program.

Courses are taught by faculty from the participating universities. There are also courses offered by British adjunct faculty during the fall and spring semesters. All courses are designed to take advantage of the Scottish setting. Fall and spring semester students are required to enroll for a minimum of 15 or 12 credits, respectively. Summer participants are required to enroll for a minimum of 3 credits. During the semester program, there is the opportunity for independent study/directed study courses and/or internships with home campus approval. The semester program allows time for independent travel with a 10-day break and several long weekends. The summer program allows three days of travel/exploration most weekends. Many cultural activities are included in each program. Information is at http://www.uwrf.edu/wisconsininscotland.

Other Study Abroad Programs

UW-Superior has bi-lateral exchange agreements with the Global Village Program at Yonsei University, Wonju, South Korea Carl von Ossietzky University, Oldenburg, Germany; and participates in the Wisconsin-Heisen Exchange with several institutions in Germany.

A semester long experience Experience China set in beautiful Hangzhou provides a rich, cultural immersion with the comfort and safety of an organized and well-staffed international learning community. As a student in the Experience China (ExC) program you will participate in a directed study of Chinese culture alongside your general education courses. The relationship between the United States and China has been described as important not only for the citizens of our two countries, but also for a new era of global development. Position yourself on the leading edge of this new era by immersing yourself in the historic, diverse, and complex culture of China with the ExC program.

Students desiring an immersion experience in Spanish study at the Center for Interdisciplinary Education, CIME, in Costa Rica where a variety of internship experiences are also available and host-family homestays provide terrific opportunities for language practice.

Art majors will find a special niche at SRISA, the Santa Reparata International School of Art in Florence, Italy.

Teacher Education majors enjoy the many opportunities to student teach abroad or in other parts of the U.S. through the Educators Abroad Program.

In addition to programs sponsored by UW-Superior, UW-Superior students can participate in programs offered by sister institutions within the University of Wisconsin System.

National Student Exchange

Spread your wings and fly away on The National Student Exchange, a consortium of over 180 universities in the United States, our territories and Canada! To date, UW-Superior students have exchanged to campuses in 22 states, Puerto Rico and 5 Canadian provinces.

The NSE Program has been compared to a domestic study abroad program. Instead of crossing oceans, however, NSE students cross state, regional, provincial, and cultural borders to take courses not available on their home campuses, expand their academic program options, reside in a different region, be exposed to diverse cultural settings, seek out graduate and professional schools, and explore career options. The changes seen in student attitudes, understanding of other people in other settings, maturity, risk-taking, and decision-making are similar to the experiences of students who study internationally.

NSE is an unbelievable bargain! Our campus participates under Plan B in which a participating student pays tuition and fees at UW-Superior just as if he or she were here, but all housing, meals, and other costs are paid at the host university. Most scholarships and financial aid will apply as usual.
Mission Statement

The Registrar's Office maintains and secures the official academic student record and coordinates all processes involved with the registration of classes and processing of all curriculum changes. The office offers a variety of services including transcript evaluation and disbursement, enrollment verification, grade changes, degree confirmation & graduation, official catalog, academic standing determination, residency appeals, athletic eligibility and serves as the university compliance office for the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA).

Academic Standing (Probation/Suspension)

Successful movement towards goals combined with adequate acquisition of academic competence is a responsibility of the student. Students should choose the academic pace that best meets their personal goals. The following standards have been defined for undergraduate students classified as freshmen, sophomores, juniors, seniors, or undergraduate specials.

The policies and regulations listed below define the minimum academic standards of the University. A separate set of standards exist for financial aid and athletic eligibility.

Academic standing is calculated after grades are processed for Fall, Spring, and Summer terms. Students whose semester or cumulative grade point average falls below 2.0 are notified via email within two weeks of the end of the Fall, Spring, and Summer terms. Students should contact their advisor before the beginning of the next semester to discuss potential modifications to the next semester's schedule.

Good Academic Standing

To be eligible to enroll for classes, a student must be considered to be in good academic standing. Students who have been suspended are not considered to be in academic good standing and will be eligible to enroll for classes only after approved reinstatement. An exception to this policy is for summer college enrollment. See the following section titled Academic Suspension.

Academic Probation

Students are placed on academic probation whenever one of the following occurs:

- Cumulative grade point average drops below 2.0, OR
- Semester grade point average is less than 1.66 regardless of the cumulative grade point average.

Students on probation must earn a 2.0 semester grade point average the following semester to move good standing. Good Academic Standing occurs once the cumulative grade point average improves to 2.0 or higher. If students fail to earn a 2.0 semester grade point average, while on probation, they will be suspended.

Transfer students accepted with less than a 2.0 cumulative grade point average, from all previously attended institutions, are admitted on academic probation. Suspended students readmitted by the Credits and Reinstatement Committee are readmitted on academic probation.

Academic Suspension

Students previously on probation whose semester grade point average fall below 2.0 are notified via email within two weeks of the end of Fall, Spring and Summer terms that they have been suspended for the subsequent term. If students are enrolled in classes for the subsequent term, these classes are dropped.
Reinstatement

A student who has been suspended is ineligible to continue at the University for a specified period of time. Students allowed to return after suspension will be readmitted on academic probation.

First suspension - A first suspension is for the period of one semester. Students who wish to return to the University after one semester of non-enrollment must apply for re-admittance through the Admissions Office. A petition for reinstatement is not necessary after a first suspension, however students will be required to seek advisement through the Academic Advising Center and their assigned primary advisor before registering for classes when returning. Students may petition for reinstatement before the lapse of at least one semester if it can be demonstrated to the Credits and Reinstatement Committee that the academic suspension was due to factors beyond the students' control and that the cause for the suspension has been removed.

Second or Following Suspensions - A second (or more) suspension is for a period of one year. Students who have been previously suspended must petition for reinstatement through the Credits and Reinstatement Committee after one year of non-enrollment. Suspended students are required to petition for readmission regardless of how long ago the suspension occurred, unless they have raised their cumulative grade point average over 2.0. Students are allowed to submit reinstatement petitions at any time to the Registrar's Office. The last possible time to submit a reinstatement petition is three weeks prior to the beginning of the term in which the student wishes to re-enter. Students may petition for reinstatement before the lapse of one year if they can satisfactorily demonstrate that the cause for suspension has been removed. Students allowed to return will be required to seek advisement through the Academic Advising Center and their assigned primary advisor before registering for classes when returning. Returning students must also meet any conditions the Credits and Reinstatement Committee placed on approval reinstatements.

Re-entry transfer students must furnish official transcripts. Admission, even after the above waiting periods, is not guaranteed. It will be necessary for the students to demonstrate that their studies can be successfully completed.

Personal Appeal

If a student's written Petition for Reinstatement is denied, the student may request a personal appeal requiring the student to meet with the Credits and Reinstatement Committee personally. Students should be aware that a personal appeal must be supported by information and/or documentation over and above what was provided on the written petition, if the appeal is to have a chance to succeed.

Academic Forgiveness

There are individuals, who for a variety of reasons have poor previous academic records. UW-Superior allows students who have not earned a baccalaureate degree to submit a petition requesting academic forgiveness for up to two consecutive semesters if the following requirements are met:

- A minimum of three years must have lapsed between when the student last attended UW-Superior and the date of the submitted petition request.
- The student must have completed at least 24 credits at the 100 level or above (pass/fail credits do not count) at UW-Superior with a GPA of 2.30. These 24 credits must be completed following the semester(s) to be forgiven.
- The student must submit with their petition form, a written letter explaining why academic forgiveness should be awarded, including the student's current academic plan.
- The semester(s) to be forgiven must contain at least one D or F grade in each semester. An entire semester (not individual courses) must be considered for forgiveness. This means all courses within the forgiven terms, regardless of the grade earned, will no longer count toward fulfilling major/minor/graduation requirements.
- Students must petition for forgiveness at least one term prior to the term a degree/certificate is to be awarded. Students may choose up to two consecutive terms to be forgiven. Students can request Academic Forgiveness only one time in their academic career.

Transcript Notation

When forgiveness has been granted, the student's transcript will be annotated to indicate the term(s) has been forgiven. The previous earned grades will still show on the transcript to reflect the true academic history of the student; however, grade points and credits will be removed so that prior grades are excluded from the computation of the student's official cumulative GPA.

This policy does not apply to graduate students. The Graduate Academic Standing Policy is AP1112G.

Attendance

Students are expected to attend all classes. Individual absences from class may be excused only by the instructor. Consult the course syllabus for proper procedures for notifying the instructor in case of emergency.

Group absences for both off- and on-campus activities, such as field trips, music clinics, and athletic trips, must be cleared with the appropriate administrator and a list of students participating be made available for publication. The list of students should be posted on the faculty/staff digest by the sponsoring authority. Students absent for University-approved activities will be excused from class and allowed to make up missed course work. Instructors may require students to complete a supplementary assignment in lieu of class attendance. It is the student's responsibility to directly notify instructors prior to the absence.

Accommodations for Pregnancy, Religious Beliefs

The Faculty Senate of UW-Superior reaffirms the obligation of the institution and its employees to make appropriate physical and academic accommodations for students who are pregnant and who give birth during the academic semester; this includes the parent supporting those who are pregnant or giving birth. It is the institution's obligation to provide appropriate accommodations for pregnancy and childbirth and should be clearly indicated in course syllabi, the UW-Superior catalog, and all other locations that list University accommodation policies.

It is the policy of the Board of Regents that students' sincerely held religious beliefs shall be reasonably accommodated with respect to scheduling all examinations and other academic requirements.

UWS 22.03 Accommodation of Religious Beliefs
1. A student shall be permitted to make up an examination or other academic requirement at another time or by an alternative method, without any prejudicial effect, where:
   a. There is a scheduling conflict between the student's sincerely held religious beliefs and taking the examination or meeting the academic requirements; and
   b. The student has notified the instructor, within the first three weeks of the beginning of classes (within the first week of summer session and short courses) of the specific days or dates on which he or she will request relief from an examination or academic requirement.
2. Instructors may schedule a make-up examination or course requirement before or after their regularly scheduled examination or other academic requirement.
3. Instructors shall accept, at face value, the sincerity of students' religious beliefs.

Commencement

Application for Degree

Students planning to graduate must pay the $50 graduation fee and make application for a degree on or before the deadline date listed in the University's Academic Calendar during their last term of attendance. The graduation fee does not include the cap and gown, which is purchased separately in the University Bookstore. Students can apply online through their E-Hive account using the Application for Graduation link.

A senior will not placed on the list of candidates for a degree if the student begins the last term in residence (coursework must be UW-Superior credits) with a grade point average lower than the minimum required for graduation. The last term must be spent in residence. Students who attempt to complete the baccalaureate degree in absentia must have the approval of the University Credits Committee and complete the degree within one year.

All coursework must be completed and all grades that apply toward a degree must be received in the Registrar's Office within four weeks after the end of a student's last term of attendance. If this deadline is not met, the student's name will be removed from the term's graduation list and the student will be required to reapply for graduation. The Registrar's Office will not place a student's name on any future graduation lists unless a new degree application is received from the student. If re-application is necessary, the application fee will be assessed again.

A student is not officially graduated until all grades have been received in the Registrar's Office and the student's record has been reviewed and cleared for graduation. This process takes four to six weeks after the end of the term.

After the graduate has been cleared, the degree granted will be included on the transcript. An official transcript and diploma will be sent to the student's permanent dress. If a replacement diploma is requested, the charge is $25.

Graduation Latin Honors Designations for Undergraduates

At UW-Superior there are two Graduation honors notes on the official transcript:

1. Graduation Honors are calculated using both the resident and transfer grade points for students who have earned a minimum of 30 semester credits in residence, with at least 27 of those credits graded with letter grades. Graduating students must earn the minimum GPA at each of the levels of distinction listed below:
   - Summa Cum Laude 3.850 and above
   - Magna Cum Laude 3.60 to 3.849
   - Cum Laude 3.4 to 3.599
2. Major Honors are calculated using both the resident and transfer grade points from the courses that are required for the major. Graduating students must earn the minimum GPA at each of the levels of distinction listed above.

