Discover the splendid Baroque style home of Blenheim Palace during Christmastime. This was the birthplace of one of Britain's greatest leaders, Sir Winston Churchill, and is truly magnificent. During the holiday season it shines bright with the spirit of Christmas. The ambiance is festive and the décor glitters with gold. The elegant halls are adorned with Christmas trees and ornate decorations while the glow of the lit fireplaces illuminate the rooms. Behold the family dining hall, with the table dressed with the holiday silver, crystal and china and adorned with seasonal flowers and ribbons. The courtyard and grounds are turned into an English countryside winter wonderland. As you meander through the palace and courtyards, you will be awed by the grandeur and touched by the spirit of the season.