Change in Catalog Requirements

Students may choose to graduate from the catalog in which they were admitted, or a more recent catalog, as long as the student attended during the time period of the catalog used; provided the catalog is not more than seven years old at the time of graduation. Transfer students may select the pertinent catalog of entry which corresponds with the academic year they started at the previous institution or the UW-Superior catalog in effect at the time of transfer, or a more recent catalog as long as the transfer student attended during the time period of the catalog used; provided the catalog is not more than seven years old at the time of graduation. Mandatory legal changes may provide exceptions to these requirements.

Students may only graduate under one catalog; requirements for the degree, major, minor and University Studies must all be met using one catalog only. Requests to graduation using a split catalog (major or minor or University Studies requirements from more one catalog) must be submitted on a student petition form submitted to the Credits and Reinstatement Committee.

Students who do not complete course work for the degree within seven years must be graduated under the provisions of the current catalog. Any exceptions regarding major or minor requirements must be approved by the academic department and submitted to the Registrar's Office via a course substitution form.

Any student who plans to graduate with course requirements or the required courses for any major offered by any academic departments that will be seven years old at the time of graduation should be aware that the department retains the option to require the student to repeat any such courses. This policy applies to any courses used to satisfy major requirements, regardless of the college or university that granted the credit initially.

The statements set forth in this catalog are for informational purposes only and should not be construed as the basis of a contract between a student and this institution.

While the provisions of this catalog will ordinarily be applied as stated, UW-Superior reserves the right to change any provision listed in this catalog, including but not limited to academic requirements for graduation and schedules for course offerings without actual notice to individual students. Every effort will be made to keep students advised of any such changes. It is the students' responsibility to keep apprised of current graduation requirements for their particular degree program by reviewing their Degree Progress Report (DPR) via their E-Hive account.

Credit and Class Information

Class Level Standing
Course Numbering

Courses numbered 99 and below are considered non-college level and are referred to as remedial courses. These courses are not used to satisfy graduation or degree requirements. However, the grades earned in remedial classes are used in calculating term and cumulative grade point average. Remedial credits are also used in computing financial aid and athletic eligibility.

Courses numbered 100-299 are classified as lower-division courses. Faculty must assign D or F mid-term grades for all lower-division courses.

Courses numbered 300 to 499 are classified as upper division courses. A minimum of 36 upper-division credits are required for every bachelor's degree.

Courses numbered 500 and above are considered graduate-level courses. Students (in most cases) must be admitted as a graduate student to enroll in these courses.

The first digit of the course number generally indicates class level for which the course is intended. Students are not encouraged to enroll in more than one year above their class standing.

Credit Definition Credit Load

A class hour is defined as 50 minutes. The following definitions refer to number of class hours during a semester that is approximately fifteen weeks long, or an equivalent amount of time for terms of longer or shorter duration.

One on-campus class credit is defined as 1 class hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction per week and an expectation of 2 class hours of out-of-class student work each week.

One distance learning or hybrid class credit is defined as an equivalent amount of instruction and student work leading to equivalent learning outcomes, as required for an on-campus class as defined above.

One laboratory credit is defined as a minimum of 2 class hours of work each week in a laboratory under the supervision of a lab supervisor/instructor and an expectation of 1 class hour of additional out-of-class student work each week.

One studio credit hour is defined as a minimum of 2 class hours of studio work each week under the direct supervision of an instructor and a minimum of 2 class hours of individual studio work each week.

One ensemble music credit is defined as a minimum of 1 class hour of supervised rehearsal each week and a minimum of 2 class hours of individual student work each week.

One internship or practicum credit is defined as at least 45 hours of supervised work in a field placement each semester.

One individualized study credit (e.g. thesis, independent and applied music) is defined as a minimum of 3 class hours of direct instruction and/or individual work each week.

Credit Load

Full-time status is 12-18 semester credits for undergraduate students. Additional fees will be charged for credits over 18 and for online or Online Learning courses. Class standing is determined by the number of credits earned, not by number of credits attempted. Students who are in academic difficulty or employed may find it beneficial to take fewer credits than the maximum load. This load could be prescribed by the student's advisor or by the Credits and Reinstatement Committee.

Remedial Students: Students required to enroll in MATH 090 or 095 or WRIT 099 are considered remedial students. They are limited to 15 credits per term.

Students carrying credits in UW-Extension must include these credits in computing total load.

Semester Credit Load for Undergraduate Students

When enrolling in MATH 090, MATH 095, or WRIT 099: students may enroll for the semester in a total of 15 semester credits.

Freshmen (0-27 earned credits): may enroll in 17 credits; and 1 additional credit with advisor approval resulting in a total of 18 semester credits.

Sophomores (28-55 earned credits), Juniors (56-83 earned credits, and Seniors (84+ earned credits): regular load is 18 credits, and may enroll in 1 additional credit with advisor approval for a total of 19 semester credits.

* If Sophomore, Junor, or Senior students’ GPA is 3.0-3.49; regular load is 19 credits, and may enroll in 1 additional credit with advisor approval for a total of 20 semester credits.

* If Sophomore, Junor, or Senior students’ GPA is 3.5-4.00; regular load is 20 credits, and may enroll in 2 additional credits with advisor approval for a total of 22 semester credits.

Summer College Enrollment

Students enrolled in Summer College are limited to 14 credits per term. Full-time status for summer school is twelve credits for undergraduate students. Undergraduates pay per credit for 1 to 5 credits. A block amount of tuition is paid for 6 to 9 credits and Undergraduates enrolled for 10 or more must pay a per credit incremental rate.

The maximum load for Graduate students during the summer session is one credit per week of attendance or nine semester credits for a nine-week session. Graduate students pay per credit.

Foreign Language Retroactive Credit

The Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System | 586 of 607
Retroactive Credit is transcripted for students who acquire learning in vertical content courses in which higher levels are dependent on skill and knowledge learned at lower levels. If lower level learning can be demonstrated to the satisfaction of faculty who offer vertical content course such as foreign languages, students may request to enroll in the higher level course. Students who earn a grade of B- or higher in the higher level course will be awarded retro-credit posted on the official transcript in the term in which the higher level course was completed.

Retroactive credits for lower level language courses are only awarded for completing courses numbered 102, 201 or 202, or a 300-level course with a grade of B- or higher. For example, if students place into a 300-level foreign language course and earn a B- or higher, they would receive retroactive credit for 101, 102, 201 and 202 in that foreign language, and it would be posted to the official transcript. Retroactive credits are not awarded for upper division language courses.

Students should ensure the faculty teaching the higher level course complete and send the Retroactive Credit form to the Registrar requesting the posting of retro-credit.

Credit for Prior Learning

Students may acquire knowledge and skills through and by experiences which are not necessarily tied to the traditional coursework. It is the philosophy of this University to allow students to demonstrate their learning and pursue credit through several options:

1. Departmental Examinations
2. CLEP or DANTES Exams
3. Advanced Placement exams
4. International Baccalaureate
5. Faculty Assessment

Students transferring to UW-Superior may transfer up to 48 semester credits acquired through credit by examination in those courses and disciplines for which credit by examination opportunities are provided at UW-Superior; this includes CLEP/DANTES exams. Because credit for prior learning is awarded rather than earned at UW-Superior, credits awarded through prior learning methods will not count toward the 30 resident credits required for graduation.

A. Departmental Examinations: Departmental examination opportunities may be available in courses offered for undergraduate credit based on departmental decision. Accordingly, academic departments will designate those courses eligible for departmental examination and will determine the standards, methods, and procedures for course content and credits.

1. Procedure:
   a. Students must make arrangements with the appropriate academic department.
   b. Submit the Departmental Credit by Examination form to the Cashier along with the $100 per course administration fee before taking the examination.
   c. A receipt showing payment of this fee will be verified by examiners at the time the examination is scheduled.
   d. Submit the completed and signed form to the Registrar's Office so that the course is entered on the official transcript.
   e. Where departmental examination credit is awarded, a grade of P/pass will be assigned as determined by the faculty in the department. Credit earned through examination will be so noted as such on the student's transcript. Courses completed by departmental examination will not be computed in determining students' grade point averages. Grades of F/fail will not be transcripted.
   f. Students will not be allowed to earn credit by departmental examination in courses in which they already have earned a grade.
   g. Students will not be allowed to repeat an examination for credit in a course in which they have previously attempted to gain credit by examination.
   h. Academic departments will provide opportunities for departmental examinations during the registration period and the first three weeks of each semester or summer school session.
   i. Departmental examination credits must be received in the Registrar's Office no later than the end of the fifth week of the semester to be recorded for that semester.

B. CLEP-DANTES (DSST) Examinations: Students at UW-Superior may receive college credit for passing scores on certain examinations offered by the College Level Examination Program (CLEP) and the Defense Activity for Nontraditional Educational Support (DANTES or DSST). CLEP and DANTES tests are offered online only. The following policies and procedures must be followed to earn credit for CLEP or DANTES:

   1. CLEP or DANTES Exams: Only students enrolled at UW-Superior may receive credit for CLEP or DANTES examination credit is awarded only for course exams approved by UW-Superior faculty as listed at www.uwsuper.edu/support/testing/clep-tests.cfm
   2. Students enrolled at UW-Superior may receive credit for CLEP or DANTES examinations. Students who take examinations before actual enrollment at UW-Superior will receive college credit only after enrolling.
   3. Students who complete CLEP or DANTES exams at other institutions, will have to request the official CLEP or DANTES transcript be sent to UW-Superior to have credit awarded.
   4. Credits awarded at UW-Superior for CLEP/DANTES may, or may not be, transferable to other institutions. Transfer of credit is at the discretion of the institution to which students are transferring.
   5. When successful on a particular examination, students are awarded credit for the course (no grades are awarded). Failure on an exam is not recorded on student records. Students can repeat the examinations six months after the initial examination.
   6. Normally, students will not be allowed to gain credit by examination for courses in which they already have earned a grade.

C. Secondary school students who have participated in the Advanced Placement (AP) Program in high school may have college credit awarded based on AP exam scores.

1. Credit may be awarded for a score of 3 or above on appropriate examination.
2. To determine scores that equate to UW-Superior courses go to: https://uwhelp.wisconsin.edu/prep-for-college/credits/testing-ap-ib/

D. Secondary school students who have participated in the International Baccalaureate (IB) Program in high school may have college credit awarded based on IB exam scores.

1. To determine scores that equate to UW-Superior courses go to: https://uwhelp.wisconsin.edu/prep-for-college/credits/testing-ap-ib/

E. Credit for Prior Learning through Faculty Assessment: Students may pursue credit based on documentation and/or prior learning through two methods:

   1. Based on previous certification
   2. Through portfolio

1. Pursuing credit based on previous certification: Students who have completed outside coursework, professional certification, or technical college courses outside of existing articulation agreements may have appropriate faculty review the coursework for transcription into credits. Examples include CPT, American Sign Language, Pilot Licensure, or other professional certifications or exams. Documentation such as but not limited to a license, certificate, or official test score must be submitted for credits to be considered.

   1. Procedures:
      a. The student makes arrangements with appropriate academic department.
      b. Submit the Credit for Prior Learning Through Faculty Assessment form with documentation for faculty assessment.
      c. Upon receipt of signed form any credits awarded, submit an administrative fee of $100 to the Cashier.
      d. Submit the receipt and signed form to the Registrar for credit transcription.

2. Pursuing credit through Portfolio: A written portfolio is created by the student that articulates his/her knowledge gained through extensive work and life experiences that equate to learning outcomes for a particular course. The portfolio will contain Learning Outcome Essays and documentation.

   a. Documentation should be included in the portfolio to support claims made in the Learning Outcome Essays. Documentation can include but is not limited to such items as writing samples, certificates, licenses, endorsements, and letters of support.
b. Evaluation will be on a P/pass or F/fail basis.

3. Transfer of Portfolio credits:
   a. Portfolio credits usually do not transfer to another institution. Whether or not to accept credits earned through portfolio at the discretion of the institution to which a student is transferring.
   b. The university accepts credit awarded for prior learning through portfolio assessment by other regionally accredited colleges and universities, through the same process used to award transfer credit.

4. Fees are assessed thusly: $100 administrative fee plus tuition of $75 per each 3 credits pursued. Fees are paid upon submission of the portfolio for assessment.

5. Students may enroll in WRIT 298, a 1-credit course that offers guided help and feedback during the portfolio process. This is not required.

6. Procedures:
   a. Students must make arrangements with the appropriate academic departments.
   b. Enroll in WRIT 298 if desired.
   c. Submit the Credit for Prior Learning Through Faculty Assessment form and portfolio to the appropriate academic departments. For assessment within the same academic semester, portfolios should be submitted 4 weeks before the last day of finals in a given semester.
   d. Submit administrative fee plus tuition to the Cashier. Tuition and fees must be paid when the portfolio is submitted, before assessment.
   e. Faculty will assess the portfolio, determine any credits awarded, and sign the form with a deadline of the last day of finals in the semester in which the portfolio is submitted.
   f. Students will collect the portfolio and signed form with any credits awarded and submit it to the Registrar's office for transcription.

Excess Credit Policy

Students accumulating more than 165 credits (or 30 more than required for a baccalaureate major, whichever is greater) toward their first undergraduate degree will pay the full cost of instruction (which is double the amount of tuition only). This covers all resident undergraduate students including students pursuing a double major. Exceptions include undergraduate special students, students pursuing post-baccalaureate certification or licensure, and Minnesota reciprocity students (until such time that Minnesota adopts a similar surcharge).

The policy applies to all UW System-earned credits and WTCS transfer credits accepted toward a degree. Credits transferred from other institutions as well as other types of credit or coursework for which credit may be awarded (such as advanced placement, retroactive credits, credits by examination, remedial credits, etc.) are not included in the credit limit.

The additional cost is applied to students in the semester following the one in which they reached the earned the credit limit. The Registrar's Office notifies students in advance, via a mailed letter, when they have reached 145 credits.

Appeals for exceptions, because of extenuating circumstances, may be made to the Excess Credit Appeals Committee, which is comprised of the Registrar, the Bursar, and the Financial Aid Office Director.

Data Privacy (FERPA)

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) as amended: Sets forth requirements regarding the privacy of student records. Specifically, FERPA governs:

- The disclosure of education records maintained by an educational institution; and
- Notification by the institution to students of their FERPA rights

Education records: Records, handwritten or in any media, (including conduct records) that are directly related to a student and maintained by the University of Wisconsin-Superior (UW-Superior) or by a party acting for the institution. Records NOT protected by FERPA include:

- records of instruction, administrative, and educational personnel which are the sole possession of the maker and are not accessible or revealed to any individual except a temporary substitute
- records maintained by UW-Superior security/law enforcement unit
- records of employment which relate exclusively to individuals in their capacity as employees (records of students employed by the UW-Superior as a result of their status as students are education records, e.g. work-study)
- records created, or maintained by a physician, psychiatrist or other recognized professional acting in his or her professional capacity (including counseling and health records)
- Alumni records which contain information about a student after s/he is no longer in attendance at UW-Superior and which do not relate to the person as a student.

Student: A person, who attains the age of 18, or who attends an institution of higher education regardless of age, who is enrolled in a UW-Superior credit or non-credit course.

Directory Information

UW-Superior considers the following Directory Information and WILL release this information WITHOUT the written consent of the student.

- Full Name
- Major or Program
- Previous Colleges Attended
- Full or Part-Time Status
- Home Town
- Academic Honors
- Email Address
- Athletic Achievements
- Athlete Height & Weight
- Class Level (Fr., So., Jr., Sr.)
- Address (campus & home)
- Withdrawal Date
- Dates/Terms Enrolled
- Degrees/Certificates Awarded and Date Conferred
- Phone number(s)
- Photographs
The Registrar shall decide the legitimacy of requests for permissible disclosures of student information. Other permissible recipients of such disclosures are:

- The official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibility. Those professional responsibilities may include, but are not limited to:
  - A school official has a legitimate educational interest if:
    - The definition includes, but is not limited to:
      - law enforcement personnel;
      - certain appropriate students;
      - field supervisors;
      - contractors, such as attorneys, auditors, or collection agents;
      - those properly authorized to serve as official board or committee members; or
      - any others properly authorized to assist another school official in performing his or her professional responsibilities for UW-Superior.
    - A school official must abide by all applicable policies and procedures regarding confidentiality of education records.

Non-Directory Information

UW-Superior considers Non-Directory Information to include, but not to be limited to the following, and therefore will NOT release this personally identifiable information without the student's written consent, or as specified in this policy:

- Date of Birth
- Class Schedule/Roster
- Age
- Transcript
- Gender
- Citizenship
- Academic Standing
- Social Security Number
- Student ID Number
- Parent Address(es)
- Race/Ethnicity
- Country of origin
- Entrance Exam Results
- Grades
- Semester Grade Point Average
- Cumulative Grade Point Average
- Student Account Information
- Financial Aid Information

Upon request, UW-Superior discloses education records without consent to officials of another institution that a student seeks or intends to enroll, or where the student is already enrolled so long as the disclosure is for the purposes related to the student's enrollment or transfer.

Disclosure of Non-Directory Information

UW-Superior may disclose non-directory information from students' education records, without student's written consent, to school officials who have a legitimate educational interest in the records, or to certain other individuals or organizations, as specified below. The release of information to those described below does not constitute authorization to those individuals or organizations to share that information with a third party without the student's written consent.

A school official is

- A person, organization, or company who is employed by, contracting with, or properly authorized by the Board of Regents, UW-Superior, or state law to perform administrative, supervisory, academic, research, or support functions for UW-Superior.
- This definition includes, but is not limited to:
  - law enforcement personnel;
  - health staff;
  - certain appropriate students;
  - field supervisors;
  - contractors, such as attorneys, auditors, or collection agents;
  - those properly authorized to serve as official board or committee members; or
  - any others properly authorized to assist another school official in performing his or her professional responsibilities for UW-Superior.

A school official has a legitimate educational interest if:

The official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibility. Those professional responsibilities may include, but are not limited to:

- Performing a task that is specified in his/her position description or by a contract agreement
- Performing a task related to a students' education
- Performing a task related to the academic or behavioral conduct of a student
- Conducting research that benefits students and/or the University.

Other permissible recipients of such disclosures are:

- The US Department of Education, the Comptroller General, state or local educational authorities
- Organizations conducting certain studies for, or on behalf of UW-Superior
- Organizations conducting research for educational agencies or institutions for developing, validating or administering predictive tests; administering student aid programs; and improving instruction.
- Accrediting organizations
- Comply with a judicial order or lawfully issued subpoena, including ex parte orders under the US Patriot Act.
- Appropriate parties in a health or safety emergency
- A victim of a crime of violence or nonforcible sex offense when the information is related to the final results of the disciplinary proceeding conducted by UW-Superior
- Those who seek sex offender registry information required from those required to register as sex offenders under state or federal law
- Officials at other institutions in which the student has already enrolled or seeks to enroll in
- International sponsors
- State and local officials to whom information is specifically required to be reported by a state law as permitted by FERPA
- Parents of a dependent student, as identified on federal tax forms
- Parents of students, under the age of 18 at the time of the disclosure, who have violated any law or any institutional policy governing the use or possession of alcohol or a controlled substance

The Registrar shall decide the legitimacy of requests for permissible disclosures of student information.
Valid Subpoenas

If the Registrar is served with a valid subpoena requesting student information, the Registrar must comply with the request. Before doing so, the Registrar shall attempt to notify the student of the subpoena in advance of compliance so the student may seek protective action, unless the disclosure is in compliance with a subpoena issued by an agency that has ordered the contents of the subpoena, or the information furnished in response to the subpoena, not be disclosed.

Student Class Schedules

The Registrar's Office will not release current class schedules or locations for any student, unless that information is requested pursuant to a valid subpoena, as described above. In the event of an emergency that involves the health and/or safety of an individual, UW-Superior will deliver a message to a student. Otherwise, it is the responsibility of all students to make available their whereabouts to parents, children, spouses or anyone else they deem appropriate.

Deceased Students

Information on deceased students may be made available to survivors or third parties via a request to the Registrar. An individual student's rights under FERPA are no longer valid upon death of that student.

Record of Requests for Disclosure

UW-Superior must maintain a record of each request, with the exceptions listed below, for access to, and disclosure of, personally identifiable information from education records. The record of each request for access and each disclosure must contain the name of the parties who have requested or receive information and the legitimate interest the parties had in requesting or obtaining the information.

A record does not have to be kept if the request was made by or disclosure was made to:

- An eligible student
- A school official who has been determined to have a legitimate educational interest
- A party with written consent from the eligible student
- A party seeking directory information only
- A student serving on an official committee or assisting another school official

Thus requests for, or disclosure of education record information without a student's written consent, which UW-Superior is required to record, would include, but is not limited to:

- Disclosure to the parent (either custodial or noncustodial) of an eligible student
- Disclosure in response to a lawfully issued court order or subpoena
- Disclosure for external research purposes where individual students have been identified
- Disclosure in response to an emergency

These records must be maintained with the education records of the student as long as the records are maintained by UW-Superior.

Student Rights Under FERPA

FERPA affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. These rights include:

- The right to inspect and review educational records; requests will be complied with no later than 45 days from the date of the student's written request, which is to be directed to the Registrar's Office. Students do not have the right to receive a copy of their record unless failure to do so would prevent them from inspecting and reviewing their record, such as when the student no longer lives within commuting distance. The Registrar may arrange for these students to inspect the requested records at a college or university located closer to the student.
- The right to request the amendment of education records, which the student believes are inaccurate, misleading or otherwise in violation of the student's rights of privacy. If the Registrar does not agree with the student's request to amend his/her education records, the student may submit a written request to the Dean of Students Office asking for a formal hearing on his/her request. The Dean shall make the final decision regarding the student's request. If the student disagrees with the decision of the Dean, he/she may submit a written statement which will be placed in his/her official record commenting on the disputed information.
- The right to give or to withhold consent to disclosure of personally identifiable information contained in the student's education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent;
- The right to file with the US Department of Education a complaint regarding UW-Superior's compliance with the requirements of FERPA;
- Records relating to individuals who apply for admission but are not admitted or do not enroll are not protected by FERPA; and
- Records relating to individuals who apply for admission but are not admitted or do not enroll are not protected by FERPA; and
- The right to receive notification of rights granted by FERPA.

Student Notification

- New and continuing students are notified of their FERPA rights each semester via message on the Student Digest.
- New students are notified of FERPA rights at all SOAR (summer orientation and registration) events.
- Everyone can access UW-Superior's Student Data Privacy (FERPA) policy.

The Office of the Registrar is the primary contact for all student information inquiries.

Access to Public Records

The archivist has been designated by the chancellor as the custodian of all public records maintained at UW-Superior. Requests for records should be made directly to the designated custodian during normal office hours or by mail addressed to Jim Dan Hill Library, University of Wisconsin-Superior, 715-394-8343. Records which are readily available will be provided promptly.
If an extensive search is required, the person making the request will be notified of costs when they reach a level of $50 or more. Copying charges are 5¢ per page. If copies of records are to be mailed, processing and copying charges will be made. Should the total charge exceed $5, the charges must be prepaid.

Degrees Awarded: Definition and Requirements of Each

Degrees awarded at UW-Superior include: Associate Degree, Associate of Science, Bachelor of Arts (BA), Bachelor of Fine Arts (BFA), Bachelor of Music (BM), Bachelor of Music Education (BME) and Bachelor of Science (BS).

Associate Degree

The associate degree (a two-year degree) is primarily intended to provide a broad liberal arts background and is designed to be the foundation for, and satisfy the University Studies requirements, for most bachelor degree programs. Students who intend to transfer to another institution should earn an Associate degree prior to leaving UW-Superior. Latin honors are not awarded for associate degrees.

Overall Associate Degree Requirements

1. Earn a resident (UW-Superior) cumulative grade point average of 2.0.
2. Earn at least 24 credits from UW-Superior.
3. The last 12 credits of the degree must be earned at UW-Superior.
4. Complete General, Core and Knowledge Category requirements.
5. Complete the Diversity and Global Awareness Requirements.
7. Pay a $50 graduation fee to the Bursar/Cashier's Office prior to the diploma being sent. The graduation fee does not include the cap and gown, which is purchased separately in the University Bookstore.
8. Degrees are not posted to transcripts with outstanding Incomplete or In-Progress grades.
9. Degrees are posted in the term in which a graduation application is submitted for the respective degree.
10. Degrees are not posted when a student has been academically suspended.
11. Degrees are not posted when a student has been academically suspended.

Additional Associate Degree Requirements

1. Complete of a minimum of 60 credit hours (numbered 100 or above); at least 24 credits must be earned at UW-Superior.
2. Complete an additional three credits in the Natural Sciences: courses in Biology, Chemistry, Geology or Physics.
3. Complete an additional three credits in the Social Sciences: courses in Economics, Political Science, Sociology, Psychology or Anthropology.
4. Complete an additional four credits drawn from any of the following disciplines: Anthropology, Art History, Biology, Chemistry, Computer Science, Economics, English, Film/Theatre, Gender Studies, History, Foreign Languages, Geology, Geography, First Nations Studies, Music, Philosophy, Physics, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology or Writing (with the exception of 099, 101, or 102).
5. Complete at least two courses, excluding core requirements, in a single discipline.

Bachelor Degrees

Bachelor degrees are four-year degrees that include all University Studies requirements plus a minimum of additional credits toward a specific major(s)/minor so that a minimum of 120 credits are earned. Latin honors are awarded for bachelor degrees.

Overall Bachelor Degree Requirements

Note: See other sections of the catalog for additional or specific requirements for Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Fine Arts, Bachelor of Music, and Bachelor of Science degrees. Other sections of the catalog should also be consulted for the specific requirements for University Studies, academic major and minor programs of study, and professional preparation such as teacher education.

A. Overall requirements (Note that credits are semester credits.)
   1. 120 or more total undergraduate credits, i.e. in courses numbered 100-499.
   2. 36 or more undergraduate credits in upper-division courses, i.e. courses numbered 300-499.
   3. A resident grade point average of 2.0 or above for all undergraduate credits.
   4. 30 or more undergraduate credits earned at UW-Superior.
   5. The last 12 undergraduate credits earned at UW-Superior.

B. Completion of the University Studies requirements (See the University Studies section of the catalog.)
   1. Core courses.
   2. Global Awareness and Diversity requirement.

C. Completion of the requirements for major, minor, and/or comprehensive major programs in different disciplines (See the Academic Programs section of the catalog.)
   1. At least one major and one minor in a different discipline; two majors in different disciplines; or a comprehensive major.
      a. A major is 30 or more credits, half or more of which are in upper-division courses.
      b. A minor is at least 15 credits, half or more of which are in upper-division courses.
A minor is 21 or more credits, one third or more of which are in upper division courses.
A comprehensive major is 51 or more credits, 22 or more of which are in upper division courses.

2. A resident grade point average of 2.0 or above in the courses satisfying the requirements for each major, minor, or comprehensive major. (i.e. separate grade point average for each program.) A student cannot graduate while on academic suspension.

3. Distinct credits in major, minor, and comprehensive major programs, (i.e. credits counted only once.)
   a. 51 or more total distinct credits.
   b. 22 or more distinct upper-division credits.
   c. In the event that one or more courses satisfy requirements in more than one major and/or minor program, additional credits will be required in one or more of the programs up to the total credits and/or the total upper-division credits required for the programs.
   d. The major and minor programs should be in different disciplines, i.e. half or more of the credits and/or upper division credits applied to one program should be distinct from those for another. Additional credits in one or more of the programs may be permitted to satisfy the distinction.

Note: Items c and d above do not apply to comprehensive major programs.

D. Variations from these requirements.
   1. Individual programs, departments or certification groups may have additional or higher requirements.
   2. A petition process for variations from these or other requirements and policies is published in this catalog.

Bachelor of Arts (BA)

1. Students must complete a minimum of 6 credits in one foreign or indigenous language.
2. Students must complete at least one foreign or indigenous language course at UW-Superior.
3. Students who have successfully completed high school language courses must complete a language placement exam to determine their level of language proficiency.
4. Students who place above the 202 level are not required to enroll in one UW-Superior foreign or indigenous language course.
5. Students are awarded retro-credits for lower level language courses after successfully completing 102, 201 or 202 with a grade of B- or higher. For example, if students place into SPAN 202, they would receive retro-credit for SPAN 101, 102 and 201 and it would be posted to the official transcript.
6. Complete a comprehensive major, or a non-comprehensive major with another major or minor.

Bachelor of Fine Art (BFA)

1. Complete the foundation art requirements.
2. Decide upon a studio focus during the first two years in the major.
3. Complete a minimum of 18 credits in sequence taken in one studio area. A minimum of 60 credits is required including the foundation courses plus three credits of drawing beyond ART 105.
4. No minor or second major is required for this comprehensive BFA degree.

Bachelor of Music (BM)

1. Choose one of the following:
   1. Bachelor of Music in Performance: Instrumental (Non-Keyboard)
   2. Bachelor of Music in Performance: Keyboard
   3. Bachelor of Music in Performance: Voice
2. Complete a minimum of 72 to 83 credits in music consisting of music theory, ear training theory, music history and other specific courses within the chosen performance area.
3. No minor or second major is required for this comprehensive Bachelor of Music degree.

Bachelor of Music Education (BME)

3. Complete either MUSI 161 for the World Language, Culture and Philosophy Humanities Knowledge Category University Studies requirement.
4. Complete 68 credits of specific MUSI/MUSED courses for the Bachelor of Music Education: Choral/General major.
5. Complete 69 credits of specific MUSI/MUSED courses for the Bachelor of Music Education: Instrumental major.
6. Complete 30 credits of specific Teacher Education (T ED) courses.
7. Complete a minimum of 134 total credits for the Choral/General major.
8. Complete a minimum of 135 total credits for the Instrumental major.

Bachelor of Science (BS)

See above under degree requirements.

Certificate (CERT)

Certificates are awarded for short programs consisting of 9 to 30 credits. To be awarded a certificate for completion of a credit-bearing certificate program, students must: complete a certificate application form, and submit it to the Registrar’s Office for the certificate to be posted to the student’s transcript. Students earning certificates do not participate in Commencement and Latin honors are not awarded for certificates.
Certificates are not awarded to students with academic suspension status.

University Studies Program

Masters Degrees

Master degrees are graduate-level degrees. The catalog requirements in effect upon the student's term of entry define the graduation requirements for the degree sought. Application for the graduate degree must be made online at the beginning of the final term of attendance.

For a graduate degree to be posted, all requirements and course work must be completed within four weeks of the final day of the student's last term of attendance. Students who have applied, but do not graduate must reapply for graduation.

All credits used in meeting the requirements of a graduate degree or certification in professional education must be earned within a period of not more than 10 consecutive years, commencing with the enrollment date in courses applicable to the degree (or certification program) rather than the completion date of applicable courses.

All master's degree candidates are required to complete a thesis or culminating project as prescribed by the graduate program and approved by the faculty advisor. Evidence of completion of this requirement must be verified by the advisor as indicated on the student's Plan of Study.

UW-Superior awards two master degrees: Master of Arts (MA) and Master of Science in Education (MSE).

Overall Graduate degree requirements

Master of Arts (MA)
UW-Superior offers MA degrees in:
See specific requirements in the Graduate Studies section of this catalog.

Master of Science in Education (MSE)
UW-Superior offers MSE degrees from the following departments in the following majors with minimum requirements listed:
See specific requirements in the Graduate Studies section of this catalog.

Specialist in Education (EdS)
UW-Superior offers an EdS in Educational Administration with specializations in:
Requirements are:

Certification Programs

UW-Superior offers courses that lead to certifications for licensure in:
See specific requirements in the Graduate Studies section of this catalog.

Minor Awarded after Bachelor Degree Earned
Students, who have already earned a baccalaureate degree, and wish to earn a subsequent minor, must complete all requirements of the minor including a minimum of 21 distinct additional semester undergraduate credits that are not applied to the first degree.

This means that students seeking a subsequent minor from UW-Superior must have a minimum of 141 earned degree-seeking credits. Students must apply for and pay the graduation application fee for a subsequent minor.

Students MAY use the same credits to satisfy requirements for a major and minor (double-dipping IS allowed).

The subsequent minor shall be listed separately on the official transcript with the date awarded.

Transfer Students earning a Minor after being awarded a transfer baccalaureate degree.
Students with a baccalaureate degree from any other regionally accredited institution who wish to earn a subsequent minor from UW-Superior must complete a minimum of 21 distinct additional semester undergraduate credits from UW-Superior, subsequent to the awarding of the first degree.

Students MAY use the same credits to satisfy requirements for a major and minor (double-dipping IS allowed).

The subsequent minor IS NOT LISTED on a UW-Superior official transcript and students do NOT apply for graduation.

Second Degree

UW-Superior Alum who wish to earn a second UW-Superior degree who have earned a baccalaureate degree from UW-Superior, may not return to UW-Superior to seek a second major that will be attached to the UW-Superior degree already earned; rather students will be required to earn a second degree.

Students, who have earned a baccalaureate degree from UW-Superior, and who wish to earn a second, distinct undergraduate degree from UW-Superior, must complete a minimum of 30 additional semester undergraduate credits from UW-Superior, subsequent to the awarding of the first degree. Requirements for a second major must be completed AS WELL AS requirements for a third major or a minor (if the second major sought is not a comprehensive major). This means students seeking a second baccalaureate degree from UW-Superior must have a minimum of 150 earned degree-seeking credits. Students must apply for and pay the graduation application fee for a second degree.
For example, a student can be awarded a BS degree in biology and a BS degree in chemistry, assuming s/he has met the requirements of both majors and have earned at least 150 credits from UW-Superior. Students MAY use the same credits to satisfy requirements for more than one major or for a major and minor (double-dipping IS allowed).

Transfer Students

Students with a baccalaureate degree from any other accredited institution who wish to earn a second baccalaureate degree from UW-Superior must complete a minimum of 30 additional semester undergraduate credits from UW-Superior. These 30 credits cannot be from the original degree (from the transfer institution).

Transfer students must complete the requirements of a UW-Superior major AND a UW-Superior minor or third major (if not a comprehensive major). This means students, who already hold a baccalaureate degree, seeking a second baccalaureate degree from UW-Superior, must have a minimum of 150 earned degree-seeking credits. Students must apply for and pay the graduation application fee.

Second Master's Degree

Additional master's degrees are permissible but each degree requires 30 to 60 semester credits (as per the catalog requirements) beyond the credits earned for the previous master's degree(s). Courses taken as part of a prior master's degree may not count toward the credit requirement for a subsequent master's degree. Students who have completed a master's degree program at UW-Superior who wish to re-enter for a second master's degree must use a re-entry application to begin a subsequent master's degree.

Concurrent Degree Policy

Students may be awarded two undergraduate degrees concurrently provided that the degree programs have substantial differences or entitlements. Students may be awarded concurrent degrees including the BM, BME, BFA, BA and BS degrees provided they have different comprehensive majors or non-comprehensive majors with either an additional major/minor. Each degree must be distinct. For example, two of the same degree cannot be awarded concurrently such as two Bachelor of Arts degrees. Students must complete all requirements for both programs, including degree, major, and unique requirements including certification requirements for teachable majors/minors. The major from either degree may not be used in place of any minor required in the other degree (e.g., the music major from the BME degree may not replace the minor required in the BA degree).

The student must complete a minimum of 150 credits to be awarded two degrees either concurrently or by returning to add an additional degree which requires 30 additional credits beyond the first degree. Please refer to the Second Baccalaureate Degree Policy.

Students will be assigned an advisor from each program that is being pursued.

The duplicate credit rule applies between the majors and/or minors of both degrees pursued.

The University Studies requirements for the University only need to be met once; however, students must meet any specific University Studies requirements for the academic program(s).

Students who elect to pursue concurrent degrees are not exempt from the UW System Excess Credits surcharge.

Posthumous Degree

A request for a posthumous degree is initiated by a person, or persons associated with the deceased to the Registrar. This is usually a family member, but the academic department of the student can initiate it in accordance to the wishes/support of the family.

The deceased student must have completed at least 7/8 of the degree requirements of his/her major. If the deceased student was not close to meeting graduation requirements, the academic department may recommend that a “Certificate of Accomplishment” or other similar acknowledgement be issued.

The request must be approved by the academic department and the Provost. The Registrar may also suggest a posthumous Associate degree, if the deceased had completed 7/8 of an Associate degree.

Grades

Below are listed the official grades of UW-Superior. Grades listed below are used to calculate term and cumulative grade point average (GPA) unless noted with an asterisk. Grade points are assigned for each grade (including zero grade points) used to calculate GPA.

Faculty electronically assign final grades students have earned at the end of each term or Summer College session. Students access grades via their unofficial transcript in E-Hive.

Below are listed grade points assigned for each grade.

Grade Average

The cumulative grade point average (GPA) is based on the grade point system and is computed by dividing the total number of points earned per credit by the total number of credits attempted. Grades of Aud, I, IP, NC, NR, P, and W and not counted as credits attempted in computing GPA.

The cumulative grade point average for a straight A letter grade in six three-credit courses is computed by diving the total number of grade points (A=4.00 grade points multiplied by 18 credits=72 grade points) by the number of attempted credits (18), which would give the student a cumulative average of 4.000.

Major/Minor GPA Calculation

Major and minor grade point average (GPA) calculation shall be based on coursework attempted (this excludes "I", "IP", "NC," and "W" grades) in residence that applies to the respective major or minor. There is no limitation placed on the number of credits that are used in this calculation.

The University of Wisconsin-Superior's Repeated Coursework Policy (AP 1206) will be enforced for this calculation. For example, if a student repeats a required course within a major, it will be the most recent grade that is used in the major GPA calculation.

The major/minor GPA only includes pre-requisite coursework when it has been included in the major/minor as a requirement. This also applies to coursework required to get into the major/minor. Departments may apply additional coursework to the major/minor by notifying the Registrar's Office. Department chair approval is required.

This is the GPA that will be used for graduation eligibility (2.00, while in residence) within the major or minor. A given major or minor may require a higher GPA for graduation eligibility as specified in the catalog.

Dean's List Honors

To be eligible for Dean's List honors, students must earn a semester grade point average of at least 3.50, while carrying a minimum of twelve (12) semester college level (courses above 100) credits on the A/F grading system.

Courses graded with a Pass (P) grade and courses numbered below 100 do NOT count toward the 12 semester credits required to calculate Dean's List honors. Dean's list honors are printed on the official transcript.

Grade Appeal

Instructors are expected to evaluate students regularly and consistently by criteria and guidelines provided to the students at the beginning of the semester in the course syllabus. If a student has reason to believe that a grade is incorrect, the student may act on that concern through the following process.

A student may seek to appeal the grade based on one or more of the following factors:

- An error was made in grade computation;
- The grade was based on factors contrary to those stated in the course syllabus;
- The grade involved some breach of federal or state constitutional protections, federal laws, Regents' Rules, or UW-Superior policies.

Student Appeal Process

1. Student must present rationale for changing the grade to the instructor. This consultation must occur no later than the fourth week of the following semester.
   - Fall Semester grade appeals must be submitted by the fourth week of Spring Semester
   - Spring Semester grade appeals must be submitted by the fourth week of the following Fall Semester
   - Summer College grade appeals must be submitted by the fourth week of the following Fall Semester
2. If the results are not satisfactory and the student wishes to continue the appeal process, the student shall make an appointment to speak with the department chair explaining the grade concern.
3. The department chair can offer to facilitate a meeting between the student and the instructor.
4. If the results are not satisfactory and the student wishes to continue the appeal process, the student shall make an appointment to speak with the provost and submit a written request for review of the contested grade.
5. The provost can appoint an individual or group to review the student's grade concern and report back to the provost.
6. The provost, after hearing the results of the report in listed above, can suggest an instructor change a grade or that no action be taken to change a grade. The provost, as chief academic officer, has the final determination in establishing cause.
7. The provost will convey the findings and actions to the student, the instructor, and the department chair.
Grade Changes

It is the student's responsibility to call the instructor's attention to any perceived error in grading as soon as possible after grades are reported. It is the instructor's responsibility to correct grading errors as soon as they are noted, if warranted.

The instructor authorizes a grade change by signing a Change of Grade form. The department chair approves this form and then submits it to the Registrar's Office, where the record will be changed and the student notified of the change of grade.

A change of grade can result in a student's change in academic standing (good standing/probation/suspension).

Instructors have the purview to change grades at anytime, (regardless when the grade was assigned) providing they have department chair approval.

Final Exams

Final examinations are scheduled during the last week of each semester. The final exam schedule for each term is listed at www.uwsuper.edu/registrar/finals. In the event that final examinations on a given day have to be cancelled due to inclement weather or other emergency circumstances, the following procedures shall apply:

- The examinations scheduled for that day will be moved to the day immediately following the last scheduled examination day.
- If the cancellations happen during the first part of a split examination week, the make-up day will be the Saturday within the exam week.
- If instructors can determine an alternate time for their examination outside of the above, they are permitted to do so. It is their responsibility to communicate this to members of the class.
- If instructors can determine an alternate examination format (i.e. take home exam, web exam) they are permitted to do so. It is their responsibility to communicate this to members of the class.

Incomplete Grade Lapse

A grade of Incomplete (I) may be given by an instructor when a student has been engaged for at least two-thirds of the class, but has been prevented by emergency circumstances from completing the course. There should be, in the judgment of the instructor, a reasonable probability that the student can complete the course successfully without again attending regular class sessions or needing extensive instructor supervision.

Instructors who assign an I grade must submit a change of grade form (requesting the I be replaced by a regular grade A-F or P) by the end of the next Fall or Spring term. I grades for Summer lapse after Fall term.

If a grade change is not submitted by the last day of the subsequent term, by the instructor who assigned the Incomplete grade, the Registrar's Office will lapse the Incomplete grade to a Failing (F) grade the day after the last day of the term (last day of final exams).

Degrees will not be posted to transcripts if there are any I grades listed on a transcript. The Registrar will request faculty to change any I grades, for courses not required for graduation with NC (no-credit) grades prior to posting a degree. Ultimately, it is the student's responsibility to ensure all I grades have been replaced with regular grades prior to applying for a degree.

In-Progress (IP) Grades

A grade of In-Progress (IP) may be assigned by an instructor in specially designated courses where the expectation is that students cannot finish the course within a traditional term. There should be, in the judgment of the instructor, a reasonable probability that the student can complete the course successfully within one calendar year without attending regular class sessions or needing extensive instructor supervision.

Courses meeting this requirement are student teaching, internships, senior capstones, practicums or theses. ONLY the specific courses listed below can be assigned IP grades:

Instructors who assign an IP grade must submit a change of grade form (requesting the IP be replaced by a regular grade A-F or P) within one calendar year of date the IP grade was assigned. If a grade change form is not submitted by the end of one calendar year, by the instructor who assigned the IP grade, the Registrar's Office will lapse the IP grade to a Failing (F) grade.

Degrees will not be posted to transcripts with Incomplete (I) or In-Progress (IP) grades listed on the transcript. The Registrar will request faculty to change any IP grades, for courses not required for graduation with NC (no-credit) grades prior to posting a degree. Ultimately, it is the student's responsibility to ensure all IP grades have been replaced with regular grades prior to applying for a degree.

Mid-Term Grades

Students earning a D or F in 100- to 200-level semester-long courses through the middle of the term will receive a mid-semester grade email. Mid-term grades are not issued during summer session. Mid-term grades are not calculated in the grade point average and do not appear on students' transcripts. Mid-term grades are valuable for both students and faculty as progress checks and advising tools. Students are encouraged to discuss their academic performance with the instructor and/or adviser to determine ways to improve course performance so that academic standing is not negatively affected when final term grades are posted.

Mid-term grades are not issued during Summer College.

Pass/Fail Grades

Students are allowed a total of 15 elective Pass/Fail (P/F) credits, with the exclusion of WRIT 101 and WRIT 102.

Specific courses, identified by the various departments and in the student's major, may not be taken P/F. Degree-seeking students cannot take COMM 110 as P/F. Students in Business and Economics programs, and other students who wish to enroll in 300- or 400-level Business or Economics courses, may not include courses taken as P/F as prerequisites. Details are specified in the Business and Economics section of this catalog.

Students who choose the P/F grading option should do so upon enrollment in a course, but they are allowed to change to P/F grading up through the tenth day of Fall or Spring term (or the last day to drop/add for Summer College)-Term courses.

Students who wish to change to P/F grading after the tenth day of term may do so WITH the approving signature of the faculty teaching the course and the department chair (of the department that houses the course) on a Pass/Fail form obtained from the Registrar's Office (or www.uwsuper.edu/registrar).

Students are allowed to submit this form to the Registrar's Office until the day before final examinations begin for any term or Summer College-J-Term. If a student receives a Pass grade, s/he may not subsequently repeat this same course for a letter grade.

Students should be aware that it may be difficult to transfer P/F graded courses to other institutions of higher education.

Name/Address Changes

The Registrar's Office should be notified as soon as possible of a student's change in name or address. Each student is expected to maintain his or her mailing address through his or her E-Hive account or through a change of address form submitted to the Registrar's Office. The mailing address represents the address to which official university mail will be sent during the student's career.

Students who wish to have their billing statements mailed to an address different than their mailing address should contact the Bursar/Cashier's Office. Graduate students may request a business address be entered by the Graduate Studies Office.

Petition Appeals

Exceptions to established undergraduate policies may be requested by submitting a petition to the Credits and Reinstatement Committee. Petitions are available in the Registrar's Office or at www.uwsuper.edu/registrar/forms. Students are encouraged to read the full directions (as listed on the reverse side of the petition form) as well as the Rules for Petition Decisions attached to the form. Petition forms submitted without the required signatures will not be considered by the committee.

If students' written petitions are denied, they may request to attend a Credits and Reinstatement Committee meeting in person for a subsequent decision IF the student is able to provide additional documentation not submitted with the written petition request.

Exceptions to graduate policies may be requested by submitting a petition to the Graduate Council. Petitions are available in the Graduate Studies Office or at www.uwsuper.edu/graduate/forms.

Policies

Undergraduate Academic Policies

Registration and Registration Changes

Web registration for Fall term and Summer College begins on Monday of the first full week in April. Web registration for Spring term and J-term begins on Monday of the first full week of November.
Students are emailed specific assigned appointment times when they can begin the registration process via their E-Hive account. Students must have met with their advisor and have the advisor registration hold removed prior to being able to register through E-Hive.

Students with negative holds on their account will not be allowed to register for classes.

In-Person registration (where students register in-person with a hard-copy registration form) begins on Tuesday of each registration week. Beginning on this same day students may also bring signed Drop/Add forms to the Registrar’s Office for processing, providing the form has his/her advisor’s signature.

Add/Drop

Students may add classes via their E-Hive account, or at the Registrar’s Office, without instructor permission, through the fifth class day of each term (pro-rated for Summer College). From the sixth through the tenth class day of each term, students are required to have permission from their instructor(s) before they are allowed to enroll. This requires either a permission number to add a course via E-Hive, or signatures on a Drop/Add form submitted to the Registrar’s Office for processing.

After the eleventh class day of each term, students may add a class with signatures from the instructor, their advisor and department chair on a Petition form which is submitted to the Registrar’s Office for consideration by the Credits and Student Reinstatement Committee.

Students who wish to add a class during the last two weeks of the term, or thereafter, are required to pay a $20 fee.

Dropping Classes During a Regular Term

Students may drop classes via their E-Hive account, or by submitting a signed Drop form to the Registrar’s Office, through the tenth class day of each term (pro-rated for Summer College). No additional signatures are required on the drop form during this period. Individual classes dropped during this period are not recorded on official transcripts.

If all classes are dropped a single notation of “withdrawn” and the date the student initiated the process is noted for the respective term on the official transcript. There is a $50 fee to drop all classes from the first day of the term through the tenth day of the term.

From the eleventh class day of each term through the 60% calendar day of each term (does not include 9 days of Spring Break week), students may drop classes via their E-Hive or by completing a drop form that is submitted to the Registrar’s Office. There is a $20 fee that is automatically assessed to student accounts by the Cashier’s Office. This $20 fee is regardless of the number of classes being dropped. Classes dropped during this period are recorded on students’ official transcripts with a grade of W (withdrawal).

Students seeking to drop classes after the 60% day of each term must submit such requests to the Credits and Student Reinstatement Committee for consideration with all required signatures and documentation (see the Petition section of this catalog). If the Committee approves the petition, W grades will be entered on the student’s transcript for each course approved to drop late. If the Committee denies the petition, the course will remain on the official transcript for faculty to assign the grade the student earned.

Adding Classes During Summer College or Shorter Periods

- Students enrolled in classes that are two weeks in length are allowed the first two class days of the session to add a class without instructor permission.
- Students enrolled in classes that are three weeks in length are allowed the first three class days of the session to add a class without instructor permission.
- Students enrolled in classes that are four weeks in length are allowed the first four class days of the session to add a class without additional instructor permission.
- Classes five weeks in length or longer, will follow the same procedure listed above for adding regular-term classes.

After the specific class day of the session listed above, students may add a class with signatures from the instructor, their advisor and department chair on a Petition form which is submitted to the Registrar’s Office for consideration by the University Petition Committee.

Dropping Classes During Summer College or Shorter Periods

Two Week Classes

The last day to drop without permission is the second day of classes for the session. From the third class day of the session to the 60% calendar day of the session, students may drop classes by completing a drop form that is submitted to the Registrar’s Office. There is a $20 fee that must first be paid at the Bursar/Cashier’s Office. This $20 fee is regardless of the number of classes being dropped. Classes dropped during this period are recorded on students’ official transcripts with a grade of W (withdrawal). Students seeking to drop classes after the 60% calendar day of the session must submit such requests to the Credits and Student Reinstatement Committee for consideration. If the Committee approves the petition, W grades will be entered on the student’s transcript for each course approved to drop late. If the Committee denies the petition, the course will remain on the official transcript for faculty to assign the grade the student earned.

Three Week Classes

The last day to drop without permission is the third day of classes for the session. From the fourth class day of the session to the 60% calendar day of the session, students may drop classes by completing a drop form that is submitted to the Registrar’s Office. There is a $20 fee that must first be paid at the Cashier’s Office. This $20 fee is regardless of the number of classes being dropped. Classes dropped during this period are recorded on students’ official transcripts with a grade of W (withdrawal). Students seeking to drop classes after the 60% calendar day of the session must submit such requests to the Credits and Student Reinstatement Committee for consideration. If the Committee approves the petition, W grades will be entered on the student’s transcript for each course approved to drop late. If the Committee denies the petition, the course will remain on the official transcript for faculty to assign the grade the student earned.

Four Week Classes

The last day to drop without permission is the fourth day of classes for the session. From the fifth class day of the session to the 60% calendar day of the session, students may drop classes by completing a drop form that is submitted to the Registrar’s Office. There is a $20 fee that must first be paid at the Bursar/Cashier’s Office. This $20 fee is regardless of the number of classes being dropped. Classes dropped during this period are recorded on students’ official transcripts with a grade of W (withdrawal). Students seeking to drop classes after the 60% calendar day of the session must submit such requests to the Credits and Student Reinstatement Committee for consideration. If the Committee approves the petition, W grades will be entered on the student’s transcript for each course approved to drop late. If the Committee denies the petition, the course will remain on the official transcript for faculty to assign the grade the student earned.

Fives Week (or longer) Classes

Classes five weeks in length or longer, will follow the same procedure listed above for dropping regular-term classes.
Cancelling Classes Before a Regular Term/Summer College/Shorter Period

Students may cancel classes via their E-Hive account, or by submitting a signed Cancellation form to the Registrar's Office, BEFORE the first day of each term. No additional signatures are required on the Cancellation form. Cancelled classes are not recorded on students' official transcripts.

Administrative Drop

Students who do not attend the first class meeting of a course, or who do not participate in a course related activity in an on-line course, or who do not notify the instructor that they will be absent for special reasons, will be dropped from the course.

Students should not assume that a course will be dropped automatically. It is still the students' responsibility to verify official enrollment through their class schedule.

Auditing Classes

An auditor may enroll in a course, with the instructor's consent, for which the auditor will receive neither grade nor credit. The student is expected to attend class regularly but will not be expected to submit assignments or take examinations. Audited courses do not count toward a degree and cannot be converted to credit after the last day to add classes. Audited courses do not count in determining credit load. A student's transcript will indicate "Aud" as the grade earned for auditing a course. When registering for an audit, indicate Aud credits on the signed course registration form. Charges for auditing a class are located in the Cashier's section of this catalog.

 Cancelling Classes

Students may cancel classes by submitting a signed Cancellation form to the Registrar's Office, BEFORE the first day of each term. No additional signatures are required on the Cancellation form. Cancelled classes are not recorded on students' official transcripts.

Distance Learning Registration

Coursework through the Online Learning (DLC) is normally open only to students enrolled in the program. However, on-campus students, with the support of their advisor, the instructor and the department chair of the instructor, and the DLC director, may enroll in coursework through DLC. The form to request this action is at www.uwsuper.edu/dll under the forms link with the title of Petition for on-campus student to take a DLC course.

Enrollment in Courses Numbered 001-099

Students enrolled in English and Mathematics courses numbered 099 or lower will normally not be permitted to enroll for more than 15 credits during that term. Courses numbered 099 or lower are considered remedial courses and do not count toward the 120 credits needed for graduation. (New freshman required to take WRIT 099 or MATH 090/095 must successfully complete remedial coursework before completing 30 semester credits.)

Internship Policy

Many of the academic programs at UW-Superior encourage or require their students to participate in an internship.

First, to be eligible to enter an internship, each student must complete all requirements to enter the internship as established by the department in which the internships offered.

Second, departments offering internships must have a signed affiliation/partnership agreement in place with each agency, school, or site in which it intends to place its interns. No intern may be placed in an internship site until such an agreement is signed by both parties. These agreements are to articulate the roles and responsibilities of each party and establish responsibility for liability coverage.

Copies of the signed and approved affiliation or partnership agreement must be filed both with the department granting credit (or supervising it in the case of zero credit) and with the vice chancellor for administration and finance. The contract must be on file and the student must be registered for the course prior to beginning the hours involved.

Official Enrollment

Students are officially enrolled only in those courses which appear on their class schedule on Student Center in E-Hive. Faculty will record a grade for each course listed in E-Hive even if the student does not attend. Students who are not officially enrolled for courses in E-Hive will not receive grades.

Repeated Coursework

Students are allowed to repeat a course previously passed only one time. This means a student can enroll two times maximum for any course. Exceptions to this are:

- Repeated courses required for major/minor.
- Repeated course numbers, but different course titles (special topics courses)
- Repeatable courses as noted in course description

Each time a student attempts to enroll in a previously passed course, s/he will receive a message indicating past enrollment in the course. Students will earn credit only one time for repeated courses, (exceptions listed above). The Registrar's Office will email students notice if they are enrolled in a previously passed course; however, it is the student's obligation to drop the course.

By repeating courses students may raise their grade point averages. The grade of record is the grade earned the last time a course is attempted. Repeating a course will not remove the initial grade from the transcript; however, it will change the cumulative GPA.

Students who believe they have a valid reason to repeat a previously passed course more than one time are required to submit a petition form requesting to do so.
There is no limit on the number of times students can repeat failed courses.

Requirement to Repeat Courses Over Seven Years Old at Time of Graduation

Any student who plans to graduate with course requirements or the required courses for any major offered by all academic departments that will be seven years old at the time of graduation should be aware that the department retains the option to require the student to repeat any such courses. This policy applies to any courses used to satisfy major requirements, regardless of the college or university that granted the credit initially.

Senior Students Enrolling in Graduate Courses

Second-semester UW-Superior seniors, with approval of the Graduate Council, may take a maximum of six graduate semester credits in courses numbered 500-699 during their final semester, subject to certain provisions. The graduate credits must be beyond those required for the baccalaureate degree, and cannot count toward the baccalaureate degree. Permission to enroll for the graduate credits requires approval of the Graduate Council, obtained by means of a petition during the prior semester. Seniors seeking this privilege must meet the grade point average required for unconditional admission to Graduate Studies.

Undergraduate academic fees will be charged for these six graduate credits. After completion of an undergraduate degree, these graduate credits will be entered on the student's graduate transcripts. The student will have to pay the differential between undergraduate and graduate fees for the process to be completed.

Withdraw

Dropping all classes for a term is considered a Total Withdrawal. Students must complete a Total Withdraw form, at www.uwsuper.edu/registrar/forms, secure all required signatures on the form and then return the form to the Registrar's Office for processing.

Total Withdrawal from All Classes for a Term/Summer College/Shorter Period

First Ten Days of Term

Students must complete a Total Withdraw form, securing all required signatures. The final signature on the form is the Registrar's. Withdrawals are not listed on the official transcript prior to the eleventh day of the term; however a notation of "withdrawn" and the date the student initiated the process does appear on the transcript for the term the student withdrew from. There is a $50 fee for totally withdrawing prior to the eleventh day of a term. This fee must be paid to the Cashier's Office before the form is submitted to the Registrar's Office.

Eleventh Day to 60% Day of Term

The last day to totally withdraw from all classes, whereby students earn a W on his/her transcript for each course, is the 60% calendar day of each term or Summer College session/shorter period classes. Students must complete a Total Withdraw form, securing all required signatures. The final signature on the form is the Registrar’s. There is no charge. Withdrawal from all classes after this date requires a petition appeal to the Credits and Reinstatement Committee. There are specific requirements for this request as listed on the Petition form.

60% Day to End of Term

Students seeking to withdraw from courses after the 60% calendar day of the term (through the petition process), must secure a signature from each faculty member for each course, as well as the department chair for each course, on the petition form located at www.uwsuper.edu/registrar/forms. The petition form is then submitted to the Registrar's Office for consideration by the Credits and Reinstatement Committee. If the Committee approves the petition, W grades will be entered on the student's transcript for each course and notation of "withdrawn" and the date the student initiated the process. If the Committee denies the petition, the course will remain on the official transcript for faculty to assign the grade the student earned. Students who fail to complete the official withdrawal process will be considered enrolled and will be graded accordingly. Student may not totally withdraw from all courses in a term if any of the classes in the respective term, or Summer College session have been graded. Students, who have totally withdrawn from all courses for a term, will not be allowed to register for any subsequent classes in the same term. Neither UW-Superior faculty nor staff will normally initiate the withdrawal of a student on the basis of non-attendance.

Incapacitated Student Total Withdrawal

When a University official is made aware that a currently enrolled student has become incapacitated due to injury or illness and the Registrar receives written confirmation of such from a medical doctor, the Registrar and Dean of Students may initiate a total withdrawal on the student's behalf.

Cross Registration

Cross Registration (with University of Minnesota-Duluth and College of St. Scholastica) Full-time undergraduate students (12 credits or more on campus) at UW-Superior can cross-register for two classes per term, except summer, at either the University of Minnesota-Duluth UMD) or the College of St. Scholastica (CSS). Students taking online courses at UW-Superior as part of their 12 credits or more will be responsible for additional tuition charges. Online courses are not available from CSS for cross registration. Registration forms are available in the Registrar's Office, Old Main 139 and under the Forms at www.uwsuper.edu/registrar/forms. Conditions of cross-registration include the provisions that the course requested must have an available seat for the student and that the chair of the department in which the course is offered has given permission for the student to enroll in the course. Students must be enrolled at the home institution as full-time students and maintain those credits for at least the first four weeks of the term. Cross-registered courses are counted in the plateau (total credit load), provided all courses in the plateau are on campus courses. Additional fees will be charged for credits over 18 and for students electing on line courses as part of their course load at UW-Superior. Students wishing to use a cross-registered course to fulfill a degree requirement should get confirmation that the course is acceptable prior to enrollment. Repeating a course taken previously at UW-Superior through cross-registration will not remove the initial UW-Superior grade from the record. For courses in a major, the advisor and department chair must authorize the substitution. For University Studies courses, the advisor and department chair, where the course is offered, must authorize the substitution.
Student Preferred Name Policy

The University of Wisconsin-Superior recognizes that students may choose to identify themselves within the university community with a preferred first and/or middle name that differs from their legal name. The goal of the Student Preferred Name option at UW-Superior is to provide a consistent preferred name experience across University systems and use of one's preferred name wherever legal name is not absolutely necessary.

As long as the use of the preferred first and/or middle name is not for the purpose of misrepresentation, it will appear instead of the legal name in select university systems and documents except where the use of the legal name is required by university business or legal need.

Places Where Preferred Name Will Appear:

- Unofficial Transcript
- Student Center
- Class Roster
- Grade Roster
- Student Services Center (UW-Superior Staff)
- Online Advising Report
- Learning Management System (Learn @UW-Superior)
- Online Campus Directory

Places Where Preferred Name Will NOT Appear (Legal Name Required):

- Official UW-Superior Transcript
- UW-Superior Diploma
- Enrollment Verifications
- Student Financial Accounts
- Financial Aid
- Human Resources (Student Employment)
- Immigration and Visa-Related Documentation

Please note that a preferred name is used solely within UW-Superior internal systems. All external systems such as home-town newspapers, official transcripts, enrollment verifications, etc. will continue to use your legal first name.

Requesting a Preferred Name

Enrolled students can use the Preferred Name Request Form to indicate a preferred first and/or middle name. This form also can be used to alter or remove an existing preferred name. Newly admitted students should not submit the request form until they enroll in classes to ensure their account is connected to all applicable campus systems. It may take up to 1-3 business days for a preferred name to appear in all locations. Any questions about the processing of a preferred name request can be directed to the Registrar’s Office at 715-394-8228 or registrars@uwsuper.edu.

Student Gender Identity

The University of Wisconsin-Superior creates an inclusive environment for all individuals regardless of sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, race, national origin, ethnicity, ability, physical condition, developmental disability (Wis. Stat. A51.01(S)), military status, marital status, parental status, or any other category protected by law in the execution of its educational programs, activities, employment, daily operations, and admission practices.

The University of Wisconsin-Superior is committed to meeting the needs of the diverse populations listed above. In order to continuously improve programs and services which meet the needs of these populations, it is necessary for the university to collect specific information about the populations.

As part of the UW System Common Application for Admission, prospective students are asked to provide their "gender" and "gender identity." Currently enrolled UW-Superior students are also provided functionality to allow them to maintain gender identity data through their SIS self-service access to their personal record. Only the most recently declared gender data identified by the student is stored in the SIS. Historic records are not kept. Campus and UW System records retention policies dictate how long data is stored both locally and at UW System.

Individual gender identity data is not classified as "directory information" as defined by FERPA Guidelines and as such, can only be released to outside entities if the student has provided written permission for its release or if valid exceptions apply. The FERPA guidelines also define that data is only accessible to individuals who have an "institutional need to know."

For the purposes of individual gender identity data, read only access will be provided to campus staff who have been identified by the Registrar as having Institutional need. These requests will be processed with a security change request ticket submitted to the SIS security officer. (NOTE: Admissions does not have access to gender or gender identity information during the admissions decision process. Also, faculty and other staff do not have access to students’ gender or gender identity.) Aggregate gender identity data is available to the Institutional Research office for administrative, compliance, and analysis reporting. Gender identity data may only be disseminated in aggregate form to external entities with prior approval from the Chancellor or a Chancellor’s designee. See the University of Wisconsin-Superior Gender Identity Policy for more information.

How to Declare Gender Identity in E-Hive:

1. Login to E-Hive
2. Select Student Center
3. Choose Gender Identity from drop down list under Personal Information
4. Select preferred Gender Identity from drop down list
5. Click Save

Residency
Residency for tuition purposes is based upon standards set forth in Wisconsin Statutes 36.27(2), which govern resident status for tuition purposes. Students are urged to contact the Registrar's Office at UW-Superior for further explanation of the policy and process for applying for an exemption.

Wisconsin requires payment of nonresident tuition by students who are residents of states other than Wisconsin.

For undergraduate students, residency status is determined at the time of admission. Residency status of graduate students is determined during the admission process to the Graduate Studies program.

A student's original resident status remains in effect unless the student requests and is granted reclassification. Such requests must be submitted to the Registrar's Office before the tenth day of the semester in which reclassification is to take effect. To do this, submit the Residency Change Form.

Full and Partial waivers of the nonresident portion of tuition are available on a limited basis to those who qualify. The Non-Resident Tuition Waiver (NTW) Program offers financial assistance to non-Wisconsin and non-Minnesota students who enroll at UW-Superior. Non-resident students who are interested in attending UW-Superior and wish to be considered for the NTW Program are encouraged to complete and return the on-line form and apply for admission as early as possible prior to their intended term of enrollment. Note that awards through the NTW Program apply only to the non-resident portion of tuition and do not apply to the resident portion of tuition. The on-line form is located at www.uwsuper.edu/admissions/forms/ntw.cfm.

To qualify for exemption from paying nonresident tuition, students must be able to prove number 1 or 2 below.

1. Must have resided in Wisconsin for at least 12 months prior to the beginning of the term seeking to enroll in.
2. Must have moved to Wisconsin for purposes other than education.
   a. The state presumes that if a student attended UW-Superior during the 12 months they are initially in the state, they moved here for educational purposes and therefore Wisconsin residency should not be approved.
   b. If a student enrolls immediately upon arrival in Wisconsin, they can overcome the state's presumption if they can prove that attending UW-Superior is a secondary factor and they would have been present in Wisconsin regardless of their enrollment.

If a student is able to answer yes to number 1 and 2 above, then they must prove they are a bona fide Wisconsin resident; meaning they have established and plan to maintain a residence in Wisconsin. A student who enters and remains in Wisconsin mainly to obtain an education, is presumed to continue to reside outside Wisconsin and such presumption continues in effect until rebutted by clear and convincing evidence of a bona fide residence.

Intent to become a bona fide resident of Wisconsin may be demonstrated or proved by several factors, including but not limited to: filing Wisconsin income tax returns; eligibility to vote in Wisconsin; motor vehicle registration in Wisconsin; possession of a Wisconsin driver's license; place of employment; and self support (all items and documentation required are listed on the residency appeal form).

Students can qualify for an exemption from non-resident tuition if they meet one of the qualifications listed below:

1. Has established a bona fide residence in Wisconsin for at least 12 months preceding the first day of the term in which they are seeking a residency change.
2. Is a MINOR student and has a parent(s) or legal guardian who has established a bona fide Wisconsin residence for at least 12 months preceding the term in which they are seeking a residency change.
3. Is an ADULT student who is dependent on his/her parent(s) or legal guardian who has established a bona fide Wisconsin residence for at least 12 months preceding the term in which they are seeking a residency change.
4. Is an ADULT student who has substantially resided in Wisconsin for at least 12 months preceding the term in which they are seeking a residency change.
5. Is an ADULT student who has been employed in Wisconsin as a migrant worker for at least 2 months each year for 3 of the 5 years preceding the first day of the term in which they are seeking a residency change.
6. Are a refugee
7. Are a non-resident member of the armed forces stationed in Wisconsin (with 90 miles of the border of Wisconsin) on military orders.
8. a. Spouses of #7
    b. Children of #7
9. Has graduated from a Wisconsin high school and whose parent(s) have established a bona fide Wisconsin residence at least 12 months preceding the term in which they are seeking a residency change.
10. Is employed in Wisconsin full-time and was relocated by his/her employer.

The UW-Superior Residency Appeals Committee will review residency appeals and determine if they qualify as bona fide Wisconsin residents.

Transfer Policy

Credit is awarded for college-level course work completed at institutions accredited by a regional or national accrediting organization recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). Foreign institutions must be recognized by the Ministry of Education in that country. Courses must be similar in nature, level and content to a course in our undergrad curriculum and applicable to an academic program. Courses that are remedial (usually numbered below 100); technical, vocational, or doctrinal in nature are generally not transferable. Transfer analysis will be based only on the evaluation of an official transcript. Credit is awarded for college-level course work completed at institutions accredited by a regional or national accrediting organization recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). Foreign institutions must be recognized by the Ministry of Education in that country. Courses must be similar in nature, level and content to a course in our undergrad curriculum and applicable to an academic program. Courses that are remedial (usually numbered below 100); technical, vocational, or doctrinal in nature are generally not transferable. Transfer analysis will be based only on the evaluation of an official transcript. Courses that do not have direct course equivalents at UW-Superior will transfer as elective credits within the appropriate academic department.

International transfer students are required to submit original grade reports/transcripts for all post-secondary institutions and courses attended and original course syllabi (official explanation of course content) from the institution. Transfer students who have attended non-US institutions may be required to submit their transcripts to an external agency for credit evaluation. A list of acceptable agencies is available at www.cdgdc.edu.cn. The report must be mailed directly to UW-Superior by the CDGDC, rather than by the student or any third party.

Transfer courses with descriptions that closely match the descriptions of courses taught at UW-Superior will generally transfer as direct course equivalent credits. For example:

- An introductory macroeconomics course at the previous institution will transfer as V5 Econ 251 Principles of Macroeconomics.
- A course on the geology of Minnesota would transfer as geology elective credits because UW-Superior does not offer a course with this particular content. Students may need further evaluation by the campus department to determine applicability to a UW-Superior degree program and might be redirected for a University Studies course, major/minor or degree requirement.
- A course that carries more credit than the corresponding UW-Superior course is transferred to meet the credit hours of the UW-Superior course; the additional hours are counted as elective credit. Credits that do not apply toward specific requirements will be applied toward the minimum number of total credits required for graduation.

If a student is awarded transfer credit for a course and then repeats the course at UW-Superior, the transferred credits will be removed from the student's record.

The Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System | 602 of 607
Grades earned at previous institution(s) are not calculated into the UW-Superior cumulative grade point average; however, transfer grades are used when calculating degree grade point average used for graduation honors. Grades received for transfer work will not replace a grade for a course taken at UW-Superior.

Course substitutions in a particular University Studies, core or knowledge category may be appropriate when a transfer course is similar but not equal to a UW-Superior course. A course transferred as elective credit is eligible to be redirected for a University Studies, major, minor, or degree requirement. It is the responsibility of the student to provide the appropriate documentation such as a course description or syllabus from the previous institution to support her/his request. Course substitutions should be broadly interpreted according to the Principles of Accommodation. University Studies requirements will be accepted in the broad academic areas of non-Western and diversity, humanities, social sciences, natural and physical sciences, and fine and applied arts.

A course designated as fulfilling a University Studies, diversity, or non-western requirement at another UW institution will transfer as the same at UW-Superior, whether or not UW-Superior has a direct course equivalent. In general the Transfer Specialist will award the appropriate credit earned from the transfer institution. Courses completed by UW System transfer students will transfer in accordance with the course equivalency in effect when the course was taken.

Transfer credit received from an institution that uses quarter credits will be converted from quarter credits/units to semester credits. A quarter credit is equated to .666 or 2/3 of a semester credit. Thus a course for 4 quarter credits would be changed to 2.67 semester credits when transferred to UW-Superior. Those courses that converted from quarter credits will satisfy course requirements provided they fulfill 2/3 of the requirement. For example, if a course transfers in as 2.67 credits and the University Studies requirement is 3 semester credits, the transfer course will satisfy the requirement. Transfer courses from other types of systems that meet at least two thirds of the required credits of a course will meet the requirement. Transfer courses that do not meet 2/3 of the credit requirement must be approved through the Credits and Reinstatement Committee to satisfy the requirement. Any course used in this way will meet only the course requirement. Overall credit requirements for majors/minors must still be fulfilled.

Academic credits with a grade of D- or higher will transfer to UW-Superior. Certification or programmatic requirements may require a higher level of proficiency in core courses. Two semesters of college writing courses must be completed with a grade of C- or higher to be accepted for transfer. Some degree programs require at least a “C” or higher in order to fulfill a CORE or program requirement.

The maximum number of combined transferable semester credits from a two-year college is 72. There is no credit limit on transferable credits from a four-year university. Regardless of the number of credits transferred, students still must earn 30 resident credits from UW-Superior.

UW-Superior lower-division University Studies requirements are considered satisfied for those students who have earned an associate of arts (AA), associate of science (AS), associate of arts and sciences (AAS) degree from a University of Wisconsin System institution. Students who have earned an Associate of Arts (AA), Associate of Science (AS), or an Associate of Arts & Science (AAS) degree or the designated Minnesota Transfer Curriculum (MnTC), will have satisfied UW-Superior's University Studies requirements. UW-Superior has program-to-program articulation agreements for students who have graduated from many programs within the Wisconsin Technical College System, UW Colleges and the MnSCU system. A transfer student who has earned an Associate of Arts (A.A.) degree from a regionally accredited college or university may be determined to have satisfied the University of Wisconsin-Superior University Studies requirements, provided the A.A. degree program includes at least forty-two (42) semester credits of comparable University Studies requirements. In addition, the A.A. program must include a minimum of sixty (60) semester (or ninety [90] quarter credits) of completed course work defined as college level and designated to constitute the foundation of a baccalaureate degree. This policy does not change or nullify any existing Articulation or Transfer Agreement already formally recognized by UW-Superior. Remedial courses numbered less than 100 (1000 at some institutions) will not be recognized in transfer.

Courses that have grade, prerequisite or professional accrediting association requirements may not be satisfied by an Associate Degree. Refer to program requirements regarding specific requirements.

If a student has a previous baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university within the United States, the student will be awarded 120 hours of transfer credit and have all University Studies requirements met. If a student has an international baccalaureate degree the student will be awarded 120 credits and may have all University Studies requirements met pending an evaluation of breadth of coursework and language assessment.

Transfer students may select the pertinent catalog of entry at v which corresponds with the start of the academic year at their previous institution, or students can choose the current UW-Superior catalog at time of transfer. The catalog used cannot be more than seven years old.

Active-duty or veteran students must request their military transcript be sent to UW-Superior for evaluation for appropriate transfer credit. Depending on the branch of the military, credit may be accepted for basic training. In addition, military transcripts are evaluated for academic credit that is similar in nature to UW-Superior undergraduate curriculum and applicable to an academic program. Credit may be awarded for military experience and/or education. In awarding credit for such technical or specialized training, the recommendations of the American Council on Education are followed:

- Students whose length of service was one year or more are allowed up to six semester credits.
- A maximum of 32 semester credits may be allowed for military experience and education.

College courses taken prior to high school graduation will be accepted at UW-Superior as long as the credit is:

- Transferable
- Earned at an accredited college
- Listed on an official transcript received directly from the college.

Students who wish to discuss a transfer analysis or the manner in which a course transfers/transferred to UW-Superior may contact the Transfer Specialist, Registrar's Office.

Transcripts

A University of Wisconsin-Superior official transcript is a complete record of a student's enrollment at the university and is maintained by the Registrar's Office. An official transcript includes all undergraduate and graduate courses and includes the University seal and Registrar signature. Partial transcripts are not available.

This permanent record is considered confidential between the student and the university. No transcripts are released, except to authorized representatives within the university, without the written permission of the student. Third party requests will not be accepted. Official transcripts will be sent to the address indicated on the request.

Students can obtain an "unofficial" transcript through their E-Hive account if enrolled Fall Semester 2000 or later. For assistance with an E-Hive log-in and password, contact the Help Desk at 715-394-8300 or helpdesk@uwsuper.edu.

Not all institutions (colleges, employers, scholarship funds, etc.) will accept unofficial transcripts. It is up to you to verify with the receiving institution if official transcripts need to be sent directly from UW-Superior.

Electronic Transcript Request Procedure

Transcripts are ordered online 24/7 through the National Student Clearinghouse. You can place as many orders as you like in one session using any major credit card. Your card will only be charged after your order has been completed. Order updates will be emailed to you. You can also track your order online. credit card. Your card will only be charged after your order has been completed. Order updates will be emailed to you. You can also track your order online using your email address and order number.

Your signed consent may be required to fulfill your transcript order. For your convenience, a consent form will be generated for your order that you can return to the Clearinghouse via fax, mail or as a scanned email attachment.

Orders placed after 9:30 a.m. Central Time will be processed the following business day by the University Registrar's Office. To continue and place your order online, please visit the Clearinghouse Secure Site.

If you have further questions regarding the National Student Clearinghouse order process feel free to contact them at (703) 742-4200 or via email at transcripts@studentclearinghouse.org.

Paper Transcript Request Procedure

There are two methods that can be used via paper to request a transcript.

1. Transcripts can be ordered by completing the paper Transcript Request Form or by coming to the Registrar's Office in Old Main 139 and completing the Transcript Request Form.
   - Transcript fees:
     - $10 Standard Processing within three business days and may be sent electronically or mailed to the recipient;
     - $15 Rush Processing is sent the same day requested, or it may be picked up from the Registrar's Office, or sent electronically or mailed to the recipient.
     - $25 Express Processing within the U.S. and $50 for sending international. Orders are processed the same day requested and delivered FedEx.
   - Mail the Transcript Request form along with the proper fee to the Registrar's Office:
     - UW-Superior, Registrar's Office
     - Bellknap & Catlin
     - P.O. Box 2000
     - Superior, WI 54880-4500

2. Send us a letter requesting a copy of your transcript and include the following information.
   - Name (include any other last name(s) you may have used while in attendance)
   - Social Security Number or Student Identification Number
   - Graduation dates
   - Graduating college or university
   - Age at graduation
   - Address for transcript delivery
   - Return address
   - Make check or money order payable to UW-Superior

Note: Paper transcripts are sent in sealed envelopes to recipients. If the seal is broken, most institutions no longer consider the transcript as official.

Veteran Students

UW-Superior strives to make the transition from veteran to student as easy as possible. The university's Veteran and Nontraditional Student Center (VNOC), located in Old Main will assist veteran and active duty military students with requirements to be admitted and to receive veteran benefits. For information regarding the veteran's student organization, advocacy and other services, contact the Coordinator, Veterans and Nontraditional Student Center, 715-394-8406, in Old Main, Suite 118.

UW-Superior is an institutional member of the Service members Opportunity College (SOC), a group of more than 400 colleges and universities providing voluntary post-secondary education to members of the military throughout the world. As a SOC member, UW-Superior recognizes the unique nature of the military lifestyle and has committed itself to easing the transfer of relevant course credits, providing flexible academic degree requirements, and crediting learning from appropriate military training and experiences.

Information and applications for federal veteran's benefits may be obtained online at the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs site or through the Registrar's Office, Old Main, Room 139, 715-394-8250. Veterans leaving active duty, if not applying online, must provide UW-Superior a certified copy of their discharge papers (DD214). Reservists and National Guard veterans must provide UW-Superior with an official Joint Services Transcript (JST) before being admitted to the university. All enlisted officers and warrant officers, both active and veterans from all Army components, Coast Guard, Marine Corps and Navy must request an official military transcript from JST be sent to the University. Questions? E-mail jst@doded.mil. Air Force personnel should contact CCAF to received transcripts.

Veteran students may receive transfer credit for education and some certain specialized training programs completed while in military. To determine the course equivalency for education and training, the recommendations of the American Council on Education are followed. The American Council for Education (ACE) evaluates military training and education, and translates courses and occupations held by service members into college credit recommendations. Descriptions of the courses and occupations evaluated by ACE, along with recommended numbers of credits, are published in the Guide to the Evaluation of Educational Experiences in the Armed Services (also known as the Guide), distributed every two years to military education offices, colleges, and universities. The actual type and amount of credit awarded depends on the policies of the college or university and your academic goals. Students whose length of service was of one year or more are allowed up to six semester credits to transfer to UW-Superior. A maximum of 32 semester credits may be transferred for military experience and education.

Joint Services Transcript (J ST) is an academically accepted document approved by the American Council on Education (ACE) to validate a service member's military occupational experience and training along with the corresponding ACE college credit recommendations.

Military Student Policy

The Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System | 604 of 607
The policy below is to assist Veteran students who must begin classes late, leave/return to classes in mid-term or leave classes early as a result to military deployment or training.

Late Start

Veteran students, or children, or spouse of a veteran student, (already enrolled) who notify the Registrar that s/he must begin attending classes after the first day of a term, due to a military assignment, will be allowed to do so up through the 15th class day of the semester.

Late fees will not be charged to the veteran student, his/her children or spouse who make this request.

The veteran student, his/her children or spouse must provide a copy of the veteran's military orders to the Registrar and state in writing when the veteran will be released and able to attend classes.

The Registrar will send email notices to the following, notifying them of the first day the veteran student, or child or spouse, plans on attending classes for the respective term:
- Dean of Students
- Bursar/Cashier's Office
- Financial Aid Office
- Residence Life Office
- Faculty for all classes in which the veteran student, child or spouse, is currently enrolled

The Registrar will place an Advising hold (negative service indicator) on the veteran student, child or spouse's record to ensure s/he meets with the Veteran's Official in the Registrar's Office upon return to UW-Superior.

The veteran student, child or spouse returning from military duty shall report to the Veteran Benefits Associate in the Registrar's Office upon her/his return to discuss starting classes late and the problems associated with late enrollment. The Veteran's Official shall release the hold (upon meeting with the student).

The Bursar shall withhold any funds to the veteran student, child or spouse, until the Veteran Official has released the Advising hold.

Faculty will make every attempt to accommodate students for whom this policy applies.

Students are responsible for completing all course requirements (including any portion they may have missed).

Leave During and Return Prior to End of Term

A veteran student who receives verified military orders (copy of military orders is required) requiring him/her to stop-out for a short duration within a term may request to continue enrollment and participate in the course if:
- The student is currently passing the course
- The student has a cumulative GPA of at least 2.5
- The student will miss less than 25% of the total class days for the entire class. The student must consult with the instructor of the course to ensure all required work is completed prior to the end of the term.

Leave Before End of Term

A veteran student, child or spouse, initiating a Total Withdrawal due to verified military activation (copy of military orders) shall be given a choice to either withdraw from all classes or receive Incomplete grades.

Withdraw from all classes and be given a full tuition refund of monies paid by the student. Students, who receive the WI GI Bill® Waiver, will not receive a refund because their tuition is waived. Students who qualify for Chapter 33 benefits will not receive a refund because their tuition and fees is paid by the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Students seeking a total withdrawal will receive W grades on their transcript, regardless of the date of withdrawal. If the military activation date is within three weeks from the end of a term, veteran students, child or spouse are allowed to request Incomplete grades. Students should seek written procedures, from each faculty member assigning an Incomplete grade, for completing any coursework in which he/she is doing satisfactory work. Incomplete grades lapse to Failing grades after one term. If a veteran student should need longer than one semester, following the semester in which the Incomplete was given, to complete the work; s/he should consult with the faculty member who assigned the Incomplete grade. If the student and the faculty member agree to extend the Incomplete deadline for another semester, the faculty member shall notify the Registrar of the extension.

In the event of immediate deployment, the Dean of Students will be empowered to act on behalf of the veteran student, child or spouse for purposes of completing withdraw procedures.

Students are responsible for completing all course requirements (including any portion they may have missed).

Mission Statement

Writing is an important part of many UW-Superior classes, with students regularly called upon to write essays, research papers, reports, and various other genres. UW-Superior offers a Writing Center to support students as they seek to become better writers. The Writing Center's mission is to engage students in conversations about ideas at any stage of their writing processes to help them become more thoughtful and engaged learners and writers.

Philosophy and Approach

The Writing Center is a place where student writers can feel comfortable trying out ideas, where their writing is not judged, and where a process of inquiry is encouraged. In a relaxed and informal atmosphere, peer consultants offer support to less experienced writers. The Writing Center sees writing as a form of problem solving in which consultants can offer strategies and suggestions that will enable students to better accomplish their work as writers. Ownership of the writing remains always with the writer.

Services

The Center welcomes student writers from all courses and disciplines, undergraduate and graduate students alike, to meet with its trained peer writing consultants to discuss ideas and to find support as they plan, develop, and revise their writing. The meetings can take place in person or online. In these free consultations, which last from 30 minutes to an hour each, consultants work with student writers on many different parts of the process of producing an effective piece of writing: searching for a topic, getting a draft started, looking for a method of organization, establishing a thesis (main point), developing clear examples to support one's points, using and documenting sources properly, revising an early draft, reconsidering the direction of a piece of writing, eliminating errors, and more.
